

MOURNS HER LOCKS.

Agnes O'Neill Prostrated by Her Encounter with the Clipper.

Her Story of the Loss of Her Golden Tresses.

Capt. Schmittberger's Police Sure They Will Catch the Fellow.

Agnes O'Neill, the pretty girl whose golden hair was so ruthlessly cut off by an unknown man in West Forty-eighth street last night, has spent the greater part of the time since in weeping over her loss.

The shock she experienced on hearing the sharp click of the scissors utterly unnerved her, and during the night she started up several times in terror from dreams that the man was still pursuing her.

Miss O'Neill, who is twenty years old, with her mother, Mrs. J. J. O'Neill, 215 West 48th street, and her father, Mr. J. J. O'Neill, 130 West Forty-eighth street, and last week preparations were made to spend the summer, according to their custom, at Asbury Park, N. J.

On Saturday, her daughter intending to remain here a few days longer. According to the colored girl who reported the case to the "Evening World" reporter this morning, Miss O'Neill left for Asbury Park at a very early hour to-day.

She is too much upset to remain in the city any longer, the colored girl said, and does not want to see any of her friends at present. I cannot say whether she will come back, perhaps not until after her hair grows again.

Capt. Schmittberger and, in fact, every one connected with the West Forty-eighth street precinct are particularly anxious to catch the fellow who did the deed. They have a description of the man who cut her hair down, and all are positive that he will be caught if he was never before.

The police do not believe he is the same fellow who recently operated in Williamsburg, but that he is the same man who cut the hair of the many cranks who flock the district.

"Jack the hair-singer" made that section of the city his standing ground and cut the hair of dozens of expensive dresses before he was run down and sent to State prison. It was known that he was never before, and that he was a very good barber, and that he was a very good barber.

The particular offense which has put the police on his trail was committed on Saturday evening at 4:30 and 5 o'clock last evening.

Miss O'Neill had just left her home and started up Broadway, and in fact, her friend on the west bank, her golden hair was being cut by a man who had been cutting hair for many years.

Looking around she saw a man about 5 feet 10 inches tall, wearing a dark suit and a dark hat, and she felt the cold air strike her head at the back, where the hair should have been.

Putting up her hands, she found that the hair had been cut close to the roots.

Before she had time to scream the man had taken to his heels, and in fact, she could not recover from her astonishment and fright. He had turned the corner of Forty-eighth street.

She did scream, and with a vengeance. The man to respond was a young man, who had been cutting hair for many years, and who had been cutting hair for many years.

She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away. She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away.

She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away. She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away.

She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away. She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away.

She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away. She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away.

She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away. She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away.

She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away. She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away.

She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away. She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away.

She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away. She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away.

She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away. She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away.

She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away. She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away.

She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away. She was unwilling to give such explanation, however, and tried her best to get away.

FOURTH OF JULY SUFFERERS.

The Report from the Police Courts and the Hospital.

The usual number of unfortunate Fourth of July celebrators were arraigned in the Yorkville Court this morning.

Justice Burke dismissed the minor cases.

Michael Prome, aged eleven, of 650 Second Avenue, shot his playmate, Mitchell Friedman, aged twelve, of 650 Second Avenue, in the left arm, after threatening him.

Michael told the Court that he was "just fooling," but Justice Burke held him in $1,000 to answer.

Frank Kempf, aged fourteen, of 479 East 161st Street, was charged with shooting a six-foot train with a rifle. One of the men went through the right leg of Frank Vysodell, 49th Street, thirty-third street, who was sitting on his step.

This morning Vysodell would make no complaint, and Kempf was discharged.

Alex. Frank, aged eleven, of 151 East 101st Street, was charged with shooting a six-foot train with a rifle. One of the men went through the right leg of Frank Vysodell, 49th Street, thirty-third street, who was sitting on his step.

This morning Vysodell would make no complaint, and Kempf was discharged.

Alex. Frank, aged eleven, of 151 East 101st Street, was charged with shooting a six-foot train with a rifle. One of the men went through the right leg of Frank Vysodell, 49th Street, thirty-third street, who was sitting on his step.

This morning Vysodell would make no complaint, and Kempf was discharged.

Alex. Frank, aged eleven, of 151 East 101st Street, was charged with shooting a six-foot train with a rifle. One of the men went through the right leg of Frank Vysodell, 49th Street, thirty-third street, who was sitting on his step.

This morning Vysodell would make no complaint, and Kempf was discharged.

Alex. Frank, aged eleven, of 151 East 101st Street, was charged with shooting a six-foot train with a rifle. One of the men went through the right leg of Frank Vysodell, 49th Street, thirty-third street, who was sitting on his step.

This morning Vysodell would make no complaint, and Kempf was discharged.

Alex. Frank, aged eleven, of 151 East 101st Street, was charged with shooting a six-foot train with a rifle. One of the men went through the right leg of Frank Vysodell, 49th Street, thirty-third street, who was sitting on his step.

This morning Vysodell would make no complaint, and Kempf was discharged.

