

WILLIS AND NATHAN RETURN.

The Rivals Won't Talk of Their Visit to Washington.

Nathan's Methods Causing a Revolt in the Eighteenth Ward.

Naval Officer Theodore R. Willis and Internal Revenue collector Ernest Nathan returned to Brooklyn last night.

Messrs. Willis and Nathan are leaders of the opposing factions in the local Republican ranks, and recently engaged in a bitter struggle for the leadership of the machine.

The rumor went forth a few days ago that secretary Tracy had at last taken a hand in the fight, and although it was strenuously denied by members of both factions, the story obtained partial corroboration in the removal of George E. England from his position in the Construction Department of the Navy-Yard.

Mr. England is a delegate to the General Committee from the Eighteenth Ward, is Assistant Secretary of that body, and in a recent fight for delegates worked with the Nathan people.

The claim of interference from Washington was met with the assurance that Mr. England's suspension was merely a personal matter between him and his superior.

Both Willis and Nathan kept very quiet about their proposed trip, but it is said to have been unkind enough to throw them together on the same train to the capital.

However, that may be, it is stated with certainty that the two men, accompanied by gentlemen Mr. Willis immediately sought the aid of Secretary Tracy, his warm friend and fellow-workman.

The anti-Nathan forces in the Twenty-first Ward are in the majority, and it is expected that the anti-Nathan forces in the Twenty-first Ward are in the majority, and it is expected that the anti-Nathan forces in the Twenty-first Ward are in the majority.

AMONG BROOKLYN AMATEURS.

The amateur dramatic season is coming to an end, and the members of the various organizations in Brooklyn are working hard to wind it up in a fitting manner by giving good performances.

Monday night the Melopomene will present "Young Mrs. Winthrop." Judging from the cast announced, the performance should be a good one. It is as follows:

- Harriet J. Stokem
Alice J. Stokem
Albert Meyer
Miss J. Stokem

The last performance of the Brooklyn Choral is announced for the evening of May 4. A "Glean" will be sung with William Ludwig in the title role.

The Melopomene will end the season in April with "The Shaughraun." Jean Pratt will impersonate Con.

"The Danites" will be given by the Faust at its next performance with a cast including W. M. Caldwell, George Maskin, C. T. Weiland, G. N. McEvoy, A. King, Miss Fanny Korke, Miss Miller and Miss Clark.

J. J. Crowley, who is one of the most hard-working and reliable amateur actors in Brooklyn, is to be given a testimonial by the W. M. Caldwell, George Maskin, C. T. Weiland, G. N. McEvoy, A. King, Miss Fanny Korke, Miss Miller and Miss Clark.

April 27 is the date set by the Orient Club for its musical and dramatic entertainment at the Athenaeum.

Arthur Donaldson is engineering the forthcoming production of "The Ironmaster," which is to be done by the Swedish Dramatic Club at the Athenaeum, April 28.

The Booth will shortly present "Nevada, the Lost Mine," by G. M. Baker, W. T. McNeill, A. Teates, Miss Fanny Korke, Miss Clark and Miss Clark.

The Pastime Dramatic Club, of Port Jefferson, is preparing for a production of "From Hunter to Appomattox," which is to be given on the arrangements and the cast will be as follows:

- William Henry Brown, 62, No. 761 De Kalb
Charles H. Brown, 62, No. 315 Gates
Dennis J. Coakley, 29, No. 12 Loquer st.
John Devin, 21, No. 328 Central av.
Mary Hill, 62, No. 109 Fort Greene place
Stevenson Hall, 85, No. 144 Lafayette av.
Mary A. Hill, 40, No. 452 Putnam st.
Madeline Kelly, 66, No. 228 Hudson st.
Charles H. Brown, 62, No. 315 Gates
Dennis J. Coakley, 29, No. 12 Loquer st.
John Devin, 21, No. 328 Central av.
Mary Hill, 62, No. 109 Fort Greene place
Stevenson Hall, 85, No. 144 Lafayette av.
Mary A. Hill, 40, No. 452 Putnam st.
Madeline Kelly, 66, No. 228 Hudson st.

Regimental state of the Thirtieth Regiment at the Armory, Madison avenue and Hanson place, Saturday evening, April 23.

Compagnie K of the Thirtieth Regiment, will drill at the armory to-night.

Entertainment of the Young Men's Exhibition Club will be held on Wednesday evening at the armory, Madison avenue and Hanson place, Saturday evening, April 23.

