

NERVOUS DISEASES ARE BECOMING THOUSANDS OF OUR HOKES.

To the overworked, tired, run down, those whose bodies and brains have been overtaxed, or those who are suffering from nervous exhaustion from any source, Munson's Homoeopathic Tonic is...

Probably no remedy of the present day is accomplishing the same amount of good as this truly wonderful nerve restorer. Thousands of bottles have been sold in all parts of the country within the past two years, and it is rapidly going to the front as the most successful remedy for nervous diseases of the age. It builds up the entire system, creating a good appetite, restful sleep, enriching the blood, aids digestion, thereby creating a healthy action of the body and nerve centers. Every bottle is sold under a guarantee, and if you wish it claimed for it, or money refunded. A single bottle will convince you of its merits. Price 50c. Sent prepaid to any address upon receipt of price.

If you prefer, you can order it of your druggist; if he has not it, he will get it for you. MUNSON'S HOMOEOPATHIC FAMILY MEDICINE COMPANY, 46 West 14th St., New York.

Our medical publications, "THE FAMILY DOCTOR," mailed free to any address simply dropping a postal card.

CAUTION. Beware of imitations. The name MUNSON is spelled with the letter S. See that our trade mark is on every bottle.

TRADE MARK. NONE ARE GENUINE WITHOUT IT.

MUNSON'S HOMOEOPATHIC FAMILY MEDICINE CO. 46 West 14th St. (Near Macy's).

ROYAL WEDDING IN VIENNA.

Duke of Wurtemberg Weds the Archduchess Margaret Sophie.

VIENNA, Jan. 24.—The marriage of Archduchess Margaret Sophie and Duke Albrecht, of Wurtemberg, was solemnized today in the Church of the Hofkirche.

Flint's Fine Furniture. ATTRACTIVE AND DURABLE.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS ARE HARD TO EFFACE. GET YOUR FIRST IMPRESSIONS OF YOUR HOUSE AND OF YOUR TASTE.

GEORGE C. FLINT CO. 104-108 WEST 14TH ST.

LOOKS BAD FOR HIPPOLYTE.

Hayden Revolutionists Gaining in Strength and Numbers.

PANAMA, via Galveston, Jan. 24.—Advice from Hayden fully confirms the reports of the progress of the revolution.

M'GRATH'S LITTLE HOUSEKEEPER.

She is Committed to St. Ann's School This Morning.

REBRASKA'S BROKEN BANK.

Bradstreet's Agency Says the Capital National May Pay in Full.

Robbed of Her Jewelry.

German Culinary Art.

Three Children Burned to Death.

Illegal Dentistry Charged.

Politics in the West.

St. John's, N. H., Jan. 24.—A telegram received here this morning says that at 1 o'clock this morning the residence of T. A. Sullivan was burned.

Chicago, Jan. 24.—Stanton's performance of 2,074 on the Stockton (Cal.) track Nov. 23 last, that crowned him king of trotting stallions, has been rejected on account of irregularity by the American Trotting Register Association.

St. John's, N. H., Jan. 24.—A telegram received here this morning says that at 1 o'clock this morning the residence of T. A. Sullivan was burned.

Chicago, Jan. 24.—Stanton's performance of 2,074 on the Stockton (Cal.) track Nov. 23 last, that crowned him king of trotting stallions, has been rejected on account of irregularity by the American Trotting Register Association.

SHE DIED WITH HER SECRET.

Margaret Foster, the stately young woman who was taken to Bellevue Hospital suffering from the effects of multiple practice yesterday, and who said that she had been a teacher of physical culture in Altoona, Pa., died at 3.45 o'clock this morning.

She refused to the very last to reveal her secret, steadfastly shielding the author of her ruin, and stoutly insisting that she had been doing her work with strong medicine all summer, and that she was the only person at fault.

Coroner Messmer made an autopsy this morning, at the Morgue, however, and he found that there had been a criminal operation, the instruments having left traces of their cruel marks.

Blood poisoning had set in, and peritonitis had developed.

Margaret Foster was thirty years of age, cultured and agreeable.

She told the physicians at Bellevue that she had been in New York only four days, but that she had been several days in Harrisburg on her way from Altoona.

She had come to New York to hide herself away, pending anticipated illness. She concluded that she ought to stay at the house of Edna Landau, of East Forty-fifth street, where she saw the sign, "Doctor at Home."

When the young woman was urged to reveal her identity, more fully, she said she had never appeared in the city to work to answer when asked for the sign, "Doctor at Home."

