THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR.

Fads, Fashions and Fancies That Delight the Gentler Sex.

New York Crickets Girls-Turkey Carpets for Table Covers-An Innovation in Black Gowns-Ornaments for Lent-Where is the Short-Waisted Woman?

New York girls, not to be outdone by their English rivals, have an extremely good "ladies' eleven" of their own, who play an excellent game of cricket in the privacy of the Berkeley Oval.

In all probability she is covered by the arms and reaching down over the hip will be worn twice this Spring in all sorts of materials.

Mr. Elliott F. Shepard has himself said it, and it is no longer good form for acquaintances to make wedding presents.

Ladies who keep Lent are bedecked with silver ornaments highly oxidized, and fresh violets worth 50 cents a dozen.

Queen Isabella of Spain, who has made Paris her home ever since she was first exiled from her former kingdom, is said to have won the favor of the Parisians by her dignified reserve.

One of the latest fashions for table decoration is a miniature Turkey carpet as a table cover; the fad, however, is scarcely one likely to last.

Senator VANDER says the Senate Committee examining into the Sugar Trust will, if necessary, imprison for contempt the persons responsible for the non-production of the books of the Trust.

Latest returns from Maryland yesterday were to the effect that the President had killed no ducks, but expected to. He can be relied upon to conduct his campaign hopefully and persistently.

A Puget Sound pleasure boat, with twenty passengers, has not been heard from and is believed to have been lost.

THE CLEANER.

I see that beggars still try to work the dodge of admitting with an air of frank repentance that it was liquor that got a fall out of them.

I learned to-day that our pious Postmaster-General was in the city last Sunday and attended the Rev. Dr. J. M. Paxton's West Presbyterian Church both morning and evening.

Dr. Paxton, by the way, is to make a speech at the coming banquet of the St. Patrick's Society. It isn't often that a Presbyterian minister has a opportunity to accept an invitation to respond to a toast in honor of Ireland's patron saint.

Cremation cranks seem to be taken with queer and grotesque notions nowadays. A few days ago the ashes of a respectable German citizen of Staten Island were scattered over the winds of heaven from the headlight of the Statue of Liberty.

I am informed that there is much perturbation of spirit among the Democratic holders in the Custom-House since the accession of "Calico" Charles Foster to the Secretaryship of the Treasury.

It is only ignorance which makes so many young women adopt as a career from which they expect to make a livelihood.

I was struck the other day in meeting with a writer who associates a great deal with another writer of her own sex whose views and methods she shares, to find that she had assimilated certain physical traits of her friend.

Amos Learned, the newspaper man, whose name gave way ten years ago under the strain of overwork and was dealt with in a recent issue, was one of the old-time workers who graduated from the printer's office instead of a college school of journalism.

The managers of the National Cross-Country Athletic Club will bring together for the first time the members of the club on Saturday afternoon, March 15th.

The games rolled in the same Hall bowling tournament last night resulted as follows: Prospect Hill, 75; Blauvelt, 66; Prospect Hill, 51; Mountain, 72; Rangier, 66; Astoria, 65.

None to Spare. "Your money or your life" abruptly observed a highwayman to a stranger whom he met by chance.

SPORTING NEWS AND NOTES.

Tommy Danforth in It With Jimmy Hagen.

Cross-Country Association Preliminary Route-Good Card Offered.

Tommy Danforth was scarcely in it, last night, with Jimmy Hagen. They were both spotted twenty rounds for scientific points, but Hagen was evidently in a hurry to get back to Philadelphia, so he finished most of the work in about a round and a half.

The rooms of the Scottish American Athletic Club on Grove street, Jersey City, were filled to overflowing last night, the occasion being the Club's monthly "stag" and invitation boxing tournament.

The National Athletic Club held its second annual meeting in New York City last night, and was largely attended and enjoyable.

The events for to-night at the Manhattan Athletic Club are the pool tournament and the baseball practice in the cage.

THE MORAL DOWNFALL OF TWO GOOD CITIZENS.

On New Year's Eve Brown and Jones agreed that smoking is injurious, and swore off for a year, under penalty of twenty dollars.

Four weeks later.

John-I hate to smoke down cellar, but Brown might call unexpectedly and claim that twenty dollars.

CHANGES AT THE THEATRES.

C. Haddon Chambers's "Love and War" at the Garden.

"The Pillars of Society" at the Harlem Opera House.

There was a new play at the Garden Theatre last night, it was entitled, "Love and War" and was adapted by C. Haddon Chambers from "Deviant L'Enferment" in the past were Amy Roselle, Arthur Dacre, Mrs. Berian Gibbs, James Wallis, Eugene Ormandy, Mrs. Dallas, J. L. Finley, Lawrence Clarke and others. A criticism of the play will appear in tomorrow's EVENING WORLD.

"The Pillars of Society," Ibsen's admirable play, was presented at the Harlem Opera House last night. It was a very successful performance, and the play will appear in tomorrow's EVENING WORLD.

"Hamlet" was the play at the Broadway Theatre last night, with Edwin Booth as the melancholy Dane, Lawrence Barrett as the ghost, and Miss Gale as the gentle Ophelia. Mr. Booth's Hamlet is well known. It is perhaps his best work, and it is a highly polished and interesting study. The play was well cast and carefully presented.

Milton Nobles, in a play entitled "From Stare to Son," was the attraction at Niblo's Garden last night. The play is a very strong scene, and deals with a curse which has fallen upon the hero, who temporarily loses his speech under strong excitement. Of course, in the play he loses it under very dangerous circumstances. There was plenty of applause for Mr. Nobles.

W. J. Scanlon is an Irish comedian with a certain amount of magnetism, and this magnetism shows for the quality of the plays he presents. "Myias Aroon," which was seen at the Fourteenth Street Theatre last night, however, was not put upon the stage, and pleased the audience. Mattie Ferguson, Stella Fonten, Tullius Smith, Charles Mason and Robert McNair did good work.

Herrmann is always welcome in New York. He is a very interesting and amusing personality, not only for the comic features that he makes known, but for the interesting and amusing personality of the man himself. Herrmann gave a week's engagement at the People's Theatre last night and drew a large audience. He was put upon the stage, and Awaits, the juggler.

The "Stowaway" was the attraction at the Grand Opera House last night. It is not necessary to criticize the melodrama in any way. It has been very extensively advertised, and a scene representing the interior of an English bar, was extremely well presented. The audience was large.

Miss Annie Pixley, in "Milla," was warmly received at the Windsor Theatre last night. The play is a very interesting and amusing personality, not only for the comic features that he makes known, but for the interesting and amusing personality of the man himself.

The "Cattle King" was the play at the R. R. Theatre last night. It is a very interesting and amusing personality, not only for the comic features that he makes known, but for the interesting and amusing personality of the man himself.

McDowell and Stevens's comedy company gave a very successful performance at the Grand Opera House last night. The play is a very interesting and amusing personality, not only for the comic features that he makes known, but for the interesting and amusing personality of the man himself.
