JOHN ELLIOTT'S FATAL SHOT.

Westchester Furnishes the First Tragedy of the Campaign.

A Political Discussion Ends in John Hiney's Murder.

John Hiney lies dead in the village of Pelham Bridge, just over the city line, and John Elliott, the well-known sporting man and crack pigeon shot, proprietor of a hotel at Pelham Bay Park, is held a prisoner, charged with murder.

The tragedy was the outcome of a bitter political discussion last Sunday night in the barroom of Elliott's hotel, which is a gathering place for politicians and sporting men.

John Colford and John Hiney, it is said, began the trouble. They were backers of William V. Molloy, the Republican candidate for Register, and they started to argue with Elliott, during which a number of Molloy's friends came in from New Rochelle and joined in the pastime of "talking Elliott down."

Elliott retired to another room. He says he carried trouble, for Hiney was known to carry a pistol, and he had been employed as a watchman for James M. Waterbury, of Westchester. Elliott secured his own revolver and returned to the bar.

Before the rest of the crowd realized what had happened there was a flash and a report, and Hiney fell, mortally wounded in the left breast.

Elliott followed this up by knocking Colford down and cleaning out the barroom.

Elliott was arrested and lodged in the White Plains Jail. He says that when he returned to the bar with his revolver, Hiney was waiting for him there, with his pistol cocked, and that he shot him in self-defense, believing that Hiney came to the hotel with his friends for the purpose of killing him.

John Colford, who was with Hiney at the time, was also arrested. He says that Hiney did not draw his pistol, and that Hiney did not draw his pistol, and that Hiney did not draw his pistol.

Arrested for False Registration. William J. Trimble, aged thirty-three, of 48th Street, Brooklyn, was arrested today charged with falsely registering in the sixteenth district of the Twelfth ward.

Stabbed with an Umbrella. Ignace Mersbach, of 652 Fifth Avenue, Brooklyn, fell asleep in a car on the Fifth Avenue car line early this morning, and when John McGeehan, the conductor, awoke him he stabbed the conductor in the eye with an umbrella. He has been arrested.

CATS ATE UP FALK'S BODY.

The Old Man Lay Dead in His Squalid Garret.

His Body Terribly Mutilated by His Starving Pets.

John Falk, 61, sixty-one years old, was found dead in the garret which he occupied in the tenement-house at 29 Vandewater street at 7 o'clock this morning.

His body presented a horrifying sight. Every morsel of flesh on the face and forehead had been eaten away by three pet cats, the only companions of the old man in his squalid, cheerless home.

Last Saturday morning Falk was heard to go up and down the stairs leading to his apartment so many times that Mrs. Lizzie O'Brien, who lives on the top floor, was prompted to inquire if anything had gone wrong with him.

"Nothing, only I'm sick," was the feeble, tearful response.

Nothing was seen by any of the other tenants until his mutilated body was found.

Falk was a veteran of the Mexican and civil wars and drew a pension of $12 per month. He was a widower and formerly lived at 18 Roosevelt street.

DRUNKEN MARSHAL LOCKED UP.

One of Commissioner Allen's Men Arrested in a Brooklyn Court.

Deputy United States Marshal Charles Kemp, of 208 Gold Street, Brooklyn, who was assigned to duty in the Thirteenth District of the Fifth Ward, arrested Patrick Wynne, of 238 Hudson Avenue, alleging that he had not been naturalized.

Kemp was arrested before Justice Walsh and he produced his naturalization papers. Justice Walsh, who also lives in the Fifth Ward, recognized Wynne as an old resident of the ward, and promptly discharged him.

Kemp was locked up in the prison on a charge of intoxication.

BIG FIRE IN WILLIAMSBURG.

Damage of $130,000 Done to a Wallabout Street Factory.

Fire broke out on the third floor of the factory brick building, 171 to 187 Wallabout street, Williamsburg, at 11:35 this forenoon.

Three alarms were sent out, and after a fight of an hour the flames were subdued.

The cause of the fire is unknown and the damage to stock in the building will amount to about $130,000, fully insured.

The first floor was occupied by the New York Nickel and Copper Plate Company, the second by Jacob, manufacturer of silk ribbons; the third by Charles H. Covel, manufacturer of shoes, and the fourth by Frank Weilbacher, manufacturer of ribbons.

