

THE WORLD.

Published by the Press Publishing Company. SATURDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 20, 1888. SUBSCRIPTION TO THE EVENING EDITION (Including Postage), PER MONTH, 30c.; PER YEAR, $3.50.

VOL. 29.....NO. 9,923 Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second-class mail matter.

Circulation Books Always Open.

"WORLD" GROWTH DURING "ONE TERM"

Number of "WORLD" Printed During the Week Ending October 11, 1884 (Last Presidential Campaign):

739,170.

NUMBER OF "WORLD" PRINTED DURING THE WEEK ENDING OCTOBER 13, 1888:

1,979,475.

LET THEM CELEBRATE.

The Anarchists in this city propose to celebrate the anniversary of the execution of their friends at Chicago on Nov. 11. They will not attempt a parade or an outdoor demonstration of any kind. A meeting will be held in some large hall and fiery speeches will be made. As the anniversary falls on Sunday, the attendance will doubtless be large.

It has been suggested that the police should interfere to prevent the meeting. Such a policy would be ill-advised. Talking can do no harm, and the cause of Anarchy is not likely to be promoted by reminding its foolish sympathizers that four of their associates were hanged by sentence of the law for doing lawless acts. There is nothing attractive in a gallows and nothing heroic about the hangman's noose. Besides, the workmen of the United States have sense and honesty, and the more they learn of the extravagant and lawless views of the Anarchists the sooner will they discover their mischievous character and their antagonism to the true interests of honest labor.

A COMPROMISE SUGGESTION. Mr. Leonard, the husband of the Belva Lookwoodite candidate for Mayor, expresses the opinion that the fair CYNTHIA has a "hard fight" before her. GRANT and HEWITT, he says, are both popular in their way, and he seems to think they will draw off many votes from CYNTHIA.

Mr. LEONARD is a disinterested judge of the situation, since, although the husband of the candidate, he has been separated from her for ten years. Hence he can expect no favors from her if she should be our next Mayor. When he expresses the opinion that she has a chance of success, he is doubtless sincere and will do his best to promote his wife's election despite their estrangement.

If Mr. LEONARD is anything of a politician he will see that HEWITT and CYNTHIA hurt each other. There are many points of similarity between them. Both profess independence of the politicians. Both appeal to the support of "independents." The withdrawal of either candidate would help the other. While both remain in the field they divide a vote which would be more effective if concentrated on a single nominee.

Why does not Mr. LEONARD offer himself as a mediator in negotiations for the retirement of one of these aspirants? Naturally Mr. HEWITT's gallantry would prompt him to give way for the lady. He might be induced to do so the more readily if Mrs. LEONARD would signify her willingness to appoint Mr. HEWITT to a Commission-ership in one of the departments in case she should be elected. There can be no constructive bribery in such an offer, as Mayor HEWITT has already tendered such a compensation to Mr. EHRHARDT and Mr. COOGAN, and no one can doubt the Mayor's fitness for such a position.

The rain could not keep thousands yesterday from waiting for two or three hours opposite THE EVENING WORLD office, watching the interesting championship game reproduced on THE WORLD'S diagram bulletin. The ingenuity of the boys was displayed in the manner in which they availed themselves of the Post-Office columns to find shelter from the rain, as shown in THE EVENING WORLD'S sketch yesterday of the interesting and novel scene. The Diagram is the success of the day.

OUR AUTOGRAPH COLLECTION.

WORLDINGS. Board, the Republican candidate for Governor of Wisconsin, was a peddler of fruit trees at one time in his career. It is said that the late Alexander H. Stephens during his lifetime educated 150 boys and fifty girls, giving them all a collegiate education.

ITALO-FRENCH MELODRAMA.

THE COUNT STABS MONSIEUR WITH THE COOK'S CARVING KNIFE.

Then Chef Duretlet Goes to His Room and is Found Asphyxiated by Gas.—The Advent of Mr. Towson Caldwell in his Barbed-Wire Campaign. Heard at the Dinner Table.

Mr. Towson Caldwell, a lawyer, and his wife, seeking a boarding place where they might enjoy all the comforts of a home, thought they had found it in the house of Claude Bartholot, 104 West Thirty-third street.

And there they took up their abode yesterday. What has happened since has been rather thrilling, not to say nerve upsetting. The host is a foreman in the confectionery department at Maillard's, and his family consists of a wife and little girl of six years of age. They are French, speaking little English.

