LAST EDITION. POOR "L" SERVICE

The Union Management Still Deaf to Public Appeal.

No Excuse for the Failure to Comply with Proper Demands.

General Manager Goundie Frankly Speaks for the Kings County Line.

Notwithstanding the fact that complaints are heard daily concerning the poor service of the Union Elevated system; that hundreds of citizens are daily and hourly inconveni-fact, we wish to do everything by our power to provide for our patrons' comfort. I think we have shown this by extending our track out through the swamps and marshes to Montauk avenue.

It is Mr. Goundie says, the Kings County smokers are cleaned twice a day, then they should be cleaned three times a day—once about 10 o'clock in the morning. After a car has made one or two trips, heavily loaded, it is not fit for people to ride in all the remainder of the day.
The Kings County folks can further improve their smokers by putting more cuspidors in them. At present some of them are sadly in need of more of those necessary articles.
Mr. Goundie thinks that a twelve-minute wait is very rare on his line. Not so rare, perhaps, as he thinks.
It happened on four successive mornings not long ago, at the Nostrand avenue station.
It seems there are a good many who are not satisfied with a six-minute headway, so the Company might try a four-minute headway.
However, the Kings County line service is by far the best in Brooklyn, and its officials have at least offered some explanation of whatever delinquencies it may have in the way of poor service.
They say further that their aim is to give the best in their power. The Union people do not say even this.
Perhaps if the Brooklyn people addressed them in a body the effect might be different.
There is a way to do this—that is, by signing The Evening World's appeal. It will take a B. H. WARMAN FATALLY SHOT. He Was in His Fiancee's Room When It Occurred.

He is the Son of "Outing's" Editor and a Harvard Man.
Word was received at the office of Outing this morning of the fatal shooting, at Albany, of Benj. J. Warman, only son of Dr.
James H. Warman, the publisher.
Young Warman was visiting the family of Dr. D. B. Atkinson, whose daughter is his fiancee. He was alone in his room when the shooting occurred, and has been unconscious ever since. The shooting is believed by the family to have been accidental, but it is impossible to learn just how it occurred.
The bullet passed through the abdomen and the chest, and he died in a few minutes.
Young Warman is twenty-one years old, an athlete, and a member of the Freshman class at Harvard. He and Miss Atkinson were scholarships in the same grade of the Albany High School, where she took first prize in her class and second prize in the school.
Dr. Warman, who lives at the San Remo in this city, left for Albany this morning.

PETARDS SPOIL A PARADE. Anarchists in Cadiz Attack the Holy Thursday Processionists.

Brazil Quiet Again—Rudini to Form a New Italian Cabinet.
MADRID, April 14.—The optimistic view taken of the Anarchist situation here, and the belief that the prompt action of the authorities would prevent the committal of further outrages of that character, has received a severe setback by an occurrence at Cadiz.
To-day being Holy Thursday, there was a public procession of worshippers, the priests bearing religious emblems and relics. A considerable crowd watched the procession as it passed along the streets, a great majority of the bystanders bowing reverently as the religious emblems were carried past them.
Suddenly two men in the crowd of onlookers threw two petards directly into the procession.
Those in the line were panic stricken and fled in every direction. The bystanders were also terribly frightened and sought safety in flight. In the confusion and excitement the villains who threw the petards made their escape, and there is not the slightest clue to their identity.
A number of the processionists were more or less injured by the explosion, but fortunately nobody was killed. Many of the people returned to the church from which the procession originally came and offered up thanks for their escape from further disaster.
The people are deeply indignant at this late-stage outrage. The police cannot be blamed for any laxity, for no one dreamed that special precautions would be necessary to prevent an attack upon a religious procession.
These proceedings are a feature in all Spanish cities, particularly during Holy Week, and seldom therefore has any trouble occurred through them.
Owing to the Anarchist agitation, which has caused a general feeling of uneasiness, the elaborate Holy Week ceremonies here have been poorly attended.

