When the necessity of removing confronted us we were dismayed. Our stores were filled with a complete stock of Men's and Boys' custom-made Clothing. But a happy idea removed the dead weight. By closing out this stock regardless of cost our hands were freed and the public at the same time benefited. The best way of convincing the public of the bargains that await them is simply to give the prices these garments are bringing now.

Removal! Removal!

THE OLD AND POPULAR HOUSE OF
MAX STADLER & CO.
 ARE GOING INTO NEW QUARTERS.

They will carry no goods uptown with them from their present store, and to that end offer everything now in their store at prices that will surely remove the last garment. These were fresh goods, stylishly made by the large corps of workmen constantly employed by this house. Call and see if you cannot find something which will please you. You will get a bargain.

This removal Compels the sacrifice of as fine a stock of Clothing as can be found in the city of New York. Men's Fall Overcoats, Suits for Dress and Business Wear, Boys' and Children's Clothing, and everything that is desirable for personal attire is being cleared out quickly. The stock is a carefully selected one, and a guarantee goes with every article sold during this sale.
