MULTIPLIPLY GENEROSITY.

The subscriptions to the Johnstown Relief Fund pour in from all sections. As the thousands upon thousands of dollars pile up, the gift of people in all the walks of life, it cannot but increase the pride of Americans in America.

No matter how crucial the test, the people of the United States are ever found to be of the best metal. The wall of distress from fellow-citizens in any section always brings the strong arm of relief. A nation of money-getters is in an instant, when touched by the wand of sympathy, transformed into a nation of money-givers. The giving is lavish and without stint.

How nobly New York is coming to the rescue in this emergency. We knew the quality of her citizens. Ever foremost in works of charity, she leads now in relieving the sufferers by the terrible flood.

But there is need of all that generous New Yorkers can give. Let the rush of money to the fund continue unchecked until the great work to be done in the Conemaugh Valley is grandly, fully done. There is a duty for each one to perform. The dead must be buried. The living must be rescued.

MASONS IN HIGH CONCLAVE.

TO SETTLE THAT RIVALRY AS TO A SITE FOR THE HOME AND ASYLUM.

The Three Days' Session Begun at Masonic Temple—Auburn, Binghamton and Unadilla Hill Contending with Utica for the Honor of the Choice—Grand Master Lawrence's Address.

The Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons is sitting in its 106th annual communication at the Masonic Temple, Sixth avenue and Twenty-third street, to-day. The session will continue for three days.

For the first time in its history the Grand Lodge meets in a building owned by the fraternity, and entirely free from debt or encumbrance.

For four years the labor of clearing off the debt on the Temple has absorbed the attention of the fraternity, and the rejoicing at its successful result is heartfelt.

Grand Master Frank B. Lawrence, who has held that exalted position during all this time, found the Grand Lodge in debt $100,000 on the Temple. The reports in the hands of the Grand Secretary show the fraternity in the State to be in excellent financial condition.

The most important work before the Grand Lodge is the final selection of a site for the proposed Masonic Home and Asylum.

A committee of which P. G. M. Brodie was Chairman, was selected a year ago to choose a site. They examined plots and offers in various localities, but were unable to decide between Auburn, Binghamton, Lockport, Unadilla and Utica, and finally they agreed to leave it all to Grand Master Lawrence.

He decided on a 160-acre plot at Utica known as the Utica Driving Park, and owned by Mayor C. W. Hutcheson, of the pent-up city, who is a leading frater. The price of the plot is $75,000, one-third of which Mayor Hutcheson will donate, and the fraters of Utica will subscribe $30,000 of the balance, leaving $20,000 to be paid by the Grand Lodge.

But Auburn comes forward with a protest. The "loveliest village" offered a plot for the asylum free of cost. Binghamton and Unadilla will also object to any selection which leaves them out.

There are 700 lodges in the State with an aggregate membership of 800,000, and the Grand Lodge has a membership of 1,000. Two new lodges, at Rochester and Delmar, have been instituted during the past year. The election of officers occurs to-morrow, and Deputy Grand Master John W. Freeman, of Herkimer, is mentioned as Mr. Lawrence's successor. Grand Secretary Ehlers' re-election is a foregone conclusion.

The proceedings to-day were opened by Grand Chaplain Rev. Robert Collier in prayer. Grandist George W. Morgan with St. Cecil's Lodge had rendered the opening march. Grand Master Lawrence's address discusses the differences between the Grand Lodges of New Jersey and New York growing out of a dispute in 1887 between Fort Edward Lodge and Mystic Lodge, of New Jersey. Grand Master Lawrence declined by New Jersey Grand Lodge, and an edict of non-intercourse was issued by the Jersey Grand Lodge.

MR. BLAINE IN TOWN.

The Secretary and His Wife Stopping at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

Secretary James G. Blaine and his wife are in the city. They arrived last night from Washington and are occupying Room No. 88 at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

This morning an EVENING WORLD reporter called on Mr. Blaine, but the latter declined to be seen. The object of his visit to the city is unknown.
