

MONDAY EVENING, JULY 17. SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD (including postage): PER MONTH $30. PER YEAR $3.00

BRANCH OFFICES: WORLD HEADQUARTERS OFFICE-1807 BROADWAY, between 14th and 15th Sts., New York.

375,000 Per Day.

Returns, Exchange List and All Free Papers Deducted.

A TESTIMONIAL.

"The undersigned advertiser in New York City, having been invited to examine all books and accounts relating to the circulation of THE WORLD, certify that they have examined the circulation, and that they have freed it of circulation in various periods from the contracts for the supply of paper to the bank deposits for the sale of the paper. They have verified the published statements of circulation, and are satisfied of their accuracy, and that the net actual, bona fide, paid circulation of THE WORLD, Morning and Evening Editions, per day for the six days of the week ended March 18th, 1933, after deducting all return papers, free papers and exchanges, was 375,000."

- "BLOOMINGDALE BROS., by E. W. Bloomingdale." "R. H. MACY & CO., by A. L. Kinkaid." "JOHN DANIELL & SONS, per H. C. Allaire, Accountant." "ADAMS & CO., per John A. Lambley, Advertising Manager." "EHRICH BROS., per G. R. Leghorn, Sup't." "EDWARD RIDLEY & SONS, per W. A. Edmunds, Accountant." "LUDWIG BROS., per W. A. Edmunds, Accountant." "ALFRED J. CAMMEYER."

THE WORLD will not, under any circumstances, hold itself responsible for the return or non-return of any rejected manuscript or picture, of whatever character or value. No exception will be made in this rule with regard to either letters or photographs. Don't send the editor unless in correspondence concerning unreturned manuscripts.

THE EVENING WORLD'S

Net paid bona fide actual daily Average Circulation is greater than the combined circulation of the Evening Sun, Mail and Express, Evening Post, Commercial Advertiser, Evening Telegram.

Keep a cool head anyway—if you can get one. The advent of the new lizard was generally observed heretofore.

Slam is said to have hit the first blow. Francis simply hit the harder one.

With a few July days like this one Croton water may be purified by boiling under the sun.

Gov. Altrick threatens to make another statement. Why can't he be satisfied with having done his worst?

The "L" road guard whose favorite argument is a knock-down blow is among the things New York should be well rid of.

Somebody promises a hot State campaign in the Fall for an "off" year. But why add a burden by talking of anything else hot while this weather lasts?

In Indiana yesterday a gust of wind raised high in air and carried away the tent beneath which Sam Jones was addressing a congregation. It is not a frequent experience for this "Blatant Revivalist" to find himself outdoors.

Capri is said to breathe easier now that the Army bill is passed. The German people's turn to breathe easy will come when they are convinced that they won't be taxed or breathing at all to keep up with the increased army expenses.

A "World" reporter has suggested the idea of awnings over the platform at the bases of the towers of the City Bridge to furnish shelter from both sun and rain to weary seekers for fresh air, who love to linger there. The suggestion is both timely and practical.

A pleasant story, showing what an elevated railway guard ought to be, was told in the daily papers of the other day. This morning's "World" told of an occurrence at the City Hall station of the Third Avenue road, which showed Guard No. 3,207 to be about all that no employe of any concern dealing directly with the public should ever be. A comparative stranger to the city was roughly and insolently called down by this guard for the infraction of a rule of the road which is wise enough at times, but was absurdly enforced in this instance. Remonstrating at the impudent methods of the guard, the stranger received the brute's further compliments in the shape of a knock-down blow and a cowardly kick in the face after he fell. It is gratifying to note that the victim of this assault is to push his case in the courts against both Guard 3,207 and the Elevated road. Every good citizen will wish him unlimited success in his suits, and since it is through the conduct of such brutes as No. 3,207 that the good name of other "L" employes suffers, self-respecting guards all along the road may join in the same wish.

THE WATER AND THE PUBLIC HEALTH.

With the means at command of the authorities and the power given them by law, there is no reason why the water supply of New York should not be as pure as it is possible for any body of water to be. It is certain that the year natural causes impart an unpleasant taste and smell to the water, which ought to be remedied as speedily as possible.

"The World" has done all it is in the power of any but the public authorities to do to help the people in this important matter. It has obtained from the analysis of the water from different parts of the city by two capable and eminent doctors, Profs. Wyatt and Stearnach, and their analysis is to be reported by the Health Board chemists. The authorities are now seeking the cause of the impurities, with a view to their removal.

It is the duty of the press to point out the evils that exist, it is undesirable and injurious to the public interests to raise any unnecessary alarm about the condition of the water, and its pretended danger to health. Last Summer the public health was good. But in the week just passed there were 1,733 deaths in the corresponding week last July, there were 1,733 deaths, with a smaller population. There were 179 more deaths last week than in the preceding week, in a population estimated at 1,250 larger. But the second week in July almost always shows an increased mortality over the first week.

