

RACING EXTRA BRIGHTON RACES.

Falsehood, Pampero, Bass Viol and Theora the Winners.

Track Good But Dusty, and Weather Very Warm.

Bookmakers to Have a New Building Next Monday.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

BRIGHTON BEACH RACE TRACK, JUNE 25.—A very large attendance watched the running of the six races this afternoon. The track was good, though rather dusty, but the weather was very warm.

First Race. Purses $50, for all ages; selling allowances; three-quarters of a mile. Falsehood, 100; Pampero, 100; Bass Viol, 100; Theora, 100.

The Race.—After some delay at the post, the flag fell to a start. Falsehood led, with Commander, 100, in the home stretch, where Falsehood got to the front. Falsehood was first home by three lengths, with Alvada second, one length, and Time-1-17 1/2.

Second Race. Purses $50, for all ages; selling allowances; three-quarters of a mile. Falsehood, 100; Alvada, 100; Time-1-17 1/2, 100; Bass Viol, 100.

The Race.—Alvada, Roundman and Cato were first away at the signal after another long delay at the post. Roundman took up the running, and a half length before Cato, Alvada came up and led in the stretch. Alvada was first home by three lengths, with Pampero second, one length, and Time-1-17 1/2.

Third Race. Purses $50, for all ages; selling allowances; three-quarters of a mile. Falsehood, 100; Alvada, 100; Time-1-17 1/2, 100; Bass Viol, 100.

The Race.—Lemon, Editor and Tony Pastor were first away. Bass Viol soon ran into the lead and held it some distance. Tony Pastor came up and led in the stretch. Bass Viol was first home by three lengths, with Editor second, one length, and Time-1-17 1/2.

Fourth Race. Purses $50, for all ages; selling allowances; seven furlongs. Theora, 100; Falsehood, 100; Bass Viol, 100; Alvada, 100.

The Race.—Lemon, Editor and Tony Pastor were first away. Bass Viol soon ran into the lead and held it some distance. Tony Pastor came up and led in the stretch. Bass Viol was first home by three lengths, with Editor second, one length, and Time-1-17 1/2.

Flashers from the Seat of War. Fifty Bulletins Which Tell What the Convention Has Done To-Day.

CONVENTION HALL, CHICAGO, JUNE 25.—It seems fully understood that Morton will be the candidate for Vice-President.

Blaine's Last Opportunity. [From Editor's Drawer, Harper's Magazine.] At a dinner held in New York not long ago the guests fell to discussing the authorship of Shakespeare's plays.

Payson Wins a Scuffling Championship. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] VICTORIA, B. C., June 23.—Henry Payson, of California, and William Payne, of this place, rowed a single-screw scull here for $1,000 and the championship of the Pacific slope.

Hot Weather. It would seem that the heated term increased cigarette smoking to an enormous extent. A downtown dealer asserts that he retails on an average eight thousand Turkish Cigars—Coca every day.

The Jersey City police, at the request of a delegation of clerical men, stop a Sunday ball game which 6,000 people paid to see.

HARRISON

Nominated on the 8th Ballot at Chicago.

Little Enthusiasm Over Tippecanoe's Descendant.

The Plumed Knight Was Taken at His Word.

The Nomination of Harrison Made Unanimous.

Morton, of New York, the Likeliest Man for Second Place.

The Convention Takes a Recess Until 6 P. M.

THE EIGHTH BALLOT.

Harrison, of Indiana, 544; Sherman, of Ohio, 118; Alger, of Michigan, 100; Greham, of Indiana, 59; Blaine, of Maine, 5; McKinley, of Ohio, 4.

Total number of votes, 832. Necessary to a choice, 417.

Record of the Balloting. Table with columns for Name, Total, and various ballot counts.

Morton to Have the Second Place. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] CONVENTION HALL, CHICAGO, JUNE 25.—It seems fully understood that Morton will be the candidate for Vice-President.

FLASHES FROM THE SEAT OF WAR. Fifty Bulletins Which Tell What the Convention Has Done To-Day.

CONVENTION HALL, CHICAGO, JUNE 25.—About one hundred delegates are in their seats. The convention will be called to order shortly after 11 o'clock.