Alex. Frank, aged eleven, of 151 East 101st Street, was charged with shooting a six-foot train with a rifle. One of the men went through the right leg of Frank Vysodell, 49th Street, thirty-third street, who was sitting on his step.

This morning Vysodell would make no complaint, and Kempf was discharged.

Alex. Frank, aged eleven, of 151 East 101st Street, was charged with shooting a six-foot train with a rifle. One of the men went through the right leg of Frank Vysodell, 49th Street, thirty-third street, who was sitting on his step.

This morning Vysodell would make no complaint, and Kempf was discharged.

Alex. Frank, aged eleven, of 151 East 101st Street, was charged with shooting a six-foot train with a rifle. One of the men went through the right leg of Frank Vysodell, 49th Street, thirty-third street, who was sitting on his step.

This morning Vysodell would make no complaint, and Kempf was discharged.

Alex. Frank, aged eleven, of 151 East 101st Street, was charged with shooting a six-foot train with a rifle. One of the men went through the right leg of Frank Vysodell, 49th Street, thirty-third street, who was sitting on his step.

This morning Vysodell would make no complaint, and Kempf was discharged.

Alex. Frank, aged eleven, of 151 East 101st Street, was charged with shooting a six-foot train with a rifle. One of the men went through the right leg of Frank Vysodell, 49th Street, thirty-third street, who was sitting on his step.

This morning Vysodell would make no complaint, and Kempf was discharged.

Alex. Frank, aged eleven, of 151 East 101st Street, was charged with shooting a six-foot train with a rifle. One of the men went through the right leg of Frank Vysodell, 49th Street, thirty-third street, who was sitting on his step.

This morning Vysodell would make no complaint, and Kempf was discharged.

Alex. Frank, aged eleven, of 151 East 101st Street, was charged with shooting a six-foot train with a rifle. One of the men went through the right leg of Frank Vysodell, 49th Street, thirty-third street, who was sitting on his step.

This morning Vysodell would make no complaint, and Kempf was discharged.

DEFEND THE INDIANS' RIGHTS.

Three Cherokee Girls Capture a Prohibition Park Meeting.

Resolutions Passed to Be Sent to President Cleveland.

Three pretty Cherokee girl singers were the centre of a very interesting scene last evening at Prohibition Park.

Several people who had been present at the Indian meeting in the same place Sunday afternoon, were so moved by the girls' success that they drew up a set of resolutions on the Indian question, which were presented to the meeting by Mr. William E. Hicks, of the Indian Land Adjustment League.

Mr. Hicks said that the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

Whereas, This meeting assembled on the national holiday, and the fact that the Indian girls' musical ability showed what progress the Indians are making toward higher civilization. This progress, he said, is endangered by land-grabbing rings now moving heaven and earth to swallow up the Indians' lands. Here are the resolutions.

MR. GOOD VS. CORDAGE.

Doesn't Think Much of Reorganization and Minding His Own Business.

John Good, manufacturer of cordage and inventor of many labor-saving devices in cordage machinery, does not feel very confident of the success of the proposed scheme to reorganize the National Cordage Company.

He himself is busy extending the plant of his own company, and he predicts that with an outlay not exceeding $5,000,000 he can provide an equipment that, owing to the advantages his inventions afford, will enable him to monopolize the market the trust hopes to monopolize.

Many people attribute the failure of the trust to the fact that the trust is controlled by the Trust, and that no amount of capital can overcome this advantage.

He refused to say whether he had been approached by the present reorganizers of the National Cordage Company, but he declined the company's overtures to him when it was supported by the public that it was inevitable and invulnerable.

SCHNEIDER TO PAY ALIMONY.

The Policeman Must Give His Wife $8 Per Week Pending Divorce Trial.

Justice Lawrence, of the Supreme Court, today decided that Policeman Charles S. Schneider, of the Madison street station, must pay his wife, Minna, $8 per week pending his suit against her for a separate maintenance.

He was recently tried by the Police Commissioners upon a complaint preferred by Inspector Williams for an assault upon Mrs. Schneider.

That charge was being tried by Judge Lawrence, who in his suit against her, Mrs. Schneider claims that her husband is not entitled to a separation, she says he is a drunkard and a violent man, and she is a victim of his violence.

Justice Lawrence also awarded Mary Ann Schneider $100 per month for her support and maintenance, pending her divorce from her husband, William Gardner.

Justice Lawrence also awarded Mrs. Gardner $100 per month for her support and maintenance, pending her divorce from her husband, William Gardner.

BROOKLYN'S APPROPRIATION.

Total of $10,800,835.29 Awarded for Government Expenses.

The Brooklyn Board of Aldermen this afternoon received a statement from the board of estimate appropriating $10,800,835.29 for the expense of the city government during 1934.

If King George Has Abducted, He Hasn't Told It Widely.

LONDON, July 5.—A report has reached this city from the United States to the effect that King George of Greece had abdicated, and that a republic had been proclaimed. The Greek Consul-General here was today in relation to the report.

He said: "This is the first time I have received the abdication of King George."

He laughed incredulously when the details of the report were repeated to him, and declared that the story was preposterous.

