

FRENCHY GETS DELAY

The Accused Ripper Waives Further Examination.

To Be Indicted Next Week For the East River Hotel Murder.

Police Chain of Circumstantial Evidence Not Yet Complete.

Following upon the verdict of the coroner's jury in the East River Hotel tragedy, as announced in THE EVENING WORLD'S SPORTING EXTRA last night, Amer Ben Ali, of "Frenchy" whom the coroner's jury held responsible for the death of the young girl, was assigned for examination before Justice Martine this morning.

Lawyer Friend, Frenchy's counsel, appeared in Part I of the General Sessions at 11 o'clock this morning, and on his client's behalf asked permission to waive further examination.

"When assigned to this case," said lawyer friend, "the counsel for the defense asked for an examination which your Honor set down for to-day."

"Since then, however, we have been through a coroner's inquest, and the jury, in its wisdom, has seen fit to hold our client or the other party responsible."

"In order to expedite matters, and that the matter may be at once brought to the Grand Jury's attention, I ask permission to waive further examination."

Justice Martine acquiesced and sent for the papers in the case to endorse them.

Assistant District Attorney Weisman is confident that it will secure Ben Ali's conviction.

There is little reason to doubt that an indictment will be found by the Grand Jury early next week, and it is believed that an early trial of the accused Algerian will follow.

It is said that the Chief Inspector of Police has remarked that on the trial there will be evidence introduced that is not circumstantial.

A careful sifting of the evidence produced at the inquest shows that there is apparent need of more positive and direct evidence.

The first day's proceedings were devoted almost entirely to the blood stains found on the top floor of the East River Hotel, but no positive connection was established between the spots of blood in room 31, the spots in the hall and those on the door, woodwork, floor, bed tick and chair of room 33.

Neither were the police able positively to prove the age of the blood stains outside of room 31, and the positive assertions made several weeks ago by Dr. Edson were greatly modified by him on the witness stand.

The prosecution's strongest point was the attempt to identify the knife found by old "Shakespeare" as the dead body as Frenchy's, and opinion is divided as to its weight.

Certain it is that not one of the three prisoner witnesses from the Queens County Jail were able to swear positively that the deadly knife was the very same that had been seen in Frenchy's use in the jail, but the most positive of the three declared that "it was very like it."

One important point was not even touched by the police—the unaccountable disappearance of the man who accompanied Old Shakespeare to room 31, and with whom she was last seen alive.

This matter was severely left alone, and yet it would naturally seem to be of the utmost importance.

Lawyers Levy, Friend & House were more confident than ever this morning that Frenchy could not be convicted, said lawyer friend:

"They have proven absolutely nothing, and even much of the evidence they now have will be thrown out as illegal before a trial jury."

"On the trial, too, we shall be allowed to show the character of their witnesses and attack their veracity."

HARRISON'S HOMEWARD TRIP.

The President Sleeps Through Pittsburgh and Speaks at Altoona.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 15.—The Presidential train arrived here at 8:30 o'clock this morning. All its passengers were asleep.

Coming to the early hour of arrival and the short stop to be made, very few people were at the station.

The cars were inspected, the engine changed, the refrigerator car respupplied with edibles and at 8:40 the train departed.

Mr. McKee, Mr. Harrison's son-in-law, joined the party here.

The Pennsylvania Railroad will give the President an elaborate banquet on the train between Harrisburg and Philadelphia.

ALTOONA, Pa., May 15.—The Presidential train reached here on time this morning, and was greeted by a large throng gathered at the depot.

In response to his hearty welcome, the President spoke briefly, referring to the fact that he was in the country as the beginning of the trouble, and that instead of deserting Mr. Parrell, he is maturing a plan for the reconnoissance of the factions in the Irish party, which he believes was very near a successful result, but is now frustrated by the rumors of his desertion of Mr. Parrell.

Ben Tillet, the Labor Advocate, III from Nervous Prostration. (DUNLAP CABLE NEWS SPECIAL.) LONDON, May 15.—Ben Tillet, the well-known workman's advocate, a member of the New Labor Commission, and General Secretary of the Dockers' Union, is lying seriously ill from nervous prostration at Cardiff.

An Interesting Event to the House of Marlborough. (BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.) LONDON, May 15.—The Duchess of Marlborough gave birth to a girl baby to-day.