11.02 A. M.—The convention will be called to order nearly on time. The delegates are nearly all here and the excitement is at fever heat.

11.04 A. M.—Dewey and Platt have arrived. 11.08 A. M.—Prayer finished. THE SEVENTH BALLOT.

11.10 A. M.—The Secretary is reading letters from the railroad people extending the time of tickets till one day after the adjournment of the convention.

11.13 A. M.—Haymond, of California, makes a point of order and is sustained. 11.14 A. M.—Boutelle, of Maine, rises to a question of privilege and is recognized.

11.15 A. M.—Boutelle, of Maine, says nobody has any doubt where the affection of the Maine delegates lies. He reads cablegrams from Mr. Blaine: "EDMUNDS, June 24.—Boutelle and Manley: Earnestly request all friends to respect Paris letter (Signed) BLAINE."

11.16 A. M.—The Secretary is reading letters from the railroad people extending the time of tickets till one day after the adjournment of the convention.

11.18 A. M.—Haymond, of California, makes a point of order and is sustained. 11.19 A. M.—Boutelle, of Maine, rises to a question of privilege and is recognized.

11.20 A. M.—The Secretary is reading letters from the railroad people extending the time of tickets till one day after the adjournment of the convention.

11.22 A. M.—Haymond, of California, makes a point of order and is sustained. 11.23 A. M.—Boutelle, of Maine, rises to a question of privilege and is recognized.

11.24 A. M.—The Secretary is reading letters from the railroad people extending the time of tickets till one day after the adjournment of the convention.

11.26 A. M.—Haymond, of California, makes a point of order and is sustained. 11.27 A. M.—Boutelle, of Maine, rises to a question of privilege and is recognized.

11.29 A. M.—The Secretary is reading letters from the railroad people extending the time of tickets till one day after the adjournment of the convention.

11.31 A. M.—Haymond, of California, makes a point of order and is sustained. 11.32 A. M.—Boutelle, of Maine, rises to a question of privilege and is recognized.

11.34 A. M.—The Secretary is reading letters from the railroad people extending the time of tickets till one day after the adjournment of the convention.

11.36 A. M.—Haymond, of California, makes a point of order and is sustained. 11.37 A. M.—Boutelle, of Maine, rises to a question of privilege and is recognized.

11.39 A. M.—The Secretary is reading letters from the railroad people extending the time of tickets till one day after the adjournment of the convention.

11.41 A. M.—Haymond, of California, makes a point of order and is sustained. 11.42 A. M.—Boutelle, of Maine, rises to a question of privilege and is recognized.

11.44 A. M.—The Secretary is reading letters from the railroad people extending the time of tickets till one day after the adjournment of the convention.

11.46 A. M.—Haymond, of California, makes a point of order and is sustained. 11.47 A. M.—Boutelle, of Maine, rises to a question of privilege and is recognized.

11.49 A. M.—The Secretary is reading letters from the railroad people extending the time of tickets till one day after the adjournment of the convention.

11.51 A. M.—Haymond, of California, makes a point of order and is sustained. 11.52 A. M.—Boutelle, of Maine, rises to a question of privilege and is recognized.

11.54 A. M.—The Secretary is reading letters from the railroad people extending the time of tickets till one day after the adjournment of the convention.

11.56 A. M.—Haymond, of California, makes a point of order and is sustained. 11.57 A. M.—Boutelle, of Maine, rises to a question of privilege and is recognized.

11.59 A. M.—The Secretary is reading letters from the railroad people extending the time of tickets till one day after the adjournment of the convention.

12.01 P. M.—Haymond, of California, makes a point of order and is sustained. 12.02 P. M.—Boutelle, of Maine, rises to a question of privilege and is recognized.

12.04 P. M.—The Secretary is reading letters from the railroad people extending the time of tickets till one day after the adjournment of the convention.

12.06 P. M.—Haymond, of California, makes a point of order and is sustained. 12.07 P. M.—Boutelle, of Maine, rises to a question of privilege and is recognized.

Creed Haymond, 1; Harrison gains 2 from Greham. Alger loses a vote to Haymond.