Sanitary conditions in patients both under and out of hospital are of the highest order, but measles, scarlet fever, diphtheria and croup deaths decreased. The health of the city is good, and there is no reason why it should not continue in view of the vigilance of the sanitary officers.

NINETY-TWO IN THE SHADE.

"Ninety-two in the shade" was yesterday's highest record, and Farmer Dyer, who is in the matter of weather, gives us but little promise of immediate relief, although he does hold out the hope of a few refreshing showers.

"The Evening World's" Sick Baby Fund can now do much good as an auxiliary to the Health Department's efforts to relieve sickness and suffering in the city. The larger it is, the more work it can accomplish and the more lives it can save. Now is the time to add it to and remember that its efforts are directed towards the relief of those suffering little ones who cannot help themselves and who are too often overlooked and neglected, not for lack of affection, but through the pressure of other cares and misdeeds.

At such a time this battle against disease by "The Evening World's" able corps of doctors, followed by the blessings of the Tribune's Fresh-Air Fund and other worthy undertakings which give the convalescent children the advantage of a visit to the country, is of especial value in saving life and laying in a stock of robust health for the winter. How can our benevolent citizens do better than to give liberally to such commendable and such useful charities?

GET THE RIGHT PERSON.

The switchman who was in charge of the switch at the Newburg freight yard when the fatal accident occurred last Thursday, has been arrested and held to bail on a charge of manslaughter. The Railroad Commission was "convinced" by the Coroner's jury for employing "an incompetent man." But none of the railroad officials are in jail.

It is possible that Michael Donoghue may have been guilty of neglect in leaving the switch open. But some statements made by the witnesses need explanation. The motor of the switch, James Dyer, testified that there was trouble with the switch at 11 o'clock in the morning, and he took out the rod to make it work free. Taking out the rod would necessitate the pulling of two separate levers instead of one, and it was thereby possible to set the target or dog in the wrong position.

Was it not criminal carelessness and neglect on the part of the rod to instruct the tending of an important switch to a flunkey, especially when the switch was in the position of being "locked" by other employees of the road?

It is all very well to arrest Donoghue, but ought not some of the railroad managers to be held responsible?

HOW WILL THE ARMY BILL WORK?

The passage of the Army bill by the Helmsstag last Saturday was certainly a great triumph for the Government, although the majority was only sixteen out of a vote of 58. The defeat of the bill by the Helmsstag and the consequent expectation of a compromise, the new elections would largely increase the strength of the opposition, naturally made the result very gratifying to the Emperor, whose impatience proved how much importance he attached to the measure.

THE CLAIM OF NEW-YORK.

The seat on the Supreme Court bench made vacant by the death of Justice Blatchford, ought to be filled from New York. The State of New York ought to be represented in the highest court of the nation, and Judge Blatchford's successor should be, like himself, a New Yorker.

represent the West. Judge Brown is from Don S. Dickinson's State. Harlan and Jackson are representatives of the South, California has Field, and Pennsylvania Shiras. Josiah Quincy might modestly demand the position for Massachusetts, but Massachusetts already has Greaves. Judge Blatchford should be succeeded by an appointee from his own State. There are many distinguished jurists in New York eminently fit for the position, and a selection from any other State would be wholly indefensible.

Fall River is about to furnish a new reactor to an Episcopalian church in this city. He is the Rev. Percy S. Grant, who is to come to the Church of the Ascension, and it is interesting to note that he is an advanced advocate of something like the church salon idea promoted not long ago by the Rev. Dr. Rainsford, also of this city. At a farrow banquet tendered to him in Fall River by the directors of the Young Men's Christian Association, of which he was President, Mr. Grant said a man could be religious and at the same time indulge in all sorts of sports and amusements.

Snake-Charmer Dot Sonwell has been bitten again. This is her fourth experience of the kind. But this one, the doctors say, may be her last. It is time to put all this perilous business of snake-charming and wild animal training under the ban. No public good comes out of it to make up for the individual risks attending it.

Such a day as this makes work for "The Evening World's" free doctors among the babies of the year. Help on the Fund that makes the work possible. The good physicians must not be hampered by any lack of resources.

LADY MANSEL'S PETTICOAT.

It is an Apple-Green Paris Affair and an Excites Wonder. Lady Mansel, the queen skipping-rope dancer, wears a wonderful Paris petticoat that half the people who nightly crowd the American Theatre Roof Garden would like to copy.

If the British beauty cared to have paper patterns or sketches made of it she could dispose of them to enterprising firms at her own figures. Modistes have offered as much as $5 for one good look at the apple-green and flower-fringed skirt.

