

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA. CYNOSURE

Wins the Second Race at Guttenburg in a Pretty Finish.

LARGE CROWD, GOOD CARD. The Handicap for Two-Year-Olds Goes to Tringle.

WINS THE SECOND RACE AT GUTTENBURG IN A PRETTY FINISH.

THE HANDICAP FOR TWO-YEAR-OLDS GOES TO TRINGLE.

WINS THE SECOND RACE AT GUTTENBURG IN A PRETTY FINISH.

THE HANDICAP FOR TWO-YEAR-OLDS GOES TO TRINGLE.

WINS THE SECOND RACE AT GUTTENBURG IN A PRETTY FINISH.

THE HANDICAP FOR TWO-YEAR-OLDS GOES TO TRINGLE.

WINS THE SECOND RACE AT GUTTENBURG IN A PRETTY FINISH.

YALE DEMANDS MORE.

Colligians Decline to Accept $14,000 from the M. A. C. A Dispute Over the Attendance at the Big Football Game.

The M. A. C. Estimates It at 22,000, Yale at 32,000.

A despatch from New Haven states that the Yale Football Association Managers are not satisfied with the share of the receipts of the Thanksgiving Day game tendered them by the Manhattan Athletic Club, and that they have not signed the settlement papers presented by the Club.

The trouble, according to the despatch, all arises over the question of attendance, which the Yale men think was much greater than the Club's figures show. Some of the Yale men say that they will hire a ground and run next year's game themselves.

Manager Wright, of the Yale team, sent a check for $14,000, it is said, but refused to sign the settlement papers. He expressed his willingness, however, to settle on a basis of an attendance of 30,000 persons, 10,000 more than the Manhattan Club's estimate, which makes $5,000 difference in the money calculations made by the Manhattan Athletic Club and Yale.

The Manhattan Athletic Club's estimate of the receipts the day after the game was as follows:

Yale would give the Yale and Princeton teams nearly $17,000 apiece. Yesterday Capt. S. J. Cornell, of the M. A. C., said:

We have arrived on the basis of receipts, not on the basis of attendance. There is about $1,300 still due from various railroad companies that will bring the total receipts up to $30,000.

But that made no difference in the receipts, as the receipts which were all paid in advance, did not. He queried the reporter:

But that made no difference in the receipts, as the receipts which were all paid in advance, did not.

M'GLORY INDICTED

Arrested To-Day for Keeping a Disorderly House.

Manager Murray and Bartender Kelly Also Prisoners.

Result of the Grand Jury's Investigation of the Irving Hotel.

Detectives from Inspector Byrnes's office this morning arrested William McGlory, Edward Kelly and Henry Murray on indictment found by the Grand Jury charging them with keeping a disorderly house and with violating the Excise laws at the corner of Fourteenth street and Irving place.

The three had just arisen from their couches in the upper chambers of the Irving Hotel when the detectives served the warrants for their arrest.

Three days ago, when Robert Wether, a German who has only been two weeks in the country, complained that Annie Williams, of his watch and #117 in Spanish coach while they were occupying a room in the hotel, none of the employees of the place knew who was the proprietor. As far as Billy McGlory was concerned, why the bartender, chambermaids and bouncers were in denance ignorance. They seemed to have a faint recollection of having heard the name before, but they did not know the man at all.

The Grand Jury indicted McGlory yesterday for keeping a disorderly house and against Manager Murray and Bartender Kelly for excise violations.

The Irving Hotel has not been licensed in several months, and to outward appearance is a sealed barracks. The stranger who enters his bar is told that nothing but "soft drinks" are to be had there.

But in spite of all this, stories are rife on the street among the "blooms" of the carnival of sin that it constantly goes on behind the closed-door curtains, and it is generally believed that Billy McGlory, proprietor of the premises, is the owner of the hotel, which is the owner of Irving Hotel, and that young men and young women can and do get woefully drunk there.

The detectives had no difficulty in collecting this trio of prisoners this morning. Mr. McGlory, who is quite unknown to the people of the city, came down from his sleeping-room on the second floor, wearing a nightgown, and fresh as a daisy, with a glossy black coat, $80 overcoat, a dapper suit of black and a ministerial collar and cravat.

WALL ST. STOCK REPORTS.

