

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1891.

PRICE ONE CENT.

LAST EDITION. ON THE FIELD.

Yale and Harvard Football Teams Ready for the Fray.

HAMPDEN PARK CROWDED.

Gov. Russell and Other Notabilities at the Game.

Fickle Weather with Indications of Rather Too Much Warmth.

Just flapping along the front of the stand with his wife, he smiles and blushes as the entire Harvard crowd cheers.

YALE'S FOOTBALL TEAM.

1. Halsey, 2. Graves, 3. Heflinger, 4. Morrison, 5. McCormick, 6. Hartwell, 7. Sanford, 8. Mills, 9. Winter, 10. McClung (captain), 11. L. Bliss, 12. Dyer, 13. Stellman, 14. Barbour, 15. Mosler, 16. Wallis, 17. Patis.

The Yale men are beginning to wake up now and their familiar snappy cheer is heard on their side of the field.

HARVARD'S FOOTBALL TEAM.

1. Gray, 2. Pierce, 3. Halliwell, 4. Pittsburg, 5. Grant, 6. Collamore, 7. Bond, 8. McNear, 9. Dexter, 10. Vail, 11. Mackie, 12. Highlands, 13. White, 14. Seering, 15. Cobb, 16. Gage, 17. Waters, 18. W. H. Shea, 19. Rantoul, 20. Berry, 21. Corbett, 22. Trafford, 23. Bangs, 24. Edmonson, 25. Lake, 26. Mason, 27. Newell.

More notabilities. E. C. Mower, the captain of last year's Harvard football team, has just gone by.

The Harvard eleven has had a small booth erected near the field, in which they will be rubbed down during the intermission.

The Yale men are beginning to wake up now and their familiar snappy cheer is heard on their side of the field.

The Harvard eleven has had a small booth erected near the field, in which they will be rubbed down during the intermission.

The Yale men are beginning to wake up now and their familiar snappy cheer is heard on their side of the field.

The Harvard eleven has had a small booth erected near the field, in which they will be rubbed down during the intermission.

The Yale men are beginning to wake up now and their familiar snappy cheer is heard on their side of the field.

The Harvard eleven has had a small booth erected near the field, in which they will be rubbed down during the intermission.

The Yale men are beginning to wake up now and their familiar snappy cheer is heard on their side of the field.

The Harvard eleven has had a small booth erected near the field, in which they will be rubbed down during the intermission.

The Yale men are beginning to wake up now and their familiar snappy cheer is heard on their side of the field.

warm afternoon, almost enough so for a baseball game to say nothing of football.

This will be very comfortable for the spectators, but hardly so comfortable for the players, and the Yale men will suffer particularly from the hot weather, as they are light and unable to stand the strain.

A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Individual play, and the superb team work of the eleven, to win this afternoon.

The Yale center is also very powerful, and it is rumored that the center bucking game will be a feature of the New Haven boys' play in the first half.

A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

Mostly athletes there. A large delegation from the Boston Athletic Association has just marched in.

A JUMPING FINISH.

The Horse Show to Close with a Splendid Contest To-Night.

To-Day's Programme the Most Attractive of the Week.

A Big Attendance of Society Folk Expected at the Finish.

The sixth and last day of the great beauty show in Madison Square Garden opened auspiciously this morning.

The success of the show is unparalleled. Fully 70,000 people had passed through the gates up to 11 o'clock last night, when the most brilliant assemblage of the week made the vast amphitheatre a scene to be remembered.

MAKING A TOILET. The display of gorgeous gowns, glittering jewels, and many and womanly beauty was almost worthy of the price admission, as the circus man writes, and the high jumping created the wildest sort of enthusiasm.

Even this great gathering is expected to be surpassed this afternoon and evening, the last day's programme being the piece de resistance. If 20,000 tickets are not taken up at the gates before midnight the management will be disappointed.

SHOWING THE ANIMALS IN THE RING. The receipts may be estimated by the reader to himself. The lowest priced ticket is one dollar, more than a third of the seats sold originally for $1.50 and over $34,000 were paid as premiums for the choice of boxes outside of the regular price of these show places.

With an estimated attendance of 90,000 for the week it will be seen that a modest fortune has been expended in six days for the pleasure of gazing at the circus and New York's Four Hundred.

This was children's morning. All week the little ones have been wild to gaze upon the ponies, but the schools claimed them. The Saturday holiday was never more welcome and their little hearts started the first to enter the garden when the doors were opened at 9 o'clock.

