

Published by the Press Publishing Company. SATURDAY EVENING, SEPT. 20. SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD (Including Postage): PER MONTH $0.30 PER YEAR $3.00 VOL. 31, NO. 10, 928

THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR.

Fashions, Fads and Fancies That Interest the Gentler Sex.

Wearing Apparel That is Named After Well-Known Women—Extremely Long Sleeves Now Fashionable—Wild Cat the Coming Fur for Dress Trimming—Familiar Birds for Hat Dressing—Female Convicts Who Make Tomato Catsup.

Mrs. Kendal has a fur cape named after her. There is a Carmelita blouse, a Nordica belt, a Nellie Bly can and a Patti cigar.

Now for a sparrow trap! Millions of the chattering, fighting little birds will be used in the winter millinery trade.

The ladies of the "Country Holiday Fund," of London, sent 20,773 children into the country last year at a cost of $1,000,000.

All fashionable dresses have now extremely long sleeves, coming down over the hand. These sleeves are often cut into long peaks which cover the back of the hand.

The plan of sending speakers to America to present the condition and needs of Ireland to the Irish-Americans has not been abandoned.

Col. GEORGE P. DAVIS has been appointed Director General of the World's Fair. Mr. DAVIS is not a Chicagoan by birth.

Col. DAVIS will do well to bear steadily in mind that he is the director of a World's Fair to be held in Chicago.

Major GRANT'S request to the Police Board to detail members of the force for the duty of getting the census of New York City has been complied with.

Wildcat is entered as the coming fur for dress trimming. Like the leopard skin, popularized by the Jersey Lily eight years ago, it will be used for the sleeves, collar and cuffs of cloth walking dresses.

When Mrs. Annie Rupert, the beautifier, retires, she is going to put $125,000 into a refuge for drunks men. No women will be admitted to the refuge, and no bills presented.

One of the causes for divorce alleged by a wife is that her husband used to grind his teeth at night, so that the boarders were quite disgusted.

A strike recently occurred because the bosses objected to the men regarding themselves on beer three times a day with a good regularity.

A dear old farmer in Ohio has been done out of $5,000 by two sharpers. It was the same old story, a bag full of paper, "not negotiable," the borrowing of the money to tide over a temporary tightness and the disappearance of the money and the men.

Is there anything so bad that something good cannot be predicated of it? An Austrian physician says a bee's sting is cure for rheumatism.

Mr. BONNER has purchased Alfred S. When this great horse lover buys an animal the public can afford to keep his eye on his record.

What a fate for OSMAN PASHA! To escape death at Plevna and then go down like a drowning rat in a sinking ship.

Nearly the Same. Miss Freshleigh—Lays go to Central Park. They're got a new champion.

Miss Freshleigh—Well, all right; we won't. It doesn't make much difference, any way.

What a fate for OSMAN PASHA! To escape death at Plevna and then go down like a drowning rat in a sinking ship.

WEDLOCK BLISS.

What Difference in Age Should There Be to Secure It?

A Question in Which Every Human Being is Interested.

Send Your Views to "The Evening World" and You May Win a Double Eagle.

Every reader of THE EVENING WORLD is invited to compete in this contest.

Should husband and wife be near the same age, or should the wife be much younger?

Contributions in this contest are subject to similar conditions of those in former competitions.

Selected communications from those received will be printed in daily instalments.

Age Not an Important Factor.

The relative ages of married people have no more to do with their happiness than the fall of Adam with the creation of the American Republic.

It is not the ages; it is the people themselves; exaggeration of trifles, lack of kindly feeling towards one another.

Love's Philosophy. She-George, dear, what do you think our happiness is chiefly dependent upon?

Gratitude. Mr. S. P. C. Childers—Boy, you shouldn't be; it's disgraceful! But don't cry—I'll give you ten cents for that paper you have there.

A Husband's Years Give Windom. By all means let our girls marry men who are thirty or forty years of age.

Conditions of a Perfect Marriage. The proper marriageable age for men is thirty years, that of women twenty-four years.

Bad Fun but Good Logic. Let the difference in age be what it may. When two conscientious, true, loving hearts beat only for each other, the right age is the paragon.

Worldlings. Annie lives cleaner is studying art at Fontainebleau and designs writing. She goes but little into society.

Women make strange mistakes in the artistic—to coin a word of dress, says an artist.