There were five boarders, among whom was Mr. Joseph Colosanti, an eminent Italian waiter of perhaps thirty years of age and of elegant bearing. He had been in the honor of his position since Monday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell were introduced to the other guests at the dinner table yesterday. There had been a rearrangement of the seats at the table, and Signor Colosanti's position had been moved from the head of the table to a less honored place. Mr. Caldwell taking his place at the head.

And trouble ensued. Sign. Colosanti objected to the change in musical and forceful Italian. Mr. Bartholot explained in most forcible terms, and Mr. Caldwell was apologetic in his best "United States."

Signor Colosanti would not be appeased, and Mrs. Bartholot took a hand. High words followed, the Italian and the French things of madame and monsieur struck him in the face.

Whereat Sign. Colosanti visited the kitchen, in which Chef Duretlet had been engaged. Mr. Caldwell selected a particularly keen-edged, long-bladed carving knife from the choice collection of the chef.

Sign. Colosanti ascending the stairs, he flourished the knife wildly and demanded satisfaction for his wounded honor.

M. Bartholot inadvertently coming within range of the knife, its blade passed through his forehead, striking a vital artery.

Mr. Caldwell threw his arms about the Italian, the ladies screamed in C sharp and the Italian dropped the knife. Then he was pushed out of the house. He ran away.

Then the excited inmates rushed out and called a mass-meeting of policemen. Officers Quilly, McDonald and Cook attended, and while they were still in session, Count Colosanti returned for his satchel full of clothing.

He got it and carried it to Capt. Reilly's second-house under escort of Officer Cook. This morning he was arraigned before Police Justice Gorman at the Jefferson Market Court.

The rest of the happy family was there, having been called in to see the prisoner. Mr. Caldwell was very pale and weak, and he explained the absence of M. Duretlet.

This morning, when my wife awakened me, she said, "I was very weak and sick, and there was a smell of gas in our room, up one flight."

"When we went downstairs breakfast was not ready," Mrs. Bartholot was preparing to say, "I was very weak and sick, and there was a smell of gas in our room, up one flight."

Mr. Leonard, the husband of the Belva Lookwoodite candidate for Mayor, expresses the opinion that the fair CYNTHIA has a "hard fight" before her. GRANT and HEWITT, he says, are both popular in their way, and he seems to think they will draw off many votes from CYNTHIA.

Mr. LEONARD is a disinterested judge of the situation, since, although the husband of the candidate, he has been separated from her for ten years. Hence he can expect no favors from her if she should be our next Mayor.

When he expresses the opinion that she has a chance of success, he is doubtless sincere and will do his best to promote his wife's election despite their estrangement.

If Mr. LEONARD is anything of a politician he will see that HEWITT and CYNTHIA hurt each other. There are many points of similarity between them. Both profess independence of the politicians. Both appeal to the support of "independents."

The withdrawal of either candidate would help the other. While both remain in the field they divide a vote which would be more effective if concentrated on a single nominee.

Why does not Mr. LEONARD offer himself as a mediator in negotiations for the retirement of one of these aspirants? Naturally Mr. HEWITT's gallantry would prompt him to give way for the lady.

He might be induced to do so the more readily if Mrs. LEONARD would signify her willingness to appoint Mr. HEWITT to a Commission-ership in one of the departments in case she should be elected.

There can be no constructive bribery in such an offer, as Mayor HEWITT has already tendered such a compensation to Mr. EHRHARDT and Mr. COOGAN, and no one can doubt the Mayor's fitness for such a position.

The rain could not keep thousands yesterday from waiting for two or three hours opposite THE EVENING WORLD office, watching the interesting championship game reproduced on THE WORLD'S diagram bulletin. The ingenuity of the boys was displayed in the manner in which they availed themselves of the Post-Office columns to find shelter from the rain, as shown in THE EVENING WORLD'S sketch yesterday of the interesting and novel scene. The Diagram is the success of the day.

OUR AUTOGRAPH COLLECTION. WORLDINGS. Board, the Republican candidate for Governor of Wisconsin, was a peddler of fruit trees at one time in his career.

THE FIGHT FOR CONGRESS.

Many Candidates in the Field and Lively Battling Will Result.

