

HOPE FOR WILHELM.

Richters' Failure Favorable to the German Government.

Radical Losses May Counterbalance Social Gains.

South German Democrats Likely to Gain Several Seats.

Berlin, June 17.—The present campaign returns from constituencies carried by the large parties show that the Conservatives and Free Conservatives have secured twenty-seven seats; Clericals, twenty-seven; Social Democrats, twenty-three; National Liberals, seven; the Poles have nine seats; the South German Democrats, five.

Reports from all parts of the Empire continue to give evidence of the collapse of the campaign, to fight more effectively against the Army bill at the polls, have secured five seats, one of them won from the National Liberals, and are likely to enter the next Reichstag with their delegation increased from ten to fourteen or fifteen.

At 4 o'clock this morning, however, a despatch had been received to indicate that the Richters had carried a constituency on the first ballot.

This failure of the Richters is due partly to the fact that the Radicals who deserted Richter to make a Government campaign under the banner of the Radical Union were the cream of the old party.

Excepting Virechow, hardly a conspicuous Deputy stood by Richter after the dissolution of the Reichstag. Rickert, Broemel, Hense, Barth, editor of the Nation; Siemens and Haesel deserted at once to the Government.

The dissidents are known to have elected one Deputy, and to have the best chance of electing seven or eight more on the second ballot.

The Richters, who constituted two-thirds of the Parliamentary party of sixty-seven, will bring probably few more than twenty-five members into the next Reichstag. This state of affairs is distinctly favorable to the Government, as the loss of the Radical opposition is expected to more than counterbalance the gains of the Social Democratic opposition.

The Anti-Semites are now believed to be in a way to secure twelve seats. Ahlwardt and Boeckel, the most brilliant members of the last Parliamentary group, have already been returned.

The aggregate vote of the Anti-Semites has increased amazingly since 1900. The National Liberals, according to the reports received up to 8 o'clock this morning, are likely to return to Berlin with approximately their old delegation of forty.

The opposition Clericals, under Dr. Lieber, have retained virtually all their old constituencies, as far as can be ascertained.

The Government Clerical-Agrarian movement, under Freiherr von Schorlemer-Alat and Freiherr von Huehe, has shown no evidence of success.

The Conservatives and Free Conservatives, as was expected, are suffering no losses.

In general, the advantages gained by the Government are to be found in the prospect that some ten Radical Unionists, who voted against the Army bill and who now favor it, have good prospects of sitting in the next Reichstag, and that the anti-Semitic representation, partially favorable to the Government, bids fair to be greatly increased.

As the candidates whose election has been reported number but few more than one hundred, however, the question whether the Government won or lost by the dissolution cannot yet be answered positively.

FAR ROCKAWAY THE MECCA.

Tammany Leaders Will Make It Their Capital This Summer.

Various Resorts Where City Officials Will Seek Rest and Recreation.

The Summer capital of the politicians is this year will be Far Rockaway. It is there Mayor Gilroy will live during the hot spell with his family—that is, he will spend his nights there. He will come to his office daily the same as during other seasons of the year, and during other seasons of the year, and Chicago to see the World's Fair in the Fall, the daily trips between his office and Summer cottage will be the only recreation he will have.

"I don't think I will take any vacation," he said this morning to an "Evening World" reporter. "There are so many public improvements in progress that need my attention that I can't get away."

At Far Rockaway Mayor Gilroy will be surrounded by a body of faithful followers, who will court sea breezes and consult with him on political matters as they see fit.

Big Chief Richard Croker will seek rest and seclusion on his farm at Rockaway, where he will spend his days and nights. He has already made arrangements to follow the Mayor there.

Police Justice W. H. Sprague will be at Far Rockaway, where he will be neighbors of the Mayor's.

HOT RIVALRY IN COLD BEER.

Cut-Rate War Enjoyed by the Thirty on the East Side.

The "big schooner for five cents," which attracts the eye of the weary and thirsty at the Printers' Retreat and other places along Park Row, has been put into the shade by the tempting invitations displayed in the show windows of a couple of liquor stores on the east side.

They are located at opposite corners of Birmingham street, where Madison street intersects. One is known as the "Workingman's Home" and the other as the "Great Eastern." The most bitter rivalry exists between the proprietors, each of whom has inaugurated a cut-rate war with the idea of closing up the other.

Beer around that section at one time cost the patrons 10 cents a pint, but some time ago the "Workingman's" proprietor put out a sign that was selling it for eight cents, and that no matter how big the growler brought for the purpose it would be filled.