The lovely piece of lingerie goes with a Worth dress of indescribable beauty and color that cost $300 francs. The material is heavy silk of apricot yellow, peach pink and moonlight-on-the-lake according to the way the light strikes it. The design is a tiny daisy, scattered all over the changing surface. Huge flowers like a chrysanthemum are scattered among the babies of the year.

At West End, Long Branch. A benefit entertainment in aid of the Sick Babies' Fund will be given on Thursday evening next, July 20, at the West End Amusement Hall. The names of the numerous prominent visitors and cottagers who are interesting themselves in its success will be published to-morrow.

The "Evening World's" Corps of Free Physicians. (From the N. Y. Medical Journal.) This corps was organized in 1887 for the purpose of caring during the Summer months for neglected sick children who could not leave the city, or required medical attention before and after their return to the country.

Tompinville Little Folks. To the Editor: A most amusing entertainment, consisting of songs, duets and recitations, interspersed with dramatic plays and sketches, was given by the Little Folks, whose names appear below, at Tompinville Y. M. C. Association Hall, to help along your Sick Babies' Fund.

The ages of the children ranged from three to eight years, and all the pieces were rendered excellently, doing the little folk much credit. The entertainment was under the leadership of Maud Aspinwall and some of the most pleasing features of the occasion were that the children did not receive any of the usual "big" city or town "big" money, with a credit night's rest, but they were all, a great help to the Sick Babies' Fund.

Tompinville Little Folks. To the Editor: A most amusing entertainment, consisting of songs, duets and recitations, interspersed with dramatic plays and sketches, was given by the Little Folks, whose names appear below, at Tompinville Y. M. C. Association Hall, to help along your Sick Babies' Fund.

The ages of the children ranged from three to eight years, and all the pieces were rendered excellently, doing the little folk much credit. The entertainment was under the leadership of Maud Aspinwall and some of the most pleasing features of the occasion were that the children did not receive any of the usual "big" city or town "big" money, with a credit night's rest, but they were all, a great help to the Sick Babies' Fund.

Tompinville Little Folks. To the Editor: A most amusing entertainment, consisting of songs, duets and recitations, interspersed with dramatic plays and sketches, was given by the Little Folks, whose names appear below, at Tompinville Y. M. C. Association Hall, to help along your Sick Babies' Fund.

The ages of the children ranged from three to eight years, and all the pieces were rendered excellently, doing the little folk much credit. The entertainment was under the leadership of Maud Aspinwall and some of the most pleasing features of the occasion were that the children did not receive any of the usual "big" city or town "big" money, with a credit night's rest, but they were all, a great help to the Sick Babies' Fund.

Tompinville Little Folks. To the Editor: A most amusing entertainment, consisting of songs, duets and recitations, interspersed with dramatic plays and sketches, was given by the Little Folks, whose names appear below, at Tompinville Y. M. C. Association Hall, to help along your Sick Babies' Fund.

The ages of the children ranged from three to eight years, and all the pieces were rendered excellently, doing the little folk much credit. The entertainment was under the leadership of Maud Aspinwall and some of the most pleasing features of the occasion were that the children did not receive any of the usual "big" city or town "big" money, with a credit night's rest, but they were all, a great help to the Sick Babies' Fund.

Tompinville Little Folks. To the Editor: A most amusing entertainment, consisting of songs, duets and recitations, interspersed with dramatic plays and sketches, was given by the Little Folks, whose names appear below, at Tompinville Y. M. C. Association Hall, to help along your Sick Babies' Fund.

The ages of the children ranged from three to eight years, and all the pieces were rendered excellently, doing the little folk much credit. The entertainment was under the leadership of Maud Aspinwall and some of the most pleasing features of the occasion were that the children did not receive any of the usual "big" city or town "big" money, with a credit night's rest, but they were all, a great help to the Sick Babies' Fund.

Tompinville Little Folks. To the Editor: A most amusing entertainment, consisting of songs, duets and recitations, interspersed with dramatic plays and sketches, was given by the Little Folks, whose names appear below, at Tompinville Y. M. C. Association Hall, to help along your Sick Babies' Fund.

The ages of the children ranged from three to eight years, and all the pieces were rendered excellently, doing the little folk much credit. The entertainment was under the leadership of Maud Aspinwall and some of the most pleasing features of the occasion were that the children did not receive any of the usual "big" city or town "big" money, with a credit night's rest, but they were all, a great help to the Sick Babies' Fund.

Tompinville Little Folks. To the Editor: A most amusing entertainment, consisting of songs, duets and recitations, interspersed with dramatic plays and sketches, was given by the Little Folks, whose names appear below, at Tompinville Y. M. C. Association Hall, to help along your Sick Babies' Fund.

