The Entry List is Large and Contains Well-Known Names.

Paraps Hall, at Eighty-sixth street and Third avenue, will be the scene of some lively sparring to-night, at the annual boxing tournament of the Pastime Athletic Club.

The entry list closed Thursday, with the entries of about fifty of the foremost amateur boxers of this vicinity.

The veteran, Harry Buermeyer, who officiated at the boxing championships of the Amateur Athletic Union, will act as referee.

F. F. TOLAN, M. A. C.

Sam Stoll and E. Stoll will keep time, Fred Burns will be the master of ceremonies and the judges will be Sam Cornell, of the Manhattan Athletic Club, and Dr. Ramon Gutierrez, of the New York Athletic Club.

Following is a complete list of the entries received up to date:

DANNY O'BRIEN, P. A. C.

reconsider his determination to stay out of this tournament, on account of an injury sustained at the Varuna Boat-Club competition.

This is Danny O'Brien. It is possible he may enter at the last moment.

O'Brien, the amateur champion bantam-weight, stands five feet in height.

He has defeated W. Marley, three rounds; Moran, four rounds; "Chappie" ...

James Heshan has not yet seen in his working, and he may not compete on account of a very strong man, with plenty of science and a very good arm.

On accounts of the unusually large number of entries it may be necessary to postpone the final tournament until Tuesday evening and make the contests to-night the preliminaries.

The Day in Wall Street.

The bank statement was favorable, showing an increase in reserve of $7,250,825, which brings the surplus reserve up to $1,015,000,000.

The following is a comparative statement of the condition of the banks this week and last.

NEAR MOST IN THE TOMBS. IN NO HURRY TO PASS IT.

The Fiery Anarchist Rearrested by Central Office Detectives.

Contrary to all expectations, and to the dismay of every New Yorker, he has the interest of the World's Fair at heart, the bill providing for an appropriation of $10,000,000 to acquire site property, erect buildings and for other expenses incidental to the great Exposition of 1892, has met with delay in the Legislature.

Notwithstanding the fact that the bill was drawn up with the utmost regard to constitutionalism under the supervision of such lawyers as Chauncey M. Depew, William M. Evarist, and Ellis Root, several members took refuge in the assertion that they were not familiar with the amended clauses, and demanded that the reading of the bill be deferred until next week.

The singular part of the affair is that all the objecting members of the Senate and Assembly were Republicans, with the exception of Col. Brown, who is a Democrat.

After long haranguing in both houses, the bill was finally passed by the Senate on Monday night, with the prospect of its speedy reading and ultimate passage, while the Senate ordered a hearing of the bill on Tuesday.

One of the amendments in the bill is a clause authorizing the Board of Commissioners to acquire in fee or for a term of years.

Should the Board of Commissioners determine that any portion of the land should be reserved for the Exposition purposes, such land shall be indicated upon maps, and upon the consent of the Board of Commissioners, the property shall be acquired and such land shall be closed.

Several property-owners in the vicinity of the proposed site object to this clause, and have presented a bill to the Legislature, saying that while they would cheerfully give the temporary use of their land to the Government, they would not have their property fee taken from them.

They claim that the clause is unconstitutional, and say they will oppose it in the Legislature or will carry it to the courts.

The objection was made by J. E. Finkler, owner of 21 1/2 lots, valued at $2,000,000; John E. Parsons, Dwight Olmsted, ex-tenor Dixey and Henry A. Gram.

He claims that that of fraudulent representation, and was subsequently dishonored.

Commodore Brain resided in Chesapeake, Va., and died in the battle of Gettysburg, near Richmond, in 1862.

He was captured by the Union forces in 1862, and was held in a prison in Richmond, Va., until he was exchanged in 1863.

He is a well-known old man, and belongs to Mobile, Ala., where he has a wife and several daughters.

Al. Daggett Again Testifies.

Al. Daggett was again put on the stand to-day in the hearing before Judge Baegert, respecting the bill of $11,500, which failed to pass.

Neither Mr. Hoffman nor Mr. Hoffman's wife, when an EVENING WORLD reporter called there this morning, will probably be called for most again in case it should be rejected.

There was a crowd of frowny Anarchists in the hall, and they were very noisy.

Just before noon Judge Baegert, representing the State, made application to Judge Morgan for a writ of habeas corpus requiring the Warden of the Tombs to produce the man.

Judge O'Brien granted the writ and made it returnable at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning.

A CYCLOPEDIA FOR 25 CENTS

No Fear of Gripe

Need be felt by those who keep the blood pure and vigorous with Ayer's Sarsaparilla—it makes the weak strong. Prostration is the most characteristic and serious symptom of the prevailing disease. It is during this debilitated condition of the body that bronchitis, pneumonia, typhoid, and malaria fasten upon the patient. Be careful and not allow the system to run down. Prevention is better than cure.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is just the thing for patients recovering from the gripe.

Without Scalding or Boiling a Single Article

no matter how soiled they may have been.

It certainly would be a wonderful relief to do away with the terribly disgusting and the awful steam smell that is part of the old hard killing way of washing that makes washday a hideous reality, hanging over a woman week in and week out, no sooner over than the next one looms up before her like a frightful nightmare.

Do Not Have This Skeleton in your House any longer, but at once make up your mind that you will put aside prejudice and see for yourself the saving in time, the saving in work and the saving in the wear of the clothes, for Frank Siddalls Soap is positively guaranteed not to injure the most delicate fabric, and leaves the hands soft and smooth even where there is a tendency to rough or chapped hands, tetter, salt rheum or other skin troubles.

My Soap will be found to agree with the most tender skin, even where the most expensive "Fancy" Soaps roughen, and are otherwise deleterious to them, and of course if it is easier on the skin than other soap, it must be easier on the clothes than other Soap.

Sold by more than 3,000 Grocers in New York, Brooklyn and adjacent cities. Try it next washday—if not sold in your neighborhood (and you have made up your mind to put aside every one of your own ideas about washing) write for information how to get enough to try on a family wash.