Charged With Stealing His Stock. (BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.) LONDON, May 15.—A man charged with stealing his stock from the room of Pierce O'Leary, a young student with D. Myers, of 28 East Eighth Street, for whom the man was driver, James said he only borrowed the pin and intended returning it.

Indications of Rain. WASHINGTON, D. C., May 15.—Weather indications for Eastern New York: Rain; stationary temperature; north-westerly wind.

The following record shows the changes in the temperature for the past twenty-four hours, in comparison with the corresponding time in last year, indicated by the thermometer at Perry's Pharmacy:

Table with columns for 1890, 1891, and 1892, showing temperature readings at Perry's Pharmacy.

MARY EGNER'S PITIFUL TALE.

Evidence as to Her Sanity Which May Save Her Life.

Her Case Will Probably Be Given to the Jury To-Day.

At the opening of the Kings County Court Sessions in Brooklyn this morning the court-room was packed to the doors with a crowd drawn in to attend the last day of the trial of Mary Egner, the eighteen-year-old German blonde, who is charged with murdering her babe.

All the testimony is in for the defense except that of one witness, unless the prosecution should decide to call witnesses in rebuttal. The sole witness for the girl has evidently made a deep impression on the jurymen. While on the stand yesterday she detailed all she could remember about her early life.

Her father was unknown to her, and when she was but a year old her mother married a man named Egner. The girl was brought up by her grandmother, and when four or five years old was put out to service in a family in Stuttgart.

While thus employed, she said, the young son of her employer, on Easter Sunday morning, 1880, entered her room, at 1 o'clock in the morning, and putting a handkerchief in her mouth to stifle her cries, committed an assault upon her.

Some time later she left and returned to her mother, and then discovered that she was in trouble. She was abused and reviled by her parents, and the only friend she had was her old grandmother.

In August she was given $20, and shipped to Haver, and she then came to America.

Coming down to the day of the tragedy, she said she was unconscious when the child was born. After she regained consciousness, she saw the baby on the floor and put it into the satchel.

Conceding Werberg, the girl's lawyer, relies on the testimony of several experts, who declared that in their opinion the girl was insane when the child was born and afterwards killed.

A hypothetical question embracing all the points in the life of the accused girl was read to the witness, and he was asked whether, assuming all the facts were true, the girl was sane when the child was born and afterwards killed.

"The girl was insane," replied Dr. White, "and I do not doubt that she was insane under the conditions embraced in the hypothetical question, it is extremely doubtful whether the child was alive when born."

Cross-examined by Mr. Clarke, the witness denied insanity in various forms, dwelling particularly on the condition known as delirium. "A person suffering from delirium is not sane," he said, "and I do not know of any subject and perfectly sane on others," said the doctor.

"The case will probably go to the jury this afternoon."

Neither were the police able positively to prove the age of the blood stains outside of room 31, and the positive assertions made several weeks ago by Dr. Edson were greatly modified by him on the witness stand.

The prosecution's strongest point was the attempt to identify the knife found by old "Shakespeare" as the dead body as Frenchy's, and opinion is divided as to its weight.

Certain it is that not one of the three prisoner witnesses from the Queens County Jail were able to swear positively that the deadly knife was the very same that had been seen in Frenchy's use in the jail, but the most positive of the three declared that "it was very like it."

One important point was not even touched by the police—the unaccountable disappearance of the man who accompanied Old Shakespeare to room 31, and with whom she was last seen alive.

This matter was severely left alone, and yet it would naturally seem to be of the utmost importance.

Lawyers Levy, Friend & House were more confident than ever this morning that Frenchy could not be convicted, said lawyer friend:

"They have proven absolutely nothing, and even much of the evidence they now have will be thrown out as illegal before a trial jury."

"On the trial, too, we shall be allowed to show the character of their witnesses and attack their veracity."

Foreign News of the Day.

Dynamite in Paris—Rumors of Wild Anarchist Schemes.

(DUNLAP CABLE NEWS SPECIAL.) PARIS, May 15.—There is great activity among the police of this city, and special vigilance is being exercised, intelligence having reached the officials that the Anarchists contemplate another dynamite outrage within a few days similar to that perpetrated in the Rue de Berry on May day.

Detectives have discovered that dynamite cartridges in huge quantities have recently been sent from the mining centres to several districts of this city and the suburbs.

Wales's Influenza Over, Mr. Gladstone's Fever Further Abated.

(DUNLAP CABLE NEWS SPECIAL.) LONDON, May 15.—The daily Bulletin regarding prominent invalids is favorable.