Disunion has been the result of the negotiations for union on Congressional nominations between Tammany Hall and the County Democracy, and the Counties have made their nominations.

Ex-Alderman Cavanagh was named in the Sixth District, now represented by Amos Cummings, and he will have a hard time trying to beat Tammany's candidate, Frank T. Fitzgerald, his friends say.

In the Seventh District Gen. Lloyd Bryce, ex-Alderman of the County, has been nominated. Edward H. Dunphy is expected to secure the Tammany nomination here, and Denis Shea will be named by the Republicans.

Tom Campbell is running again in the Eighth District, despite the rumors to the effect that he would not. Judge John Henry McCarthy, the Tammany candidate, will make "Hustler" his hustler in this district.

Sunset Cox's nomination in the Ninth District has been endorsed by the Counties. No one has been nominated by either organization in the Tenth District—Gen. Spinola's.

Gen. Spinola will be nominated if he desires it, said one high in Wigwag councils this morning.

The County horse will probably meet his old enemy of two years ago, Allen Thorndike Rice, who cannot accuse poor Mike Cregan of defeating him this time.

Congressman Truman A. Merriman has been on the shelf by the Counties, who name ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

Tammany has named the Republicans such as ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

Tammany has named the Republicans such as ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

Tammany has named the Republicans such as ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

Tammany has named the Republicans such as ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

Tammany has named the Republicans such as ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

Tammany has named the Republicans such as ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

Tammany has named the Republicans such as ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

Tammany has named the Republicans such as ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

Tammany has named the Republicans such as ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

Tammany has named the Republicans such as ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

Tammany has named the Republicans such as ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

Tammany has named the Republicans such as ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

Tammany has named the Republicans such as ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

Tammany has named the Republicans such as ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

Tammany has named the Republicans such as ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

Tammany has named the Republicans such as ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

Tammany has named the Republicans such as ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

Tammany has named the Republicans such as ex-Alderman John Quinn as their standard-bearer in the Eleventh District.

SENATOR EDWARD F. REILLY.

TAMMANY HALL'S CANDIDATE FOR THE COUNTY CLERKSHIP.

A Tribute from the New York Board of Trade and Transportation—A Long Record of Acts Done in the People's Interest—The List of His Champions—White in the Legislature.

The nomination of Senator Edward F. Reilly, of the Sixth Senatorial District, as Tammany Hall's candidate for County Clerk is receiving general commendation. He is indorsed by numberless labor and other organizations, and bets are offered that he will lead his ticket.

On Friday sister received the last rites of the dead in the sidewalk from Father Mandaly, of St. Peter's Church, who was among those attracted by her terrible screams.

Sister Mary Evangelist, who is in charge, wept in person, and was horrified at the sight of one of her charges dying before her eyes. She recognized her as Sister Mary Peter, who had been recovering from an attack of pneumonia, and whose mind had been so far from her senses.

The dead girl was tenderly carried into the home. She joined the Sisters sixteen months ago and has been a favorite ever since. She was always kind and cheerful, and was only a few years old. Her Christian name was Lucy Lawler. She has no near relatives alive.

Sister Evangelist said this morning that she had no doubts that insanity was the only cause of the horrible suicide, and Dr. Gray, who had attended the girl, corroborated the statement.

THE W. C. T. U. CONVENTION. Its Second Day's Session Brings Encouraging Papers and Reports.

At 10 o'clock this morning, Miss Frances Willard, President of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union, struck her gavel on the table and called the ladies to order for the second meeting of the fifth annual Convention of the Union, at the Metropolitan Opera-House.

The President expressed his thanks to the delegates from every State and most of the Territories, filled the parquet, and the boxes and galleries had a number of women in them.

The thanks of the Union were voted to Dr. Paxton for his check for $50. Miss Goodrich, in her report of the minutes, announced Mrs. Mary A. Livermore's election to the organization.

On the motion of Mrs. N. H. Knox, of New Hampshire, a vote of thanks was also tendered to Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson for the elegant banner which she had presented to the Union.

Miss Willard declared that the time of each speaker in debate must be restricted to five minutes, and the delegates who read reports were to stop at the end of the time which they had completed a certain measure.

A number of papers were read, showing a lively interest in the work of the organization. The papers were read by the delegates in the several fields in which it expends its energy.

