HUGHES'S CURVES HARD HIT.

Athletic 15 Brooklyn 6

PHILADELPHIA, April 20.—Another perfect day greeted the Athletic and Brooklyn ball-players this afternoon, and the crowd, though not so great as that of yesterday, was large and enthusiastic.

Both teams were liberally applauded when they came on for practice. The batting order to-day was as follows:

Table with columns for Athletics and Brooklyn, listing players like Welch, Stovey, Larkin, etc.

First Inning—As usual, the Athletics went first to bat. Welch led off with a grounder to Smith and was easily out at first. Stovey's fly to right was captured by Burns, after a long run.

Second Inning—Purcell got as far as third in this inning, starting on his own single to third, which was too warm for Pinkney to handle.

Third Inning—The Brooklyn team was slightly rattled in this inning, and the Athletics prided to the extent of three runs.

Fourth Inning—The Athletics got onto Hughes's curves in great shape in this inning. Fenelly led off with a single, his first hit of the season, and went to third on Cros's similar hit to right.

Fifth Inning—Hughes pulled himself together, and the Athletics were quickly retired. Larkin tied to Collins. Bierbauer hit to left center for two bases.

Sixth Inning—The Athletics developed another batting streak and increased their lead by four runs. Cross opened with a fly to O'Brien. Weyhing hit safely to left and Welch made two bases on a hit to left center.

Seventh Inning—Fouts went in to pitch for Brooklyn. Terry going to first and Hurler taking the vacant seat on the bench.

AND KELLY WAS NOT THERE.

Stanch, Good Playing by Manager Powers's Able Men and True.

Jersey City 6 Boston 3

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) OAKLAND PARK, JERSEY CITY, April 20.—Although Capt. Kelly was advertised to catch for the Bostonians in to-day's game, he failed to put in an appearance at the grounds.

The close rub which Manager Powers's youngsters gave the Beaneaters on Thursday held the promise of a good contest to-day, and the half holiday tended to increase the usual small crowd which attends Spring games to one of fairly good proportions.

The weather, almost a duplicate of yesterday's, was such that light overcoats were unnecessary and milters an abomination.

The Bostonians spent an hour or so in listless and formless practice. The Jersey boys devoted fifteen minutes to sharp preliminary work.

Gov. Hill was not present, but his name, in connection with Senator Cauter's Polo Grounds bill, was in everybody's mouth.

Richardson, 3d b. Johnson, c. Gansel, r. 1 b. Friel, l. f. Burke, r. f. Hurdorf, c. Lang, a. s. Umpire—Mr. Clinton.

First Inning—Knowles began things with a high fly to right, which Gansel took. Ray and Brothers together disposed of Lyons and O'Brien. No runs.

Second Inning—Friel scratched a safe hit between home and third, and got second on Ray's muff of Bennett's throw to second.

Third Inning—Richardson led off for Boston with a pretty drive to center for two bases and reached third on Johnston's high fly out to Lyons. Gansel hit safely and Richardson scored.

Fourth Inning—Friel scratched a safe hit between home and third, and got second on Ray's muff of Bennett's throw to second.
