

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1890.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA CRAIN GETS IT

Mayor Grant's Young Secretary Appointed City Chamberlain.

Succeeds to Croker's Place and $25,000 Salary.

Tremendous Surprise for the Big Guns in Tammany Hall.

Ex-Judge Leicester Holmes Appointed Mayor's Private Secretary.

Thomas C. T. Crain was at noon today appointed City Chamberlain to succeed Richard Croker.

The new Chamberlain has been Mayor Grant's private secretary since his inauguration, Jan. 1, 1889.

The appointment was made after the retiring Chamberlain had been in consultation with the Mayor, in his private office, for about ten minutes.

Later in the day Mayor Grant appointed ex-Judge Leicester Holmes his private secretary in Mr. Crain's place.

The salary of the Mayor's private secretary is $5,000 a year.

Mr. Crain is a member of the Seventh District Tammany Hall Committee, and in great demand during campaigns as an orator.

He was born in New York City May 25, 1860. He is a grandson of Col. William C. Crain, of Herkimer County, who was for many years one of the most prominent Democrats of the State, being twice Speaker of the Assembly and once the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant-Governor. He is the son of D. Jones Crain, who was at one time a prominent member of the Legislature and for many years United States Consul at Milan.

Mr. Crain lived in this city until 1866, when his family went abroad. He spent from 1866 to 1872 in different parts of Europe, and acquired familiarity with the French, German and Italian languages.

He returned to New York in 1872, and except for about a year when he attended the Friends' Seminary in Sixteenth street was educated entirely at home.

In 1877 his father was appointed United States Consul at Milan, and he went abroad with him, assisting him in the duties of that office.

In 1879 he was appointed Vice and Deputy Consul at Milan and acted as such until 1881, when he returned to New York and began the study of law in the office of Platt & Bowers.

In 1884 he was admitted to practice. About this time he connected himself with the Tammany Hall organization of the Seventh District, in which he has since been very prominent.

The first speech in the Hall was in support of a resolution passed at the death of Gen. Hancock. He introduced the resolution which declared the sympathy of that organization with the movement for Home Rule in Ireland. He has since spoken at different meetings in the city in behalf of the Irish cause, and is a popular campaign orator.

Upon the introduction of the resolution against Trusts in Tammany Hall he was appointed one of the committee to draft a bill for presentation to the Legislature against them, and assisted in the formulation of the bill.

He argued before the Assembly Judiciary Committee in support of the bill and against John E. Parsons, who appeared in behalf of the Trusts against it.

Mr. Crain has the reputation of being a shrewd and able lawyer and is a member of the firm of Kennecott, Crain & Alling, with offices in the Mills Building.

He was always fond of debate and oratory, and three years ago was elected President of the Literary Society of the Young Men's Christian Association. Some high-handed proceedings of the Board of Directors aroused his hostility, and, together with half the members of the Literary Society, he seceded.

To say that the appointment of Mr. Crain to so important and lucrative a position was a surprise to the politicians is putting the case rather mildly. Some of them were stupefied with astonishment.

But when it is considered that Mr. Crain many returns from Europe next Summer cured of his present infirmity, and ready, able and willing to resume the duties of the Chamberlain's office, the appointment of Mr. Crain at the present time is looked on as the most fitting which could be made.

It was evidently made with the sanction if not at the suggestion of Mr. Croker, and there is little doubt but Mr. Crain, who is devoted to the Wigwam, would willingly render the office up on the demand of his chief.

Mr. Croker did not get downtown until shortly before noon, and then went directly to the Mayor's office, where Mr. Crain's appointment as his successor was arranged. He said, with reference to his departure: "I shall sail on the Fulda Saturday morning at 7 o'clock."

"The only members of my family who will accompany me are my two elder sons."

"I shall go direct to Carlsbad and put myself under treatment at once. I expect to return to New York by the middle of May."

There will be a meeting of the Tammany Hall Committee of Twenty-four at the Forteenth Street Wigwam this evening, when it is expected, that all arrangements necessary by the departure of Mr. Croker will be attended to.

Public Works Commissioner Thomas F. Gilroy, it is said, will be the virtual leader during Mr. Croker's absence in Europe, although the latter will in no wise have relinquished his right to the title, and will probably resume the arduous duties of the position on his return.