They came with fond mamma and pretty young aunts, and they tugged at the hands and dresses of their chaperons who preferred to watch the movements of the stock-coated beauties in the ring, until their persistence secured their desire to be taken to the zebranine floor and thence on a tour among the stalls where the miniature animals were stabled.

GOING IN TO BE JUDGED. The children went into raptures over the little horses, but when they came to the stalls of Dray and Jennie and the baby ponies their delight was unbounded.

To run their tiny hands through the wavy little curls of the baby pony's hair brought them to sleep, which they resemble more than horses, was the acme of childish pleasure and their little hearts started the first to enter the garden when the doors were opened at 9 o'clock.

They came with fond mamma and pretty young aunts, and they tugged at the hands and dresses of their chaperons who preferred to watch the movements of the stock-coated beauties in the ring, until their persistence secured their desire to be taken to the zebranine floor and thence on a tour among the stalls where the miniature animals were stabled.

GOING IN TO BE JUDGED. The children went into raptures over the little horses, but when they came to the stalls of Dray and Jennie and the baby ponies their delight was unbounded.

To run their tiny hands through the wavy little curls of the baby pony's hair brought them to sleep, which they resemble more than horses, was the acme of childish pleasure and their little hearts started the first to enter the garden when the doors were opened at 9 o'clock.

They came with fond mamma and pretty young aunts, and they tugged at the hands and dresses of their chaperons who preferred to watch the movements of the stock-coated beauties in the ring, until their persistence secured their desire to be taken to the zebranine floor and thence on a tour among the stalls where the miniature animals were stabled.

GOING IN TO BE JUDGED. The children went into raptures over the little horses, but when they came to the stalls of Dray and Jennie and the baby ponies their delight was unbounded.

To run their tiny hands through the wavy little curls of the baby pony's hair brought them to sleep, which they resemble more than horses, was the acme of childish pleasure and their little hearts started the first to enter the garden when the doors were opened at 9 o'clock.

They came with fond mamma and pretty young aunts, and they tugged at the hands and dresses of their chaperons who preferred to watch the movements of the stock-coated beauties in the ring, until their persistence secured their desire to be taken to the zebranine floor and thence on a tour among the stalls where the miniature animals were stabled.

GOING IN TO BE JUDGED. The children went into raptures over the little horses, but when they came to the stalls of Dray and Jennie and the baby ponies their delight was unbounded.

To run their tiny hands through the wavy little curls of the baby pony's hair brought them to sleep, which they resemble more than horses, was the acme of childish pleasure and their little hearts started the first to enter the garden when the doors were opened at 9 o'clock.

They came with fond mamma and pretty young aunts, and they tugged at the hands and dresses of their chaperons who preferred to watch the movements of the stock-coated beauties in the ring, until their persistence secured their desire to be taken to the zebranine floor and thence on a tour among the stalls where the miniature animals were stabled.

GOING IN TO BE JUDGED. The children went into raptures over the little horses, but when they came to the stalls of Dray and Jennie and the baby ponies their delight was unbounded.

To run their tiny hands through the wavy little curls of the baby pony's hair brought them to sleep, which they resemble more than horses, was the acme of childish pleasure and their little hearts started the first to enter the garden when the doors were opened at 9 o'clock.

They came with fond mamma and pretty young aunts, and they tugged at the hands and dresses of their chaperons who preferred to watch the movements of the stock-coated beauties in the ring, until their persistence secured their desire to be taken to the zebranine floor and thence on a tour among the stalls where the miniature animals were stabled.

GOING IN TO BE JUDGED. The children went into raptures over the little horses, but when they came to the stalls of Dray and Jennie and the baby ponies their delight was unbounded.

To run their tiny hands through the wavy little curls of the baby pony's hair brought them to sleep, which they resemble more than horses, was the acme of childish pleasure and their little hearts started the first to enter the garden when the doors were opened at 9 o'clock.

They came with fond mamma and pretty young aunts, and they tugged at the hands and dresses of their chaperons who preferred to watch the movements of the stock-coated beauties in the ring, until their persistence secured their desire to be taken to the zebranine floor and thence on a tour among the stalls where the miniature animals were stabled.

GOING IN TO BE JUDGED. The children went into raptures over the little horses, but when they came to the stalls of Dray and Jennie and the baby ponies their delight was unbounded.

To run their tiny hands through the wavy little curls of the baby pony's hair brought them to sleep, which they resemble more than horses, was the acme of childish pleasure and their little hearts started the first to enter the garden when the doors were opened at 9 o'clock.

ESOP ON CURRENT EVENTS. CXI.