Dearth of Outside Speculators in the Share Market.

Highest Prices of the Day at the Close of Trading.

More Reports of Car Congestion on the Western Railroads.

WALL STREET, Thursday, Dec. 3.—The stock market was a little stronger today, but the strength was due mainly to the favorable railway earnings than to any other cause. Outside speculators seem to be holding aloof.

The improvement in prices ranged from 1/4 to 1/2 per cent. Quincey, Rock Island, New York Central, St. Paul, Lake Shore, Northern Pacific preferred and Atchafalpa scored the advances. Among the specialties Milwaukee, Lake Shore & Western jumped from 73 to 81 1/2 and the preferred from 11 1/2 to 12 1/2.

Silver certificates traded higher at 90 1/2, but subsequently receded 3/8. Business was less active in this department.

Stocks continued firm to the close of business. The Grangers were especially strong, Northwest, Great Northern, preferred, St. Paul common and preferred, Omaha, preferred and Illinois Central selling at the best figures for a long time past.

Trading, however, was light, except in a few instances, notably in Burlington, a Quincey and St. Paul.

American District Telegraph stock was 3 1/2 bid today on the reported consolidation with the Mutual Company.

Railway bonds were active and stronger. Louisville, New Albany & Chicago common, Western Union preferred, New York Central common and 4 per cent and Richmond Terminal 4 1/2 were most prominent in the dealings.

WHERE IS THE CASH?

E. M. Field's Alleged Enormous Losses Cannot Be Traced.

Startling Accusations Made by Partner Wiechers.

It is Now Hoped that Cyrus W. Field Will Recover.

Further sensational developments came out today regarding the misdoings of Edward M. Field, head of the wrecked firm of Field, Lindley, Wiechers & Co. The mystery, though, as to how the alleged gigantic disposal of the immense sums which he appears to have stolen right and left from his family, his business partners and his customers, is deeper than ever.

It is believed that Field began to lose money in speculation a year or more ago. He lost in both the stock and grain markets, where at times he was a plunger. It is suspected that he was badly caught in the November panic in 1890, and that he never got over that blow.

Since then he has gotten deeper and deeper into the game, through some speculations in Wall street and in wild and reckless schemes outside.

He is believed to have lost heavily in the corner in September, in which, as a leading broker for S. V. White & Co., he was more deeply interested than his partners imagined.

Wiechers originally claimed that he had put $500,000 capital into the firm, and that his relatives in Germany had contributed about $500,000 more, all of which had disappeared.

When he returned he found that Field had taken all the securities and notes and disposed of them. How long after his return Mr. Wiechers discovered that his partner had robbed him, as he claims, he does not state.

It also appears that, if Mr. Wiechers went to take the mortgage on the pure and sugar plantations from Water de Miers, he must have a good deal about that subject.

ESOP ON CURRENT EVENTS.

ESOP ON CURRENT EVENTS. CXX.

A Weasel, inactive from age and infirmities, was not able to catch mice as he once did. He therefore rolled himself in flour and lay down in a dark corner. A Mouse, supposing him to be food, leapt upon him, and, being instantly caught, was squeezed to death. Another perished in a similar manner, and then a third, and still others after them. A very old Mouse, who had escaped full many a trap and snare, observing from a safe distance the trick of his crafty foe, said, "Ah! you that lie there, may you prosper just in the same proportion as you are what you pretend to be!"

SPEAKERSHIP CRISIS AT HAND.

Crisp and Mills Looking Confidently for Withdrawals.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The speakership contest today shows increasing activity and it is evident to all that a crisis is rapidly approaching.

It is no longer directed so much to the relative claims of candidates as to speculation regarding the probable withdrawal of the weaker aspirants.

With four-fifths of the Democratic Congressmen in the city this morning, indefinite claims are no longer possible, since nearly every man is now quite free to express his preference for the favorite candidate. The relative positions of the various candidates at the present writing seem to be as follows:

Mr. Crisp, Mills, second, Springer, third, McMillin, fourth and Hatch fifth. But the House will have to make a respective following of the candidates in any case to be fully borne out by the vote.

Only upon one general proposition are they all agreed, and that is, that the speakership contest should be decided by the vote of the House.

THE TURF.

