LEAGUE LEADERS TO-NIGHT. New York 74 40 .649 Boston 74 41 .643

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) PHILADELPHIA BALL GROUND, Sept. 19.—After the double victory of yesterday Manager Mutrie changed his mind and decided not to leave the capital under cover of darkness, but to wait until the light of the morning and make the trip to this city on the 9.30 express.

Shortly before 1 o'clock the Giants were being welcomed by President Byrne and the members of the Brooklyn Club.

Several New York Stock Exchange men occupied boxes at the grounds, but the entire party, though admitting that they came exclusively to "root" for the champion, desired to remain strictly "incog."

It is the general opinion among the members of the New York Club that if they can leave this town after winning two out of three games, the remaining part of the pennant chase will come easy.

Slattery went on to New York this morning, very much disappointed that he should be debarred from taking the trip; but as he is unable to play, and in need of a doctor's care, home is the best place for him.

This afternoon the home team took the field with Mr. Casey in the box. O'Day, innocent of his mustache, did the honors for the visitors.

The batting order: PHILADELPHIA. Delehanty, I. F. Larkin, J. B. Lyons, J. D. Murphy, J. F. Ryan, J. S. Sweeney, J. T. Taylor, J. W. Tamm, J. H. Tamm, J. G. Tamm, J. K. Tamm, J. L. Tamm, J. M. Tamm, J. N. Tamm, J. O. Tamm, J. P. Tamm, J. Q. Tamm, J. R. Tamm, J. S. Tamm, J. T. Tamm, J. U. Tamm, J. V. Tamm, J. W. Tamm, J. X. Tamm, J. Y. Tamm, J. Z. Tamm.

Gore was permitted to take first on balls, and a mark of esteem shown to Thompson filled the bases and brought Schriver to the bat. He did all that could be expected of him, and more, for he slammed a terrific liner between left and center which cleared the bases of runners, earned him two bases and created a wild and approving burst of noise on the part of the crowd.

Fogarty added to the excitement by dropping a gentle double into left, which brought Schriver home. Farrar was sent to first on balls. Hallman knocked a hot line-drive to left. O'Rourke struck himself in front of the ball, caught it and threw it to Ward at second before Fogarty could regain his base. Four runs.

Second Inning—O'Rourke and Ewing both hit the ball hard, but the prejudiced sphere went to Delehanty and Thompson. Whitney struck out. No runs.

Whitney, after picking up Casey's little grounder, threw the ball so far over Connor's head that Casey reached second. Then a wild pitch permitted Gore to gain second.

break for second and on Schriver's wild throw to catch him, he took third and Tiernan scored. Richardson's long fly out to Delehanty permitted Ward to score the run which put the Giants ahead.

Connor made a single to left, and emitted a sigh of satisfaction as he thought of his weak hitting in the past few games. But Roger was left by O'Rourke's fly to Thompson. Three runs.

Rogers' bounce, the ball, and though O'Day sought the ball with an eagerness that caused him to slip and fall on the wet ground, the runner reached first. He stole second on Ewing's low throw and got third before Gore could get the ball there. Farrar fled out to Gore and Fogarty came home with the tying run.

Hi harden assisted Hallman out at first and took in a liner from Casey's bat. One run. Fourth Inning—Ewing again fled out to Thompson and Whitney's long fly was nipped in the bud by Delehanty.

Then O'Day knocked a fly which fell safely between Farrar and Myers. Four consecutive balls gave Gore first and advanced O'Day to second. Tiernan was hit below the belt by a pitched ball and took first.

Ward hit a liner ten thousand times too hot for Mulvey to hold, though by accident he did stop it. This hit brought O'Day home. Four balls to Richardson forced Gore home. Connor made a bid for a hit, but the ball he struck was caught by Thompson. Two runs.

Connor carried Delehanty's grounder to first. Schriver went out on an easy fly to Whitney. Fogarty struck out. Farrar was sent to first on balls. Tiernan closed the inning by making a very pretty catch of Hallman's fly. No runs.