The Brooklyn Chess Club will hold its monthly meeting on Wednesday evening, April 23, at the armory, Madison avenue and Hanson place, Saturday evening, April 23.

A banquet of the Thirtieth Regiment's veterans will take place at the armory, Madison avenue and Hanson place, Saturday evening, April 23.

Gen. J. V. Meares will review the Fortieth regiment at the armory, Madison avenue and Hanson place, Saturday evening, April 23.

The Brooklyn Chess Club will hold its monthly meeting on Wednesday evening, April 23, at the armory, Madison avenue and Hanson place, Saturday evening, April 23.

A banquet of the Thirtieth Regiment's veterans will take place at the armory, Madison avenue and Hanson place, Saturday evening, April 23.

Gen. J. V. Meares will review the Fortieth regiment at the armory, Madison avenue and Hanson place, Saturday evening, April 23.

The Brooklyn Chess Club will hold its monthly meeting on Wednesday evening, April 23, at the armory, Madison avenue and Hanson place, Saturday evening, April 23.

A banquet of the Thirtieth Regiment's veterans will take place at the armory, Madison avenue and Hanson place, Saturday evening, April 23.

DID HE WANDER OFF AND DIE?

William Harold Johnson, 15 Years Old, Missing Since Feb. 16.

Known as "The Wild Boy," from His Mania for Hiding in the Brush.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

WILLIAM HAROLD JOHNSON. The boy was known as "Brooklyn's Wild Boy," having disappeared on several previous occasions.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1807 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

BROOKLYN NEWS IN BRIEF.

Notable Occurrences in the City of Churches.

Paragaphs That Photograph a Day's History.

Two Mean Young Thieves. For breaking a window and stealing five cents worth of lead pencils, Alfred and Fred Jensen, aged twelve and fourteen years respectively, were arrested this morning and locked up in the Marine Avenue Police Station, Louis Masse, of 1817 Fulton street, is the complainant.

Who Stole Miss Doodly's Fur Cap? A fur cap valued at $50 was stolen from the apartments of Annie Doodly, 373 Furman street, Brooklyn, early this morning.

Burglars on Monitor Street. Burglars entered the apartments of Charles E. Lund, 93 Monitor street, Brooklyn, early this morning and stole several suits of clothes.

Mrs. Tiffany Loses a Gold Bracelet. Mrs. Charles Tiffany, of 19 Berkeley place, Brooklyn, notified the police this morning that she had lost a gold bracelet yesterday afternoon while walking along Fifth avenue, between Berkeley place and First street.

Pigeon Thieves Behind Prison Bars. Four boys—John Clark, of 308 Church street; Fred West and Charles West, of 685 Monroe street; and George Christensen, of 705 Madison street—were arrested this morning by Detective Miller, of the Cedar street station, for stealing a pair of shoes and eighteen pigeons from William Young, of 991 Putnam avenue.

One Says Pay, the Other Cries Fraud. Louis Bradrich has brought suit against Clarence E. Hopkins in the Brooklyn City Court to recover $2,000 alleged to be due on a promissory note. The note was given Oct. 31, 1901, and fell due on Dec. 3. The defense is that the note was one of a series of notes given in exchange for a part interest in a photograph gallery. The answer put in by Bradrich charges that Hopkins is representing the condition of the business.

Seven New County Detectives. District-Attorney Higway, under the new law authorizing the appointment of seven county detectives for duty in the office of the District-Attorney, has appointed Joseph Bagarello, Jeremiah Mahoney, Thomas McNelly, Joseph S. Irwin, John J. Foley and Michael F. Heilly. They cannot be removed except on charges.

Burial of Police Capt. Folk. The funeral of police Capt. William H. Folk, of the 17th Brooklyn Precinct, took place this morning from the family residence, 141 Van Buren street, Brooklyn, at 10 o'clock. The interment was in Greenwood.

Mr. Nelson's Jewelry and Money Gone. Jewelry and money amounting to $100, were stolen this morning from James Nelson, of 16 Cooper street, Brooklyn.

The Check Was Bogus. Jacob G. Schlemmer, of 255 Hamilton avenue, was held by the Brooklyn police this morning on a charge of obtaining $27.50 from William L. Lewis, No. 700 1/2 West 11th street, in exchange for a bogus check.

