

WON'T TAKE ELISON'S BAIL.

Judge Ingraham Refuses to Release Henriques's Assailant.

Argument Adjourned Until Proper Evidence is Secured.

Frank Ellison, who is charged with feloniously assaulting the aged broker, William H. Henriques, has not yet been admitted to bail, in spite of the efforts made on his behalf by Lawyer Charles W. Brooker.

From the writ of habeas corpus issued yesterday by Judge Ingraham, Ellison was brought to Supreme Court Chambers this morning from the Jefferson Market Prison. He took a seat back in the crowded courtroom, where he endeavored to avoid the glare of the eyes directed at him.

Lawyer Brooker, in moving that his client be admitted to bail, read the evidence taken at the preliminary hearing in the police court, which he endeavored to prove that Henriques's life was not in danger.

He said further that even if Henriques did die, the crime could be only one of manslaughter, which was a bailable offense.

Judge Ingraham cut this short by saying that if the assault did prove fatal, and the crime was only one of manslaughter, he would not admit the prisoner to bail until after the coroner's jury had passed on the case.

Mr. Martine, who represented the District-Attorney, said he had no information as to Mr. Henriques's condition, nor had he received any records from the police court. This was the very evidence Judge Ingraham wanted, and he said he would certainly refuse the application unless satisfied by proper certificates that the broken would recover.

An adjournment was then taken until 2 o'clock, and Mr. Brooker hurried off to get the witnesses' affidavits that his patient was out of danger. Ellison was permitted to remain in the court building, in charge of his keepers.

On reaching Dr. Wynkoop's residence on Madison avenue, Mr. Brooker found that the physician had gone away, and as his affidavit was absolutely necessary, the lawyer found nothing could be done.

When the case was called again in the afternoon the lawyer had no alternative but to withdraw his writ of habeas corpus.

Ellison was then taken back to the Jefferson Market Prison, where he will remain until the next morning, if he may then be admitted to bail.

Alarming information continues to be given out at Mr. Henriques's residence, in Park avenue, as to his condition. No stranger is admitted to the sick chamber, nor will Ellison's victim allow even a trained nurse to attend to him.

It was given out this morning that he had passed anything but a comfortable night, and that he was feeling weaker all the time. Dr. Wynkoop, however, who sees his patient several times daily, is certain that he will recover and that he will be as well as ever in a week or so.

"Providing," he said, "that no accident or present unforeseen takes place to retard the progress of his recovery."

MAKES ITSELF FELT.

The great, gripping, old-fashioned pill. Not only when you take it, but unpleasant, from first to last, and it only gives you a little temporary good.

The things to take its place are Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One of these at a dose will regulate the whole system perfectly. They are sugar coated, and the granules scarcely larger than mustard seeds. They act in Nature's own way. No reaction afterward. Their help lasts and they do permanent good. Constipation, indigestion, Bilious Attacks, Sick or Bilious Headaches, and all derangements of the liver, stomach, and bowels are prevented, relieved, and cured.

They're the cheapest, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction or your money is returned. Nothing else can be "just so good."

CORRIGAN TAKES THE STAND.

The New York Prelate Summoned in the Suit of Father Dent.

Archbishop Ryan, of Buffalo, Also Called to Testify.

Archbishop Stephen V. Ryan, of Buffalo, was the first witness called for the defense today in the suit for $50,000 damages and reinstatement brought by Father Francis Dent against the Priors of the Order of St. Francis, which is on trial before Justice Cullen and a jury in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn.

Bishop Ryan, who is rather feeble, testified that he presided at a trial of charges against Father Dent, although he objected to him accepting that position. What the charges were, the witnesses did not then disclose.

When asked to state when shown the bishop, and he was asked if he was his commission from Rome authorizing him to investigate the charges against Dent. He could not remember.

Father Dent read a translation of the charges against him, which he had translated and agreed with the original. The commission was issued June 18, 1887.

Bishop Ryan said he received a commission to try Dent in October, 1887, and he called upon him in August, 1887.

"Yes, sir." "And you then had the commission in your possession?" "Yes, sir, I think I did."

"Did you then give it to Mr. Henriques's condition, nor had he received any records from the police court. This was the very evidence Judge Ingraham wanted, and he said he would certainly refuse the application unless satisfied by proper certificates that the broken would recover."

"The woman," he explained, "she ran away with this fellow, pointing to the man, who was afterwards identified by Mrs. Lulu Hutchins, of West Farms, as the burglar who entered her residence, bound and gagged her and ransacked the place, was discharged by Justice Stimson. The prosecution failed to establish either charge, and the woman was released. She is an excellent character as well as proving her husband's testimony."

Mrs. Hutchins's testimony that Strutt wore ordinary trousers was contradicted by his employer, who testified that Strutt did not possess a pair.

Her husband, who swore that Strutt did not "catch me," "me" and "my" found the words of Justice Stimson.

STARIN CALLS ON STEINWAY.

Feels Hurt at the Resignation of Other Commissioners.

There was no regular meeting of the Rapid Transit Commission this afternoon, and in response to the regular call sent out, only Mr. Starin appeared. He was closeted with Mr. Steinway for half an hour.

After the conference Mr. Starin refused to make any statement for publication.

Mr. Steinway said Mr. Starin wanted an explanation of the resignation of the other Commissioners, and had been told that it was the result of spontaneous action.

Mr. Steinway told Mr. Starin he had been on the point of resigning, for almost six months on account of ill-health. Mr. Starin said he did not say he would resign, but he felt that if he did, his resignation had not been considered in force the resignations were sent in.

Mr. Starin said he would consider himself a member until his resignation was accepted, and he had sent out notice for another meeting to be held to-morrow afternoon, but did not know whether any response would be given.

Mr. Budge, when seen by an "Evening World" reporter this morning, said "I am sorry to hear that Mr. Starin has resigned. He had tried to see Mr. Starin yesterday, but as that gentleman was at Glen Head, he failed to meet him. Mayor Gilroy has as yet taken no action on the letter of resignation which was sent to him yesterday by Messrs. Steinway, Luman, Spencer and Busby, of the Rapid Transit Commission."
