

FIVE TRY O'IE.

Three of Them Succeed During an Apparent Epidemic of Suicide.

PRETTY EDITH HOLMES'S END.

She Had Nothing to Live for and Carbolic Acid Was Quickly Fatal.

ADAMS SUCCEEDS THIS TIME.

Hagan Fished Out—Hurdic Succumbs—Florence Crisp in the Hospital.

The police reports this morning would seem to indicate that thoughts of suicide were in the air last night.

The inmates of the house at 111 West Thirty-first street, which is kept by Mrs. Montague, were started at 3 o'clock this morning by the screams of one of their number, a Miss Edith Holmes.

She was soon overcome by convulsions, and then fell to the floor.

One of the girls ran out and called in Policeman Hughes, and Dr. J. J. Farrell, of 36 West Thirty-first street, was sent for.

The unfortunate young woman rolled on the floor in awful agony, and she died just as the physician arrived at the house.

Whether Miss Holmes took the carbolic acid with design or accident is not positively known.

It was said that she had been suffering from a cold and was taking cough medicine for it.

It is probable that when she went up to her room she wanted to get the carbolic acid in the dark.

TYPHUS IN A BIG TENEMENT.

Fears that Infection May Spread Among the Tenants.

Very Lax Disinfection by the Health Authorities.

The continuance of typhus fever in this city and the probability that warm weather will tend to increase the epidemic is being freely discussed by physicians and health authorities.

It is the highest result of medical science and skill, and in ingredients and method has not been equalled.

It never fails to perform its remedial work quickly and effectually, and this fact is attested by thousands of voluntary and unimpeachable testimonials from grateful patients.

It is unequalled for Weak Back, Rheumatism, Colds, Coughs, Chest and Stomach Affections, Kidney Difficulties, Strains, Stitches, Weak Muscles, and all Local Pains.

DEPOSITORS MAKE A PLAN. No Receiver Necessary for the Bank.

The Committee of four lawyers, E. B. Taylor, J. W. Haywood, W. W. Goodrich and Eldon Blaise, appointed yesterday at the meeting of the depositors and creditors of the National Bank of Deposit to devise a plan to put the bank in charge of the assets and thus avoid the appointment of a receiver.

The trustees George E. Hanson, W. W. Goodrich, W. W. Goodrich, W. W. Goodrich and J. H. Bowden.

Some little discussion was caused by the fact that the plan proposed was to have the bank in charge of the assets and thus avoid the appointment of a receiver.

The plan as proposed states that as the National Bank of Deposit is now in charge of the assets and thus avoid the appointment of a receiver.

WHERE IS OTTO HASBACH? He Left His Home Last Sunday Afternoon—Poul Lay Fears.

Otto Hasbach, a bookkeeper in the employ of S. Schindler & Co., cigar manufacturer, at the corner of Madison lane and Nassau street, has mysteriously disappeared.

He left his home at 300 East Eighty-third street last Sunday afternoon, saying to his wife that he was going to visit friends in Harlem, but would return in a few hours.

He went to Harlem, and there met Mr. Brenner. With the latter, Hasbach visited several places, and finally returned to his store on the corner of the Hundredth street and Third avenue. It was then 11 o'clock Monday morning.

While in his store Hasbach and Brenner met a man and a woman. They became acquainted and had several drinks. Hasbach afterwards displaying a big roll of bills.

When Mr. Brenner finally decided to go home, he asked Hasbach to go along. The woman interferred and insisted that Hasbach stay. Brenner left, and nothing has been heard of Hasbach.

It is said that he left the saloon with the man and woman.

He has never been in the habit of going out at night, and his friends are inclined to believe that he met with foul play.

The police have been asked to institute search for him.

They made speeches in front of at these meetings, but at the meeting when the license was granted no such license was granted.

Mr. Ballou, the counsel for the Jockey Club, did not attend today's examination of witnesses.

CUT MIRRORS AT CRYSTAL MAZE. Elias B. Schlesinger, the Liquor Dealer's Son Arrested.

Elias B. Schlesinger, son of Charles S. Schlesinger, the wealthy liquor dealer at 42 Liberty street, was taken by Police Headquarters last night and admitted in $1,000 bond to appear before Recorder Smith, in the Court of General Sessions, tomorrow.

One night early in the month Schlesinger visited the Crystal Maze with a party of friends, and it is alleged, deliberately and maliciously cut several hundred dollars' worth of mirrors with two hand saws.

Director Adolph Schuman summoned a detective, and Schlesinger was taken to Jefferson Market. Justice Grady refused to hold him, and he was discharged.

On the advice of lawyer I. Frank Lord, the matter was laid before the Grand Jury, and an indictment was found.

This morning Schlesinger refused to speak of the case in any way.