What a fate for OSMAN PASHA! To escape death at Plevna and then go down like a drowning rat in a sinking ship.

Nearly the Same. Miss Freshleigh—Lays go to Central Park. They're got a new champion.

Miss Freshleigh—Well, all right; we won't. It doesn't make much difference, any way.

What a fate for OSMAN PASHA! To escape death at Plevna and then go down like a drowning rat in a sinking ship.

Nearly the Same. Miss Freshleigh—Lays go to Central Park. They're got a new champion.

Miss Freshleigh—Well, all right; we won't. It doesn't make much difference, any way.

What a fate for OSMAN PASHA! To escape death at Plevna and then go down like a drowning rat in a sinking ship.

Nearly the Same. Miss Freshleigh—Lays go to Central Park. They're got a new champion.

Miss Freshleigh—Well, all right; we won't. It doesn't make much difference, any way.

What a fate for OSMAN PASHA! To escape death at Plevna and then go down like a drowning rat in a sinking ship.

Nearly the Same. Miss Freshleigh—Lays go to Central Park. They're got a new champion.

Miss Freshleigh—Well, all right; we won't. It doesn't make much difference, any way.

What a fate for OSMAN PASHA! To escape death at Plevna and then go down like a drowning rat in a sinking ship.

Nearly the Same. Miss Freshleigh—Lays go to Central Park. They're got a new champion.

Miss Freshleigh—Well, all right; we won't. It doesn't make much difference, any way.

What a fate for OSMAN PASHA! To escape death at Plevna and then go down like a drowning rat in a sinking ship.

Nearly the Same. Miss Freshleigh—Lays go to Central Park. They're got a new champion.

Miss Freshleigh—Well, all right; we won't. It doesn't make much difference, any way.

What a fate for OSMAN PASHA! To escape death at Plevna and then go down like a drowning rat in a sinking ship.

WEDLOCK BLISS.

What Difference in Age Should There Be to Secure It?

A Question in Which Every Human Being is Interested.

Send Your Views to "The Evening World" and You May Win a Double Eagle.

Every reader of THE EVENING WORLD is invited to compete in this contest.

Should husband and wife be near the same age, or should the wife be much younger?

Contributions in this contest are subject to similar conditions of those in former competitions.

Selected communications from those received will be printed in daily instalments.

Age Not an Important Factor.

The relative ages of married people have no more to do with their happiness than the fall of Adam with the creation of the American Republic.

It is not the ages; it is the people themselves; exaggeration of trifles, lack of kindly feeling towards one another.

Love's Philosophy. She-George, dear, what do you think our happiness is chiefly dependent upon?

Gratitude. Mr. S. P. C. Childers—Boy, you shouldn't be; it's disgraceful! But don't cry—I'll give you ten cents for that paper you have there.

A Husband's Years Give Windom. By all means let our girls marry men who are thirty or forty years of age.

Conditions of a Perfect Marriage. The proper marriageable age for men is thirty years, that of women twenty-four years.

Bad Fun but Good Logic. Let the difference in age be what it may. When two conscientious, true, loving hearts beat only for each other, the right age is the paragon.

Worldlings. Annie lives cleaner is studying art at Fontainebleau and designs writing. She goes but little into society.

Women make strange mistakes in the artistic—to coin a word of dress, says an artist.

What a fate for OSMAN PASHA! To escape death at Plevna and then go down like a drowning rat in a sinking ship.

Nearly the Same. Miss Freshleigh—Lays go to Central Park. They're got a new champion.

Miss Freshleigh—Well, all right; we won't. It doesn't make much difference, any way.

What a fate for OSMAN PASHA! To escape death at Plevna and then go down like a drowning rat in a sinking ship.

Nearly the Same. Miss Freshleigh—Lays go to Central Park. They're got a new champion.

Miss Freshleigh—Well, all right; we won't. It doesn't make much difference, any way.

What a fate for OSMAN PASHA! To escape death at Plevna and then go down like a drowning rat in a sinking ship.

Nearly the Same. Miss Freshleigh—Lays go to Central Park. They're got a new champion.

Miss Freshleigh—Well, all right; we won't. It doesn't make much difference, any way.

What a fate for OSMAN PASHA! To escape death at Plevna and then go down like a drowning rat in a sinking ship.

Nearly the Same. Miss Freshleigh—Lays go to Central Park. They're got a new champion.

Miss Freshleigh—Well, all right; we won't. It doesn't make much difference, any way.