A Hunter, not very bold, was searching for the tracks of a Lion. He asked a man falling oaks in the forest if he had seen any marks of his footsteps, or if he knew where his lair was. "I will," he said, "at once show you the Lion himself." The Hunter, turning very pale, and chattering with his teeth from fear, replied: "No, thank you. I did not ask that; it is his track only I am in search of, not the Lion himself."

CHILI THINKS BETTER OF IT.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] VALPARAISO, Nov. 21.—If nothing further occurs to change the course of events, there will probably be no more talk of serious differences between Chili and the United States. Little is heard here now of the fiery anti-American sentiment which was expressed just before and just after the Baltimore incident, and the investigation into the circumstances of the assault on the United States sailors has assumed a more judicial aspect. Rumors of the naval preparations going on in the American yards may have had something to do with the change. Chilians begin to realize, hot-headed as they may be, that war with the United States would mean disaster for them.

But it cannot be denied that Capt. Schley, of the Baltimore, has shown his own sense of honor in his refusal to accept the terms of a settlement which would have allowed him to return to his country with a stain on his national dignity, yet has been always courteous. That the American Consul was permitted to be present at yesterday's session of the investigating officers is evidence of how much more reasonable the authorities have become in regard to the Baltimore occurrence.

Read "The Evening World's" Football Extra To-Day.

COURT COUNTS RYAN OUT.

Judge Kennedy's Orders to the Onondaga County Canvassers.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] SYRACUSE, Nov. 21.—Judge Kennedy at noon today issued an order to the Onondaga County Board of Canvassers that the erroneous returns in the First Assembly District, rectifying errors in twenty-seven of the fifty-two election districts, shall be sent back for correction, and when such returns are received to proceed and complete the canvass.

The Board must not adjourn for more than three days while awaiting the corrected returns, and is not to issue any statement of certificate of the result without further order of the Court.

The Judge ignores the certificate issued yesterday in favor of Ryan, Democrat.

A stay will be obtained at once by counsel of the Democratic members of the Canvassing Board, and an appeal taken to the General Term, now in session here.

PLURALITY FOR A DEAD SENATOR.

Deane Had 132 More Votes Than Osborn in Columbia.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] HERKON, Nov. 21.—The county canvassers of Columbia County completed their work at a late hour last night and officially declared the result.

This is the canvass on State Senator Edward B. Osborn, 5,073; Gilbert A. Deane, 5,205; Mitchell Downing, 303; Deane's plurality 132.

Effect of Mr. Deane's Death. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] ALBANY, Nov. 21.—Attorney-General Tabor said this morning that the death of Senator Deane, the Republican senatorial candidate in the Fifteenth District, will have no effect whatever upon the canvass by the State Board.

"If Mr. Deane has a plurality in the district," continued the Attorney-General, "the Board of Canvassers must declare him elected, the same as if he were still living."

"The Governor, then taking cognizance of his death, may order a special election, but neither the Board of Canvassers nor the Senate can declare that as Mr. Deane is dead, his opponent is entitled to his seat."

"In case no special election is held, the Senate could not seat the dead member on the ground of fraudulent voting, but for no other reason could they give his seat to Mr. Osborn."

Who Leads? "Help wanted" ads in the last thirty days: In the World, 16,023; in the Sun, Times and Tribune combined, 4,174.

LAST EDITION. BLAZING IN MID-AIR.

A Woman, Her Clothes on Fire, Clinging to a Fire-Escape.

Rescued by a Fireman Hero, but Died a Few Hours Later.

Thrilling Scenes at a Tenement-House Fire in Baxter Street.

Fireman Walter Jones, Assistant Foreman of Engine Company No. 31, proved himself a hero at an evening's fire today.

He risked his own life to save that of a woman; but his bravery proved unavailing, as the unfortunate woman died from her injuries a few hours later.

Sixteen families, mostly Italians, live in the five-story, double brick tenement at 39 Baxter street, owned by Angelus Simonetti, a grocer at 35 Baxter street, aggregating a population of over sixty souls.

Luigi Reati, a clerk at 5 Roosevelt street, lives on the top floor. As is his custom, he went through the tenement this morning at 4.30, and then called Simonetti to get up and open his store.

The big tenement was then quiet and apparently safe, but as Simonetti stepped out of his store five minutes later he saw flames pouring out of the windows of the third floor of No. 39, from the apartments of John Parodi, who runs a bakery in the basement.

Two alarms quickly brought seven engines, three trucks and a water-tower to the scene. Meanwhile, a large heavy woman, named Simonetti, awoke the tenants.