Sixth Inning—A slight mist began to fall as this inning began. O'Day struck out. Gore slapped a single to left. Then Tiernan came to the front and walloped a second home-run hit over the right field fence.

Ward followed with a splendid drive to left for three bases. Richardson kept the procession on the move by hitting safely to centre. Ward scored on the and a wild pitch enabled Rich to reach second.

Connor brought him home by sending a plunk to left. O'Rourke hit to Casey, and while Connor was being run down between second and third the Orator ran to second.

There he was left by Ewing's foul out to Schriver. Four runs. After Casey's fly had nestled safely between Gore's caressing paws Delehanty smashed an uncatchable liner to left.

The young man tied himself up into a lover's knot and, with a wondrous move, shot himself loose and delivered the ball with such gorgeous effectiveness that Whitney was struck dumb at the strange sight and was retired on strikes.

O'Day, much to the crowd's delight, followed Whitney's example. Gore was too old to be fooled by kiddish merriment and he stood still and waited for four balls to be called.

Tiernan hit the ball with his back and took first. Ward knocked a slab-sided grounder to Farrar and went out at first. No runs.

Thompson hit safely to left, but was forced at second, and Richardson sent the ball to first in time to double Schriver. Fogarty tried to fire on balls, but left there by Farrar's fly out to Tiernan. No runs.

Eighth Inning—Richardson bunted a safe one and came home on Connor's hard-hit double to the wire screen above the fence in centre. O'Rourke struck out.

On Schriver's miff of Ewing's third strike Connor tried for third, but was caught. Whitney's grounder to Hallman forced Ewing at second. One run.

Day struck out. Hallman fled to Tiernan. Delehanty went out on a bounder to Connor. No runs.

BOSTON'S GAME.

Clarkson Pitches the First of the Series.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—The Beacons changed the scene of their baseball operations to this city this afternoon.

A good crowd turned out to see them, not without hope that they would see also a clever victory by the home team.

The visitors presented their star battery, Clarkson and Hunter, while the Senators were represented in the pitchers by Hadcock and Daly.

THE SITE. GUILTY!

To Be Chosen To-Morrow by Vote of the World's Fair Committee.

It Is On Manhattan Island and Easy of Access.

A Small Portion of Upper Central Park Taken.

Morningside and Riverside Parks and the Bloomingdale Grounds Also.

Senator Sherman Writes that He Is in Favor of New York Over Chicago.

A site for the World's Fair has been selected, and will be voted for by the Committee on Site and Buildings to-morrow.

It is on Manhattan Island. A permanent building may be located on the plateau on the northwest corner of Central Park, near Eighth avenue at One Hundred and Tenth street, and one in Riverside Park.

The northernmost portion of Central Park above Ninety-sixth street will be used.

The lands north of the Park from One Hundred and Fifteenth street, from Fifth avenue to Morningside Park, will be also taken.

Riverside Park, Morningside Park and the Bloomingdale and Leake & Watts property are for the remainder of the site.

It is also proposed to connect all of the parks, as in London. This would take in Mount Morris Park, which would not be used for Fair purposes, however.

SELECTED BY THESE MEN. Mayor Grant and ex-Mayor Edward Cooper, State Engineer John Bogart, Congressman Roswell P. Flower, Prof. C. F. Chandler, ex-Park Commissioner John D. Crimmins, Commissioner Henry R. Towne, J. I. C. Clarke, Richard M. Hunt, George Warner and Editor John Ford, of the Site Committee, have devoted several days to the careful examination of the available ground within the city's limits, as to the practical advantages for the purposes of the Exhibition, and means of reaching it from all points, and they arrived at their conclusions to-day.

FOUR HUNDRED ACRES OF LAND. This site, exclusive of land covered by water, comprises 400 acres, easily accessible from east, west, north and south, and is ample for a World's Exposition on the largest scale.

