

BARLS OF BOODLE.

Big Wanamaker-Frick Republican Campaign Fund.

Candidate Adlai E. Stevenson's Letter of Acceptance.

Democratic Leaders Expect Big Majorities in New York.

Notwithstanding Chairman Carter's assertion that neither Andrew Carnegie nor H. C. Frick had contributed money to the Republican campaign fund, there is a well-founded belief in political circles that Mr. Frick, on his visit to this city last Saturday, brought with him large amounts of it, for Treasurer Blinn's officers. Politicians give Mr. Carter the benefit of the doubt, and say that when he made the denial the money which Frick brought may not have been in his hands. That Mr. Frick did bring money is not denied by anybody, and that he attended a conference at the Madison Hotel in Secretary Blinn's room, where the subject of election funds was under discussion, is not denied.

The Republican Pittsburgh Dispatch, a Carnegie organ, and which presumably would not publish anything concerning Mr. Frick that was not true, was the first to announce to the public that Mr. Frick had been appointed as one of the advisers of the campaign, and that Postmaster-General Wanamaker was the President's emissary. The day after he sent Frick this despatch from Pittsburgh was published in the papers here.

H. C. Frick, Chairman of the Carnegie Steel Company, met Postmaster-General Wanamaker and the Carnegie Company had contributed a large sum to the Republican National Committee. It is reported that the Carnegie Company has always been liberal to the Republican Committee in Presidential years.

At the same time it was reported, and Mr. Frick did not deny, that the Carnegie Company had contributed a large sum to the Republican National Committee. It is reported that the Carnegie Company has always been liberal to the Republican Committee in Presidential years.

CHEERED BY REGISTRATION.

Democrats Count On a Big Majority in This City.

With the beginning of the last week of the campaign, the confidence of the leaders at headquarters in the success of the Democratic ticket increases. Renewed cheer has been expressed by the Democrats in the last two days' registration in this city.

Some of the withdrawal of the County Democratic ticket just before the registration closed was considered odd politics, as it was thought some soreheads who would vote for Cleveland, but wanted to vote an anti-Tammany ticket, would not register at all; but the fact of their enrollment proved a surprise to these voters.

The result shows, in the opinion of Mr. Croker and Candidate Gilroy, that New York will give the Democratic Presidential candidate the biggest majority yet given to a National ticket. It will also prove, so the leaders believe, that it is not necessary to have a Democratic majority in the field in order to bring out a full vote. The Democrats will be done at this election, they claim—it will be the last of independent movements or side issues in Presidential elections.

Register John Reilly, Tammany leader of the Tenth District, and ex-Excise Commissioner William Pitt Mitchell are among those who are hopeful signs in the registration. Mr. Reilly says that large numbers of Republicans did not register in his district.

Mr. Mitchell has looked over a registration by districts, and he says that it is very large in the districts surely Democratic.

It seems to be right in the Republican districts, and it is not surprising that the Democrats will have a very large majority, and it would not be surprised if it was 2,000 or 3,000 larger.

Comments on Candidate Stevenson's Letter.

Mr. Stevenson's letter of acceptance, published in this morning's paper, is regarded as a timely campaign document. It was lavishly commended on all sides, as conclusively agreeing with the Democratic position, and as a statement of the Democratic position, and as a statement of the Democratic position, and as a statement of the Democratic position.

GEN. STEVENSON'S LETTER.

Gen. Adlai E. Stevenson's letter of acceptance of the Democratic nomination for Vice-President was made public today. The document is short, but aggressive in its tone and in its endorsement of the Democratic National platform.

Regarding the Republican system of high protection, Gen. Stevenson speaks plainly. "Whenever the power of taxation is used to draw tribute from the many for the benefit of a few, or when the power of taxation is used to oppress in order that the rest may prosper, equality is lost, justice is denied, and the people are oppressed."

The celebration of the platform in regard to the collection of money is authorized to without reservation or qualification.

In the Free Will Contribution, Gen. Stevenson says: "It is the duty of every citizen to contribute to the support of the Government, and to the support of the Government, and to the support of the Government."

enactment of a Force bill into law, while it would be a further step toward the people, would retard the material growth of the States at which it is specially aimed. It would also mean the destruction of the free and just legislative process.

