

ANNEXED DISTRICT STREETS.

Mayor Thinks Improvements Are Ahead of the Increase of Values.

Plan for Edgecombe Road Adopted by the Board of Street Openings.

Further action was taken to-day by the Board of Street Openings in regard to the proposed sewerage improvements in the Annexed District under the new law. Mayor Gilroy introduced a resolution...

BLOCKING GOT PATENT BAKING-PAN.

With It Policeman Brady Gets a Charge to Answer.

Lorenz Schmid Says He Was Held Up by the Bluecoat.

Police Superintendent Campbell, of Brooklyn, this morning ordered Sergeant Humphries, of the license squad, to prefer charges against Policeman Thos. J. Brady. Brady will come up for trial before Commissioner Hayden next Tuesday morning...

WILL GO TO THE JURY TO-DAY.

Both Sides Sum Up in Alderman McKee's Trial.

District Attorney Ridgway Makes a Strong Plea for Conviction.

The case of Alderman William McKee, who has been on trial this week before Judge Moore in the Court of Sessions, Brooklyn, for complicity in the alleged Coburnian fraud, will go to the jury this afternoon. When court opened this morning...

HIGGINS CALLED TO TESTIFY.

Says He Was Not Present When Arnold Was Murdered.

McAloon, Who Was Said to Have Fled, Also Testifies.

LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., June 23.—The trial of Harry Higgins, the ex-employee of Simons stove factory, accused of the murder of Bertram E. Arnold, a private detective, who was stabbed and killed while guarding the stove factory during a strike two years ago, was continued this morning before Justice Bartlett. Higgins, who was brought to the witness stand by the State's Attorney...

QUINBY'S SURELY A WYTH.

No Clue Found to the Parkville Accident Alleged Victim.

Now Supposed to Be One of the Identified Dead.

The mystery women round the alleged disappearance of the man Quinby, who, with $6,000 in his clothes, was said to have been fatally injured in the Parkville railroad accident on Suburban day, promises to be soon cleared away. After the first reports nothing was heard about him...

HE LERSE.

SURE IT WAS MRS. CURTIS.

Her Neighbors Believe She Jumped Off the Saratoga.

Now Her Husband is Missing from Bayonne, N. J.

BAYONNE, N. J., June 23.—Mrs. Jennie Curtis, the wife of Chemist Henry Curtis, of this place, is now fully believed to have been the mysterious woman who committed suicide by jumping into the Hudson from the steamboat Saratoga Tuesday night. All trace of Mrs. Curtis is gone, as far as this place is concerned, and now the chemist himself has disappeared. Mrs. Johnson, who, with her sister, Mrs. Thatcher, occupies the apartments on Avenue D below the Curtises, told an "Evening World" reporter to-day that Curtis had not been home since yesterday, but where he went she was unable to say. After identifying the effects of the suicide on the Saratoga yesterday, Curtis came home, had his dinner and went away. He said nothing about his identification...

SIMPSON, CRAWFORD & SIMPSON.

SAILOR HATS.

In conjunction with our well-known line of Ladies' fine Split and Sennet Braid Sailors we will place on sale to-morrow, Saturday, the following Special Values:

250 doz. Sennet Braid Sailors, full trimmed, with leather sweatbands, 58c. each; worth 75c. 200 doz. Fine Milan Sailors, in White and Navy Blue, 8 1/2 inch brims, 1.37 each; worth 1.85. 6th Avenue, 19th to 20th Street. LURLINE AND THE STRONG MEN. A Triangular Row in Which Sandow and Sampson Appear. One of the Weight-Lifters Issues a $5,000 Challenge. A row between strong men is pending, and it has international complications in which a woman, well-known to the variety profession of both hemispheres, figures to a considerable extent. Sandow and Sampson are rival deities of the weight-lifting powers of the muscles of the body. They are performers by birth, and each is now performing before New York audiences. As rivals in the strong-man line it isn't to be expected that they will say very pleasant things about each other. Their differences originated in London nearly five years ago when Sandow and Sampson met at the Aquarium in a muscle-testing contest. Sandow was challenged to a test by Sampson and the prize was $100, which Sandow was to forfeit, if the judges declared Sandow the victor. The judges did so declare, and at once Sampson branded Sandow as a cheat, declaring that he substituted doctored chalk which an instant might break instead of taking the chains used by Sandow. Sandow denied such charges five years ago and denied them again to-day. Incidentally, however, a third fight between the two men is now being arranged. "Evening World" reporter this morning found the firm of Murray & Reed, at 33 South street, who are the proprietors of the "Evening World" picture gallery, who have arranged for a fight between the two men. The fight will be held at the foot of West Twenty-ninth street, between the foot of West Twenty-ninth street and the foot of West Twenty-eighth street, on Monday night, June 27th. A comedy young woman, who answered to the name of Mrs. Davis, said she was a friend of Mrs. Sandow's, and had thought she would commit suicide. Mrs. Shann's Trial Put Off. Accused Poisoner Gets a Postponement Until Aug. 8. TRENTON, June 23.—Mrs. Mattie Shann, who is in the Mercer County Jail awaiting trial on an indictment for murder in the first degree in having poisoned her husband, says she is innocent of the charge made against her, and she will pay one cent for counsel fees. Inquest, withdrew because she would not furnish the money required to prepare the case for trial on July 19. Ex-Senator George O. Vanderbilt, of Princeton, who afterwards volunteered to defend Mrs. Shann, this morning received a postponement of the trial until Aug. 8. WALL STREET AFFAIRS. WALL STREET, Friday, June 23.—The bears made another attempt this morning to bring about demoralization in the stock market. The run on the banks in California and the heavy shipments of currency from this centre to San Francisco afforded them a pretext for a vigorous demonstration against the market. A well-known trader who has hugged the short side closely for some time put in an order to sell 500 General Electric 7 1/2's, and the market promptly rallied to 7 1/2-1/2 last night's closing price—ensued. The next stock property was Chicago Gas, which was sold down suddenly from 79-3/4 to 69. This also failed to accomplish its purpose, and light offered to sell 100 shares of the same stock promptly rallied to within a fraction of its former price. It is believed that the Manhattan directors have in contemplation the decision to pay the full amount of the settlement of money paid out of earnings in settlement of damage suits and in payment of the same property. It is said that various plans have been proposed to bring about such a result, and that the directors are now in favor of doing something that will add to the "water" in this already over-capitalized concern. Head Cut in a Fight. Edward McScherer, thirty-six, of 121 East One Hundred and Eighty-sixth, and William H. O'Connell, of the same number, got into a fight to-day in the latter's apartment, during which Corcoran knocked McScherer against a stone. He has his head severely injured, and was taken to the Hospital. The Thousand Islands at Auction. O'NEW, Ont., June 23.—The Government has decided to offer the Thousand Islands in the River St. Lawrence for sale at public auction in a short time, without conditions as to settlement.

Janiell and Sons,

BROADWAY,

(The Block) 8th & 9th St.

Men's Furnishings.

(Special for Saturday), 100 dozen Broken Lots of Neglige Shirts, Slightly Soiled, AT 75c. EACH. Reduced from $1.50 and $1.75.

Special Values: 250 doz. Sennet Braid Sailors, full trimmed, with leather sweatbands, 58c. each; worth 75c. 200 doz. Fine Milan Sailors, in White and Navy Blue, 8 1/2 inch brims, 1.37 each; worth 1.85.

6th Avenue, 19th to 20th Street. LURLINE AND THE STRONG MEN. A Triangular Row in Which Sandow and Sampson Appear. One of the Weight-Lifters Issues a $5,000 Challenge.

Saturday, to-morrow morning, we put on sale 300 dozen SOX, 25 cents a pair.—$2.75 a dozen. Cost more to import. Handsome patterns—good wearers. You want at least 6 pair. Neglige Shirts, Neckwear, Underwear. All at our Lower Store.

HACKETT. CARHART & CO. Two Stores: Broadway near Chambers St. and Broadway & Canal St.

FIRE IN MIXED-ALE FLATS. Many Suspicious Bazes Discovered in 24 Hours.

Suspicious Conduct of Mrs. McGrath, Who is Just Out of Jail.

Terror reigned this morning in the "mixed-ale" flats, a big five-story double tenement, at 238 East Ninety-fourth street. The lower hall and the hallways above were packed with seventy odd tenants, who were all undecided whether it was best to move out or not. To make it more interesting, Fire Marshal Frank had paid two visits to the tenement for the purpose of apprehending, if possible, the person who started the fire, which broke out on the fourth floor, between 8 o'clock morning and to-day.