12.07 P. M.—It looks like a nomination on the next ballot. An attempt will probably be made to select Harrison.

HARRISON CERTAIN. 12.09 P. M.—The leaders are all in consultation. The crisis seems near at hand.

12.10 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.11 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.12 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.13 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.14 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.15 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.16 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.17 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.18 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.19 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.20 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.21 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.22 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.23 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.24 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.25 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.26 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.27 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.28 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.29 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.30 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.31 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.32 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.33 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.34 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.35 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.36 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.37 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.38 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.39 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.40 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.41 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.42 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.43 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.44 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.45 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.46 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.47 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.48 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.49 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.50 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.51 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.52 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.53 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.54 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.55 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.56 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.57 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.58 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.59 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.00 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.01 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.02 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.03 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.04 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.05 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.06 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.07 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.08 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.09 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.10 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.11 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.12 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.13 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.14 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.15 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.16 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.17 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.18 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.19 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.20 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.21 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.22 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.23 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.24 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.25 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.26 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.27 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

12.28 P. M.—Everybody now says Harrison will be nominated. 12.29 P. M.—The Pennsylvania delegation is leaving the hall.

12.30 P. M.—Henderson, of Iowa, withdraws Allison. 12.31 P. M.—Great confusion and cries of "Harrison!"

OUR LIGHTNING BULLETINS. They Told the Story of Harrison's Nomination 'Way Ahead of All Others.

The news of the nomination of Harrison was given to the great crowd gathered in front of THE EVENING WORLD'S bulletin board eight minutes ahead of any other newspaper, and only a few seconds after the nomination was made.

1.23 P. M.—Senator Farwell, of Illinois, rises amid great confusion. 1.24 P. M.—Farwell seconds the motion to make the nomination unanimous.

1.25 P. M.—Horr, of Michigan, seconds the motion. 1.26 P. M.—Senator Farwell, of Illinois, rises amid great confusion.

1.27 P. M.—Farwell seconds the motion to make the nomination unanimous. Mr. Dewey, of New York is on the platform. Loud cheering.

DEWEY'S WITTY SPEECH. 1.27 P. M.—Mr. Dewey is making the speech of the convention. It bristles with wit.

1.28 P. M.—Dewey has finished. Tremendous cheering. 1.29 P. M.—Gen. Hastings of Pennsylvania, seconds the motion to make Harrison's nomination unanimous.

Hastings says Harrison will have 100,000 majority in Pennsylvania. 1.30 P. M.—Gov. Henderson, of Iowa, says he is ill; will withdraw.

"The Republicans have nominated a man against whom the Democrats cannot say one word," he says. 1.31 P. M.—Congressman Boutelle, of Maine, is speaking.

1.32 P. M.—Cheers for Boutelle when he refers to "Tippecanoe." 1.33 P. M.—Haymond, of California, is speaking.

1.34 P. M.—Mention of Blaine's name creates great enthusiasm. 1.35 P. M.—Davis, of Minnesota, is talking.

1.36 P. M.—Secretary reads a despatch from Alger saying: "Harrison is all right." 1.37 P. M.—Was makes a speech in reply to that of McKimley, of Kentucky, seconding the nomination of President Cleveland at St. Louis.

It makes a big hit. Cries for "Mahone." 1.38 P. M.—Senator Mahone, of Virginia takes the platform.

1.39 P. M.—Ex-Gov. Proctor, of Vermont, is speaking. 1.40 P. M.—Proctor, of Vermont, says the campaign in his State will begin in September, and he promises 20,000 majority.

2.01 P. M.—Lynch, of Mississippi, is speaking. 2.02 P. M.—Thurston, of Nebraska, is speaking.

2.03 P. M.—Harris, of North Carolina, is speaking. 2.04 P. M.—Williams, of Arkansas, is speaking.

2.05 P. M.—Arkansas come here to bury Cusker, referring to Cleveland. THE NOMINATION MADE UNANIMOUS.

2.16 P. M.—Harrison's nomination made unanimous. 2.17 P. M.—A motion to take a recess not entertained by the Chair. Great confusion.