HARRISON IN THE WEST.

Democratic Leaders Assured that He Will Lose Many Votes.

Conferees are held daily now, almost hourly, it may be said, between the leaders in the Democratic camp. Campaign Chairman Dickson, Lieut.-Gov. Sheehan, Chairman Edward Murphy, Jr., and Richard Croker were closeted for several hours in Mr. Dickson's room at the Hoffman House this morning.

Another conference was held just before noon at National Headquarters. Beside Chairman Harney there were present John W. McLean, William W. White, S. P. Sheehan and Senator Price. Mr. Dickson's report on the Western situation was the subject of the conference.

MURPHY PREDICTS SUCCESS.

The State Chairman's View, Based on Reports to the State Committee.

Chairman Edward Murphy, Jr., of the Democratic State Committee, who came down from Troy yesterday to confer with the local and National Democratic managers, reported several callers this morning in his room in the Hoffman House. Leader Croker, Chairman Harney, and other managers were present.

Mr. Dickson said that in his opinion and that of his colleagues (Congressman Cable and E. C. Walker) the Western branch headquarters, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota and North and South Dakota, are in a favorable position.

MR. CLEVELAND MAY VOTE.

Republicans Deny Any Intention of Challenging Him.

Officials at Republican State Headquarters this morning disclaimed all responsibility for a story printed in a morning paper that Mr. Cleveland would be arrested should he attempt to vote in the Thirtieth Election District of the Twenty-first Assembly District, in which he resides. The basis of the story is the reported contention that Mr. Cleveland had not been a resident of the district thirty days when he registered, and that gentleman had been in the district with a wife and child last night, and that he had been in the district at 12 West Fifty-first street last May, and had practically occupied it since that time.

PEZZLED BY VOBONISTS.

No One Knows Why They Are to Confer with Mr. Croker.

The object of the Special Committee of the New York Vobonists Democrat, which is to call on leader Croker at Tammany Hall to-night, puzzles politicians today. The Committee was appointed at a meeting of the Executive Committee at the New York Democracy Headquarters, 77 West Madison street, last night, and the object of their mission was kept secret for some unknown reason.

BIG MEETINGS THIS WEEK.

Mr. Cleveland and Senators Carlisle and Sherman will be here on Tuesday.

Three evening meetings are on the tapis for the roundup of the campaign. To-night a mass-meeting will be held at Cooper Union under the auspices of the Reform club. Senator John A. Carlin and Wendell C. Warner will be the speakers.

Senator Sherman of Maryland, will be the principal speaker in the registration meeting at the Wigwam Thursday night. Other speakers will address the crowds at the evening meeting.

LOOKING FOR "DAVE'S" ARREST.

It is Expected by People at Headquarters of Each Party.

There was manifest uneasiness at Republican National Headquarters, to-day, over the reports that Mr. Martin of Philadelphia, who is to be arrested as the responsible party for the unsuccessful attempt of several reporters in this city last week to register illegally. The report had not confined itself to headquarters, but spread in all Republican meeting places, and not a few momentarily expected to hear of the arrest.

HECOCK TAKEN COYERAGE.

Senator Hancock was one of the most conspicuous callers at Republican state headquarters in the Fifth Avenue Hotel this morning. He was particularly pleased, he said, with advice from the interior of the State, and declared that as the contest drew near to a close he became more convinced that the Republican nomination would be secured.

MART ALLEN HELD $1,500.

Charged with Promoting Illegal Registrations.

A Crowd of Alleged Colonizers in Jefferson Market Court.

Jefferson Market Police Court was filled to-day with a crowd of alleged colonizers in the case of "Mart" Allen, the latter of whom was one of the five prisoners arraigned by Inspector McLaughlin on the charge of aiding and abetting false registration in the Eighth Assembly District.

Besides "Mart" Allen, there were George Miller, who is charged with the quieting of John J. Moyle, John F. Henry and Thomas Kagan.

