SAVED BY A FALL.

A Story of Love and Adventure on the High Seas.

The merchant ship Drift, from Bombay, for London, lay becalmed off the west coast of Hindostan.

The captain, Robert Winfield, a man whose name was known to the crew.

It fell upon the young man's eyes.

A quick glance was then exchanged between her and the young naval lieutenant.

Major Upton noticed the glance, frowned and said to himself.

Winfield had been a sailor of Belly since he was a boy.

Some months before, the girl favored him, but not so the Major, who wanted her to be his.

COMPLETE AND LASTING.

Are the Results That Follow One True Another in Quick Succession.

"About four years ago I attended dances; at one of these I became overheat, went outside and caught cold."

The speaker was Mr. C. W. Wendling, at his home, 63 Grand Street, Brooklyn.

"Pains in my head and over my eyes followed the cold, and I could never get rid of the pain."

"My throat was always dry and hoarse, and first one side then the other."

"I read several statements in the papers where people had been cured of catarrh, and finally called on Dr. Copeland & Blair, and finding their terms so much more reasonable than I had expected, I put myself under their care, and have them to thank for my cure, for I am

AN ENTIRELY WELL MAN NOW, and this statement of mine can easily be verified if any one will call at my home, 63 Grand Street."

C. W. WENDLING, 63 Grand Street, Brooklyn.

patent medicine, but never had a full day's relief.

"My general health was good, and except for the continual hoarseness, coughing and raising phlegm from my throat and head, I felt no other sickness."