Usually about 1,000 men are employed in the building, but they were not at work today.

Weilbacher and his clerk, William C. Gray, were at work when Mr. Gray discovered the fire coming up through the floor.

Both got away by the fire-escape. The entire third story was filled and the goods and machinery in the other portions of the building were completely ruined.

The building is owned by Gas Hurlstmann, of 215 Pine street. It was built in 1870.

BYRNES AND HIS MEN ALERT.

Reserve Held Ready to Crush Any Disorder in an Instant.

A private wire was put in working order last night between Supt. Byrnes's office at Police Headquarters and the office of John I. Davenport. Elinor Root has charge in Mr. Davenport's office and will scrutinize all messages.

District-Attorney Nicoll is at Police Headquarters, while the downtown office is in charge of Assistant District-Attorney Macaulay.

DETAINED AT ELLIS ISLAND.

Two Diamond Cutters Said to Have Come Over Under Contract.

The immigrant authorities on Ellis Island are investigating what they believe to be a violation of the Contract Labor law in the case of Joseph and David Kait, diamond polishers, who arrived in this country from Amsterdam on the steamer Spartan last Friday.

It is claimed by the local diamond cutters, that the men were under contract to work for Stern Brothers & Co., on West Twenty-third street, and an office boy from the concern was at the dock to meet the Kait brothers when the passengers were landed.

The Contract Labor Bureau on Ellis Island heard of the arrival of the two men and prevented their landing.

Stern Brothers deny that they brought the Kait brothers to this country, and assert that they heard the men were coming and sent a boy to meet them.

THE PRINCE MOURNS HIS 500.

He Gave It to a Young Man to Play a Cliché at Guntenberg.

Prince Gallitzin is searching for a young man by the name of Harry Preston, who he says, has shipped with a 500 commission given him to place on a "sure thing" at Guntenberg last Tuesday.

The Prince acquired an infatuation for turf speculation while the game was going on at Long Branch, and there met Preston. The latter gave him "good things" and all went well. Tuesday the young man told Gallitzin that he had a cliché, and the Prince gave him $500 to place on it, since then Preston has not been heard of, although the "good thing" was a sure thing.

The case has been put in Inspector McLaughlin's hands and detectives have been assigned to the case.

JEROME PARK SOLD.

Purchased by a Syndicate and No More Racing There.

Jerome Park, better known as the old saddle-bag race-course, has seen its last days for racing purposes. Last August William Duer, executor of the Travers estate, who are the largest stockholders in the track, gave a large syndicate the option of buying the track, the price being $800,000. It has been accepted.

Who the syndicate is composed of Mr. Duer alone knows, and he is at present in Europe. There are about 112 acres in the property, and many think that the price is very cheap. The transfer will be drawn up on Mr. Duer's return.

As a race track Jerome was almost a thing of the past anyhow, as owners did not care to risk their horses over the winding course.

After Mr. Morris built the beautiful course at Westchester Jerome has only been used in emergency cases.

TOOK HIS PRISONER AWAY.

A Mott Street Mob Holds Up a Deputy Marshal.

About 9 o'clock this morning a deputy marshal, who held a warrant for a voter in the Thirty-seventh Election District of the Second Assembly District, went into a saloon to get a drink. When he came out of the side door after having imbibed he saw the man for whom he held a warrant just emerging from the polling-booth after having cast his vote.

The marshal arrested his man and started down Mott street towards the Bowery. As they reached the corner of Mott street and the Bowery a crowd assembled there closed around the pair and a half dozen men held the marshal while the prisoner made his escape up Mott street.

Drowned While in a Fit.

Annie Lacey, twenty-nine years old, living on Schenectady Avenue, near Degraw street, Brooklyn, while passing a pond on Union street, near Utica Avenue, this morning was seized with a fit and fell into the water, being drowned.

Mrs. O'Mara and Pals Stay in Jail. Miss O'Mara, the alleged Republican colonizer, and the seven men arrested with her were today remanded till to-morrow by Recorder McDonough in Hoboken. The men will remain in jail.

THE NEW ORLEANS STRIKE.

Affecting All Business To-Day—Proclamation by the Mayor.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.) NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 8.—The effects of the general strike of labor unions are now felt in every branch of trade. The newspapers are seriously crippled
