

3 O'CLOCK THREE WAITING MURDERERS.

DANNY LYONS, CHARLES GIBLIN AND WEAK CHIARA CIGNARALE.

How They Speak of Their Approaching Fate—The Hope that Springs Eternal Dwells Yet with Lyons—Chiara Too Sick to Hope—Giblin Believes He Can Yet Change the Case Against Him.

The life of the reporter is full of varied experiences, but it is not often his lot to visit in one round three murderers condemned to sacrifice their own lives in obedience to the Scriptural law of "a life for a life."

Danny Lyons, Charles Giblin and Chiara Cignarale await in their Tombs the ignominious fate which it has been decreed shall befall them all upon Aug. 17, and, strangely enough, the most vindictive of the three murderers is the weak woman, Chiara Cignarale.

A note to Danny Lyons brought back an invitation to the reporter to come in. He found Lyons in cell 15 in the men's prison.

Lyons is 5 feet 2 inches in height and stocky. He was two inches higher than the step stone jamb to the door, and stooping forward, he leaned his elbows on the little shelf across the inside of the grated door and looked freely with the newspaper man.

Beyond him was his lighted cell, on the walls of which were some cheap colored prints.

"Well, you see," he said, "I had all the papers down on me. I wouldn't see the reporters. But now a man's life is in a dog's paw from him, I suppose you won't be hard on me."

"Do I have any hope? Of course you know they don't like to change a verdict after it's made, but I think I can show you enough evidence to get a new trial. Recorder Smyth will hear the argument of Mr. Sullivan for me on Tuesday next. He can't help giving me another chance."

"Now look here, I've got forty witnesses to testify. There was so much information on my last trial that I had no show."

Lyons stepped back into the cell and straightened up at that. He wanted more room for gestures. The movement was quite startling. He was before the jury again, and he spread his hands out.

"I'm not very much interested, and Joe Quinn had lots of friends, but he wasn't any better man than me. His friends pushed me, if he was dead."

"The doctor made him here, I've got forty witnesses to testify. There was so much information on my last trial that I had no show."

Lyons stepped back into the cell and straightened up at that. He wanted more room for gestures. The movement was quite startling. He was before the jury again, and he spread his hands out.

"I'm not very much interested, and Joe Quinn had lots of friends, but he wasn't any better man than me. His friends pushed me, if he was dead."

"The doctor made him here, I've got forty witnesses to testify. There was so much information on my last trial that I had no show."

Lyons stepped back into the cell and straightened up at that. He wanted more room for gestures. The movement was quite startling. He was before the jury again, and he spread his hands out.

"I'm not very much interested, and Joe Quinn had lots of friends, but he wasn't any better man than me. His friends pushed me, if he was dead."

"The doctor made him here, I've got forty witnesses to testify. There was so much information on my last trial that I had no show."

Lyons stepped back into the cell and straightened up at that. He wanted more room for gestures. The movement was quite startling. He was before the jury again, and he spread his hands out.

"I'm not very much interested, and Joe Quinn had lots of friends, but he wasn't any better man than me. His friends pushed me, if he was dead."

"The doctor made him here, I've got forty witnesses to testify. There was so much information on my last trial that I had no show."

Lyons stepped back into the cell and straightened up at that. He wanted more room for gestures. The movement was quite startling. He was before the jury again, and he spread his hands out.

"I'm not very much interested, and Joe Quinn had lots of friends, but he wasn't any better man than me. His friends pushed me, if he was dead."

"The doctor made him here, I've got forty witnesses to testify. There was so much information on my last trial that I had no show."

Lyons stepped back into the cell and straightened up at that. He wanted more room for gestures. The movement was quite startling. He was before the jury again, and he spread his hands out.

"I'm not very much interested, and Joe Quinn had lots of friends, but he wasn't any better man than me. His friends pushed me, if he was dead."

"The doctor made him here, I've got forty witnesses to testify. There was so much information on my last trial that I had no show."

SHOT BY HER FATHER.

Young Arthur Craven's Unfortunate Evening with Pretty Ada Joutette.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 27.—A shooting affray occurred in Wauwauk last night which will result in the death of a young man named Arthur Craven.