The Prince of Wales's attack of influenza proved to be of the lightest, and he is now able to go about and fulfil his numerous engagements.

Mr. Gladstone passed a restful night; when he awoke this morning he found that the fever had still further abated.

The condition of William Aileen Cecil, Marquis of Exeter, who is suffering from an attack of acute bronchitis, is critical. The Marquis was born in 1826.

Resignation of All or Part of the Portuguese Cabinet Expected.

(BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.) LISBON, May 15.—It is expected that the existing financial troubles in Portugal will result in the resignation of the whole or certain members of the Cabinet.

Senor Cavalho is spoken of as the new Minister of Finance.

E. Dwyer Gray Denies that He Has Deserted Mr. Parrell.

(DUNLAP CABLE NEWS SPECIAL.) LONDON, May 15.—The Freeman's Journal publishes a telegram to-day from E. Dwyer Gray to the National Press, demanding a contradiction of the report published yesterday that he had deserted from the Parrell cause.

He declares that his position is exactly the same as it was in the beginning of the trouble, and that instead of deserting Mr. Parrell, he is maturing a plan for the reconnoissance of the factions in the Irish party, which he believes was very near a successful result, but is now frustrated by the rumors of his desertion of Mr. Parrell.

Ben Tillet, the Labor Advocate, III from Nervous Prostration. (DUNLAP CABLE NEWS SPECIAL.) LONDON, May 15.—Ben Tillet, the well-known workman's advocate, a member of the New Labor Commission, and General Secretary of the Dockers' Union, is lying seriously ill from nervous prostration at Cardiff.

An Interesting Event to the House of Marlborough. (BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.) LONDON, May 15.—The Duchess of Marlborough gave birth to a girl baby to-day.

Charged With Stealing His Stock. (BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.) LONDON, May 15.—A man charged with stealing his stock from the room of Pierce O'Leary, a young student with D. Myers, of 28 East Eighth Street, for whom the man was driver, James said he only borrowed the pin and intended returning it.

Everywhere

You go you will hear words of praise for Hood's Sarsaparilla. Having rapidly won its way to the front, Hood's Sarsaparilla is now the leading blood purifier and spring medicine all over the country, in sales exceeding those of all other sarsaparillas and blood purifiers. The people have been quick to recognize in Hood's Sarsaparilla an honest medicine at an honest price, honestly recommended for those troubles which it honestly cures. Give it a trial this spring.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. H. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

EHRICH BROS.

Will offer in their

Misses' & Children's DEPARTMENT

Tremendous Reductions.

Having purchased from a large manufacturer his entire stock of MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S JACKETS AND REEFERS, we shall place them on sale to-morrow at less than FIFTY CENTS on the dollar, as follows:

100 Children's All-Wool Reefers, open bound seams, Sailor and Roll Collar, ages 4 to 12 years, worth $5.75.

at 2.98.

100 Children's All-Wool Scotch Cheviot Reefers in Plaid and Plain Cloths, Trimmed with Gold Braid and Handsome Buttons, 4 to 12 years, actual value $7.50.

at 3.98.

500 Children's Scotch Plain Gingham Dresses with Lawn Tucked Vest, Full Sleeves and Wide Sashes, age 4 to 8 years, at $1.98.

at 2.75.

Worth from $4.00 to $6.00.

SIXTH AVE. & 23D ST.

WHO MURDERED MRS. CARSON

Her Husband Is Looked Up by the Jersey City Police.

Another murder in Jersey City is engrossing the attention of the police on the river.

Capt. Farrer, of the First Precinct, said this morning to THE EVENING WORLD reporter that he believed he had secured evidence sufficient to convict the guilty man. He has in custody William Carson, better known as Carson, who was formally charged before Justice O'Donnell in the police court this morning with the murder of his wife, Bridget.

Presently the time reached when the murdered woman and wife of William Kerrigan, was also present as a witness. The pair were remanded for examination to-morrow.

The tragedy occurred at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the home of the Carson, 801 Newmarket street.

The tenement-house known to the police as "Buschman's Flat," and it has long had a reputation for growls among its inmates.

The Carson, who lived there for nearly a year, during which period the husband, who is a "householder" when he works, got to be the quarrelsome fellow, addicted to beating his wife when in his cups.