According to the story told to an "Evening World" reporter by Mrs. Louisa Belser, the housekeeper of the flats, Mrs. Mary McGrath, her husband, James McGrath, who has come to the city, reside on the fourth floor front on the west side. In the rear of the flats, Mrs. McGrath has a room, which she has recently vacated. The apartments opposite Mrs. McGrath's are occupied by George Fredericks. The apartments opposite Mrs. McGrath's are occupied by George Fredericks. The apartments opposite Mrs. McGrath's are occupied by George Fredericks.

None of these fires was reported to the Fire Department or police department, and the fire department was awakened by smoke and the fumes of kerosene oil. One of the families had been sleeping in the room, and the father asleep on the bed with his three children. At 1:30 this morning a family on the fourth floor, in the rear of the flats, was awakened by smoke and the fumes of kerosene oil. One of the families had been sleeping in the room, and the father asleep on the bed with his three children. At 1:30 this morning a family on the fourth floor, in the rear of the flats, was awakened by smoke and the fumes of kerosene oil.

She Handled the Reporter the Letter, in which she said she had written to the police to keep him from starving. Lurline had retired from the water-queuing line, and she had a dinner of cold genoues and wonders like strong men. Mrs. Davis says she paid out $1 in San-dow's interest, and she intends to get the balance due her. If she does she says she will give her friends a dinner with the money. Messrs. Friend & House added further that Sandow had been in any amount up to $5,000 that the latter cannot duplicate the acts and performances of Sampson.

DECIDED AGAINST THE POLICE. Advance Their Salaries. Chief-Justice Clement, of the City Court, Brooklyn, to-day decided in favor of the city test suits brought by Policemen John L. Taylor, Thomas W. Slack and John H. Jeffers against the city of Brooklyn to recover various sums of money alleged to be due them as back pay since June 1, 1892, under chapter 122 of the laws of 1889. The sole question before the Court was whether the salaries of patrolmen during the term of the charter of chapter 122 of the laws of 1889 or by chapter 581 of the laws of 1888, the latter being the law in force at the time.

Blaze was window from the closed door, and the fire spread to the floor above, and Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked.

Blaze was window from the closed door, and the fire spread to the floor above, and Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked.

Blaze was window from the closed door, and the fire spread to the floor above, and Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked.

Blaze was window from the closed door, and the fire spread to the floor above, and Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked.

Blaze was window from the closed door, and the fire spread to the floor above, and Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked.

Blaze was window from the closed door, and the fire spread to the floor above, and Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked.

Blaze was window from the closed door, and the fire spread to the floor above, and Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked.

Blaze was window from the closed door, and the fire spread to the floor above, and Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked.

Blaze was window from the closed door, and the fire spread to the floor above, and Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked.

Blaze was window from the closed door, and the fire spread to the floor above, and Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked.

Blaze was window from the closed door, and the fire spread to the floor above, and Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked.

Blaze was window from the closed door, and the fire spread to the floor above, and Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked.

Blaze was window from the closed door, and the fire spread to the floor above, and Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked.

Blaze was window from the closed door, and the fire spread to the floor above, and Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked.

Blaze was window from the closed door, and the fire spread to the floor above, and Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked.

Blaze was window from the closed door, and the fire spread to the floor above, and Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked.

Blaze was window from the closed door, and the fire spread to the floor above, and Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked.

Blaze was window from the closed door, and the fire spread to the floor above, and Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked. Mrs. McGrath's rooms were locked.

JOCKEY BARNES LOCKED UP. He and His Wife and a Friend Mixed Up in a Street Row.

Jockey John Barnes and his wife Alice, both colored, living at 110 Fleet place, Brooklyn, and Richard Bruce, of 138 Nassau avenue, were arrested at an early hour this morning and locked up in the Adams street police station, the men being charged with assault and Mrs. Barnes with lousing.

Bruce met Mrs. Barnes on Myrtle avenue, and accompanied her home. The couple stopped to chat in front of her house, and Barnes came out and interferred. The men quarrelled, and finally clutched each other and rolled over the sidewalk.