What a fate for OSMAN PASHA! To escape death at Plevna and then go down like a drowning rat in a sinking ship.

Nearly the Same. Miss Freshleigh—Lays go to Central Park. They're got a new champion.

Miss Freshleigh—Well, all right; we won't. It doesn't make much difference, any way.

What a fate for OSMAN PASHA! To escape death at Plevna and then go down like a drowning rat in a sinking ship.

Nearly the Same. Miss Freshleigh—Lays go to Central Park. They're got a new champion.

Miss Freshleigh—Well, all right; we won't. It doesn't make much difference, any way.

What a fate for OSMAN PASHA! To escape death at Plevna and then go down like a drowning rat in a sinking ship.

NO EXTRAS FOR HIM.

Photographs of Daily Life from All Over the Country.

The Embarrassing Situation a Young Woman Found Herself in at Lincoln Park.

A good many thousand people go to Lincoln Park every evening to see the electric fountain.

Finally it was decided by the engineer in charge to start the fountain without the electric attachment in order to satisfy the crowd and induce it to disperse.

"That's nothing but plain Michigan Lake water," was the reply.

"I don't bring you."

"Did, too, and it's the last time I'll be fooled by you, Mr. Jackson!"

"Parson me, but you have made a mistake. My name is Jackson, don't it?"

"Not Jackson. Well, of it," but the young woman never ended the sentence for she turned to look at the person she had been conversing with.

There are two men in this city, says the Kansas City Star, who resemble each other very much.

As the cigar dealer was walking up Main street the other day an unknown gentleman met him and shook hands with him, greeting him as an old friend.

Nothing further was thought of the matter until a week afterwards, when the cigar dealer beheld his quondam acquaintance again beaming down on him all smiles.

Thinking the former momentary acquaintance warranted it, he too, smiled.

"Well, I don't know," he said, "but it came up," the funniest thing happened the other day. I stopped a fellow on the street and commenced talking to him.

Here he renewed his laugh at the thoughts of the occurrence, but it was speedily displaced by a troubled look when he learned that the latter chased around awhile longer till he found his friend the drug man for he was again mistaken in the party.

A Passion for Handkerchiefs Causes a London Merchant's Ruin.

To the eccentricities of the confirmed collector there is no end, says the London Globe. Collectors collect everything, and the possible limit to the list will only be reached when every collectible article under the sun shall have its band of enthusiastic gatherers.

Collectors of postage-stamps, book-plates, play-bills, broad-sheets, coins and medals have attained a recognized standing; those of thimbles and walking-sticks were scarce of sufficiently respectable standing to give vogue to the cult of the pocket-handkerchief collector.

The late Mr. Fagin and his compen were scarce of sufficiently respectable standing to give vogue to the cult of the pocket-handkerchief collector.

Some people think the "Clemenceau Week" should be the ablative. This is recommended to students of Latin grammar.

The Russian Censor isn't the kind of censor which goes in for frankness.

The oyster is well equipped if it knows only one thing.

British plate is not good enough for an American ball. The ball goes right through it.

"Art is to conceal art." Perhaps, the Senate would be very artificial, and hence the tariff on art.

John P. Flannery, a young merchant on the corner of Charles and Hudson streets, will be the Tammany Hall candidate for Alderman in the Sixth District.

Chas. D. Sweeney and John E. Brodsky, the B. M. B. O. organizers, are great admirers of Boss Platt and recent the suggestion of the festive ex-Alderman M. Murray that their organization should nominate Mr. Platt by nominating a straight Republican ticket.

Assistant Corporation Counsel James J. Martin is said to be slated for the Tammany Hall nomination for Assembly in the Eighteenth District.

Assemblyman Walter G. Byrne and Alderman William H. Murphy expect to be returned by the Tammany Hall voters of the six House District.

If Boss Platt, by stealing a march on the Miller men, succeeded in "turning down" a few of his enemies in the last Assembly by securing the holding of early conventions he is meeting with reverse just now.

The Hamiltonites and the Millerites have been up and down lately, and have not only been carrying conventions in counties formerly represented by their friends, but have defeated a number of First men for re-nomination. The Boss may have to scramble for a majority in caucus.

Thomas C. Platt leaves the city to-morrow for a vacation of three weeks, and will be able to say that he did not interfere with the local nominations which will be made during his absence. It will be difficult to believe such a statement, however, in this age of fast mails and the telegraph.