British Steamers Sunk in Collision—All Hands Saved.

LONDON, July 5.—The British steamers Kiba and William Blair were in collision at midnight last night thirty miles off the Humber, on the coast of England. Both vessels were heavily damaged, but were saved by other vessels or reached land in their own boats.

Says the Law Sustains Him.

Street Cleaning Commissioner Brennan denied the charges published yesterday that he was receiving bribes from street cleaners and drivers yesterday without pay. The commissioner says that he has received no such bribes.

Market Opened Feverish.

Only a Slim Attendance at the Stock Exchange.

The attendance at the Stock Exchange was slim this morning. In the first transactions the market was feverish and weak, owing to lower cables from London.

The foreigners also sold St. Paul, which was recently shot to death. It took a number of bullets from a Winchester rifle to lay him out. His new owner caused him to be shot for his skin.

The big lion belonging to the Woodward Gardens menagerie in San Francisco was recently shot to death. It took a number of bullets from a Winchester rifle to lay him out. His new owner caused him to be shot for his skin.

The big lion belonging to the Woodward Gardens menagerie in San Francisco was recently shot to death. It took a number of bullets from a Winchester rifle to lay him out. His new owner caused him to be shot for his skin.

The big lion belonging to the Woodward Gardens menagerie in San Francisco was recently shot to death. It took a number of bullets from a Winchester rifle to lay him out. His new owner caused him to be shot for his skin.

The big lion belonging to the Woodward Gardens menagerie in San Francisco was recently shot to death. It took a number of bullets from a Winchester rifle to lay him out. His new owner caused him to be shot for his skin.

TO SELL CHAPMAN'S PROPERTY IT WILL COST YOU NOTHING.

Brooklyn's Sensational Shooting Recalled at City Hall.

Real Estate Valued at $200,000 to Be Sold to Satisfy a $1,036.32 Claim.

There was an echo to-day of the sad life-story of Geoffrey Hawley Chapman, insane young actor, and the scandalous growing out of the shooting of his wife, Cora Clifford Chapman, by his professional nurse, Herbert Servant.

It was the announcement of the Sheriff's sale in the vestibule of the City Hall at noon to-day of all the right, title and interest held by Chapman March 21 and thereafter in the property in this city 1-7/8 him and his wife, on the death of his father, old George Chapman, in 1887, to satisfy a judgment obtained in May, 1891, for money loaned the estate by George Latham, who had assigned it to a client of Lawyer James B. Lockwood.

Although the amount of the judgment was only $1,036.32, property to the value of fully $200,000, comprising nineteen East forty-fourth street, 1667-1613 Lexington avenue, 1787 and 1789 Third avenue and 412-40 East Fifty-sixth street, were placed in public vendue to satisfy this meagre claim.

The sale did not take place as advertised, but it was strictly postponed. It was postponed because of the fact that the property was being sold by a person who was not a resident of this city, and the court as an insane person more than a year ago.

This notification did not alter Mrs. Chapman's determination to go on with the sale, but it changed Sheriff Gorman's views entirely. He submitted the matter to the court, and the result was that the sale was postponed until Wednesday of next week.

All this is but a fitting sequel to Hawley Chapman's prodigious waste of the money which he inherited from his father, which was built up by his indulgent father, who was for years a well-known actor in the Broadway theatre.

Before Hawley's killing pace had landed in jail, his father's death, he was in an asylum he was induced to give the control of his interest to his mother, Louise Chapman, who was also a beneficiary of George Chapman's will.

Evening World readers will remember that Hawley's character became a cause of his habits, was obliged to leave the stage, where he had frequently been a success, and had become almost hopeless paralytic.

With his wife, whom he had married a year before his father's death, he went to live at 38 St. Mark's place, Brooklyn, where he was constantly under the influence of great quantities of alcohol, and the result was that he was committed to a lunatic asylum.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

He was committed to a lunatic asylum in 1882, after a comparatively brief interval. Hawley Chapman became violently insane, and was sent to a lunatic asylum, where he remained for many years, until his death in 1912.

and I am thankful that I did so. My stomach has been so weak since the stomach before I visited the doctor. I am so thankful that I cannot find words to express my gratitude.

STYMONS OF CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.—This phase of catarrh is always attended by indigestion and usually by derangement of the bowels. It is caused by an inflammation from food and drink to the stomach. The symptoms are: loss of appetite, indigestion and flatulency, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, irregular bowels, listlessness, dull headache, nervousness and vertigo. Food lies upon the stomach in an undigested mass, fermentation takes place, gases arise, causing belching and abdominal fullness, shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart, and a general feeling of weakness. As this is done the symptoms disappear, appetite returns and the patient recovers his energy, strength and spirits.

ALL DISKASES TREATED AT THE UNIFORM RATE OF $5 A MONTH. REMEMBER, THIS INCLUDES CONSULTATION, EXAMINATION, TREATMENT AND MEDICINE FOR ALL DISKASES AND ALL PATIENTS.

The Copeland Medical Institute, 15 West 24th St., New York.