Board of Control's Efforts to Collect Forfeited Money.

LICENSES TO BE ISSUED JAN. 1. Reversals of Form Continue to Annoy the Talent.

The Board of Control met yesterday and adopted a resolution that is starting in character, which will command the attention of turfmen to this and other countries. It relates to forfeits, and conceives a new and original method of making delinquent horsemen step up to the clerk's desk and settle their debts.

The Board had a lengthy discussion over the matter, which was finally ended by the adoption of a resolution calling upon Secretary Vossburg to get a list of such horsemen as owe forfeits and to have this list printed in the newspapers so that every one may know the delinquents.

This measure is certainly a very strong one, and whether it will commend itself to horsemen or not is a question. It certainly will not to the gentlemen who are delinquent. There is no disguising the fact that very strong measures are needed to bring these lagging horse owners to time.

In many of the big stakes hardly half the money won is collected by the winner. An instance in the case of Sam Bryan, who has still several thousands of dollars to collect from Proctor Knott's Futurity victory several years ago. It will easily be seen from this that decisive action is a necessity, and the Board is entitled to credit for its efforts to wipe out a system which is a detriment in many ways to the best interests of the turf.

The Board also adopted a resolution notifying jockeys and trainers that applications for next season's licenses would be received after Jan. 1. Last season the applications were not called for until March 1. Every member of the Board save Mr. Cassatt was present yesterday.

The racing at Guttenburg yesterday was very good and in the main satisfactory to the public. One or two little things occurred during the day which made it necessary for Judge Howe to call certain jockeys. The first race, for a winder, was won by the favorite, but for the plunge which Mr. Chris Smith, of Chicago, had bet on, the owner of Padre, made on the gelding he would not have given to the post a favorite kind of odds.

Mr. Springer's adherents are encouraged today by the decision of the entire Michigan delegation, which has voted for Mr. Crisp, to support their candidate. This delegation will have a formal meeting tomorrow night at the Hotel Hamilton, to discuss the matter.

Mr. Springer's adherents are encouraged today by the decision of the entire Michigan delegation, which has voted for Mr. Crisp, to support their candidate.

THE TURF.

Board of Control's Efforts to Collect Forfeited Money.

LICENSES TO BE ISSUED JAN. 1. Reversals of Form Continue to Annoy the Talent.

The Board of Control met yesterday and adopted a resolution that is starting in character, which will command the attention of turfmen to this and other countries. It relates to forfeits, and conceives a new and original method of making delinquent horsemen step up to the clerk's desk and settle their debts.

The Board had a lengthy discussion over the matter, which was finally ended by the adoption of a resolution calling upon Secretary Vossburg to get a list of such horsemen as owe forfeits and to have this list printed in the newspapers so that every one may know the delinquents.

This measure is certainly a very strong one, and whether it will commend itself to horsemen or not is a question. It certainly will not to the gentlemen who are delinquent. There is no disguising the fact that very strong measures are needed to bring these lagging horse owners to time.

In many of the big stakes hardly half the money won is collected by the winner. An instance in the case of Sam Bryan, who has still several thousands of dollars to collect from Proctor Knott's Futurity victory several years ago. It will easily be seen from this that decisive action is a necessity, and the Board is entitled to credit for its efforts to wipe out a system which is a detriment in many ways to the best interests of the turf.

The Board also adopted a resolution notifying jockeys and trainers that applications for next season's licenses would be received after Jan. 1. Last season the applications were not called for until March 1. Every member of the Board save Mr. Cassatt was present yesterday.

The racing at Guttenburg yesterday was very good and in the main satisfactory to the public. One or two little things occurred during the day which made it necessary for Judge Howe to call certain jockeys. The first race, for a winder, was won by the favorite, but for the plunge which Mr. Chris Smith, of Chicago, had bet on, the owner of Padre, made on the gelding he would not have given to the post a favorite kind of odds.

Mr. Springer's adherents are encouraged today by the decision of the entire Michigan delegation, which has voted for Mr. Crisp, to support their candidate. This delegation will have a formal meeting tomorrow night at the Hotel Hamilton, to discuss the matter.

Mr. Springer's adherents are encouraged today by the decision of the entire Michigan delegation, which has voted for Mr. Crisp, to support their candidate.