Craven was during the evening in company with Ada Joutette, daughter of James Joutette, and had taken a walk in company with a friend named French and a girl who came with Ada.

They had been in company for about two hours, when they returned towards the Joutette's home.

When Craven and Ada reached the house they loitered on the outside, and a conversation that was indulged in was overheard by the father of the girl.

Finally the couple walked away from the house once more, and in a few seconds a scream for help was heard from Ada. Her father, recognizing her voice, rushed from the house, and as he got out of doors his daughter ran frantically towards him.

He thrust her into the house and then went to a bedroom to get a revolver which he kept there.

Then seeing the young man whom he supposed to have been in company with Ada he fired at him, the ball taking effect in the breast, entering below the collar-bone and passing through the chest.

The wounded man fell to the ground bleeding freely. His friends were summoned from Cottage row and he was taken to his home there.

At 7.15 this morning the doctors said Craven could not live.

It is stated that Joutette had been greatly worked up by the undesirable acquaintances made by his daughter, and that he had previously said she should not be bothered by them if he could help it.

Ada is a pretty girl, nineteen years of age, and was greatly liked by the people of the neighborhood. Joutette was arrested and held to await the outcome of Craven's injuries.

TESTIMONY AGAINST ANDERSON.

His Trial as a Defaulter of $30,000 Began in Jersey City.

Andrew Anderson, the alleged defaulter of $30,000, was early in the Court of General Sessions yesterday, prepared to continue the trial on the indictment found against him.

His counsel, Norman L. Rowe and Lawyer Franks, were with him, and all three appeared in excellent spirits. Mr. Anderson is about sixty years old, gray and sunburned. He did not wear a coat or vest, and seemed indifferent during the examination of the expert accountant by twirling in his hand a straw hat and smoothing his hair.

Expert Chazy testified to a large number of inaccuracies, but before finishing his testimony he was temporarily excused. A Mr. Gregory, the publisher of the list of delinquent taxpayers, was called to the stand and testified to the fact which all appearances did not indicate to the jury.

John Connelman Galorath testified that Anderson had admitted to him that he was short in his accounts about $400, and Bartholomew Fitzgerald, also a Councilman, said that he was short $2,000.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

MISS MATHER'S MANAGER.

HE SAYS MARGARET WAS A GOOD GIRL BEFORE SHE MARRIED.

But That as Mrs. Haberkorn She Has Been Full of Warfare—The Most Interesting Day of Her Suit Before Judge Ingraham—The Actress's Expressive Face and Glibella Blue Toilet.

Miss Margaret Mather's drawing powers are not limited to the theatre, for each day of the trial of her suit for a financial settlement and dissolution of her partnership with Manager James M. Hill has brought a larger number of people than could be seated in the Special Term Chamber of the Supreme Court, where Justice Ingraham is trying the case as judge and jury.

Judge Gildereave sat on the bench with Justice Ingraham this morning and a number of ladies were in the audience, but theatrical people were scarce.

Miss Mather was faultlessly attired in a complete street suit of Gobelins blue, from hat to boots tops.

She listened to the testimony of her manager, J. M. Hill, with expressions of varying doubt. Her eyes were now and then turned to him in exquisite pointing; her great, lustrous eyes widened in amazement, or became elliptical through frowns of displeasure which ruffled her smooth forehead.

Her nose was occasionally tossed in the contemptuously, and at times her exercise with her fan was too vigorous for this midsummer weather.

Mr. Hill testified pointedly, and kept his temper, untroubled, intact. He said he would not admit that Miss Mather was his partner. He had said in the wings, when there was a good house, "Good business to night, partner," but it was only a jocular expression.

Miss Mather once wanted to build a block and call it the "Hill & Mather," but he had declined.

He had never had any trouble with her while she was single, but as soon as she became Mrs. Emil Haberkorn the trouble began, and there had been nothing but trouble ever since.

He always showed her the books when she desired.

They had travelled 13,072 miles on this tour. They played a week at Memphis, and a week at St. Louis, and a week at other towns. For every night that week they lost $250. Mr. Hill paid this out of his own pocket.