Appropriated His Father's Money. Joseph Duffy was arrested this morning on a complaint of his father, John Duffy, of 24 Hicks street, Brooklyn, who alleges that Joseph collected $10 and appropriated it to his own use.

Dr. Shepard's Clothing Stolen. Clothing valued at $25 was stolen during the night from Dr. Charles H. Shepard, of 81 Columbia heights, Brooklyn.

Field to Go to Buffalo To-Day. Edward M. Field was still in Lindow street Jail this morning. It is reported that he will probably be sent to the Buffalo State Hospital this afternoon. Field himself appears somewhat brighter and better than at any time during his confinement.

THE MURDER OF SHERIFF DUNN. Perhaps the Work of Deputies Who Wanted His Money. (BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.) CHICAGO, March 25.—Recent information received from Garden City, Kan., indicates that Sheriff Dunn, of Seward County, was not murdered by a mob organized to kill Judge Watkins, as was reported, and as has been believed, but that he was murdered by his own deputies, and for money and notes he possessed.

This information was given out here by W. B. Orner, of Seward County, who was accused of being the principal conspirator to assassinate Sheriff Dunn. Orner says that he has the testimony of a woman who was an intimate friend of Sheriff Dunn, and who knows better than any one else his finances.

NEW ASSESSORS APPOINTED. Mayor Body Names Two Additional City Officials. Mayor Body this morning appointed the two additional assessors required under the law recently passed. The lucky ones are John McNamara, of 135 Smith street, a True Democrat and a member of the Democratic central committee of Kings County, and Robert E. L. Howe, real estate dealer, of 120 Pacific avenue, prominent in Sixth Ward Democratic politics.

Mr. Howe is an intimate friend of ex-Register Kane. McNamara is the last of a family of eight to capture a political office. He is a brother of Capt. McNamara, of the Prospect Park police.

INJURED ON BOARD THE STEAMER ELBERON. John Smith, of No. 12 Conover street, Brooklyn, was removed to St. Peter's Hospital this morning suffering from injuries sustained on the steamer Elberon, lying at Martin's wharf.

TOOK ONLY A $30 BITE. A Jury Decides that Mitchell's Horse Damaged Griffin that Much. Patrick J. Griffin sued James Mitchell, a wealthy iron founder, for $1,000 damages. The case was tried before Judge Osborne and a jury in the Brooklyn City Court.

Griffin alleged that a vicious horse owned defendant had bitten him on the arm. The jury returned a verdict for the defendant in the sum of $30.

WHY WAS TORBITT FREED? The Man Who Killed Leahy Strangely Released from Prison. When the Brooklyn police were notified of the death of John Leahy, who was stabbed a few days ago in a fight with Patrick Torbitt, it was found that Torbitt had been released, and they had a long search before arresting him.

It was said that he was held for five days to await the result of Leahy's injuries, but was released from Raymond street Jail. The Butler police officer, who McGarry stated that Torbitt was released by the judge. The records throw no light on the case.

Carpenier's Shops Burglarized. The new store of the carpenter shop of George Hahn, No. 124 Third street, and Christopher Skelton, of No. 47 Buffalo avenue, Brooklyn, during the night and carried off tools valued at $10 from his and $30 from Skelton's.

THEY ALL WENT COURTING.

Mrs. Cooney Got a Warrant and Mrs. Briordy Did the Same.

Two Black Eyes and Three Arrests Result from a Street Fight.

Ferdinand Ward, whose term of imprisonment at Sing Sing expired April 30, may not get more than a snatch of liberty, for there is an untried indictment on file against him in the office of United States District-Attorney Mitchell.

This indictment is one of four returned against Ward when the collapse of the Marine Bank came in 1884. Three indictments were dismissed by the court on the ground of another, but the fourth, found Feb. 19, 1885, and charging Ward with being an accessory to and accomplice of James D. Fish in the misappropriation of the funds of the Marine Bank, still hangs over Ward.

James D. Fish, partner of Ward, Gen. Grant and Ulysses Grant, Jr., the firm of Grant & Ward, was convicted and sent to Auburn Prison.

Ward was not tried in the Federal Court, because the State of New York got hold of him and tried him for larceny in passing a check on the Marine Bank. It was put in the hands of the Federal Court by the United States Marshal when he emerges from the Sing Sing prison, April 30, to return to New York, where he is discharged from trial again and to suffer more years of imprisonment.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her two blackened eyes, and her face was badly scratched and bled. She said that Mrs. Briordy's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she prosecuted him for a crime.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and