Last Saturday Kerrigan and his wife and two children arrived at the Carson's tenement, with the intention of spending a couple of weeks. The Kerrigans live at Suffern, Rockland County, N. Y., where Kerrigan is employed as a laborer. Carson was intrusted with the Kerrigans reached his house, and made no secret of his dislike of the invasion.

Several tin buckets full of beer were, however, consumed by the party, and this seemed to wash away his animosity, and the two families seemed to settle down to a continued detestation. Great progress was made in the re-drawing line, with semi-occasional variations in the way of boisterous language.

The climax came shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Terrifying shrieks of "murder!" in the Carson apartments shook the tenement tenants on the lower floor.

Patrick Dwyer, a young laborer making a living with his mother on the floor just beneath the Carson tenement, was standing in the hallway of the front door when Carson staggered down stairs, blood pouring in streams from a fearful gash in his head.

"My wife's throat is cut," said Carson to Dwyer, "and I want you to go to the station-house with me."

Dwyer replied, "I don't want to go with you, Bill, because I don't want to get mixed up in any row."

Police-man Tim Kelly was on the opposite side of the street, and he saw Carson. He went upstairs to the top floor, and found Mr. Carson lying on the floor with a great gash on the left side of her throat, extending from under the chin to the left ear.

She was rapidly losing life unconsciously, and could scarcely speak.

Stretching out in a drunken stupor alongside Mr. Carson lay her sister, Mrs. Kerrigan.

Officer Kelly reported to Capt. Farrer that he bent his head close to Mrs. Carson and asked who it was that had cut her. Her reply, and Kelly said a Mrs. Johnson, who dwells a baker-shop on the ground floor of the opposite

Blomingdale & Stern Bros.

Boy's Clothing

Bought Below Value

On account of recent big upheavals in the clothing trade we have been able to buy thousands of dollars' worth of boys' fine clothing away below value. On Saturday we will inaugurate a special sale of many of these lots as follows:

1,000 Suits bought below value, worth $2.98, will be sold at... 1.79

500 Suits bought below value, worth $5.50, will be sold at... 3.98

475 Suits, bought below value, made with double seams, lined fronts, taped seams, worth $6.98; will be sold at... 4.98

1,000 pairs Pure Finish Corduroy Pants, bought below value, will be sold at... 89c.

840 Blue Sailor Blouse Suits, bought below value, will be sold at... 93c.

275 Jersey Suits, bought below value; worth $4, will be sold at... 2.98

A large line of 2 piece Suits for boys, 18 and 14 years, at

HALF VALUE.

Blomingdale Bros., Third Ave., cor. 59th St.

ing, heard it, was that her husband slamed her with a knife.

The policeman placed Carson under arrest, and handed him over to a brother officer. An ambulance was called and Mrs. Carson was removed to the City Hospital.

City Physician Gray had attended the sufferer in the mean time, and sewed up the frightful wound in her throat, but Mrs. Carson died on the way to the hospital and the body was taken to St. George's.

Mrs. Kerrigan was locked up, and then a search was made for her husband, Capt. Farrer said this morning that he had no trace of him as yet, but added that from what he had learned he did not think Kerrigan was in the room when the tragedy occurred.

The police are not sure if the woman is dead. If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

The doctors say it was a knife which opened the fatal gash in Mrs. Carson's throat. The police have not found any knife as yet, and it was Carson's knife in the affair are they? If Carson killed his wife, why should he persist in going for the police? If Kerrigan's innocent, why did he run away?

Blomingdale & Stern Bros.

Boy's Clothing

Bought Below Value

On account of recent big upheavals in the clothing trade we have been able to buy thousands of dollars' worth of boys' fine clothing away below value. On Saturday we will inaugurate a special sale of many of these lots as follows:

1,000 Suits bought below value, worth $2.98, will be sold at... 1.79

500 Suits bought below value, worth $5.50, will be sold at... 3.98

475 Suits, bought below value, made with double seams, lined fronts, taped seams, worth $6.98; will be sold at... 4.98

1,000 pairs Pure Finish Corduroy Pants, bought below value, will be sold at... 89c.

840 Blue Sailor Blouse Suits, bought below value, will be sold at... 93c.

275 Jersey Suits, bought below value; worth $4, will be sold at... 2.98

A large line of 2 piece Suits for boys, 18 and 14 years, at

HALF VALUE.

Blomingdale Bros., Third Ave., cor. 59th St.

ing, heard it, was that her husband slamed her with a knife.

The policeman placed Carson under