She had referred to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas as her only friends, and they will be notified.

Meantime, the body of the unfortunate young woman lies in a pine box at the Morgue.

AN INQUEST WILL BE HELD.

Leo Bay's Father Wants an Investigation by the Coroner.

Little Georgina V. Leo lived only three days, but that was long enough to bring about a revelation of domestic wrongs.

The baby was born Thursday, and died Sunday, at the age of three days.

Coroner Messmer subpoenaed witnesses to appear at the inquest, this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A HUNTER'S DEATH A MYSTERY.

Put on a Band-Car When Exhausted and Found Dead by the Tracks.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—Thomas Stevenson, a member of the Calumet Heights Gun Club, and Arthur Morton were hunting rabbits in the woods near the tracks south of Chicago, on Sunday.

Morton was found yesterday in a trap near Miller's Station, in Indiana.

The men became lost Sunday afternoon, and at 5 o'clock Morton sank to the ground, utterly exhausted.

Morton was nearly crazy with exhaustion, and he begged for help.

He was found by a train on the tracks, and he was taken to the hospital.

He died at 10 o'clock this morning.

Senator Colquhoun Walks Again.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 24.—Senator Colquhoun has fully recovered the power of locomotion.

Yesterday he received a party of friends in his parlor.

He will be continued from previous page.

Lake Erie Train Leaves the Track.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Jan. 24.—The passenger train on the Lake Erie and Western ran off the track at 5 o'clock this morning.

Three Children Burned to Death.

BEAD COURT HOUSE, Pa., Jan. 24.—The house of John Smith, near Point Pleasant, was burned last night by three small children.

Illegal Dentistry Charged.

LEAPED OUT OF THE WINDOW.

Young Mrs. Sonius's Desperate Attempt at Suicide.

Mrs. Louise Sonius, of 633 Tenth avenue, was taken to Roosevelt Hospital early this morning, suffering from internal injuries, and died about 19 o'clock.

Mrs. Sonius was only twenty-six years old, and a very pretty woman. She was the mother of two children, one four years old and one four months.

She became very despondent and melancholy, and her physician had advised that she be placed in an asylum.

She was taken to the hospital, and she was found to be suffering from internal injuries.

She recovered consciousness for a moment before she was removed to the hospital.

She had referred to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas as her only friends, and they will be notified.

Meantime, the body of the unfortunate young woman lies in a pine box at the Morgue.

She had referred to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas as her only friends, and they will be notified.

Meantime, the body of the unfortunate young woman lies in a pine box at the Morgue.

She had referred to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas as her only friends, and they will be notified.

Meantime, the body of the unfortunate young woman lies in a pine box at the Morgue.

She had referred to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas as her only friends, and they will be notified.

Meantime, the body of the unfortunate young woman lies in a pine box at the Morgue.

She had referred to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas as her only friends, and they will be notified.

Meantime, the body of the unfortunate young woman lies in a pine box at the Morgue.

She had referred to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas as her only friends, and they will be notified.

Meantime, the body of the unfortunate young woman lies in a pine box at the Morgue.

She had referred to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas as her only friends, and they will be notified.

Meantime, the body of the unfortunate young woman lies in a pine box at the Morgue.

She had referred to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas as her only friends, and they will be notified.

Meantime, the body of the unfortunate young woman lies in a pine box at the Morgue.

She had referred to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas as her only friends, and they will be notified.

Meantime, the body of the unfortunate young woman lies in a pine box at the Morgue.

She had referred to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas as her only friends, and they will be notified.

Meantime, the body of the unfortunate young woman lies in a pine box at the Morgue.

She had referred to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas as her only friends, and they will be notified.

Meantime, the body of the unfortunate young woman lies in a pine box at the Morgue.

She had referred to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas as her only friends, and they will be notified.

Meantime, the body of the unfortunate young woman lies in a pine box at the Morgue.

She had referred to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas as her only friends, and they will be notified.

FERRO'S BLOW SAID TO HAVE CAUSED SIGETI'S DEATH.

Both Men Employed at Mallard's, Quarrelled and Fought.

Francis Sigeti, forty-five years old, died at his home at 128 West Twenty-first street, early this morning, from a blow, which he received during a quarrel with another man.

The man who is believed to have struck Sigeti is a man named Ferro, twenty-eight years old, about a fortnight ago.

Sigeti was married. He was a fancy article maker, and an artist in his trade.