The appointment of Mr. Crain is not without precedent. It will be remembered that Mayor Grace appointed his private secretary, Wm. M. Ivins, City Chamberlain, and Mayor Edison appointed Private Secretary and S. Hastings Grant to be Comptroller.

While many hint that he is appointed to fill the position until Mr. Croker's return, it is warmly asserted by others that Mr. Crain will serve out the full term.

FAIR BILL REVIVED.

Passed by the Senate This Morning by a Vote of 18 to 5.

But the Platt Amendment Again Rejected in Assembly.

Another Conference Committee Appointed by Mr. Husted.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) ALBANY, Feb. 6.—The Senate has just reconsidered the vote by which the World's Fair bill was lost yesterday.

An attempt to amend by striking out the Platt names was made, but this was declared out of order.

The bill was then passed by 18 yeas to 5 nays.

Senator Chase, of Albany, and Ahearn, of New York, voted with the Republicans.

The bill as amended must now come up in the Assembly.

When the bill reached the Assembly, on motion of Mr. Fish, the Senate amendments were rejected and a conference committee was ordered.

Speaker Husted appointed the committee as follows:

Messrs. Fish, Whipple and J. J. Burns, Republicans; Hitt and R. P. Bush, Democrats.

Assemblyman Rogers is reported as having a new World's Fair bill, providing for a corporation of 120 members, to be appointed by President Harrison, Gov. Hill, Mayor Grant and Speaker Husted.

They MAY CAUSE A HITCH.

The Cast-Iron Regulations for the McAuliffe-Carroll Fight.

Will there be a "hitch" in the Jack McAuliffe-Jimmy Carroll match, which is down for March 21, at the California Athletic Club?

This is the question that admirers of pugilism are asking themselves.

Trouble may arise over the articles of agreement which the contestants are asked to sign. These articles are of a peculiarly ironical nature and unnecessary arbitrary.

McAuliffe has his $2,500 forfeit money posted at the Police Gazette office. This morning he received a letter from the California Athletic Club, asking that the Club receive McAuliffe's signature.

Neither Mr. Fox nor W. E. Harling believe that McAuliffe will agree to the cast-iron regulations imposed, apparently for no reason, by the Club.

It is possible that McAuliffe and his shrewd manager, Billy Madden, will insist on an amendment of the articles.

McAuliffe will not send on his $2,500 forfeit until he hears from the light-weight champion.

FALLON TO BOX ELLINGER.

An Interesting Contest to Be Held in Jersey City To-Night.

Sporting men in this city are discussing the prospect of seeing a lively boxing match at Cronheim's Hoboken Theatre to-night.

The contestants are to be Jack Fallon, the well-known Brooklyn Strong Boy, who was Peter Jackson's sparring partner abroad, and Ed Ellinger, the big colored pugilist, of Jersey City.

The match is to be a six-round one, and will fall on Friday evening, Feb. 7, at 8 o'clock. Fallon is to forfeit $50 to the colored pugilist.

Ed Hardin, sporting editor of the Police Gazette, has been chosen to act as referee.

Stevenson will bet a large amount of cash that the Brooklyn Boy will succeed in vanquishing Ellinger within the stated number of rounds.

BREWERS PUT UNDER ARREST.

Mayer and Kuntz Charged with Violating Internal Revenue Laws.

Daniel P. Morrissey, Deputy Collector of U. S. Internal Revenue of the Fourteenth District, made arrests before U. S. Commissioner Shields, this afternoon, charging David Mayer and Joseph Kuntz, brewers, doing business at One Hundred and Sixty-fourth street and Third avenue, with attempting to defraud the Government.

Morrissey alleged that during the month of December, 1889, Kuntz and Mayer failed to enter in the Government book the kind and amount of the quantity sold by them, as required by law.

The brewers came down to Commissioner Shields's office this afternoon and were held in $500 bail each for examination.

A NEW EAST RIVER BRIDGE.

A Bill Introduced Incorporating a Company to Build It.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) ALBANY, Feb. 6.—Assemblyman Grotzinger introduced a bill incorporating Andrew H. Gips, Alfred Wagstaff, Anthony Barrett, Charles Duff and G. W. Smith as a company for the purpose of constructing a bridge over the East River.

The company is to have a capital of $1,000,000, and have power to locate the bridge and condemn the property required.

HIS HEADLESS BODY FOUND.

Mysterious Death of Luke Frost, a Wealthy Richmond Man.

