

TALK WITH ROBERT BONNER.

His Views on the Bicycle Sulky and Fast Tracks.

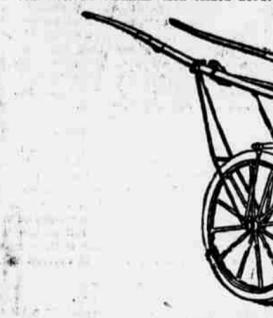

Doesn't Believe the Horse Lives That Can Beat Maul's.

"I don't believe the horse lives that can beat Maul's on the Cleveland track, all other conditions being equal."

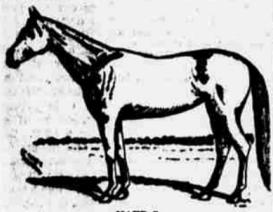

Robert Bonner said today to an Evening World reporter...

Wallo Mr. Bonner would not, in so many words, make the statement, it is highly probable that before long both Maul's and Bunol will be tried to the new machine.

"pneumatic tires" and "ball bearings" in a way that indicated that, however much he had been hurt by being deprived of the distinction of owning the fastest trotter in the world, he was ready to take up with the new idea and test its advantages over the old-style sulky.

"Yes, I am having some of the new arrangements built by Bidwell as a matter of experiment," said Mr. Bonner. "I shall have a racing sulky with hickory wheels, pneumatic tires and ball bearings. Besides, I have had bicycle wheels put on a ninety-five-pound cart, which I shall use for my own driving, and I am positive that I shall find it faster than the ordinary fifty-pound sulky."

TO RETIRE FROM SERVICE.

Capt. Pollard, of Company C, Regiments from the Seventh.

The announcement that Capt. Don Alanzo Pollard, of Company C, Seventh Regiment, N. G. & N. Y., has sent his resignation to Col. Appleton has created a big stir in military circles.

Capt. Pollard is one of the best-known officers of the regiment. He has been in the service more than thirty-two years, having enlisted as a private in May, 1860. He has been the senior captain of the seventh infantry years, and this position is regarded as one of the best-disciplined in the regiment.

IS HE A "GREEN GOODS" MAN?

An American Express Employee Arrested by Post-Office Inspectors.

Charles Brummerhoff, a young man employed in the Money Order Department of the American Express Company at 65 Broadway, has been arrested as a "green goods" man by Post-Office inspectors, who caught him by means of a decoy registered letter.

The letter was addressed to Thomas H. Woods, 65 Fourth avenue. Brummerhoff claimed he was employed by Woods.

Malta Quarantine American ships. President Evan Thomas, of the Produce Exchange, has received notice from the British Consul-General at New York that the little island of Malta has established quarantine against the United States.

AT THE BROOKLYN THEATRES.

The Plays That Will Be Seen Next Week.

Little Collins Will Sing "Ta-Ra-Ra" at the Columbia.

In "Miss Helvet," which is to be presented at the Columbia Theatre next week, are combined sparkling music by Audran, crisp comedy by David Wallace, agile dancing and bright scenery and costumes.

"There was Belle Vera, that trotted in front of the new machine in 2.08 1/2 at Terre Haute. The idea of a 2.14 horse lowering its record to 2.08 1/2 at one clip!

"Then there was Mascot and Flying Jib, both considered second-class pacers. Mascot beat Flying Jib by a throat-latch in 2.04, and didn't have the pole, either.

"This was done in a race, too, where it is not expected that the time will be within two seconds, at least as when a horse is going alone against time with a runner to urge him. I see that a well-informed turf writer says that Mascot's performance was equal to 2.02, and I think so."

"Before Nancy Hanks broke the record at Terre Haute she tried it at Philadelphia, Detroit and Cleveland, and her best time to an ordinary was 2.11 1/2."

Then Mr. Bonner switched off to the subject of fast tracks. "I have on my farm a colt that made a mile in 2.00 with a ball-bearing and pneumatic-tired sulky. That colt could go no better, but he is a race, too, where it is not expected that the time will be within two seconds, at least as when a horse is going alone against time with a runner to urge him. I see that a well-informed turf writer says that Mascot's performance was equal to 2.02, and I think so."

"What is your opinion, Mr. Bonner, of the time that is being made on straightaway courses with the bicycle sulky?"

"Oh, well, as to that, with a mile straightaway track, down hill and with a stiff north-west wind going the same way, I guess two minutes and ten seconds would be a fair time, and Mr. Bonner's eyes twinkled as he said it."

This was the nearest to an expression of opinion concerning straightaway tracks that the reporter was able to get from the owner of Maul's during a half-hour talk.

"But," continued Mr. Bonner, "I doubt if a straight course will ever become popular, because of the difficulty of timing correctly. I tried it once in company with two other gentlemen, both as good timers as ever held a watch."

LAST DAY OF THE BANNER CONTEST.

