

DISINHERITED BY MME. PATTI.

The Diva Scandalized by Her Favorite Nephew's Actions.

Sued for $50,000 by a Husband, She Cuts Him Off Without a Cent.

Mme. Adeline Patti has been scandalized by the recent doings of her favorite nephew, Alfredo Barilli, who she has always held out as one of the heirs of her fortune, and according to despatches from Kansas City this morning she now announces that she will cut him off without a cent and have nothing more to do with him.

The cause of this sudden change of feeling is a pending divorce suit and an action for $50,000 damages, in which Barilli has become mixed up.

The plaintiff in both suits is Dr. M. F. Horine, of Chicago, who brings the divorce suit against his young wife, and the action for damages against Barilli, whom he charges with alienating her affections.

Barilli is now living in Kansas City, but he formerly lived in Atlanta, Ga., with his family. He was a professor of music, and had a school there.

Mrs. Horine, who went to Atlanta last year to stay with her mother, became acquainted with Prof. Barilli, with whom she began studying, and the result was, it is alleged, a liaison, which soon got to the ears of the injured husband. The story became known in Atlanta, and six months ago, according to the Kansas City despatches, Barilli deserted his wife and children and went to Kansas City.

Dr. Horine, who had obtained from his wife a number of letters written to her by Barilli, laid them before Mme. Patti when she was in Chicago last winter. She had heard something of the scandal in her nephew's family, but when she knew the whole truth she was very indignant, and sent for Barilli to come to her at once.

He obeyed the summons, it is said, but could not explain matters. His aunt told him that unless he would renounce the doctor's wife forever she would disinherit him. He promised to give her up, but it now appears that they met in St. Louis in March last and stopped at one of the hotels there under another name.

When Dr. Horine learned this he began his actions for damages and a divorce, and informed Mme. Patti of her nephew's treacherous conduct. It aroused her deepest wrath and she declared that she would never give a cent of her money to such an unworthy nephew.

Barilli is now in a house in Kansas City, while his wife and children are living in Atlanta.

Mme. Patti, who has been staying at the Windsor Hotel in this city, was not in town this morning. She was at Lakewood, N. J., last night with Mrs. Nicoletti and will remain there all the week.

WICKHAM PAYS HIS BARBER.

The Ex-Mayor Settles with Consortial Artist Kluge.

Paul Kluge, the barber of 617 Madison avenue, has finally collected his bill of $137.50, with interest, against ex-Mayor William H. Wickham.

Barber Kluge shaved Mr. Wickham under contract at so much a week and let the bill run on until it amounted to the sum named, including $20 of borrowed money.

When Mr. Wickham refused to pay it he was sued, and a judgment obtained against him. Supplemental proceedings were about to be instituted by Barber Kluge, when Mr. Wickham came forward and paid his bill, getting a receipt in full.

DIED AT THE DINNER TABLE.

Sudden End of a New York Drummer in a Chicago Eating House.

D. Wilcox & Co., the wholesale jewellers at 122 Broadway, received word this morning of the sudden death of George C. Desmond, one of their travelling salesmen, in a Chicago eating-house.

He was eating his dinner about 7 o'clock last evening in Boyle's restaurant with D. J. Liston, another salesman from New York, when he suddenly fell from his chair in a fainting fit, and died within a few minutes before a doctor could be summoned.

His death is said to have been caused by heart disease. His body will be brought back to this city for burial.

OSMOND ON TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE.

Insanity the Defense of the Slayer of His Wife and Friend.

John Lewis Osmond, who killed his wife Mary and his friend John G. Burchell at 909 Third avenue on the night of Oct. 3 last, is on trial to-day before Judge Ingraham, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer.

When the Court opened this morning there were eleven jurors in the box, these having been sworn yesterday.

Samuel M. Constand, 83 West Street; Herman Schaus, 2103 Fifth Avenue; Charles P. Kneavis, 101 West Seventy-second Street; Thomas H. Newman, 7 East One Hundred and Twenty-fourth Street; William Schaus, 229 Stanton Street; Horatius G. Bean, 80 Broadway; Henry Hillman, 205 Bowers; George Hagen, 445 East One Hundred and Twenty-first Street; Richard V. Lewis, 142 West Eighty-second Street; Duncan Elliott, 10 Bowers; Jacob Wallace, 110 East Seventy-fourth Street.

The defendant is a short, thick-set, bullet-headed man, with a scowl that creases his forehead and a deep wrinkle in his brow. His hair is black, and he has a high forehead. He is dressed in a dark suit, and is looking at the jury with a stern expression.

PROVES FAITH BY WORKS.

Millions of Montgomery Devotes Life and Fortune to Salvation Work.

George Montgomery is worth a million dollars in California real estate and Mexican mining property, has a charming young wife and a darling little girl, but he and Mrs. Montgomery have cast in their lot with the Salvation Army and will cooperate the rest of their lives to the work of that band in recompense for what they consider their miraculous cure from chronic disease by the healing power of faith in the newspapers a few years ago.

Mrs. Montgomery was the Miss Carrie O'Neil, of Buffalo, whose recovery from consumption through the prayers of Mrs. Edward Mix, the Connecticut colored faith-curer, was chronicled so fully in the newspapers a few years ago.

George Montgomery had long been a sufferer with diabetes, when he discarded all medicines, and relying only upon prayer, speedily recovered, and is now a handsome, stalwart man, over six feet tall.

So grateful were the couple for their restoration to health that they named their first-born "Baby Faith." They established the Salvation Army town of Seabul, near Oakland, Cal., and built a refuge for fallen women, and are building a home for worn-out "Soldiers of the Cross."

They have come to New York, and are stopping at the modest Allen family hotel, 1511 Broadway. They have come to do Christian work in the slums of this modern Sodom.

Mr. Montgomery owns a hotel and 1,300 acres of land at Cazadero, eighty-five miles north of San Francisco, and he proposes to establish the Ocean Grove of the Pacific coast there, with a camp-meeting ground for the Salvation Army. Mrs. Montgomery has successfully edited and managed the magazine "Triumphs of Faith," which she established in 1887.

The People's Confidence

Has been won by HOOD'S Sarsaparilla

In a Manner Never Equalled.

Of our thousands of letters of praise from druggists we cite the following from Mr. C. O. Sizelow, the enterprising prescription druggist, who has a very large business at 102 Ch. Ave., New York City:

"I am, on general principles, averse to expressing my views, pro or con, in respect to any proprietary article, but in the light of Hood's Sarsaparilla being the product of a brother apothecary, will say, Hood's Sarsaparilla has secured a place in the public confidence never attained by any proprietary medicine that I have handled during an experience of more than twenty years in the drug trade. It

MUST POSSESS TREMENDOUS REMEDIAL power to retain the increasing popularity of a household remedy. The sale of Hood's Sarsaparilla exceeds that of all similar preparations combined, of which I keep on stock some fifteen or twenty. It is