THREE SUITS.

The Philadelphia Club After Fogarty, Sanders and Farrar.

PAPERS WERE FILED TO-DAY.

Injunctions Asked Also Against President Love, as Employer.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 6.—Judge I. Rogers, solicitor for the Philadelphia Baseball Club, limited, to-day filed three bills in equity in the Common Pleas Court, No. 4—one against James G. Fogarty and Henry M. Love; one against A. B. Sanders and Henry M. Love, and one against S. D. Farrar and Henry M. Love.

The Court is asked to restrain, in each case, each first-named defendant, from playing baseball with, or giving his services as a ball player for the season of 1890 to any other club or organization, person or persons whatever, other than the plaintiff.

Also, to enjoin Mr. Love from employing either Fogarty, Sanders or Farrar, or otherwise interfering with the giving of their services for said season of 1890 to the plaintiff.

The first bill sets forth that Fogarty executed a contract with the Philadelphia Baseball Club on April 22, 1889, for the season of 1889, at a salary of $2,500, this contract giving the power to the Club to "reserve" the player for the following season.

Such reservation was made by the Philadelphia Club, by written notice served on Fogarty on the 21st of October, 1889.

The charge is that Fogarty had recently contracted to give his services as ball player for the season beginning April 1, 1890, to the defendant, H. M. Love, with privilege to Love to assign said contract to the Players' National League Baseball Club, of Philadelphia, and that Fogarty had and he would not play for the plaintiff during the season of 1890.

The charges in Sanders's case are similar, except that the contract was signed on the 23rd of October, 1888, and Sanders's salary was to be $2,000, with a bonus of $675.

Farrar's contract was signed March 24, 1889, and his salary was to be $2,000.

The facts of reservation and a new contract are set exactly as in the two other cases.

THE WORCESTER TROUBLE.

Manager Sullivan's Torse Comment on President Young's Letter.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) LOWELL, Mass., Feb. 6.—A letter was received by Manager Sullivan, from Providence, R. I., to-day saying that that city will be in the New Era and League, and that grounds are being cleared at the time that President Young's letter to Barrie, Manager Sullivan says.

The Worcester case is a member of the Atlantic Association is in President Young's hands and was accepted, it is generally understood at the time that Worcester was going to remain in the New Era League, and the Arbitration Committee not President Young, settles that question.

HOOSIERS' SEASON TICKETS.

On Sale Already—Brush Says He'll Keep His Stars.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 6.—The reports that Indianapolis would have no League ball club were seemingly set at rest to-day when season tickets were placed on sale.

Freddie Brush says that present star players will not be transferred to any other city.

HE MAY BE A MURDERER.

Navajo Indians Give Signs of Hostility to California Settlers.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) DURANGO, Cal., Feb. 6.—Frank H. Quinn arrived from the San Juan river last night with news that the settlers along the San Juan, Animas and Paria rivers are in fear of a general massacre at the hands of the Navajo Indians.

A few days ago the Navajo drove the famo woman named Maria Powers, after the said he escaped. He was arrested last night by Police Officer Carter, of the tank street station.

Miss Powers is now at Bellevue Hospital and is said to be in serious condition. Mr. Powers lives at 155 Park Row. He is twenty-eight years old.

BIG GAS BILL VETOED.

Three Months' Supply to Raymond Street Jail Valued at $3,400.

Superior-at-Large Kretzschmar, of Brooklyn, to-day vetoed the bill of the Brooklyn Gaslight Company for $3,400 for gas consumed in Raymond Street Jail during the quarter ending Jan. 31.

Mr. Kretzschmar, in a communication to the Board of Supervisors, said that in his opinion the bill was extortionate, and recommended that the matter be referred to the Finance Committee for investigation.

Arranging Another Dock Strike.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) LONDON, Feb. 6.—The committee of the Dock Laborers' Union is making arrangements for a general strike on Monday.

Many of the men are averse to striking again, and the action of the Committee causes much discontent.

Her Broken Ankle Worth $200.

Pauline Needell, who broke her ankle June 10, 1888, by stepping through a hole in the sidewalk at 24 Livingston street, and which cost her the right leg, is now worth $200 in damages.

SECRETARY TRACY NUCH BETTER.

Reported as Having Passed a Quiet and Restful Night.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Secretary Tracy passed a quiet and restful night, and was reported to be considerably better this morning.

