

NOT LIKED BY THE UNION. ADDED MURDER TO WRONG.

Central Labor Men Object to the Chief Factory Inspector.

They Want Gov. Hill to Appoint the Women Inspectors.

The Central Labor Union is strenuously opposed to any change being made in the present Women Factory Inspector bill, the passage of which has been earnestly advocated by THE EVENING WORLD.

One clause of the bill in its original shape vested the Governor with power to appoint women inspectors, but upon its introduction the Senate changed that clause so that the appointing power lay with the Chief Factory Inspector.

At a meeting of the Central Labor Union, held in Clarendon Hall yesterday afternoon, this change formed the subject of earnest discussion, which terminated in the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, The Central Labor Union of New York has carefully examined the present Women Factory Inspector bill, particularly the provision vesting the appointing power in the Governor, and in preference to the present provision, and whereas the clause has been amended so that the appointing power is vested in the Chief Factory Inspector, whom we deem unworthy of the administration of the office of Factory Inspector, and by public attack upon the Inspector.

At a meeting of the Central Labor Union, held in Clarendon Hall yesterday afternoon, this change formed the subject of earnest discussion, which terminated in the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, The Central Labor Union of New York has carefully examined the present Women Factory Inspector bill, particularly the provision vesting the appointing power in the Governor, and in preference to the present provision, and whereas the clause has been amended so that the appointing power is vested in the Chief Factory Inspector, whom we deem unworthy of the administration of the office of Factory Inspector, and by public attack upon the Inspector.

At a meeting of the Central Labor Union, held in Clarendon Hall yesterday afternoon, this change formed the subject of earnest discussion, which terminated in the adoption of the following resolution:

ADDED MURDER TO WRONG.

Manager Waterman's Victim Was a Justly Jealous Husband.

Shot Down When He Objected to His Wife Choosing Another Companion.

The Brooklyn police are busy hunting up witnesses for the inquest to be held tomorrow evening by Coroner Lindsay in the case of Peter Doran, who was shot and instantly killed at Meserole and Lorimer streets late Saturday night by Manager A. R. Waterman, of the Lyceum Theatre in Williamsburg.

Waterman was in the company of Mrs. Doran at the time and claims that he shot the husband in self-defense.

According to his story he was escorting her home from the theatre when her husband rushed up and knocked him down. As Doran was the bigger man Waterman says he drew his revolver fearing that his life was in danger and shot him. He did not draw his revolver till he had been knocked down and kicked several times.

Bystanders who witnessed the affray tell a very different story. They say that while Waterman and Mrs. Doran were walking along the street they were suddenly confronted by the angry husband, who told his wife that she must leave her companion and come home with him.

Waterman, on hearing this, turned to Mrs. Doran and asked her: "What are you going home with this man, or with me?" Mrs. Doran, who appeared to be very much annoyed, by the appearance of Doran immediately said, "Right in her husband's presence, that she preferred to have Waterman go home with her."

This so enraged Doran that he jumped at Waterman and tried to strike him, but he was pulled out of him by the police. Mrs. Doran, when Waterman was arrested, was taken to the police station and locked up with him, as he was the only man lived with her.

Waterman's act is justified by the killing of Doran was a really entirely unprovoked.

AWAITING THE FATAL VOLTS.

Kemmer Must Die Within the Week Beginning Monday Next.

His Execution to Mark the Departure from Established Customs.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) ALBANY, April 21.—Within the week which begins next Monday, April 22, William Kemmer must die within the walls of Auburn Prison.

The last day or moment of his death none can tell. That he must die in the week, the law has said. But many murderers lives have been taken before this, and it is not because Kemmer was a brutal murderer and because he is to die the severest penalty for his crime that his case is singled out, far and near, as one of extraordinary interest.

Kemmer is not only to be the subject of the law's punishment; he is to be, also, to an extent, a subject of the law's experiment.

There was nothing extraordinary about Kemmer's brutal killing of his mistress, Mrs. Doran, at the Lyceum Theatre in Williamsburg, except in the way that murder always seems an extraordinary and an awful crime for a man to commit.

Waterman and Mrs. Doran were walking along the street they were suddenly confronted by the angry husband, who told his wife that she must leave her companion and come home with him.

Waterman, on hearing this, turned to Mrs. Doran and asked her: "What are you going home with this man, or with me?" Mrs. Doran, who appeared to be very much annoyed, by the appearance of Doran immediately said, "Right in her husband's presence, that she preferred to have Waterman go home with her."

This so enraged Doran that he jumped at Waterman and tried to strike him, but he was pulled out of him by the police.

THE LEAGUERS' FIRST WORK.

Individual and Team Performances in Saturday's Local Games.

Sharper Opening Contest in the Old League than in the New.