Mrs. Esther T. Hinch, of Vermont, declared in a report on the press department, that editors were showing an interest and favored the Union in its labors.

Yesterday's collection was reported the largest single collection that has ever been taken, and New York was the largest contributor. The collection was $261.60.

The Convention will remain in session till next Tuesday evening.

It is expected that there will be three sessions in the morning at 10.30, in the afternoon at 2, and in the evening at 7.45. There will be a session to-morrow.

HUNTING FOR THE MURDERER. No Clue Yet to the Assassin of McClure and Flanagan at Wilkesbarre.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 20.—There is no clue as yet to the murderers of Paymaster McClure and his assistant, Hugh Flanagan.

Two Italians were arrested on the border of the woods near Yatesville this morning. They were drunk and had no money with them. It is believed they are not the right parties. They got drunk and lay down in the woods to sleep.

Locks were made at Warrior Run—a mine. He had some money with him, $10 in all, two five-dollar bills. He refused to give any account of himself.

Contractor McFadden, Supt. Alex. McQuinn says, will arrest the murderers before night providing they can be found. Yesterday being a rainy day, the Italians did not work, and McQuinn could not tell who was absent. This morning when the Italians reported six were absent. A number of Italians have been pressed into service to do detective work and look for the men who were absent.

It is reported that the work of the tramps in this country has been the most successful in the history of the country. A number of Italians have been pressed into service to do detective work and look for the men who were absent.

Telegrams have been sent to all advising steamship agents to keep a sharp lookout for a short, stubby Italian with locks of money.

McClure and Flanagan will be buried to-morrow. McClure's body passed through Wilkesbarre this morning on the way to Philadelphia. Flanagan will be buried to-morrow. The latter leaves $17,000, and it awaits a claimant.

Burglar Barker Pardoned by Gov. Ames. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) LAWRENCE, Mass., Oct. 20.—Burglar Barker of this city, was pardoned from the State Prison to-day by Gov. Ames. One midnight early in September, 1887, Barker was caught in the act of committing a burglary in the store of Bicknell Brothers, his former partner. He was arrested and held in the State Prison until he had served his term. Barker was pardoned because of his good conduct in prison. He is now at large.

SISTER MARY'S FATAL LEAP.

From the Window of St. Joseph's Home to the Stone Pavement Below.

Passers by Grand street, Jersey City, soon after sunrise this morning were petrified on hearing a woman's piercing scream, which came from an upper window of No. 78.

The house is a tall three-story brown stone fronted building, occupied by the Sisters of Mercy and known as St. Joseph's Home. The order of the nuns is the same as the Nun of Kenmare, Sister Mary Frances Clare, who recruited the Sisters from the ranks of the poor working-girls of the city.

The scream was repeated, and just as the bystanders looked upward, sister leaped from the sill into the air and fell to the stone sidewalk.

On Friday sister received the last rites of the dead in the sidewalk from Father Mandaly, of St. Peter's Church, who was among those attracted by her terrible screams.

Sister Mary Evangelist, who is in charge, wept in person, and was horrified at the sight of one of her charges dying before her eyes. She recognized her as Sister Mary Peter, who had been recovering from an attack of pneumonia, and whose mind had been so far from her senses.

The dead girl was tenderly carried into the home. She joined the Sisters sixteen months ago and has been a favorite ever since. She was always kind and cheerful, and was only a few years old. Her Christian name was Lucy Lawler. She has no near relatives alive.

Sister Evangelist said this morning that she had no doubts that insanity was the only cause of the horrible suicide, and Dr. Gray, who had attended the girl, corroborated the statement.

THE W. C. T. U. CONVENTION. Its Second Day's Session Brings Encouraging Papers and Reports.

At 10 o'clock this morning, Miss Frances Willard, President of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union, struck her gavel on the table and called the ladies to order for the second meeting of the fifth annual Convention of the Union, at the Metropolitan Opera-House.

The President expressed his thanks to the delegates from every State and most of the Territories, filled the parquet, and the boxes and galleries had a number of women in them.

The thanks of the Union were voted to Dr. Paxton for his check for $50. Miss Goodrich, in her report of the minutes, announced Mrs. Mary A. Livermore's election to the organization.

On the motion of Mrs. N. H. Knox, of New Hampshire, a vote of thanks was also tendered to Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson for the elegant banner which she had presented to the Union.