That part of Central Park which will be used is located above Ninety-sixth street. It is fringed with trees and undergrowth, and includes the beautiful little Harlem Mere, the meadow lying to the east of the lake and along Fifth avenue containing forty acres of fine sloping meadow land and the north meadow thirty acres of open land. The mere, covering twelve acres, may be drained if necessary. The "triangle" has fifteen acres.

Above the park are many blocks of unimproved lots, and from Madison to Fifth avenue and Ninety-sixth to One Hundred and Tenth street there are twenty acres of vacant land which might be used if the Committee thought it advisable at a later date.

AN UNIMPROVED SLICE OF THE PARK. This portion of Central Park to be used is now about as Nature made it, and it will not be necessary to destroy any of its natural beauty.

Morningside Park, beginning at One Hundred and Fifth street, extends along the bluff to One Hundred and Sixteenth street, and the Cathedral holdings adjoin this across Ninth avenue.

To the north of Central Park, and between it and Morningside, is a belt of unoccupied land which might be utilized at comparatively small cost if needed. The belt contains at least thirty acres.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) GRAYSON'S RACE TRACK, L. I., Sept. 19.—Although the weather is cold and threatening the Brooklyn track was favored with another large attendance. The Belmont-Garrison affair is still talked of, with no new developments other than that it has been greatly exaggerated.

The racing was rather tame, the finishes being easy wins for Madstone, J. A. B. and Kingston, all of whom were favorites.

Tenny kept the favorites in form by winning the Fulton Stakes. There was a good class of horses contending with him, but none of them could make the little horse stretch his neck.

EXTRA ATHLETICS

Make To-Day's Game Extremely Interesting for the Grooms

AND EVENTUALLY WIN IT.

Rather a Small Attendance Owing to Counter-Attraction.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) ATHLETIC GROUNDS, PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19.—The attendance at the Athletic-Brooklyn game this afternoon was very light, owing in part to threatening weather, but principally to the fact that the League champions were playing with the Phillies.

The teams batted in the following order: ATHLETIC. Welch, c. f. Larkin, 1st b. Lyons, 2d b. Stovey, 1. f. Bierbauer, 3d b. Fennelly, c. c. Robinson, c. Seward, p. Brooklyn. O'Brien, 1. f. Collins, 2d b. Foutz, 1st b. Viner, r. f. Corkhill, c. f. Clark, c. f. Smith, s. a. Hughes, p. Umpire—Mr. Ferguson.

First Inning—Welch, the first batter to face Hughes, reached his base on balls, but was nailed in attempting to steal second. Larkin fled at O'Brien. Lyons hit safely to left, but was left by Stovey firing to O'Brien. No runs.

O'Brien was struck by a pitched ball. Collins was thrown out by Fennelly, who Foutz had to score. Fennelly followed with a double to right and O'Brien scored. Pinkney hit to Seward, who made a wild throw to Larkin, and Viner scored. O'Brien was struck by a pitched ball. Clark ended the inning, Fennelly to Larkin. Two runs.

Second Inning—The Athletics went out in order. Smith was given a life on Fennelly's rank fumble, but no Brooklyn score resulted.

Third Inning—The Athletics evened things up in this inning and Seward went to first on balls and advanced to second on a batted ball, scoring on Brennan's single.

Brennan was thrown out in a dismal attempt to steal second. Welch followed with a double, Larkin struck out. Lyons made a single and Welch scored. Stovey struck out. Two runs.

Fourth Inning—The Athletics broke the tie. Bierbauer began with a fly to Fink, Robinson sent a slow one to Smith, who, in his anxiety to make a double play, fumbled the ball, filling the bases. Brennan was thrown out by Collins. Fennelly scored.

Welch sent a fly which dropped safely in front of Viner, and Robinson and Seward scored. Welch was struck by a pitched ball. Clark to Foutz. Three runs.

No runs for Brooklyn, though Smith hit safely. Fifth Inning—The Athletics were easily disposed of and with no runs.

O'Brien led off with a little pop fly, which was muffed by Lyons. Collins was thrown out by Bager. Foutz's hit was made safe by Seward deflecting its course. Viner struck out.