Naturally there was a rush of business, which lasted until the "Great Eastern" man put out an opposition sign that he was selling for seven cents.

"Workingman" was forced to lower his price to six cents, and the "Great Eastern" man put out a sign that he was selling for five cents.

Then the "Great Eastern" man put out a sign that he was selling for four cents, and the "Workingman" man put out a sign that he was selling for three cents.

At last the "Workingman" man put out a sign that he was selling for two cents, and the "Great Eastern" man put out a sign that he was selling for one cent.

BIG OCEAN FLEET SAILS.

Many Steamers Leave To-Day for European Ports.

George Gould, Jack McAniff and Other Notables on the New York.

A big fleet of ocean grayhounds that ever left the harbor at any one time sailed this morning for various European ports. Every one of them had a full list of cabin passengers, among which were the names of many well-known and distinguished New Yorkers.

In every case a party of friends were on hand to see them off, and the different plans along the river front and the approaches to them presented a scene of unusual excitement all the morning.

The greatest number of people seemed to gather around the New York, which is hoped, may smash another record before reaching Southampton, for which port she is bound.

She left her berth at 10 o'clock, two hours after La Champagne left for Havre. Jack McAniff, the light-weight champion pugilist, who lacked the picture of health, occupied a berth on the New York.

Half the sports of the city were on hand to see them off, and the different plans along the river front and the approaches to them presented a scene of unusual excitement all the morning.

SOUTH AFRICAN PROGRESS.

Railroad Being Built in Mashonaland to Cost $6,000,000.

Only five years ago a magnificent harbor was opened at the mouth of the Zambezi River, says the Engineering Magazine. It is about two miles wide and six miles long, and on its northern shore has a town of 500,000 people, half of them British.

It is one of Africa's latest marvels. Probably no white man six years ago had ever seen the harbor, and it is said it occupied a number of years to build.

PREACHERS FIGHT IN CHURCH.

Women Scream and Faint as One Rushes at the Other.

Scandal That May Disrupt the Unity Church, of Detroit.

DETROIT, June 17.—Unity Church, of this city, an almost creedless organization of professing Christians, is in the throes of scandal. It seems that Rev. C. C. Goodrich, the pastor of the church, was intending to procure a divorce from his wife with the knowledge and consent of the Board of Trustees. Some of the members were opposed to this, and an effort was made to depose the minister.

At a meeting held last evening grave charges were made against the minister. Mr. Goodrich at once became violently angry, rushed upon Mr. Bullock and seized him by the throat. Several of the leading functionaries of the church interposed and prevented what would undoubtedly have resulted in a much more severe assault.

A scene of indescribable confusion ensued, women who largely predominated, screamed and fainted several. The meeting finally broke up in great disorder. A disruption of the church will, it is said, result.

Rev. Mr. Bullock exhibits letters written to Pastor Goodrich by a lady of the congregation, who is decidedly improper for a single woman to be married to a man, and the authenticity of which is claimed, is not questioned.

WANTS HIS SON SENT TO PRISON.

John Lane Accuses Young Daniel of Assault and Robbery.

Daniel Lane was held for trial by Justice Voorhis in Justice's Market Court today on complaint of his father, John Lane, of 42 West Thirty-eighth street, one of the oldest and best-known characters in the Thirtieth Ward.

The father alleges that at 4 o'clock in the morning of Dec. 4, last, his son came home intoxicated after remaining in bad company all night and knocked him down with a blow in the breast, and then snatching his $70 gold watch, ran away.

According to the father, Daniel has been in the city since that time, and yesterday he came home while his father was asleep and threw a basin of water all over his face.

The father visited Capt. Price at the West Thirty-seventh street station, and created the young fellow in Tench avenue court this morning the father avowed his intention of sending his son to State prison if it lay within his power.

Justice Voorhis inquired deeply into the case before committing the son, but Detective Hoy and Curry arrested the young fellow very positive in telling his story.

THE TOY OF THE ELEMENS.

Struck by Lightning, Swept Away by a Cyclone and Pursued by Fire.

Elisba Holloway, a farmer, living on Stony Hill, near East Lynne, Conn., had an experience on a recent Friday afternoon that but very few persons pass through and live.

Thunder-storms in this time of the year are rare in this locality, but there was a rattling good one Friday, late in the afternoon. Mr. Holloway saw the clouds rising over his hill and, anticipating a storm, he went out to the barnyard to milk.

The storm before the rain began to fall, derided in an angry and rattled. The storm before the rain began to fall, derided in an angry and rattled. The storm before the rain began to fall, derided in an angry and rattled.