BEATEN BY AN ACTOR. Lydia Thompson's Husband De- lirious from Wounds.

His Head Cracked Because He Wouldn't Admit Deadheads.
Comedian De Forest and Broker Campbell Held This Morning.
Comedian Charles De Forest and Broker James C. Campbell played leading parts this morning in a little drama in Jefferson Market Court, where they were arraigned on a charge of cruel assault on the manager Ernest Hutchinson, husband of Lydia Thompson, the English burlesque actress.
Besides figuring as Lydia Thompson's husband, Mr. Hutchinson does some real work as the manager of the one-time stirring burlesque company, now playing at the Fourteenth street Theatre. This is what led him directly into a row last night at the Fourteenth street Theatre, all on account of his refusal to extend the usual courtesies of "the profession," which Comedian De Forest blatantly requested for his friend, Broker Campbell, and himself.
Manager Hutchinson's refusal may cost him his life, in what event the little drama of to-day will develop into a tragedy of serious portent to the dapper variety man and his friend Campbell.
Dr. W. M. Fleming sent a certificate to Justice Grady which says that Hutchinson is confined to his room at the Westminster Hotel in a delirious condition, suffering from a broken nose and concussion of the brain.
A lawyer representing Hutchinson said that De Forest and Campbell tried to force an entrance into the theatre last night after passes were refused them; that they grew boisterous and invited Hutchinson out from the box office to the auditorium. He did not when he emerged to pacify the comedian and his companion they beset him with vituperations and blows.
A knobbed cane, with which the assault was committed, was put in evidence, and the conqualed blood of Hutchinson, which was called upon the broken handle, had its effect upon the magisterial mind.
Justice Grady held De Forest and Campbell in $5,000 bail each for examination pending the result of Hutchinson's injuries.
De Forest, who lives at 443 Ninth avenue and looks his typical song and dance man, was obliged to use his stick to defend himself.
"They came bounding out of the office on top of us like a drove of bees," he said, "and I hadn't protected myself, we both should have been nearly killed." Then, with true histrionic heroism, he waved his hand towards Campbell and said:
"What are you doing? You must not do anything in the row, and they ought to let Jimmy go."
"Jimmy" toyed with his brigandish mustache, which is truly out of all proportion to the rest of his person, and echoed the song and dance man's sentiments.
De Forest, doubles with Walter Manning in a black face turn, and they are known as "The Comets."

NO CHANGE IN COHOS. Common Council Expected to De- clare Strong Elected Mayor.

COHOS, April 14.—There is no change in the condition at Cohos. Henry A. Strong, the Republican candidate, has a plurality of 289, outside of the Fourth Ward, which is a strong Republican ward, and the ballot-boxes of which are in the possession of the police.
The Common Council will meet Tuesday night to canvass the returns, and the general expectation is that Mr. Strong will be declared elected Mayor. Garande, the opponent of Gorman, and the Republicans have ten out of the eleven votes in the Common Council.
The police seizure of the boxes is in the interest of Gorman.
The Common Council may throw out the Fourth Ward. In any event, the Republicans say that Gorman's claim of election is the widest vaporing.

reached after long negotiations, and that the United States had agreed to pay an indemnity

THE SPEEDWAY REPEAL BILL. Probably to Be Made a Special Or- der for Monday Next.

ALBANY, April 14.—The Central Park Speedway Repeal bill, according to the present outlook, is likely to be made a special order for Monday night, the Rules Committee of the Assembly being willing to place it as the New York Assemblymen desire.
The strange opposition to the repeal on the part of Brooklyn and country members still continues to a large extent, the New Yorkers being a unit in favor of the bill.
However, the friends of the bill believe they will have enough votes to pass the measure Monday night. Assembly Leader Beasly is now with them.

STILL FRIENDLY TO BORROWE. He Cables Mrs. Drayton Upon Reaching the Other Side.

