

LAST EDITION. AT THE HORSE SHOW.

Unabated Success Marks the Fifth Day at the Garden. The children had their turn again this morning, the ponies being the principal attraction. They came out in harness, singly and in pairs, and in most cases driven by their small owners.

Polies, Stallions and Trotters Displayed on the Tanbark.

Principal Events Scheduled on Today's Programme. On its fifth day, the horse show is attended by the usual crowds at Madison Square Garden.

After the recess the trotters were brought out. Some of them were driven in harness and stallions were exhibited with several of their progeny.

This event brought out Mambrino King, Chimes and Quatermaster. The later judging included roasters, brougham horses and jumpers.

An attractive programme is provided for the evening entertainment, when tandems will be exhibited driven by their owners, and there will be some high jumping by the champion hunters.

The horses are bearing up well under the confinement, considering the little exercise they get. They seem to know just what is expected of them, and to realize the importance of their play in the big show.

The intelligence of these races is strikingly brought out in the accompanying scientific made of some of them by an EVENING WORLD writer.

Here is the official programme for Thursday: 9 to 10 A. M.—General exercise of horses in the arena.

10 to 11 A. M.—Judging six pairs of ponies in harness, class 10.

11 to 12 A. M.—Judging six pairs of ponies in harness, class 11.

12 to 1 P. M.—Judging twenty-six cob horses, class 12.

1 to 2 P. M.—Judging five pairs of coasters, class 17.

2 to 3 P. M.—Judging high jumpers, seven qualified hunters, class 18.

3 to 4 P. M.—Judging thirty-four horses in harness, class 19.

4 to 5 P. M.—Judging Tandems, fourteen pairs tandem harness, class 20.

5 to 6 P. M.—Judging eleven horses, to be shown before the Grand Jury, class 21.

6 to 7 P. M.—Judging six qualified hunters, class 22.

Awards were made to-day as follows: Class 10.—Pair of mares, or geldings, first prize, $100.

Class 11.—Pair of mares, or geldings, first prize, $100.

Class 12.—Pair of mares, or geldings, first prize, $100.

Class 22.—Pair of mares, or geldings, first prize, $100.

MRS. LECK AND STORMS HELD

Ivy Rocho Tells a Revolting Story on the Stand. She Entenders, However, to Shield the Man.

Mrs. Rosa Leck and Jacob Storms, alias Henry Lawrence, were both held in the Yorkers best company, were both held in $1,500 bail for the Grand Jury by Justice White in Jefferson Market Police Court this afternoon.

The former on a charge of procuring fifteen-year-old Ivy Rocho for immoral purposes and the latter on a charge of abduction and criminal assault.

Both of the defendants were arrested at the instance of the gerry society.

As has been previously told in THE EVENING WORLD, Ivy Rocho was found in a rooming house near Yorkers where her board had been paid in advance by Storms, who stated, in his defense, that the girl was his wife; that they had been secretly married, and that he wanted her to remain there in seclusion until her parents should become reconciled.

The girl, a handsome, well developed, brunette, with a dashing, vivacious manner, assented to the claim of Lawrence's story.

She told a most revolting tale of the practices of Mrs. Leck and the woman encouraged her to receive him.

The matter of the girl's marriage was not taken up, but the girl's story was taken up, and she was asked to produce the certificate of marriage.

She refused to do so, and the court ordered her to be committed to the workhouse for ten days.

Storms was committed to the workhouse for ten days, and the girl was committed to the workhouse for ten days.

THE BLOCK SYSTEM IN OUR SCHOOLS.

Lovely Woman Is Blocked Out. Coal Combine Witnesses. Lives Marked by the Mafia. Will There Be a Duel?

New Jersey Has the Right to Examine Certain Officials. Flendish Conspiracy to Obtain an Italian's Property.

Marzo Gindico, living at 119 1/2 Washington street, told the Italian detectives at headquarters today that he is marked for death by the Mafia and asked protection.

He said that his wife, who died a year and a half ago, was poisoned by agents of the Mafia, robbed and her body stolen from the grave.

This he knew from the confession of Luigi Quattrone, who was living in Brooklyn at the time.

The object of the persecution, he declared, was to gain possession of his property in Italy, and to do this his son, Michael, aged eleven, has also been marked for death and as one time gashed with a knife across the face.

Shortly before his wife died, he said, an Italian priest came to the house and ordered her to sign his name, which she refused to do.

He also said that Francesco Martorelli, a handi man who is now in Italy, sent three men yesterday in a Newark payshop, and when they returned they were carrying a large bag of money.

They had tried to palm off doctors on him, he said, and attempted to get him in their power in other ways.

Elizabeth N. J., Nov. 18.—Sebastian Slotter, the ex-convict who assaulted Mrs. C. Fitzgerald at her home on Madison avenue a week ago and escaped with $1,200 worth of diamonds, jewelry and money which he took from her, is in custody at last.

He was captured last night on a farm near the New Jersey Jockey Club grounds by Sgt. Rimington and two other officers.

Slotter had made a desperate stand and had to be clubbed into submission.