Sometimes Unconventional. From George's Weekly. Grizzly-I was quite excited last night seeing two men shake hands.

Johnson—What can there possibly be exciting about the simple ceremony of hand-shaking?

Grizzly—Oh, such men had his hand doubled up and was shaking it under the other fellow's nose.

MORRIS'S TRUSTING CORDIAL is a benefit to babies and a blessing to mothers. 25 cents.

GLEANED HERE AND THERE.

Photographs of Daily Life from All Over the Country.

The Embarrassing Situation a Young Woman Found Herself in at Lincoln Park.

A good many thousand people go to Lincoln Park every evening to see the electric fountain.

Finally it was decided by the engineer in charge to start the fountain without the electric attachment in order to satisfy the crowd and induce it to disperse.

"That's nothing but plain Michigan Lake water," was the reply.

"I don't bring you."

"Did, too, and it's the last time I'll be fooled by you, Mr. Jackson!"

"Parson me, but you have made a mistake. My name is Jackson, don't it?"

"Not Jackson. Well, of it," but the young woman never ended the sentence for she turned to look at the person she had been conversing with.

There are two men in this city, says the Kansas City Star, who resemble each other very much.

As the cigar dealer was walking up Main street the other day an unknown gentleman met him and shook hands with him, greeting him as an old friend.

Nothing further was thought of the matter until a week afterwards, when the cigar dealer beheld his quondam acquaintance again beaming down on him all smiles.

Thinking the former momentary acquaintance warranted it, he too, smiled.

"Well, I don't know," he said, "but it came up," the funniest thing happened the other day. I stopped a fellow on the street and commenced talking to him.

Here he renewed his laugh at the thoughts of the occurrence, but it was speedily displaced by a troubled look when he learned that the latter chased around awhile longer till he found his friend the drug man for he was again mistaken in the party.

A Passion for Handkerchiefs Causes a London Merchant's Ruin.

To the eccentricities of the confirmed collector there is no end, says the London Globe. Collectors collect everything, and the possible limit to the list will only be reached when every collectible article under the sun shall have its band of enthusiastic gatherers.

Collectors of postage-stamps, book-plates, play-bills, broad-sheets, coins and medals have attained a recognized standing; those of thimbles and walking-sticks were scarce of sufficiently respectable standing to give vogue to the cult of the pocket-handkerchief collector.

The late Mr. Fagin and his compen were scarce of sufficiently respectable standing to give vogue to the cult of the pocket-handkerchief collector.

Some people think the "Clemenceau Week" should be the ablative. This is recommended to students of Latin grammar.

The Russian Censor isn't the kind of censor which goes in for frankness.

The oyster is well equipped if it knows only one thing.

British plate is not good enough for an American ball. The ball goes right through it.

"Art is to conceal art." Perhaps, the Senate would be very artificial, and hence the tariff on art.

John P. Flannery, a young merchant on the corner of Charles and Hudson streets, will be the Tammany Hall candidate for Alderman in the Sixth District.

Chas. D. Sweeney and John E. Brodsky, the B. M. B. O. organizers, are great admirers of Boss Platt and recent the suggestion of the festive ex-Alderman M. Murray that their organization should nominate Mr. Platt by nominating a straight Republican ticket.

Assistant Corporation Counsel James J. Martin is said to be slated for the Tammany Hall nomination for Assembly in the Eighteenth District.

Assemblyman Walter G. Byrne and Alderman William H. Murphy expect to be returned by the Tammany Hall voters of the six House District.

If Boss Platt, by stealing a march on the Miller men, succeeded in "turning down" a few of his enemies in the last Assembly by securing the holding of early conventions he is meeting with reverse just now.

The Hamiltonites and the Millerites have been up and down lately, and have not only been carrying conventions in counties formerly represented by their friends, but have defeated a number of First men for re-nomination. The Boss may have to scramble for a majority in caucus.

Thomas C. Platt leaves the city to-morrow for a vacation of three weeks, and will be able to say that he did not interfere with the local nominations which will be made during his absence. It will be difficult to believe such a statement, however, in this age of fast mails and the telegraph.

Sometimes Unconventional. From George's Weekly. Grizzly-I was quite excited last night seeing two men shake hands.

Johnson—What can there possibly be exciting about the simple ceremony of hand-shaking?

Grizzly—Oh, such men had his hand doubled up and was shaking it under the other fellow's nose.