2.18 P. M.—Calling roll for Vice-Presidential nominations. Great confusion. NOMINATIONS FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

2.26 P. M.—Mr. Daley, of Kentucky, presents the name of Mr. Bradley, of Kentucky, for Vice-President. 2.27 P. M.—Cries of "Time" on Daley.

2.28 P. M.—Griffith, of Kansas, seconds Bradley's nomination. 2.29 P. M.—Warner, of Alabama, seconds Bradley's nomination.

2.30 P. M.—A salute is being fired on the lake front. 2.31 P. M.—Locke, of Georgia, seconds the nomination of Bradley.

BASEBALL EXTRA THE GIANTS DOWNED.

Excellent Conditions for To-Day's Game at Philadelphia.

The Confidence Manager Murrie Allowed Himself to Feel.

Philadelphia - - - 11 New York - - - - 4

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) BALL GROUND, PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 25.—To-day was one replete with the weather so often described as perfect for ball playing.

The shower of Saturday had been absorbed by the sun of Sunday, and the grounds were in perfect condition. But both these perfections, combined with the promise of a great game, failed to persuade Philadelphia fans that 50 cents is a moderate and just price to pay to see a ball game, so the crowd stayed at home and the game ended in the presence of a mighty small attendance.

The Giants presented their strongest batting team to-day, and Manager Murrie was confident the boys would follow Saturday's game with another victory—that is, as confident as he permits himself to be about the result of any game.

The New York side of the score card did look formidable, certainly, and the magnificent work of Welch in the Boston game gave a promise of but few hits for the Quaker City boys.

Philadelphia presented a new man at third base in the person of Wagenhurst, who has acquired something of a reputation as a ball-player at Princeton College, where he has played for the past three years.

About 2,000 people were present when Umpire Kelly called the game. The batting order was: PHILADELPHIA. Wood, c. f.; Sanders, l. f.; Fogarty, r. f.; Farrar, c.; Delehanty, 3d b.; Wagenhurst, 2d b.; Lewis, 1st b.; Gleason, p. NEW YORK. Richardson, 3d b.; Connor, 1st b.; Ewing, c. f.; Ward, s. s.; Statters, l. f.; Whitney, 2d b.; Welch, p.

First Inning—Welch started the game by giving Wood of the Phillies, his base on balls. Sanders advanced the runner to second by driving the ball directly over second base. Mr. Kelly called five balls, Fogarty took first and the bases were full.

Farrar, after knocking several fouls, hit a liner over Ward's head, and Wood and Sanders scored. Fogarty took third and Farrar reached second on the throw in. Delehanty struck out. Wagenhurst was applauded when he stepped to the plate. He flied out to O'Rourke. Irwin could only hit the softballs. Two runs.

For New York Terman hit one too hot for Gleason to handle, and a base hit was the result. Richardson sent the first ball pitched to right field for a single. Fogarty got the ball, but tared wildly to third.

Terman scored and Richardson took third. Connor succeeded to three out-rops and sat down. O'Rourke banded a liner to Delehanty, which the latter caught first on Gleason's error and Whitney took second. Terman fouled out to Clements. Richardson flied out to Irwin, who tried to make a double. Clements then retired Connor by a good catch of a foul fly.

Fourth Inning—Wagenhurst hit a hard one, which Whitney missed, but Irwin flied to Statters. Wagenhurst tried for second, but was put out. Ewing to Richardson. Darryl then scored. Gleason's grounder and the runner, on the decision, was given first.

Five balls advanced him to second and gave Clements first, and a passed ball advanced the runner one base. Welch again flied the bases by sending Wood to first on balls. Sanders' cracking single to center in front of catcher, but he only got one base, as Fogarty judged the bouncer back and threw in in good style. Ward was caught stealing second.

Third Inning—Fogarty went out on a fly to Whitney. Farrar fouled to Ewing. Delehanty hit a grounder. Statters struck out. Whitney hit a fly to right, which might have been caught had not Fogarty and Delehanty each run for it. Farrar reached first on Gleason's error and Whitney took second. Terman fouled out to Clements. Richardson flied out to Irwin, who tried to make a double. Clements then retired Connor by a good catch of a foul fly.

