10.14 A. M.—Roll-call for the naming of National Committees.

10.17 A. M.—Col. Fred Grant is greeted with applause.

10.19 A. M.—When New York was called to name a National Committeeman she replied that she was not ready to report. The fight over the name of New York is postponed until after the nominations are made.

10.24 A. M.—Very few New York delegates are yet in the hall.

10.24 A. M.—Warner Miller, who wants to be a member of the National Committee, is ready to report on his name.

10.32 A. M.—Warren, of Missouri, announces that the Committee on Resolutions will be ready to report on his name.

10.38 A. M.—Johnny O'Brien, of the Eighth Assembly District, New York, has just arrived.

10.40 A. M.—Band playing "America." Some applause.

10.42 A. M.—Cries for "Ingersoll."

10.42 A. M.—McKinley, of Ohio, Chairman of the Resolution Committee, steps on the platform amid great cheering and begins reading the platform.

10.43 A. M.—The resolutions begin with memorials to Lincoln, Logan, Garfield, Leach, Arthur and Conkling. Logan and Conkling's names loudly cheered.

10.48 A. M.—The delegates rise to their feet and cheer to the echo the protection sentiment.

10.49 A. M.—The platform says: "The Democrats support the interests of Europe, while we support the interests of America."

10.50 A. M.—The Mills bill is denounced and the platform declares against removing the tariff on wool.

10.51 A. M.—Favors the entire repeal of the revenue taxes, if necessary, to reduce surplus.

10.54 A. M.—McKinley reads the platform in excellent voice.

10.55 A. M.—Platform denies that the Democrats have restored one acre of land to the public domain.

10.56 A. M.—The platform says the Mugwumps have retarded Civil-Service reform by joining the Democrats. The Civil-Service plank is practically the same as in 1884.

10.56 A. M.—It favors the reduction of postal rates to one cent per ounce.

10.56 A. M.—South Dakota should immediately be admitted to Statehood.

10.59 A. M.—A denunciation of polygamy.

12.28 P. M.—Gov. Porter, of Indiana, presents the name of Harrison.

12.31 P. M.—Porter says: "If we have an Indiana candidate," Cries of "Gresham and confusion."

12.43 P. M.—Porter is still speaking for Harrison.

12.48 P. M.—Porter has finished. Cheers.

12.51 P. M.—Bragan, of Tennessee, moves to take a recess until 3 o'clock. Carried.

IT FACED A FLOOD OF ORATORY.

The Convention Listens to Eulogies of All the Favorite Sons.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

CHICAGO, June 21.—When Chairman Estee's gavel struck the desk at 10 o'clock only one-third of the delegates were in their seats and there was a sparse sprinkling of spectators in the galleries.

The fact that the time of assembling was 10 o'clock was not generally understood, and most of the delegates were caught napping.

They came straggling in while Rev. Thomas E. Green, of Chicago, was delivering his political prayer, and while the dreary business of reading the National Committee list was going on.

At 10.05 A. M.—Convention called to order. Rev. Thomas E. Green, of the St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal Church of Chicago, is delivering the invocation.

10.14 A. M.—Roll-call for the naming of National Committees.

10.17 A. M.—Col. Fred Grant is greeted with applause.

11.35 A. M.—Swett is not holding the Convention.

11.37 A. M.—Swett says: "With Gresham the cry will be: 'Live and let live.' Gresham with waving of handkerchiefs and fans, but still inferior to one of our own.

The sea of fans tossed tumultuously again when the platform was adopted by a rising vote, delegates getting upon their chairs and yelling their approval.

PRESENTING THE FAVORITE SONS.

Business in the fact of this convention as was shown by the great storm of applause that broke out over the announcement that the next business was the nomination of a candidate for President of the United States. The long-looked-for struggle was about to begin.

There was a buzz and then a deep, significant hush fell upon the convention as the calling of the roll of States began. The great audience was silent until California was reached and then applause broke out as Chairman Haymond arose.