When they regained their feet, Bruce says, Barnes whipped out a penknife and cut him on the hand. Barnes then drew a revolver and tried to shoot him. Police-man Fox came along while the fight was in progress, and he took the men to the Adams street police station.

For several months lawyers who have done business in the County Clerk's office in the Hall of Records have complained of the foul air in the office. Mr. Cotter has notified last yesterday afternoon to appear in court this morning and answer the charge.

Justice Walsh says that unless something is done at once to remedy the whole Board of Supervisors before him, he will be responsible for the existing trouble.

MORE AFFIDAVITS FILED. Mrs. Grenus Backs Up Her Plea for Alimony and Fees.

More affidavits were filed with Judge Van Wyck, of the City Court, Brooklyn, by Mrs. Elizabeth Grenus, who is trying to compel her husband, Arthur, to pay her alimony and counsel fees pending trial of her action for limited divorce.

Mrs. Grenus was formerly a chorus girl in "The Last Days of Pompeii," and her husband is a scenic artist at West Brighton. Grenus's lawyer opposed the application for alimony, and claimed that she had been guilty of improper conduct with one Harry Davis.

Lawyer Gru read Mrs. Grenus's affidavit, in which she stated that she was a widow, and that she was a mother of three children. She married Grenus under common law in 1875, and she has since had a civil ceremony with him.

Shortly afterwards, she declared, he became enamored with an Ohio woman, and she had to leave him. She denied she had lived with Davis, and she denied she had any diamonds, silk stockings and fine clothes.

She swore her husband owned valuable property, and she was entitled to a share of a good income from his position at the seashore. Decision was reserved.

BREACH OF PROMISE CASE FETTERED. BELLAIRE, O., June 23.—The $25,000 breach of promise suit of Miss Lydia Anderson, of St. Clairsville, O., against Dr. Joseph F. Henson, and his wife, who had agreed to marry her, and the costs of the trial.

IT STAYS BY YOU—the good old story by Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. In Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Jaundice, Diarrhoea, Sour Stomach, and Sick or Bilious Headaches, give your money to get a permanent cure. There's no reaction after them; their help.

For breaking up attacks of colds, chills, fevers, rheumatism, and kindred derangements resulting from severe exposure, nothing can compare with this little "Pilets." They're the smallest, the easiest to take, and the most reliable remedy.

They're guaranteed to give satisfaction, in every way and in every case, and your money is returned, if you don't get more on you add for a medicine.

Whether it's Catarrh itself, or any of the troubles caused by Catarrh, the night-dress, the Catarrh Remedy will pay you $500 if you can't give you a complete and permanent cure.

The worst case yield to this remedy.

COUNTY CLERK'S NOISANCE. It May Lead to the Fining of All the Supervisors.

The Air Blamed by Mr. Cotter for the Trouble.

County Clerk John Cotter, of Brooklyn, who was to have been arraigned in the Adams Street Police Court this morning, charged by the Health Department with maintaining a public nuisance in his office, got an adjournment of one week, owing to the absence of Justice Walsh.

For several months lawyers who have done business in the County Clerk's office in the Hall of Records have complained of the foul air in the office. Mr. Cotter has notified last yesterday afternoon to appear in court this morning and answer the charge.

Justice Walsh says that unless something is done at once to remedy the whole Board of Supervisors before him, he will be responsible for the existing trouble.

MORE AFFIDAVITS FILED. Mrs. Grenus Backs Up Her Plea for Alimony and Fees.

More affidavits were filed with Judge Van Wyck, of the City Court, Brooklyn, by Mrs. Elizabeth Grenus, who is trying to compel her husband, Arthur, to pay her alimony and counsel fees pending trial of her action for limited divorce.

Mrs. Grenus was formerly a chorus girl in "The Last Days of Pompeii," and her husband is a scenic artist at West Brighton. Grenus's lawyer opposed the application for alimony, and claimed that she had been guilty of improper conduct with one Harry Davis.

Lawyer Gru read Mrs. Grenus's affidavit, in which she stated that she was a widow, and that she was a mother of three children. She married Grenus under common law in 1875, and she has since had a civil ceremony with him.

Shortly afterwards, she declared, he became enamored with an Ohio woman, and she had to leave him. She denied she had lived with Davis, and she denied she had any diamonds, silk stockings and fine clothes.

She swore her husband owned valuable property, and she was entitled to a share of a good income from his position at the seashore. Decision was reserved.