He tried to pawn some of the stolen jewelry yesterday in a Newark payshop, and when the clerks, suspecting his identity, tried to detain him, Slotter knocked the clerk down and got away.

He served nine years in state prison for criminal assault on his first daughter in this city, and is a desperate character.

Mrs. Fitzgerald, his last victim, is the wife of a mining engineer, who is prospecting in Mexico. The Fitzgeralds move in good society here.

Successor to Crowley. Jennie, an Algerian Baboon, Added to the Park Collection.

The monkey department of the Central Park Menagerie has received an addition. The newcomer is Jennie, an Algerian baboon.

She was brought here by T. L. Park, who has just returned from a trip around the world in his steam yacht Sultana.

Jennie is nearly two years old, but is three and a half feet high, has monstrous arms and a large crop of whiskers. She is the biggest monkey the menagerie ever had, except Crowley and Kitty.

French Importers Fail. F. Mommer & Co., of Greene Street, Assign Without Preference.

Edward Mommer and Jessie T. Higgins, of this city, and Otto Welpmann, of Paris, France, composing the firm of F. Mommer & Co., importers of ladies dresses and cloaks, doing business at 135 and 137 Greene street, assigned today to August Wedgiger without preference.

Aged Nineteen, Stole $20,000. Boston, Nov. 18.—William Scanlon, aged nineteen, for five years messenger for Lee, Higginson & Co., bankers, is under arrest, charged with stealing $20,000 in sugar certificates from the firm. He forged an order in the firm's name on a Boston bank to deliver to bearer certain shares of Atchafson stock, placed as collateral, and take in exchange the sugar Treasury certificates. This the bank did. The transaction was brought to light by a cashier's attempt to dispose of the Atchafson securities.

Deserter Schwank Escapes Arrest and is in Hiding. Charles Schwank, a deserter from the Federal Army, is hiding in the Orange Mountains.

Two soldiers tried to arrest him yesterday at the house in Orange where his mother, Mrs. Xavier Sparr, and her husband did and deny two days ago within a few hours of each other.

Johnnie, who is an athletic young man, knocked down both the soldiers and made his escape. He has served five years in the army and was honorably discharged two years ago. While intoxicated he was persuaded to re-enlist, but he never returned to his regiment.

She Wouldn't Stand Nonsense. Mrs. Paran Stevens Makes Things Warm for Two Upholsters.

Mrs. Paran Stevens does not allow herself to be bulldozed by trades people. She was superintending the moving of her furniture from 244 Fifth avenue to her new home at Fifty-seventh street and Fifth avenue yesterday when two upholsters came in with a sofa.

They sat in her parlor and "massed" her, and refused to leave till they were paid, so Mrs. Stevens went out and called two policemen, who put the men out. They went away yawning vengeance.

The suit of Miss Frances Catherine Kane against the policeman John Leonard, of the East Fifty-sixth street station, for $10,000 damages for breach of promise of marriage, came to trial in Part III, of the City Court, this morning.

The plaintiff, a prepossessing woman, twenty years of age, was called at the opening of the case. She told a straight-forward story of her relations with the policeman. She said she met him in December, 1888.

The engagement was in January, 1889. Leonard had given her a ring, and she was concerned by the Analagated men propose to continue the fight for the recognition of the Association.

CAUGHT SMUGGLING DIAMONDS.

The Smuggler Sold Them Belong to Brumer, of St. Louis. Anon Volk, who says he is a wife dealer of Mainz, Germany, attracted the attention of customs-house inspectors while landing from the steamer Havet yesterday in Hoboken.

They suspected him of attempting to smuggle and escorted him to the examination-room, where he was searched.

In an inside pocket the inspectors found several small cases containing five large diamonds and several diamond-ornamented match-sticks, or tookers.

Mr. Volk, who had sworn that he had no dutiable articles except a bottle of patent medicine, made an avowal of his attempt to smuggle the jewelry, but said it was the property of August Busch, of the city of St. Louis, who had asked him to bring the articles ashore. The jewelry is valued at about $10,000.

It was said that Volk may be arrested to-day.

DRANK CARBOLIC ACID.

A Woman's Attempt to End Her Life by Poison. Mrs. Minnie Hujan, of 55 First avenue, took carbolic acid at 4 o'clock this morning with suicidal intent, but as the preparation she swallowed had been recently diluted it did not have the effect she expected.

She was taken to Bellevue Hospital, but she will recover.

The woman's husband is a waiter. He formerly kept a saloon in Morrisania. She had been drinking and had become a slave to drink, and that when he came home shortly before 4 o'clock this morning he found her intoxicated and propped up latterly. Then she swallowed the poison. They have no children.

GOT THE WRONG CASKET.

A Sad Blunder Made at the Grand Central Station. The Grand Central Station officials are trying to place the blame for a sad blunder that occurred there.

Two caskets, one from Galveston, Tex., and the other from Madison, Wis., were side by side in the grand central station. One contained a body that had been shipped for England. In the other was the body of Mrs. M. K. Kiser, of 131 East Fifty-second street.

The undertaker for Mr. Spiegel's body in Madison, Wis., had placed the casket containing that of the English woman, and the