Miss Willard declared that the time of each speaker in debate must be restricted to five minutes, and the delegates who read reports were to stop at the end of the time which they had completed a certain measure.

A number of papers were read, showing a lively interest in the work of the organization. The papers were read by the delegates in the several fields in which it expends its energy.

Mrs. Esther T. Hinch, of Vermont, declared in a report on the press department, that editors were showing an interest and favored the Union in its labors.

Yesterday's collection was reported the largest single collection that has ever been taken, and New York was the largest contributor. The collection was $261.60.

The Convention will remain in session till next Tuesday evening.

It is expected that there will be three sessions in the morning at 10.30, in the afternoon at 2, and in the evening at 7.45. There will be a session to-morrow.

HUNTING FOR THE MURDERER. No Clue Yet to the Assassin of McClure and Flanagan at Wilkesbarre.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 20.—There is no clue as yet to the murderers of Paymaster McClure and his assistant, Hugh Flanagan.

Two Italians were arrested on the border of the woods near Yatesville this morning. They were drunk and had no money with them. It is believed they are not the right parties. They got drunk and lay down in the woods to sleep.

Locks were made at Warrior Run—a mine. He had some money with him, $10 in all, two five-dollar bills. He refused to give any account of himself.

Contractor McFadden, Supt. Alex. McQuinn says, will arrest the murderers before night providing they can be found. Yesterday being a rainy day, the Italians did not work, and McQuinn could not tell who was absent. This morning when the Italians reported six were absent. A number of Italians have been pressed into service to do detective work and look for the men who were absent.

It is reported that the work of the tramps in this country has been the most successful in the history of the country. A number of Italians have been pressed into service to do detective work and look for the men who were absent.

Telegrams have been sent to all advising steamship agents to keep a sharp lookout for a short, stubby Italian with locks of money.

McClure and Flanagan will be buried to-morrow. McClure's body passed through Wilkesbarre this morning on the way to Philadelphia. Flanagan will be buried to-morrow. The latter leaves $17,000, and it awaits a claimant.

A MURDERER TRIES SUICIDE.

PATRICK COFFEY'S SECOND ATTEMPT TO END HIS LIFE.

Found in His Cell This Morning Covered with Blood—A Ten-Page Confession of His Crime and Expression of Regret at His Victim's Death—He May Recover.

Murderer Patrick Coffey, who is soon to be sentenced to death for the murder of his paramour, Agnes Smith, in Jersey City, attempted to cheat the gallows early this morning by killing himself in his cell in the Hudson County Jail.

At about 3 o'clock one of the turnkeys heard Coffey moaning in his cell, and hurrying to the door, found him lying in a pool of blood, which flowed from a cut in his arm.

County Physician Converse was called and the flow of blood stopped in time to save the murderer's life.

Jailer Hirdical, who is very reticent about the matter, and how Coffey obtained a knife was not explained.

The weapon with which the suicidal attempt was made in the cell is a small pocket knife. It is estimated that the prisoner lost two quarts of blood from the wound.

A ten-page letter was found in which Coffey stated his intention to kill himself. The production of the letter contained a complete confession of his crime in killing Agnes Smith, but with the statement that he did not kill her willfully, and that he would rather have killed his whole family one by one.

Coffey stated that he would leave several articles to the jailer and keeper after his death. He had written a poem addressed to the murdered woman.

The crime for which Coffey is under sentence was committed July 6 at 432 Henderson street, where the prisoner then lived and kept a grocery store.

In the presence of his wife and two children, Coffey shot the Smith woman, for whom he afterwards declared his great love. He also shot himself, saying that he wished to die and be with her. That first attempt at self-destruction ended like the present one, in failure.

The man's recovery from his shot wound, he has been incarcerated in the jail and has more than once affirmed that he would not live to have his sentence carried out.

THE PRESIDENT WILL COME OCT. 27. Accepts the Invitation to Review the Business Men's Parade.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The committee representing the New York Downtown Business Men's Association of Cleveland and Thurman clubs, consisting of John H. Inman, William Woodward, Jr., John McCull and Joseph W. O'Donoghue, which came on from New York yesterday afternoon to invite President Cleveland to review the Business Men's parade in New York Oct. 27, arrived here this morning.

At 10 o'clock this morning they called upon the President at the White House and were received with cordiality.