Miss Mather testified to a large number of inaccuracies, but before finishing his testimony he was temporarily excused. A Mr. Gregory, the publisher of the list of delinquent taxpayers, was called to the stand and testified to the fact which all appearances did not indicate to the jury.

John Connelman Galorath testified that Anderson had admitted to him that he was short in his accounts about $400, and Bartholomew Fitzgerald, also a Councilman, said that he was short $2,000.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

Anderson's account was examined by an Auditing Committee and was found to be correct. The committee reported on the strength of the report of the Auditing Committee. This was in the year 1888.

MRS. CLEVELAND'S VISIT.

She Will Return to Washington with Her Mother This Afternoon.

Mrs. President Cleveland and her mother, Mrs. Folsom, who arrived in the Western-land, had a dainty breakfast at 10 o'clock this morning in the dining-room of the Victoria Hotel. Then they received only a few of their intimate friends, Cousin Ben Folsom gallantly attended to their wants, one of which was for privacy.

He said that Mrs. Cleveland only came to New York to meet her mother. They would leave on the 3.54 p. m. train over the Pennsylvania road for Washington.

Cousin Ben will escort both ladies back to the White House.

A CRUCIFIX HIS WEAPON.

Timothy Ryan Fractures His Friend's Skull with the Holy Symbol.

Timothy Ryan and William Watts engaged in a quarrel at their home, 96 Warren street, Brooklyn, last evening.

Becoming excited, Watts got a baseball bat from his room, while Ryan armed himself with a large glass crucifix.

Ryan struck Watts on the head with the crucifix, fracturing the skull with the bat. Both men were taken to the Long Island College Hospital, where their injuries were dressed. Watts was found to have received a very serious fracture of the skull. Ryan has a severe scalp wound.

FIREMEN'S TOURNAMENT.

Preparing for the Grand Assembly of Firemen in Suffolk County.

Suffolk County firemen meet every year in friendly rivalry. Their tournament has become one of the great events of the year, and is usually attended by men, women and children from all parts of Long Island. The present officers of the Firemen's Association are: President, O. A. Terry, Riverhead; Vice-President, E. Bailey, Patchogue; Secretary, W. L. Snydman, Blue Point; Treasurer, W. E. Shipman, Greenport.

A special meeting will be held at Riverhead, L. I., Tuesday, Aug. 7, 10 p. m., to consider the constitution of the association. The meeting will also arrange details for the tournament to be held at Sag Harbor, it having been proposed that no allowance be made for difference in size of cylinders, but that any size of cylinder may be used; each engine to play through 100 feet of hose. Also that in most any look and ladder trials no person shall join in the run or race in any contest, after any such contest shall have started in. In no case shall the ladder meet against the building when the time is taken.

The tournament will probably be held in Sag Harbor. It is proposed to have the meeting earlier than usual, and the march to be in the afternoon. The prizes offered for competition will be very attractive. What the association prize will be is not yet determined.

FATALITY GASHED BY A THIEF.

Cornelius Lenahan the Victim of a Member of a North River Gang.

Cornelius Lenahan and John North, inmates of the lodging-house, No. 68 Park row, became to sleep Monday night on Pier 20 North River, because the heat was intense in their lodging. During the night Lenahan was suddenly awakened by finding some one's hand in his trousers pocket. Though it was quite dark Lenahan could see the face of a man with a mustache bending over him. As he endeavored to get up, the man drew a knife and plunged it into Lenahan's abdomen. Quick as a flash the knife descended again and he received a stab wound in the back. Then the thief fled, while Lenahan lay motionless on the pier.

Policeman Donohue, of Capt. Gastin's steamboat squad, promptly responded, and secured the knife and a diamond ring, which he brought about in the neighborhood. One of the men took something out of his pocket and threw it into the water. He described himself as John Kenny, alias "Tommy," and found that the man who had been in the Tombs yesterday he was dead. Lenahan's injuries will probably cause his death.

TO OPEN ON SATURDAY.

Rooms in Steady Demand at the Hotel Brighton—Big Business Anticipated.