A comparison of the work done by the Giants and the Phillies in their opening game at Brotherhood Park Saturday, shows nothing so much as the utter stiffness of Keefe and Bulliton, the pitchers.

Such a pitching as both men suffered in the second inning is seldom seen. They are hot weather pitchers and never get into trim before the middle of June.

The home team had a little bit of the batting, but Keefe lost all this advantage in the ninth inning by hitting two men with a ball. It may be said, however, that one of these men stepped directly into an in-shove.

This, indirectly, won the game for the visitors, as the continued erratic work, and when he did manage to put them over the plate the dark blue men knocked them out.

Keefe's first outburst came in the first inning, but the balance of brilliant outfielding was in favor of the new club.

Connor played magnificently at first, his batting being somewhat superior to that of Farrar.

Cross caught a better game than Ewing, but the visitors did much the best of the preparation of the grounds and has neglected the matter of the ground.

NEW YORK WELCOMES THE BASEBALL SEASON.

(From Saturday's Baseball Extra.)

RACING POINTERS.

Opinions of the Tipsters as to the Winners at Elizabeth. The following are the horses that different tipsters think should win on their merits:

Referee in the Sporting World, gives the following: First Race—Tipstaff, Jim Duke, 2. Second Race—Hannibal, 1; Young Duke, 2.

From Other Morning Papers. First Race—Hannibal, 1; Young Duke, 2. Second Race—Hannibal, 1; Young Duke, 2.

Tipstaff and Besse K. for the first race. Castaway and Eric for the second race. Tipstaff and Besse K. for the first race. Castaway and Eric for the second race.

There is every promise of great sport at Linden to-morrow when the regular Spring meeting opens with six well filled races.

The Regular Meeting Opens To-morrow with Fine Fields. There is every promise of great sport at Linden to-morrow when the regular Spring meeting opens with six well filled races.

IN MALE ATTIRE.

A Kentucky Widow's Quest for Employment as a Car-Driver. (SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.) LOUISVILLE, April 21.—Unable to earn a living by plying her needle, Mrs. E. M. Nugent, a middle-aged woman and a widow, last week left her little girl at Owensboro and came here to look for work.

Her quest for work has been fruitless, and she has been obliged to return to Owensboro. She has been obliged to return to Owensboro.

Gen. Butler's Work. (SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.) BOSTON, April 21.—Gen. Butler says the work of getting up his autobiography is progressing slowly and that two or three years may be required to complete the work to his satisfaction.

Has Preached 2,666 Sermons. The twentieth anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. Samuel Kimball was celebrated yesterday at the Emmanuel Baptist Church, in Suffolk street, near Grand, Rev. W. H. P. Faunce, pastor of the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, delivered an address in the evening.

Will Wed Gen. Draper. (SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.) BOSTON, April 20.—The engagement is announced of Miss Preston, daughter of the late Gen. Preston of Lexington, Ky., and Minister to Spain under Buchanan, to Gen. William F. Draper, of Hopedale.

Setting on English Races. (SPECIAL CABLE DESPATCH TO THE WORLD.) LONDON, April 20.—The Pioneer is still a firm favorite for the City and suburban next Wednesday at three to one. Royal Star, Kalkour and Wellington will, it is said, accompany Pioneer to the post.

BRIGHT EYES LED TO DEATH.

Johnny Griffin's Fatal Flirtation on a Tenement-House Roof.

The body of young John H. Griffin lies in a coffin at his mother's humble Bayard street home to-day, death having resulted suddenly by a most singular accident.

He essayed to clamber over a wooden picket fence that surrounds the five-foot wide air and light shaft between the six-story tenement-houses 61 and 63 West street, intending to lean across the opening and join two pretty young Italian girls on the further roof. But the fence gave way and he was precipitated to the asphalt pavement at the foot of the shaft and instantly killed.

Johnny Griffin was one of the brightest boys in the parish of the Catholic Church of the Transfiguration. He went to the parish school as a child, and afterwards to the Thirteenth street Grammar School.

He was intended for a priest, but four years ago his father died, and this changed all the plans for the lad.

He was so frightened by the fatal accident to his father that he was obliged to leave the parish school as a child, and afterwards to the Thirteenth street Grammar School.

EXTRA

2 O'CLOCK.

STABBED IN A STREET FIGHT

Francis Connor Dying from a Dozen Fearful Gashes.

His Assailant, a Shoemaker, Used His Keen Leather Knife.

A group of men entered the Fifth street police station at 3.30 o'clock this morning, carrying a heavy burden between them. They laid it down in front of the desk, and the sergeant who was the duty of a man bathed in blood. There was life in it, for it hurried and groaned.