The three upper floors were then blazing fiercely, and the terrified inmates rushed out through the halls upon the fire-escapes and roof, and ran to Simonetti's store near by, in their night-clothes.

There they stood weeping and waiting for the fire-escapes to be lowered, and the investigation into the circumstances of the assault on the United States sailors has assumed a more judicial aspect.

Rumors of the naval preparations going on in the American yards may have had something to do with the change. Chilians begin to realize, hot-headed as they may be, that war with the United States would mean disaster for them.

But it cannot be denied that Capt. Schley, of the Baltimore, has shown his own sense of honor in his refusal to accept the terms of a settlement which would have allowed him to return to his country with a stain on his national dignity, yet has been always courteous.

That the American Consul was permitted to be present at yesterday's session of the investigating officers is evidence of how much more reasonable the authorities have become in regard to the Baltimore occurrence.

Read "The Evening World's" Football Extra To-Day.

COURT COUNTS RYAN OUT.

Judge Kennedy's Orders to the Onondaga County Canvassers.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] SYRACUSE, Nov. 21.—Judge Kennedy at noon today issued an order to the Onondaga County Board of Canvassers that the erroneous returns in the First Assembly District, rectifying errors in twenty-seven of the fifty-two election districts, shall be sent back for correction, and when such returns are received to proceed and complete the canvass.

The Board must not adjourn for more than three days while awaiting the corrected returns, and is not to issue any statement of certificate of the result without further order of the Court.

The Judge ignores the certificate issued yesterday in favor of Ryan, Democrat.

A stay will be obtained at once by counsel of the Democratic members of the Canvassing Board, and an appeal taken to the General Term, now in session here.

PLURALITY FOR A DEAD SENATOR.

Deane Had 132 More Votes Than Osborn in Columbia.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] HERKON, Nov. 21.—The county canvassers of Columbia County completed their work at a late hour last night and officially declared the result.

This is the canvass on State Senator Edward B. Osborn, 5,073; Gilbert A. Deane, 5,205; Mitchell Downing, 303; Deane's plurality 132.

Effect of Mr. Deane's Death. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] ALBANY, Nov. 21.—Attorney-General Tabor said this morning that the death of Senator Deane, the Republican senatorial candidate in the Fifteenth District, will have no effect whatever upon the canvass by the State Board.

"If Mr. Deane has a plurality in the district," continued the Attorney-General, "the Board of Canvassers must declare him elected, the same as if he were still living."

"The Governor, then taking cognizance of his death, may order a special election, but neither the Board of Canvassers nor the Senate can declare that as Mr. Deane is dead, his opponent is entitled to his seat."

"In case no special election is held, the Senate could not seat the dead member on the ground of fraudulent voting, but for no other reason could they give his seat to Mr. Osborn."

Who Leads? "Help wanted" ads in the last thirty days: In the World, 16,023; in the Sun, Times and Tribune combined, 4,174.

LAST EDITION. BLAZING IN MID-AIR.

A Woman, Her Clothes on Fire, Clinging to a Fire-Escape.

Rescued by a Fireman Hero, but Died a Few Hours Later.

Thrilling Scenes at a Tenement-House Fire in Baxter Street.

Fireman Walter Jones, Assistant Foreman of Engine Company No. 31, proved himself a hero at an evening's fire today.

He risked his own life to save that of a woman; but his bravery proved unavailing, as the unfortunate woman died from her injuries a few hours later.

Sixteen families, mostly Italians, live in the five-story, double brick tenement at 39 Baxter street, owned by Angelus Simonetti, a grocer at 35 Baxter street, aggregating a population of over sixty souls.

Luigi Reati, a clerk at 5 Roosevelt street, lives on the top floor. As is his custom, he went through the tenement this morning at 4.30, and then called Simonetti to get up and open his store.

The big tenement was then quiet and apparently safe, but as Simonetti stepped out of his store five minutes later he saw flames pouring out of the windows of the third floor of No. 39, from the apartments of John Parodi, who runs a bakery in the basement.

Two alarms quickly brought seven engines, three trucks and a water-tower to the scene. Meanwhile, a large heavy woman, named Simonetti, awoke the tenants.

The three upper floors were then blazing fiercely, and the terrified inmates rushed out through the halls upon the fire-escapes and roof, and ran to Simonetti's store near by, in their night-clothes.

There they stood weeping and waiting for the fire-escapes to be lowered, and the investigation into the circumstances of the assault on the United States sailors has assumed a more judicial aspect.