Hotel Brighton, which has been moved back nearly six hundred feet from its site last year, will be opened to the public on Saturday. The hundred painters and decorators who were at work on the building have ceased their labors, and nothing remains now to be attended to save a few interior details, which will be completed tomorrow. The hotel is pronounced by those competent to judge to be one of the finest of the kind in the city. Messrs. Cunningham and Chaffin will conduct the restaurant and hotel business. They are gratified, they state, at the number of rooms that have been ordered for the hotel, and they are confident that the hotel will be a success. The hotel veranda overlooks lovely grounds, and is reached by a beautiful walk. The hotel is situated in the heart of the city, and is within easy reach of the beach. The contract between the hotel and the city is a very profitable one, and the hotel is expected to be a success. The hotel is situated in the heart of the city, and is within easy reach of the beach. The contract between the hotel and the city is a very profitable one, and the hotel is expected to be a success.

Barred to Death in His Yard.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 26.—Mathias Schneider was found yesterday in the rear of No. 304 Mohawk street with his clothing on fire. He was horribly burned, and died later. His clothing apparently had been soaked with kerosene while he was lying on the ground. The cause of the fire is not known, but it is believed he had been using a kerosene lamp. The fire was extinguished by the fire department. The man's death is a tragedy.

The Standing of the Clubs Yesterday.

LEAGUE. ASSOCIATION.

Chicago, 31 19; Brooklyn, 27 17; Detroit, 31 19; St. Louis, 31 19; New York, 28 22; Cincinnati, 30 21; Philadelphia, 25 24; Baltimore, 27 20; Pittsburgh, 16 30; Kansas City, 18 33; Indianapolis, 12 32.

Games Scheduled for To-Day.

New York at Philadelphia. Washington at Boston. Pittsburgh at Indianapolis. Chicago at Detroit.

Brooklyn at Louisville. Athletics at Kansas City. Baltimore at Cincinnati. Cincinnati at New York.

Wilkesbarre at Allentown. Scranton at Easton. Philadelphia at New York. Elmira at Jersey City.

Philadelphia Call vs. EVENING WORLD, at Polo Grounds, 4 p. m.

College Leagues Finish. Yale's victory over Harvard yesterday leaves the clubs of the College League standing as follows, at the finish, for the championship pennant: Yale—won 4, lost 1; Harvard—won 3, lost 3; Princeton—won 1, lost 7.

Baseball Wins, 1888. You can get a cheap photograph of any professional baseball player in (Club uniform) for 25 cents. Write to the publisher of this paper for a list of names and addresses of the players.

Baseball Wins, 1888. You can get a cheap photograph of any professional baseball player in (Club uniform) for 25 cents. Write to the publisher of this paper for a list of names and addresses of the players.

SETH LOW'S REVOLT.

He Cannot Indorse the Republican Protection Plank.

Brooklyn's Ex-Mayor Goes Over to the Democracy.

An All-Absorbing Topic for the Political Circle To-Day—Mr. Low's Own Words on the Matter—Mayor Chapin's Comments on the Action of His Predecessor—McLaughlin, Murtha and Other Leaders Interviewed on This Interesting Conversation to Free Trade.

The announcement in THE WORLD this morning that ex-Mayor Seth Low, of Brooklyn, had repudiated the tariff plank in the Chicago platform and declared himself in favor of a reduction of the tariff and consequent free trade, as proposed in the Democratic platform, was an all-absorbing topic for conversation in political circles in New York and Brooklyn to-day.

Mr. Low's conversion to the tariff plank nominated at Chicago to all who believe in the principles of the Republican platform, but adds that he is utterly opposed to those principles. He has repudiated the tariff plank, and he prefers to stand on the Democratic side. He says:

"Believe, as Garfield did, in a protection which leads us towards free trade. The declaration of the Chicago platform is for a protection which works away from free trade. The entire line of changes in the present tariff to which the party commits itself is to increase duties upon the articles made in this country. It is entirely new ground for the Republican party to take this position. I do not believe in a tariff which I can make no profit. I do not desire the privileges of a tariff which I am unable to support the party on the leading issue of the moment."

Mr. Low will send his resignation to the First Ward Republican Club, to read at the next meeting.