BREACH OF PROMISE CASE FETTERED. BELLAIRE, O., June 23.—The $25,000 breach of promise suit of Miss Lydia Anderson, of St. Clairsville, O., against Dr. Joseph F. Henson, and his wife, who had agreed to marry her, and the costs of the trial.

IT STAYS BY YOU—the good old story by Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. In Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Jaundice, Diarrhoea, Sour Stomach, and Sick or Bilious Headaches, give your money to get a permanent cure. There's no reaction after them; their help.

For breaking up attacks of colds, chills, fevers, rheumatism, and kindred derangements resulting from severe exposure, nothing can compare with this little "Pilets." They're the smallest, the easiest to take, and the most reliable remedy.

They're guaranteed to give satisfaction, in every way and in every case, and your money is returned, if you don't get more on you add for a medicine.

Whether it's Catarrh itself, or any of the troubles caused by Catarrh, the night-dress, the Catarrh Remedy will pay you $500 if you can't give you a complete and permanent cure.

The worst case yield to this remedy.

WIFE-BEATERS SENTENCED. Three Oust Husbands Punished by Justice Koch To-Day.

Charles Christenson, of 342 East Twelfth street; Henry Gent, of 188 Allen street; and Charles Moebus, of 728 East Ninth street, were sentenced to the Essex Market Court to-day, charged with wife-beating.

Christenson punns the furniture which his wife had bought from time to time, and the proceeds are spent for whiskey; Gent assumes himself when in his cups by breaking plates and crockery on his wife's head, and Moebus, who is probably the worst of the three, beats his wife with his hands, and sometimes with a belt, and a physician had to be summoned.

Justice Walsh says that unless something is done at once to remedy the whole Board of Supervisors before him, he will be responsible for the existing trouble.

MORE AFFIDAVITS FILED. Mrs. Grenus Backs Up Her Plea for Alimony and Fees.

More affidavits were filed with Judge Van Wyck, of the City Court, Brooklyn, by Mrs. Elizabeth Grenus, who is trying to compel her husband, Arthur, to pay her alimony and counsel fees pending trial of her action for limited divorce.

Mrs. Grenus was formerly a chorus girl in "The Last Days of Pompeii," and her husband is a scenic artist at West Brighton. Grenus's lawyer opposed the application for alimony, and claimed that she had been guilty of improper conduct with one Harry Davis.

Lawyer Gru read Mrs. Grenus's affidavit, in which she stated that she was a widow, and that she was a mother of three children. She married Grenus under common law in 1875, and she has since had a civil ceremony with him.

Shortly afterwards, she declared, he became enamored with an Ohio woman, and she had to leave him. She denied she had lived with Davis, and she denied she had any diamonds, silk stockings and fine clothes.

She swore her husband owned valuable property, and she was entitled to a share of a good income from his position at the seashore. Decision was reserved.

BREACH OF PROMISE CASE FETTERED. BELLAIRE, O., June 23.—The $25,000 breach of promise suit of Miss Lydia Anderson, of St. Clairsville, O., against Dr. Joseph F. Henson, and his wife, who had agreed to marry her, and the costs of the trial.

IT STAYS BY YOU—the good old story by Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. In Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Jaundice, Diarrhoea, Sour Stomach, and Sick or Bilious Headaches, give your money to get a permanent cure. There's no reaction after them; their help.

For breaking up attacks of colds, chills, fevers, rheumatism, and kindred derangements resulting from severe exposure, nothing can compare with this little "Pilets." They're the smallest, the easiest to take, and the most reliable remedy.

They're guaranteed to give satisfaction, in every way and in every case, and your money is returned, if you don't get more on you add for a medicine.

Whether it's Catarrh itself, or any of the troubles caused by Catarrh, the night-dress, the Catarrh Remedy will pay you $500 if you can't give you a complete and permanent cure.

The worst case yield to this remedy.

STRATTON'S CASE PUT OFF. The Wealthy and Aged Brooklynite Will Be Heard July 11.

Charged with Trying to Kill His Wife by Starvation.

The case of Eliphalet Stratton, the wealthy old man in Brooklyn charged with attempted homicide by locking his sick wife in their home, 121 Gates avenue, and refusing to allow her food until she was discovered by the neighbors almost starved to death, came up before Justice Haggerty in the Myrtle Avenue Police Court this morning.