MINE HORROR.

120 Men Probably Lost by a Colliery Explosion in Wales.

PARTIES STILL SEARCHING FOR BURIED, LIVING AND DEAD.

(SPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD.) LONDON, Feb. 6.—By an explosion in the Willanette River rose with unexpected rapidity last night, and many first street merchants took flight to be prepared for the worst.

The Marion street bridge and steel bridge continue to be absorbing points of interest.

Early this morning another building from Powys's furniture factory was swept down by the current and judged against the west end pier of the bridge.

Soon after a lot of framework came along and lodged on top of it.

The pressure is tremendous. A factory building, with all its contents crowded under the timbers this morning, and a warehouse came floating down the river and jammed under both bridges.

The roof last night taken off and piles of freight lay exposed.

The wharves were about three hundred feet long, and is supposed to have come from Oregon City.

Most of the docks are safe enough, even for a higher rise; but some of them are a little shaky.

The Pacific Postal Telegraph Company secured eastern wires, but could not get messages from the south further than Cozuzaco.

ROCHESTER HAS A BIG FIRE.

Great Business Structures Barely Saved in the Heart of the City.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) ROCHESTER, Feb. 6.—At a o'clock, a Mr. A. Brocke out in J. K. Hunt's large factory just off State street, in the business heart of the city.

The building was filled with pine boxes, and the flaming embers were carried by a strong wind into the street, where they struck the Brackett house and much of the street business property.

A few days ago the entire Fire Department, however, the fire was confined to Hunt's and the two adjoining buildings.

The loss is between $75,000 and $100,000.

THE BALLOT-BOX CASE.

Sherman and Halsted Testify Before the Committee To-Day.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The Ballot-box Investigating Committee resumed its session to-day.

Senator Sherman testified that he had never seen or signed the alleged ballot-box contract.

Editor Halsted, of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, detailed the way in which the document was brought to his attention, the reasons he had for believing it was genuine, and what his plans were as to its publication and use in the campaign.

His testimony was graphically given and listened to with great interest, but he seemed no important facts not already known.

FULLY IN HARNESS NOW.

President Seth Low Formally Assumes Charge of Columbia College.

Seth Low, the new President of Columbia College, was formally installed in his new office last Wednesday, assumed charge of that institution for the first time this morning.

There was no demonstration beyond the congratulations of the Faculty and students.

EDMUND W. CORLIS DEAD.

Widely Known as the President of the Bank of America.

President Edmund W. Corlis, of the Bank of America, 46 Wall street, died at his home on Columbia Heights, Brooklyn, at a late hour last night.

Learning Civil-Service Catastrophe.

The annual civil-service examination for the position of senior clerk in the Post-Office was held in the Federal Building this morning. It was conducted by E. B. Jones, U. S. Postmaster, assisted by J. L. Eaton and E. W. Morgan. There were fifty-three applicants.

Elkins Wins the Dunderberg Suit.

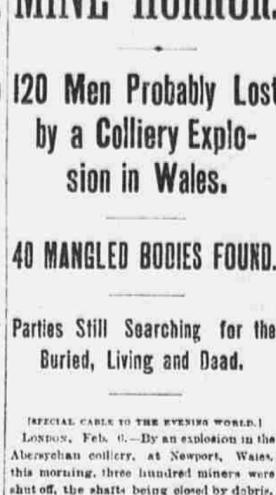

Judge Dikman, in the Supreme Court at Brooklyn, this morning dismissed the suit of George W. Wells against Stephen B. Elkins and others to recover $400 paid for shares in the Dunderberg mine.

Fraud was alleged, but not maintained by the evidence.

Stevens' "Imperial" Prepared Flour.

Believed to be the best ever made, and is in preparation. All grades, cases, and

LOOK OUT, MR. PLATT; RETRIBUTION IS BEHIND YOU!

GREAT FLOODS IN OREGON.

Entire Buildings Float Down the Swollen Rivers.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 6.—The water in the Willanette River rose with unexpected rapidity last night, and many first street merchants took flight to be prepared for the worst.

The Marion street bridge and steel bridge continue to be absorbing points of interest.

Early this morning another building from Powys's furniture factory was swept down by the current and judged against the west end pier of the bridge.

Soon after a lot of framework came along and lodged on top of it.

The pressure is tremendous. A factory building, with all its contents crowded under the timbers this morning, and a warehouse came floating down the river and jammed under both bridges.