MORRIS'S TRUSTING CORDIAL is a benefit to babies and a blessing to mothers. 25 cents.

VULCAN AT THE FORGE—POWER, VIGOR, STRENGTH! How many of you who gaze on this picture, mythology's highest perfection of physical and nerve strength, but feel how great a thing is health, how wonderful a blessing is strength; for with health of body, strength of nerve and vigor of brain, human powers are almost limitless and all the pleasures of this joyous world are at command.

Atlas, how weak you feel yourself! You have lost your health and strength and are weak in body. Overwork, strain of mind or sleepless nights have tired your brain, and misfortune, worry or dissipation has shattered your nerves, prostrated your powers and unnerved your energies. But do you not know that even nervous, dyspeptic, weak and exhausted sufferers, whose nerveless arms and trembling limbs indicate the sure approach of nervous prostration, paralysis or insanity, can be again restored to sound and perfect health and strength by

DR. GREENE'S NERVURA?

The Great Nerve, Brain and Blood Invigorant. (Guaranteed Purely Vegetable and Harmless.)

If you are weak, tired and nervous, BUT ARE WISE, you will give this very moment—your drug's and get for $1.00 a bottle of this great strength producer.

Dr. GREENE, of 25 West 14th Street, New York, the successful specialist in the cure of all forms of nervous and chronic diseases, can be consulted FREE OF CHARGE, personally or by letter.

second time, his confidence in his own identity leading him to attempt two pockets at once, after a fairly successful career as an amateur Artful Dodger extending over several years.

"Collectors" of purses, watches and chains and diamond pins may hereafter be expected to appeal in great force at our police courts.

The nudity which has now developed on the stage is not a new ditty, musically considered.

The difference between a wheel and a man is that the former goes all the better for being tired.

If all the world's stage, and all the men and women players. How is this company to find an audience?

Some people think the "Clemenceau Week" should be the ablative. This is recommended to students of Latin grammar.

The Russian Censor isn't the kind of censor which goes in for frankness.

The oyster is well equipped if it knows only one thing.

British plate is not good enough for an American ball. The ball goes right through it.

"Art is to conceal art." Perhaps, the Senate would be very artificial, and hence the tariff on art.

John P. Flannery, a young merchant on the corner of Charles and Hudson streets, will be the Tammany Hall candidate for Alderman in the Sixth District.

Chas. D. Sweeney and John E. Brodsky, the B. M. B. O. organizers, are great admirers of Boss Platt and recent the suggestion of the festive ex-Alderman M. Murray that their organization should nominate Mr. Platt by nominating a straight Republican ticket.

Assistant Corporation Counsel James J. Martin is said to be slated for the Tammany Hall nomination for Assembly in the Eighteenth District.

Assemblyman Walter G. Byrne and Alderman William H. Murphy expect to be returned by the Tammany Hall voters of the six House District.

If Boss Platt, by stealing a march on the Miller men, succeeded in "turning down" a few of his enemies in the last Assembly by securing the holding of early conventions he is meeting with reverse just now.

The Hamiltonites and the Millerites have been up and down lately, and have not only been carrying conventions in counties formerly represented by their friends, but have defeated a number of First men for re-nomination. The Boss may have to scramble for a majority in caucus.

Thomas C. Platt leaves the city to-morrow for a vacation of three weeks, and will be able to say that he did not interfere with the local nominations which will be made during his absence. It will be difficult to believe such a statement, however, in this age of fast mails and the telegraph.

Sometimes Unconventional. From George's Weekly. Grizzly-I was quite excited last night seeing two men shake hands.

Johnson—What can there possibly be exciting about the simple ceremony of hand-shaking?

Grizzly—Oh, such men had his hand doubled up and was shaking it under the other fellow's nose.

MORRIS'S TRUSTING CORDIAL is a benefit to babies and a blessing to mothers. 25 cents.

MORRIS'S TRUSTING CORDIAL is a benefit to babies and a blessing to mothers. 25 cents.

MORRIS'S TRUSTING CORDIAL is a benefit to babies and a blessing to mothers. 25 cents.

MORRIS'S TRUSTING CORDIAL is a benefit to babies and a blessing to mothers. 25 cents.

MORRIS'S TRUSTING CORDIAL is a benefit to babies and a blessing to mothers. 25 cents.

MORRIS'S TRUSTING CORDIAL is a benefit to babies and a blessing to mothers. 25 cents.