A hurried message for an ambulance was rung and then the spokesman gave the name of the six as follows: Joseph Kramer, 440 East Twelfth street; Joseph Roth, 113 to 114 street; Joseph Jotzen, 343 Ninth street; Frederick Schmidt, 1150 First avenue; John de Forest, 183 Bowery; Benjamin Mulhoo, 80 Eighth street.

He then went on to say that most of them had been together with the wounded man, Francis Connor, of 17 City Hall place, in Bell's Green, about 11 o'clock, at 640 East Twelfth street, all day yesterday, or the greater part of it, drinking beer.

Towards midnight the party felt the need of a little fresh air and started out on a tour of the tenement street.

Some time after 2 o'clock they found themselves at Eighth street and First avenue. They had been drinking beer in the tenement street, and now it broke out in an open row.

Francis Connor was one of the brightest boys in the parish of the Catholic Church of the Transfiguration. He went to the parish school as a child, and afterwards to the Thirteenth street Grammar School.

He was intended for a priest, but four years ago his father died, and this changed all the plans for the lad.

JACKSON'S ST. LOUIS RECEPTION.

Twelve Thousand People Turn Out to See Him.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.) ST. LOUIS, April 20.—Twelve thousand persons, about equally divided between whites and blacks, thronged the way into Brotherhood Park to-day to see Peter Jackson, the Australian negro pugilist. A squad of police were on hand to see that the law prohibiting sparring or prize-fighting suffered no violation.

The veteran Tom Kelly acted as master of ceremonies and introduced Parson Davies, Jack Ashton and Peter Jackson, to the cheering throng.

There were many yells for Sullivan. Kelly announced that the author of the charge of sparring, therefore those present would have to content with an exhibition of three minutes each in a very exhibition manner. A result, all interested in the cause should pull together until that object is accomplished.

MR. WATTERSON WAS LOSER.

The Louisville Editor Leaves $1,000 in a Memphis Poker Room.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.) MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 20.—When Henry Watterson, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, was in Memphis a day or two ago he lost $1,000 in a social game of draw in a fashionable club. Murray Keller, a well-known horse owner of Louisville was also in the game.

The Louisville Editor Leaves $1,000 in a Memphis Poker Room. Murray Keller, a well-known horse owner of Louisville was also in the game.

MILLIONS AT STAKE.

A Three-Cornered Contest for a Dead Man's Money.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.) BUTTE, Mont., April 20.—The contest over the seven-million-dollar estate of the late Judge A. J. Davis, the Crosses of Montana, writes and blazes, the way into Brotherhood Park to-day to see Peter Jackson, the Australian negro pugilist.

There were many yells for Sullivan. Kelly announced that the author of the charge of sparring, therefore those present would have to content with an exhibition of three minutes each in a very exhibition manner.

A result, all interested in the cause should pull together until that object is accomplished.

"JERRY" RUSK TO THE FARMERS.

A Higher Tariff on Farm Products Necessary, He Thinks.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.) WASHINGTON, April 20.—"Uncle Jerry" Rusk, the Secretary of Agriculture, is about to issue an address to the farmers of the country explaining how the depression in agriculture can be remedied. He attributes this in part to carelessness in culture, and says that in these days of world-wide competition a successful farmer must be as well trained and careful in business as the stockbreeder and his equal in intelligence and general education.

He will issue an address to the farmers of the country explaining how the depression in agriculture can be remedied.

HE'S IN THE ASYLUM NOW.

Millionaire Lehman, of Chicago, Is in Bloomington.

E. J. Lehman, the Chicago millionaire who was sent to Bloomington Insane Asylum, in this city, last Thursday, was well known to sporting men in this and many other cities. He drank comparatively little, but was very fond of the green cloth, faro being his favorite game. He never bet more than a limit, generally played in very good luck.

He was well known to sporting men in this and many other cities. He drank comparatively little, but was very fond of the green cloth, faro being his favorite game.

Robbed on Their Bridal Tour.

KANSAS AGENT OF THE EASTERN AGENT OF THE ROCK ISLAND RAILROAD, WAS MARRIED ON WEDNESDAY IN CHICAGO.

Among the presents to the bride were a handsome pair of diamond earrings from the bridegroom and some rubies and pearls from her relatives, the jewels being worth $2,500. The couple started for Denver on their bridal tour, on Friday.

They were robbed on their bridal tour, on Friday. The couple started for Denver on their bridal tour, on Friday.

MRS. A. T. STEWART'S NIECE.

Death of Mrs. S. N. Smith, Who Sued Henry Hilton.

Mrs. Sarah Nicoll Smith, a niece of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart died yesterday in the city. She was the wife of Lawrence Smith and the daughter of James Clinch. The funeral services will be held at St. James' Church, Smithtown, L. I., on Wednesday.

BASEBALL TO-DAY.