Allen gave his age as forty-six, said he was a native of New York, living at 105 West Forty-second street, and lived on his means. Miller, in response to the clerk's interrogations, said he was forty-three years old, lived at 44 Perry street for six weeks and was a novelty publisher.

Moyle gave his age as twenty-six, his occupation as a driver, and said he was born in Ireland and had lived at 247 West Nineteenth street for two months.

Henry said he was thirty-nine years old and a native of New York. He gave his address as 150 West Twenty-eighth street, and his occupation as a tailor. He has lived there only a short time.

Egan gave his age as forty-four and his address as 102 West Twenty-sixth street for the last two months. He is a salesman by occupation.

The prisoners were held in $1,500 bail each for examination.

Peter Burd, of 228 West Houston street; Thomas Ash, of 35 Downing street; Joseph Howard, 170 Macdougall street; James Finn, of 95 West Washington street; Patrick Murphy, of 92 South Fifth avenue; Frank Duffy, of 123 Sullivan street; William McKee, of 321 East Fourteenth street; William Morris, of 213 Sullivan street; and George Lafferty, of 524 Washington street, were all charged with aiding and abetting illegal registration, were charged merely with loitering about the South Fifth Avenue Hotel and other places.

Howard, Finn, Murphy and McKee were discharged. The others were held in $300 bail for examination on Monday.

Charles Lynch, another member of the gang, arraigned on the same charge, was held in $1,500 bail for examination.

W. S. Washington, colored, who was arrested by Detectives Bourquin and Cory last Thursday in connection with the illegal registration, was remanded until Wednesday for examination.

The District Attorney's office was not represented in court when Allen and his quartet were arraigned. Inspector McLaughlin represented both the Police Department and the people.

He declared that he had accumulated abundance of evidence to substantiate the charge against the men, but did not mean to show his hand until he had secured the names of the friends of the prisoners who might be furnished any cue upon which to work in the interest of the accused.

WARMED UP IN WESTCHESTER.

Democrats Expect to Give Cleveland 1,000 Majority.

White Plains, Oct. 31.—Both parties in Westchester County are making the last week of the canvass a hot one. The interest centers in the contest for Congressman and Assemblyman. The Democrats say they are sure of electing William H. Croker, Congressman, as well as their County ticket, and will carry the county for Cleveland by at least 1,000.

On the other hand the Republicans claim they will elect the ticket headed by John Robinson, the Gleasonite candidate for Assembly, and Daniel Noble, the Gleasonite candidate for Justice of the Peace, took place this morning before County Clerk John H. Sutphin.

County Clerk Sutphin announced that he sustained the objections, and that the tickets were to be printed with the name of the nominees named in the certificate.

ROUNDSMAN DAILEY AT BAR.

His Trial Goes On To-Day in General Sessions.

Pretty Mamie Hannan, His Accuser, Present in Court.

The trial of Roundsmen Mather F. Dailey, on the indictment charging him with having criminally assaulted pretty sixteen-year-old Mamie Hannan in the back room of Joe Geller's saloon, at Pitt and Broome streets, March 20 last, was called in Part II. of General Sessions this morning, but was adjourned until later in the day on account of the engagement of Judge Home, of Friend & Home, Dailey's counsel, in another part of the court.

Since his indictment June 2 last Dailey has been doing guard duty at the House of Detention, receiving his regular salary as roundsman, although he has been under $2,500 bonds, furnished by John Early, of 150 East Fifty-second street.

Washington hired a bar this morning here, the same defendant air that has all along characterized his alleged boasts of a "big pull," but beneath it not a little agitation was evident.

Since his indictment his political sponsor, Pagan, a judge of law, has been in court this morning his accuser, Mamie Hannan; her mother and brother; Lizzie Linn, who was present when the alleged assault was committed, and was found at 27 Delany street, May 30, by an Evening World reporter after a search of the building.

Mamie, who was with Miss Lawlor, and who is a sister of the defendant, was in court under circumstances still deplorable and pathetic. She is in a deplorable condition, so much so that Mamie had to borrow a cloak and dress from kind-hearted neighbors to go to court.

Then, too, as told in Saturday's Evening World, she is in danger today of being disfigured by a woman who is reported to have been in the building.