The President expressed his thanks to the Committee for the invitation extended to him, and accepted it on the spot.

The Committee will return to New York to-night.

FRANKIE RAYMOND'S SMILES. She Gave Them to Her Lawyer—Her Case Was Again Adjudged.

Frankie Lola Raymond looked brighter than ever when taken from the prison to Jefferson Market Police Court, before Justice Gorman this morning.

She talked with happy smiles to her counsel, and seemed to think there was nothing serious in her case.

When the counsel for Mrs. Martha Mills, who claims that Miss Raymond stole her diamond jewelry, appeared in court, he proposed a doctor's certificate that the complainant was too unwell to go to court.

Justice Gorman then adjourned the examination of Miss Raymond until next Tuesday.

Pittsburg Cable-Car Men May Strike. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 20.—There may be a cable-car strike here, as the Gripmen are preparing to strike. Cable lines here are new and Philadelphia gripmen are instructing learners. Local unions have placed spotters on the cars, and in the morning the experienced gripmen whether the men they are teaching belong or are willing to join the unions. If so, the strikers will be unable to do anything. They are pronounced incompetent and every effort is made to get rid of them.

Mayor Hewitt Bombed by the Police. Arrest of a truckman for leaving his horse in the street, and wrote a sharp letter to the Police Board, saying that an attempt was being made to put him in a false position, and implying that the police force is the tool of politicians.

Broke His Neck in the Darkness. Edward Hughes, a homeless laborer, fifty years old, fell into the arway at the rear of 400 West Fifth street, at 3 o'clock this morning, and broke his neck. His body is at Morgue.

An Oil Man Gets Under. Mr. Barney Barid's failure was announced on the Consolidated Exchange to-day, and 20,000 barrels of oil were bought in under the rule for his account.

Notes of the Campaign. The Central Division of the Wholesale Dry-Goods Cleveland and Thurman Club issued daily noonday telegrams to all dealers, and read: "The Yorkville Democratic Club, composed of members from the Democratic Club of Yorkville, was organized for the purpose of opposing the candidacy of Clifford Blose, President; John S. Day, Vice-President; H. H. Diekmann, Second Vice-President; Dell Heald, Secretary; S. J. Vaik, Treasurer. Citizens of the Twenty-second Ward have formed a Cleveland and Thurman Campaign Club, with headquarters at 771 Ninth street. The club has elected Hugh J. Grant for Mayor. Meetings are held every Thursday evening, and all citizens residing in the ward in favor of the election of Grover Cleveland for President and Allen G. Thurman for Vice-President are invited to enroll their names. Two Sudden Deaths. The Coroner was notified to-day of the sudden deaths of Elizabeth Blaine, aged sixty years, of 12 West street, and Sarah Moss, aged forty-five years, of 100 Grand street.

CHICKERING HALL.

THE GREAT MEDICAL LECTURES BY DR. GREENE.

What a Correspondent Thinks of Them—And What Investigation Develops Concerning the Doctor's Great Discovery.

Your correspondent had the pleasure of attending the course of popular medical lectures in Chickering Hall by the great physician, Dr. Greene, of 33 West 14th st., New York. These lectures have a deep and wide range of usefulness, for they instruct the community in regard to health, its preservation and restoration.

Thinking that the public, and especially those suffering from nervous diseases, would be deeply interested in the Doctor's great discovery, Dr. Greene's Nervous Tonic, which has cured thousands upon thousands of cases of nervous diseases, and is everywhere the subject of the greatest of medical discoveries, your correspondent made it his special duty to investigate the subject.

Inquiry at druggists' allied the fact that the sale of this remedy is simply enormous; that thousands of people are using it, and in almost every case report the most beneficial results. It is a safe and reliable remedy, and its effects in restoring health, its effects are marvellous, and give it a place above any and all other remedies in regard to the numbers of the sick and suffering it cures.

It is an absolute specific for nervousness, nervous debility, nervous and physical exhaustion, sleeplessness, weakness, tired feeling, neuralgia, palpitation, nervousness, trembling, paralysis, brain exhaustion, depression of mind and tendency to insanity. It is a safe cure for epilepsy, the catarrhs, St. Vitus's dance, loss of appetite, indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, nervous and sick headache, &c.

Your correspondent was shown hundreds of letters and testimonials from persons who had been cured of various nervous diseases, and many of