He was employed in Mallard's, under the name of a man named Ferro.

Early this morning Dr. De La Plasse, of 25 West Twenty-fourth street, went to the West Thirtieth street police station, and reported that Sigeti was dying from the effects of an assault.

He advised that a coroner be summoned to take the dying man's ante-mortem statement.

Coroner Messmer was notified, and Detectives Lang and Sullivan were put on the case.

They found that Sigeti had been quarreling with Ferro two weeks ago in a restaurant.

The quarrel was renewed, and Sigeti was struck on the head with a brick.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

He was taken to the hospital, and he died about 19 o'clock.

NOT WORRIED ABOUT EGYPT.

New Advice Say the Native Army is Loyal to Britain.

And if a Revolt Should Come 15,000 British Troops Are Handy.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—Some surprise was expressed yesterday at the news from Cairo that Lord Cromer had expressed himself confidently in regard to the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

Today's advice gives the grounds for Lord Cromer's confidence. His Lordship is assured of the entire fidelity of the native Egyptian army to the British cause, and with the British army of occupation co-operating with the native troops, it is believed that any attempt at insurrection would be promptly crushed.

A Cairo despatch says that Lord Cromer is confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

It is officially stated at the War Office that Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell and Gen. Kitchener, the British High Commissioner in Egypt, are confident of the prompt suppression of any Egyptian outbreak that might occur.

BILLY MCGLORY IS A PAUPER.

He Says So, on His Oath, in Judge McCarthy's Court.

As a result of city Judge McCarthy's decision that he would otherwise have to go to jail for contempt, William Henry McGlory consented to appear in chambers this morning and be examined in supplementary proceedings as to his earthly belongings.

The proceedings are the result of a $750,000 judgment secured against McGlory by S. J. Latham & Co., of Baltimore, for liquors, purchased by McGlory when he was running his palatial dive at Irving place and Fourteenth street, for which business he recently finished serving a year term in the penitentiary.

Lawyer Kohn, of Kohn, Knick & Lippman, his counsel, accompanied McGlory to court this morning. He wore a shabby silk hat, broad black band, tan-colored gloves, dark blue overcoat and black silk motor with red peaks dots, and was as genteel-looking a pauper as is often seen.

Neither were there visible any traces of the illness which was the wily developer's excuse for only in responding to the court's order.

Judge McCarthy administered the oath to McGlory, and with his attorney and Lawyer David Levitt, counsel for Latham & Co., present, McGlory was sworn to answer truthfully.

McGlory swore that his name was McGlory, not McGlory.

He said that he had no real estate, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

He said that he had no other property, and that he had no other property.

SINCLAIR WILL PLEAD GUILTY.

Armour's Defaulting Cashier Arraigned and Held.

$8,000 of the Stolen Money Attached in Philadelphia.

Charles S. Sinclair, the defaulting cashier of the New York branch of the Armour Packing Company, was arraigned before Justice Smith, in the Tombs Police Court, this morning, and held in $7,000 bail for the Grand Jury.

Sinclair had been in the employ of the company for several years, in the capacity of bookkeeper and cashier. He was married, and lived with his wife and three children at 43 West One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street.

He had, as far as his employers knew, no bank funds. He did not use tobacco in any form, never frequented saloons, was punctual at his desk, and was an expert accountant.

On Nov. 17 last, Sinclair failed to put in an appearance at the office, and it became known that he had fled the city and was a defaulter.

The aggregate of his pecuniations as ascertained by experts called in to make an examination of the books, was $8,000.

The day of his departure he took $7,000 in cash and the remainder was taken in small sums during a period of three months, the following failed to cover up the deficiency.

Sinclair had been sought for by the American Express Company, the Western Union Telegraph Company, and the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Trust Company, of Kansas City, Mo., and he would fall on the two companies that exerted themselves to find the missing cash.

Sinclair was induced to return to New York with the agent without revealing his name, and he was held in $7,000 bail for the Grand Jury.

He was held in $7,000 bail for the Grand Jury, and he was held in $7,000 bail for the Grand Jury.

He was held in $7,000 bail for the Grand Jury, and he was held in $7,000 bail for the Grand Jury.

He was held in $7,000 bail for the Grand Jury, and he was held in $7,000 bail for the Grand Jury.

He was held in $7,000 bail for the Grand Jury, and he was held in $7,000 bail for the Grand Jury.

He was held in $7,000 bail for the Grand Jury, and he was held in $7,000 bail for the Grand Jury.