According to the cable despatches this morning one of the very first acts of Hallett Alsop Borrowe on the arrival of the City of Paris at Quebec yesterday was to send a telegram to Mrs. Coleman Drayton, who is still living somewhere in England.
She has retired completely from public view since the scandal was stirred up, and no one in London has been able to discover her present address, although it is evident that Borrowe knows it.
The fact that the latter has been in such haste to communicate with her is regarded as evidence that they intend to resume friendly relations, despite the assertions made by Mrs. Drayton's friends that she was thoroughly disgusted with Mr. Borrowe after she found that he had been responsible for the exposure, and had declared that she would never see him again.
It is also stated in connection with the affair that Mr. Drayton's interests in the church, and in about fifty years ago, was represented by Thatcher M. Adams, the well-known lawyer of this city. He was Mr. Drayton's legal advisor, it is said, and actually wrote all the letters signed by Drayton in the famous correspondence.
Mr. Adams is still in Europe, but expects to sail for home on April 27. He lives at 15 West 125th street, New York City.
He has known Drayton for many years, having a place at Barnardville, N. J., near Newark, where he has lived for some time.
Mrs. Drayton is in this city expressing great surprise that she should have had anything to do with the scandalous affair.

SETTLING WITH ITALY. Partial Belief in the Latest Report of an Indemnity.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Assistant Secretary of State Wharton refused to discuss the report that an arrangement has been reached whereby the United States will pay the sum of $25,000,000 for the Italian subjects lynched in the Parish Prison, New Orleans.
The story is a revamp of one sent out from Indianapolis a fortnight ago.
The belief here is that some such arrangement will ultimately be made, but not until the Ministers of the two Governments have returned to their respective ports, when the details will be arranged.

BOMBS AND A FRENCH PAPER.

Chief Elements in a Buffalo Reporter's Dynamic Scare LOCKPORT, April 14.—A reporter of a Buffalo paper passed through Lockport this morning on his return from Brockport, where he had been to investigate an alleged dynamite find.
He claimed to have found an Italian wig-man on the farm of Charles McAllister, one mile southwest of the railway station, containing several bombs and a French newspaper, dated Dec. 8, with an article marked relating to immigration of Anarchists to this country. The bombs were similar to those used in the Haymarket riot at Chicago.
The reporter had one of the bombs not charged. No one in the vicinity knew of any one who had ever occupied the wigwag.
The reporter himself was not sure that the affair might be a put up job for a scare.

BRAZIL AGAIN TRANQUIL. Loyalty of the Army Frustrates the Latest Revolutionary Attempt.

RIO JANEIRO, N. D., April 14.—The state of peace has been raised. An official announcement that the city is tranquil. It adds that the loyalty of the army enabled the authorities to frustrate the attempt made by the malcontents to disturb the peace.
The movement in Mato Grosso to declare that State independent of the Federal Government was the outcome of the organized plot, but the affair was of no importance, as the State is not able to uphold a rebellion.
The whole country is tranquil. The energetic action of the Government has given creased in violence. Snow has been falling for twelve hours. Telegraph and telephone wires are down and all business suspended.

THEY WILL GET THEIR PAY. Comptroller Myers Relieves the Street Cleaning Employees.

A very fine bill has been raised about the laws creating the new Building and street Cleaning Departments.
The laws, signed recently by Gov. Flower, go into effect at once, and the question was whether that provision did not legislate the present departments out of existence at once, and whether the employees of those departments would be entitled to their pay.
Comptroller Myers said that he would put a common-sense construction on the clause reading: "This act shall go into effect at once."
A reasonable time should be allowed for reorganization, and until the departments were reorganized he should recognize the heads of the old departments and pay their employees.
Caught at His Victim's Grave.
WHEELING, W. Va., April 14.—William Meier, who shot his young wife dead in this city eight days ago, because she refused to kiss him, has been captured here. He started for Columbus and got fifty miles away, but came back and went to the cemetery and was found standing by his wife's grave. He was furnished, having been without food for six days.