An EVENING WORLD reporter found Mayor Chapin at a meeting of the Board of Estimate in the Comptroller's private office this forenoon.

The Mayor had learned of Mr. Low's avowal and said he was not surprised, because he had expected that such men as the Mayor would not follow the tariff plank, would, after considering the two political platforms, come over to the Democratic fold.

The hypocrisy of the Republican party in advocating what it calls protection for workmen when its policy is little less than robbery from the laborers, is becoming more apparent day by day. The Mayor believes that the tariff plank will be followed by a host of other progressive young men.

The reporter next called on Register Murtha at his private office.

He said that the attitude of Mr. Low at this time is in line with the sentiment manifested by the young and progressive element of the Republican party, who disbelieve in that platform adopted at Chicago, especially the declaration that the party is for protection on the basis of protection only.

"By reason of Mr. Low's commanding position as a citizen and merchant, and his ex-Mayor's attitude, it is a fair and good declaration in favor of the Democratic platform will insure a large follow up."

Baseball Bat Against Crucifix.

There was a lively skirmish at No. 90 Warren street yesterday morning, and one man is lying injured at the Long Island College Hospital as a result. In the house reside Timothy Ryan and William Watts, who were engaged in a quarrel last evening. Ryan struck Watts on the head with the crucifix, fracturing the skull with the bat. Both men were taken to the Long Island College Hospital, where their injuries were dressed. Watts was found to have received a very serious fracture of the skull. Ryan has a severe scalp wound.

Policeman Donohue, of Capt. Gastin's steamboat squad, promptly responded, and secured the knife and a diamond ring, which he brought about in the neighborhood. One of the men took something out of his pocket and threw it into the water. He described himself as John Kenny, alias "Tommy," and found that the man who had been in the Tombs yesterday he was dead. Lenahan's injuries will probably cause his death.

TO OPEN ON SATURDAY.

Rooms in Steady Demand at the Hotel Brighton—Big Business Anticipated.

Hotel Brighton, which has been moved back nearly six hundred feet from its site last year, will be opened to the public on Saturday. The hundred painters and decorators who were at work on the building have ceased their labors, and nothing remains now to be attended to save a few interior details, which will be completed tomorrow. The hotel is pronounced by those competent to judge to be one of the finest of the kind in the city. Messrs. Cunningham and Chaffin will conduct the restaurant and hotel business. They are gratified, they state, at the number of rooms that have been ordered for the hotel, and they are confident that the hotel will be a success. The hotel is situated in the heart of the city, and is within easy reach of the beach. The contract between the hotel and the city is a very profitable one, and the hotel is expected to be a success.

Barred to Death in His Yard.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 26.—Mathias Schneider was found yesterday in the rear of No. 304 Mohawk street with his clothing on fire. He was horribly burned, and died later. His clothing apparently had been soaked with kerosene while he was lying on the ground. The cause of the fire is not known, but it is believed he had been using a kerosene lamp. The fire was extinguished by the fire department. The man's death is a tragedy.

The Standing of the Clubs Yesterday.

LEAGUE. ASSOCIATION.

Chicago, 31 19; Brooklyn, 27 17; Detroit, 31 19; St. Louis, 31 19; New York, 28 22; Cincinnati, 30 21; Philadelphia, 25 24; Baltimore, 27 20; Pittsburgh, 16 30; Kansas City, 18 33; Indianapolis, 12 32.

Games Scheduled for To-Day.

New York at Philadelphia. Washington at Boston. Pittsburgh at Indianapolis. Chicago at Detroit.

Brooklyn at Louisville. Athletics at Kansas City. Baltimore at Cincinnati. Cincinnati at New York.

Wilkesbarre at Allentown. Scranton at Easton. Philadelphia at New York. Elmira at Jersey City.

Philadelphia Call vs. EVENING WORLD, at Polo Grounds, 4 p. m.

College Leagues Finish. Yale's victory over Harvard yesterday leaves the clubs of the College League standing as follows, at the finish, for the championship pennant: Yale—won 4, lost 1; Harvard—won 3, lost 3; Princeton—won 1, lost 7.

<