It was adjourned until July 11 at the request of Lawyer Backus, counsel for Mrs. Stratton.

Lawyer Backus sent a letter to the Court asking for the adjournment, stating that he would be detained out of town until after the 11th.

When Justice Haggerty called the case the old man carrying four score and three years, whether Higgins had hobbled up to the bar leaning heavily upon the arm of his son Amos, with whom he had been living, and on Island since his release from Raymond Street Jail.

Lawyer Kruth said the old man desired to provide for his sick wife, but that his relatives had refused them to their counsel.

Justice Haggerty said they must instruct the stockholders in the neighborhood of Mrs. Stratton's house to furnish her with proper food, otherwise he would hold the Strattons responsible for the starvation of his wife.

Lawyer Kruth asked permission to have an officer accompany the old man to his former residence, and he might procure a change of clothing.

As the old man went down the stairs he appeared to have been in a very feeble and childish condition.

Mrs. Stratton lives in a club at the house on Gates avenue, where she is cared for by her sister.

She thinks she will have sufficiently recovered from her illness to appear in court July 11 to press her charge against Mr. Stratton.

TRIED TO RUN THE GUARD. Otto Schuster, twenty-three years old, a sailor on the training ship Monongahela, attempted to force his way past the guard at the York entrance to the Navy-Yard this morning. The guard struck Schuster on the head with a club, and he was arrested for being drunk.

YOUNG MCKENZIE NOT SENTENCED. George McKenzie, who was to have been sentenced in Park II. of general sessions this morning on the charge of manslaughter, was not brought to court. The case was adjourned until next week.

WALL STREET AFFAIRS. WALL STREET, Friday, June 23.—The bears made another attempt this morning to bring about demoralization in the stock market.

The run on the banks in California and the heavy shipments of currency from this centre to San Francisco afforded them a pretext for a vigorous demonstration against the market.

A well-known trader who has hugged the short side closely for some time put in an order to sell 500 General Electric 7 1/2's, and the market promptly rallied to 7 1/2-1/2 last night's closing price—ensued.

The next stock property was Chicago Gas, which was sold down suddenly from 79-3/4 to 69. This also failed to accomplish its purpose, and light offered to sell 100 shares of the same stock promptly rallied to within a fraction of its former price.

It is believed that the Manhattan directors have in contemplation the decision to pay the full amount of the settlement of money paid out of earnings in settlement of damage suits and in payment of the same property.

It is said that various plans have been proposed to bring about such a result, and that the directors are now in favor of doing something that will add to the "water" in this already over-capitalized concern.

Head Cut in a Fight. Edward McScherer, thirty-six, of 121 East One Hundred and Eighty-sixth, and William H. O'Connell, of the same number, got into a fight to-day in the latter's apartment, during which Corcoran knocked McScherer against a stone.

He has his head severely injured, and was taken to the Hospital. The Thousand Islands at Auction. O'NEW, Ont., June 23.—The Government has decided to offer the Thousand Islands in the River St. Lawrence for sale at public auction in a short time, without conditions as to settlement.

To-Day's Stock Quotations. American Tobacco pref. 102 1/2, 102 1/2, 102 1/2. American Sugar Refining 104 1/2, 104 1/2, 104 1/2. American Ice 104 1/2, 104 1/2, 104 1/2. American Lumber 104 1/2, 104 1/2, 104 1/2. American Cotton 104 1/2, 104 1/2, 104 1/2. American Wool 104 1/2, 104 1/2, 104 1/2. American Oil 104 1/2, 104 1/2, 104 1/2. American Paper 104 1/2, 104 1/2, 104 1/2. American Glass 104 1/2, 104 1/2, 104 1/2. American Iron 104 1/2, 104 1/2, 104 1/2. American Steel 104 1/2, 104 1/2, 104 1/2. American Coal 104 1/2, 104 1/2, 104 1/2. American Copper 104 1/2, 104 1/2, 104 1/2. American Lead 104 1/2, 104 1/2, 104 1/2. American Zinc 104 1/2, 104 1/2, 104 1/2. American Tin 104 1/2, 104 1/2, 104 1/2. American Silver 104 1/2, 104 1/2, 104 1/2. American Gold 104 1/2, 1