The roof last night taken off and piles of freight lay exposed.

The wharves were about three hundred feet long, and is supposed to have come from Oregon City.

Most of the docks are safe enough, even for a higher rise; but some of them are a little shaky.

The Pacific Postal Telegraph Company secured eastern wires, but could not get messages from the south further than Cozuzaco.

FELL DEAD IN THE HOTEL.

Mrs. Ex-Judge McLouth Expires at the Fifth Avenue.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Mrs. Caroline C. McLouth, wife of ex-Judge Charles McLouth, of Palmyra, N. Y., died suddenly this morning at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

Mrs. McLouth, who was sixty-three years old, accompanied her husband to this city, where he had come to attend the Centennial celebration of the Supreme Court.

Yesterday she was in her usual health, and was out shopping. This morning she complained of feeling ill, and did not accompany her husband to the dining-room to breakfast, but asked that breakfast be sent to her room.

Soon after her friend, Mr. B. P. Thorpe, arrived at the hotel, but received no response and found the door locked. The door was forced open and Mrs. McLouth was discovered lying face down on the bed.

Dupuy coroner Jenkins was notified and after a post-mortem examination said that Mrs. McLouth died of apoplexy.

He gave a permit for the body to be removed to Palmyra.

FOUGHT A BANG OF THIEVES.

Detectives Have a Desperate Battle on a Greenwood Lake Island.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) PATRICKSON, N. J., Feb. 6.—Dan Gordon, Nick Aherman, Peter and James Fleming, members of a gang who have terrorized the neighborhood of Greenwood Lake, and whose utter indifference for participating in a riot at the lake, during which the hotel on the island, was wrecked, are said to have been after an encounter that savors of a novel literature.

Detectives Harris, Shlay and Lunny, employed on the Erie Railroad, were after the gang for the robbery of the depot at the lake last November.

The officers heard that the gang had taken refuge on Storm Island, at the lower end of the lake. Here they had entrenched themselves and were ready to repulse any attack.

The officers, with thirty men, started yesterday afternoon, swapped down upon the island. The gang was ready with revolvers, clubs and knives, and all sorts of missiles, and when the leaders of the officers were about to touch the island they were greeted with a volley of bullets.

They succeeded in landing, and a desperate hand-to-hand encounter ensued, but were overpowered by superior numbers. They were all secured, and started for Paterson on a special train.

During the trip Dan Gordon made one last attempt to escape, jumping from the train, which was then going at the rate of forty miles an hour.

Mr. Aherman was immediately stopped, and Gordon caught after a hard chase. He received a bad wound on the head in jumping from the train.

TAX ON VANDERBILT LEGACIES.

Charitable Institutions Fighting Against the Payment.

A motion to compel the payment of the collateral inheritance tax on the legacies received by various charitable and religious institutions, under the will of William H. Vanderbilt, was argued before Judge Mitchell in his court-room this morning.

These legacies aggregate about $1,000,000, and the tax of 5 per cent. would net the State $50,000.

Herlitz H. De la Paro appeared for the State, Henry H. Anderson for the executors of the will, and others for the legatees.

Facts were presented respecting the tax, on the ground that the legatees were exempt by either special or general stipulations.

Mr. Anderson said that the executors had paid the legacies and could not be held liable.

Mr. De la Paro contended that the executors were supposed to know the law and were liable to pay the tax.

Decisions will be submitted two weeks hence.

SALTONSTALL'S SUCCESSOR.

Alanson W. Beard Nominated for the Collectorship at Boston.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Alanson W. Beard was today nominated for Collector of the Port of Boston.

Mr. Beard succeeds Collector Saltonstall, who has been assigned to resign.

The new appointee was born at Ludlow, Vt., Aug. 26, 1825.

He entered the army as a farm and received a common school education with private instruction at home.

He entered mercantile life in 1847, opening a store at Pittsfield, Vt., and entered with the Republican party in its formation in 1854.

Five Chinamen Killed.

TOWLEN, Cal., Feb. 6.—Five Chinese, on their way to Dutch Flat, were overwhelmed by an avalanche of snow.

EXTRA BUCKSTONE

Won in a Canter, Defeating the Favorite, Peril.

MR. DOWNING RULED OFF.

Howe, Frejols and J. J. O'B. Were Also Winners.

(