The principal championship baseball games for to-day are scheduled as follows:

PLAYERS' LEAGUE. NATIONAL LEAGUE. Philadelphia at New York. Philadelphia at Boston. Philadelphia at Chicago. Philadelphia at Cincinnati.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION. Columbus at St. Louis. Brooklyn at New York. Louisville at Toledo.

THE EVENING WORLD'S Meeting Contest is set open for the opening of the season at Brotherhood Park, Brooklyn, April 22, between the Brooklyn and Philadelphia clubs (P. L. C.) and at Washington Park, Brooklyn, April 24, between the Brooklyn and Philadelphia (N. L. C.) Coupon on second page.

MRS. A. T. STEWART'S NIECE. Death of Mrs. S. N. Smith, Who Sued Henry Hilton. Mrs. Sarah Nicoll Smith, a niece of the late Mrs. A. T. Stewart died yesterday in the city.

THE EVENING WORLD'S Meeting Contest is set open for the opening of the season at Brotherhood Park, Brooklyn, April 22, between the Brooklyn and Philadelphia clubs (P. L. C.) and at Washington Park, Brooklyn, April 24, between the Brooklyn and Philadelphia (N. L. C.) Coupon on second page.

THE POOL-BALLING AT LOUISVILLE.

The pool-balling at Louisville, on Saturday night on the above named, was as follows:

First Race—Tipstaff, 1; Besse K., 2. Second Race—Castaway, 1; Eric, 2. Third Race—Tipstaff, 1; Besse K., 2. Fourth Race—Castaway, 1; Eric, 2.

Tipstaff and Besse K. for the first race. Castaway and Eric for the second race. Tipstaff and Besse K. for the first race. Castaway and Eric for the second race.

There is every promise of great sport at Linden to-morrow when the regular Spring meeting opens with six well filled races.

The Regular Meeting Opens To-morrow with Fine Fields. There is every promise of great sport at Linden to-morrow when the regular Spring meeting opens with six well filled races.

The Regular Meeting Opens To-morrow with Fine Fields. There is every promise of great sport at Linden to-morrow when the regular Spring meeting opens with six well filled races.

THE POOL-BALLING AT LOUISVILLE.

The pool-balling at Louisville, on Saturday night on the above named, was as follows:

First Race—Tipstaff, 1; Besse K., 2. Second Race—Castaway, 1; Eric, 2. Third Race—Tipstaff, 1; Besse K., 2. Fourth Race—Castaway, 1; Eric, 2.

Tipstaff and Besse K. for the first race. Castaway and Eric for the second race. Tipstaff and Besse K. for the first race. Castaway and Eric for the second race.

There is every promise of great sport at Linden to-morrow when the regular Spring meeting opens with six well filled races.

The Regular Meeting Opens To-morrow with Fine Fields. There is every promise of great sport at Linden to-morrow when the regular Spring meeting opens with six well filled races.

The Regular Meeting Opens To-morrow with Fine Fields. There is every promise of great sport at Linden to-morrow when the regular Spring meeting opens with six well filled races.

THE POOL-BALLING AT LOUISVILLE.

The pool-balling at Louisville, on Saturday night on the above named, was as follows:

First Race—Tipstaff, 1; Besse K., 2. Second Race—Castaway, 1; Eric, 2. Third Race—Tipstaff, 1; Besse K., 2. Fourth Race—Castaway, 1; Eric, 2.

Tipstaff and Besse K. for the first race. Castaway and Eric for the second race. Tipstaff and Besse K. for the first race. Castaway and Eric for the second race.

There is every promise of great sport at Linden to-morrow when the regular Spring meeting opens with six well filled races.

The Regular Meeting Opens To-morrow with Fine Fields. There is every promise of great sport at Linden to-morrow when the regular Spring meeting opens with six well filled races.

The Regular Meeting Opens To-morrow with Fine Fields. There is every promise of great sport at Linden to-morrow when the regular Spring meeting opens with six well filled races.

THE POOL-BALLING AT LOUISVILLE.

The pool-balling at Louisville, on Saturday night on the above named, was as follows:

First Race—Tipstaff, 1; Besse K., 2. Second Race—Castaway, 1; Eric, 2. Third Race—Tipstaff, 1; Besse K., 2. Fourth Race—Castaway, 1; Eric, 2.

Tipstaff and Besse K. for the first race. Castaway and Eric for the second race. Tipstaff and Besse K. for the first race. Castaway and Eric for the second race.

There is every promise of great sport at Linden to-morrow when the regular Spring meeting opens with six well filled races.

The Regular Meeting Opens To-morrow with Fine Fields. There is every promise of great sport at Linden to-morrow when the regular Spring meeting opens with six well filled races.

The Regular Meeting Opens To-morrow with Fine Fields. There is every promise of great sport at Linden to-morrow when the regular Spring meeting opens with six well filled races.