Sixty Clubs in Keen Competition for Ten Handicaps Prizes.

Members of clubs competing for the banners offered by The World have only a few hours left in which to improve their standings. When the books are made up this evening the ten organizations which shall have contributed the most to the Western Democratic Campaign Fund will be declared the winners.

Word has been received that the Keeney club will be entered to-day, and no organization should feel so sure of its position as to make no further attempt to increase its total. The final hours of the race are likely to be exciting ones and no club desirous of winning a banner should cease hustling for a moment.

GET SMOKED GLASS READY.

Partial Eclipse of the Sun Can Be Seen Next Thursday.

Should the conditions necessary for a good view of the sky be favorable, New Yorkers will have the opportunity of witnessing an astronomical phenomenon at 12.09.50 P. M., Oct. 20, when a partial solar eclipse will occur.

According to observatory officials it will be visible from all points in New America, except in the remote western section of Ala-Ka and that portion of the continent lying west of the Rocky Mountains. The eclipse will be visible from the north shore of the bay of Tehuantepec in Southern Mexico.

As seen from New York the eclipse will end at 12.01.10 P. M. Only a little less than two-fifths of the sun's diameter will be visible at Washington, where it will begin at 11.57.12 A. M., and end at 2.57.42 P. M. The point of the sun's limb which will be in contact with the earth's limb at the north point of contact will take place at 103 degrees from the north point towards the east.

The Poison Caused Her Death. Rita Bernhard, the cook of 153 East Fifty-ninth street, who took Paris green on Wednesday, died at the Presbyterian Hospital at 6 o'clock this morning.

"Looks like a ghost!" That is what they say of the pale, thin, woman who "rundown" and overworked. Probably she knows it herself. But there's one thing she doesn't know, or she wouldn't feel so bad, and that is, that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is guaranteed to help her.

It's a legitimate medicine, made especially for women's needs; an invigorating, restorative tonic and a soothing and strengthening nervine, imparting tone and vigor to the whole system.

But it isn't a mere stimulant. It's a remedy, safe and sure, for all the functional derangements, painful disorders, and chronic weaknesses that make women suffer. It's a female complaint of every kind, periodical pains, internal inflammation, ulceration, and kindred ailments. It's guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money is returned.

Events to Come in Brooklyn. Ratification meeting Eighth Ward Jefferson Club, Fort-seventh street and Third avenue to-night.

Ball game and ball King Solomon Lodge No. 29, 22 E. 7th St. at 8 o'clock to-night. Opening exhibition of minerals, Department of Mineralogy, Brooklyn Institute, Brooklyn Art Society, Madison street, to-night.

Annual election Car'lon Club, Monday. Boxing tournament Park Athletic Club, Winter's Tenth Street, Monday evening. Homeopathic Medical Society of Kings County meets at 44 Court street Tuesday evening. Republican City Convention, Criterion Theatre, this evening. Meeting of Young Republicans Club at the Ritz Oct. 20 and 21.

1. Kus-Kus (the barbarian)—Aha! now will I cast my lass, and climb you tree! Then, soograd, will I wipe those luscious fruits!

"Tuxedo," which will be the attraction at Col. Sinn's Park Theatre Monday evening. The play will be given by George Thatcher's company, which includes Hughey Dougherty, Burt Shepard, John A. Coleman, Ed. Marbo, George W. Lewis, Raymond Moore, H. W. Fruitman, Miss Ida Fitzhugh, Grace Hamilton, Blanche Hayden and Laura Armstrong. Many new songs will be introduced.

Hoyt's rollicking farce-comedy, "A Hole in the Ground," comes to the Grand Opera-House next week. Frank Lawton will appear in his old role of station agent, and there will be several other familiar faces in the cast. Harry Maxwell, Dan and Archie Deismending, Frank Baldwin, Beatie Dunn, Maggie May, Virginia Earl and others will also appear.

The members of the company have many new songs and the performance ought to draw good houses.

"The County Fair" will move over to the Eastern District Monday evening and will open at the Amphion. The horse-race in the last act will, of course, be the principal scenic feature of the performance. "The County Fair" Quartet will sing. Miss Marie Bates will appear as Aunt Abby Price and will be supported by W. H. Horton, Harry Simon, Frederick Maynard, Louise Galloway and others.

W. S. Cleveland's minstrel is billed to appear at the Bedford Avenue Theatre next week. New people are with the company this season, and an interesting entertainment is promised.

"The Vedocoo," a new farcical comedy under the management of Frank Lawton, will be at the Lee Avenue Academy next week. Frank Lawton will appear in the principal role, and will be assisted by John Spackler, formerly of Harrigan's company, and other clever people.

Cleveland's minstrel is billed to appear at the Bedford Avenue Theatre next week. New people are with the company this season, and an interesting entertainment is promised.

At the Novelty Martin Hayden will make his appearance in "Held in Slavery," a play new to Brooklynites.