Fourth Inning—Wagenhurst hit a hard one, which Whitney missed, but Irwin flied to Statters. Wagenhurst tried for second, but was put out. Ewing to Richardson. Darryl then scored. Gleason's grounder and the runner, on the decision, was given first.

Five balls advanced him to second and gave Clements first, and a passed ball advanced the runner one base. Welch again flied the bases by sending Wood to first on balls. Sanders' cracking single to center in front of catcher, but he only got one base, as Fogarty judged the bouncer back and threw in in good style. Ward was caught stealing second.

Third Inning—Fogarty went out on a fly to Whitney. Farrar fouled to Ewing. Delehanty hit a grounder. Statters struck out. Whitney hit a fly to right, which might have been caught had not Fogarty and Delehanty each run for it. Farrar reached first on Gleason's error and Whitney took second. Terman fouled out to Clements. Richardson flied out to Irwin, who tried to make a double. Clements then retired Connor by a good catch of a foul fly.

Fourth Inning—Wagenhurst hit a hard one, which Whitney missed, but Irwin flied to Statters. Wagenhurst tried for second, but was put out. Ewing to Richardson. Darryl then scored. Gleason's grounder and the runner, on the decision, was given first.

Five balls advanced him to second and gave Clements first, and a passed ball advanced the runner one base. Welch again flied the bases by sending Wood to first on balls. Sanders' cracking single to center in front of catcher, but he only got one base, as Fogarty judged the bouncer back and threw in in good style. Ward was caught stealing second.

Third Inning—Fogarty went out on a fly to Whitney. Farrar fouled to Ewing. Delehanty hit a grounder. Statters struck out. Whitney hit a fly to right, which might have been caught had not Fogarty and Delehanty each run for it. Farrar reached first on Gleason's error and Whitney took second. Terman fouled out to Clements. Richardson flied out to Irwin, who tried to make a double. Clements then retired Connor by a good catch of a foul fly.

EVERYBODY KEEPS TALLY.

12.38 P. M.—Pennsylvania men return. 12.40 P. M.—The eighth ballot has begun. The changes are:

THE EIGHTH BALLOT. Alabama—Alger, 9; Sherman, 6; Blaine, 3; Harrison, 2. Harrison gains 2, Alger 3 and Blaine 1. Sherman loses 6.

Colorado—Harrison, 7. A break from Allison to Harrison. Connecticut—Harrison, 12. He gains 11. Delaware—Harrison, 6. He gains 1 from Greham.

Georgia—Greham, 1; Alger, 3; Sherman, 9; Harrison, 10. Harrison gains 7, Sherman loses 8. Florida—Harrison, 2; Alger, 4; Sherman, 2. Sherman and Alger gain 1 each from Harrison.

Illinois—Harrison, 4; Greham, 4. A gain of 1 for Harrison. Iowa—Alger, 1; Harrison, 2; Greham, 3. (Cheers.) The delegation splits up now that Allison is out.

Kansas—Alger, 1; Harrison, 16; McKinley, 1. Harrison gains 4, from Allison and 1 from Alger. Kentucky—Blaine, 8; Harrison, 14; Alger, 1; Greham, 2; Sherman, 1. Harrison gains 4. Alger and Sherman lose 6.

Louisiana—Harrison, 9; Sherman, 5; Alger, 4; Harrison gains 9 and Alger 1. Sherman loses 6, Greham 5 and Allison 2. Maine—Harrison, 5; McKinley, 3; Greham, 1; Sherman, 3. Harrison gains three and Sherman two. Greham, Alger and Allison lose them.

Maryland—Sherman, 4; Harrison, 17; Blaine, 1. Harrison gains 2 from Sherman. MASSACHUSETTS—HARRISON STAMPEDE. 11; Sherman, 2; Harrison, 25. Harrison gains 16. Sherman loses 15.

Minnesota—Alger, 1; Sherman, 15. Harrison gains 5, Greham loses 4 and Alger 1. Mississippi—Harrison, 4; Greham, 3; Sherman, 11. Harrison gains 4, Sherman loses 2 and Blaine 1.