The ages of the children ranged from three to eight years, and all the pieces were rendered excellently, doing the little folk much credit. The entertainment was under the leadership of Maud Aspinwall and some of the most pleasing features of the occasion were that the children did not receive any of the usual "big" city or town "big" money, with a credit night's rest, but they were all, a great help to the Sick Babies' Fund.

Tompinville Little Folks. To the Editor: A most amusing entertainment, consisting of songs, duets and recitations, interspersed with dramatic plays and sketches, was given by the Little Folks, whose names appear below, at Tompinville Y. M. C. Association Hall, to help along your Sick Babies' Fund.

The ages of the children ranged from three to eight years, and all the pieces were rendered excellently, doing the little folk much credit. The entertainment was under the leadership of Maud Aspinwall and some of the most pleasing features of the occasion were that the children did not receive any of the usual "big" city or town "big" money, with a credit night's rest, but they were all, a great help to the Sick Babies' Fund.

Tompinville Little Folks. To the Editor: A most amusing entertainment, consisting of songs, duets and recitations, interspersed with dramatic plays and sketches, was given by the Little Folks, whose names appear below, at Tompinville Y. M. C. Association Hall, to help along your Sick Babies' Fund.

The ages of the children ranged from three to eight years, and all the pieces were rendered excellently, doing the little folk much credit. The entertainment was under the leadership of Maud Aspinwall and some of the most pleasing features of the occasion were that the children did not receive any of the usual "big" city or town "big" money, with a credit night's rest, but they were all, a great help to the Sick Babies' Fund.

OUR FUND'S BIRTHDAY.

"The Evening World's" Charity Is Now Six Years Old.

And It Has Collected $2,358.83 This Season.

Children's Fair and Other Entertainments Given for It.

All letters containing money for the Sick Babies' Fund should be addressed to "Care of Sick Babies' Fund, 133 West Thirtieth Street, New York City." Donations of clothing, etc., should be sent to Mrs. Roberts, 133 West Thirtieth Street.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

- Previously acknowledged $2,378.00. Charles of the King, West 10th St. 25.00. Tomkinsville, S. I., Little Folks 15.00. John Hall Bickel 12.00. "Friend of the Cause" 11.00. W. J. C. 10.00. N. J. 10.00. Bessie F. Norton, Hoboken, N. J. 10.00. Grace A. Smith and Mabel M. Hyde, Fort Richmond, S. I. 10.00. Fair, 1481 Avenue A, Brooklyn 2.55. B. B. T., Newark, N. J. 2.00. Maria, South Amboy, N. J. 2.00. Harry J. Pease, five years old, Brooklyn 1.50. V. R. A., out of employment 1.25.

It is the sixth anniversary of the Sick Babies' Fund. It is an event well worth celebrating. By rights there should be a tea party this afternoon and a birthday cake, heavy with plums and nuts, brilliant with icing, and compliments to greet the blushing six-year-old, and wish him many happy returns of the day.

As this charming programme is not practical under existing circumstances, individual celebration is suggested. Please consider yourself an invited guest, but do not expect a formal good cause, to forego the feast. Point a previous engagement, send your regrets, but do not fail to send your greetings in the form of a subscription. A few hundred dollar notes are very much in demand just now, and will do to make the Fund an odd $2,000. If it is not convenient to contribute so large a sum, but to contribute $10 will be very acceptable also. Even 10-cent pieces will be gratefully received, and the bundle sent to the fund. We do not know as promptly as the biggest bank note.

The Fund has been greatly favored during the past week. Contributions have been both numerous and liberal. We have had concerts, farces, dramatics, parlor entertainments and dances, with subscriptions varying from $100 to $1,000. We are glad to have a list of those who are contributing to the fund, and to have a list of those who are contributing to the fund, and to have a list of those who are contributing to the fund.

An Editor's Contribution. I beg to inclose check, value $12, for the Sick Babies' Fund. This sum is the proceeds of an article in "The World" of last Sunday, July 9. I hope to send another contribution in a few days. Very truly yours, JOHN L. HEDSON, Editor Golden News.

Her Share of the Fair. To the Editor: I beg to inclose check, value $4, which is my share of a fair held by three little girls. Bessie F. Norton, 737 Bloomfield street, Hoboken.

Parlor Entertainment. To the Editor: Please find inclosed $50, the proceeds of a small parlor entertainment given for the benefit of the Sick Babies' Fund. GRACE A. SMITH, MABEL M. HYDE, Fort Richmond, S. I.

Fair in Brooklyn. To the Editor: Inclosed you will find $2.50, the total receipts of a fair held at the residence of Mrs. Cole, 218 Rutledge street, Brooklyn, on Monday afternoon, July 10, for the benefit of the Sick Babies' Fund.

A Colored Workingwoman. To the Editor: For the Sick Babies' Fund, from a colored workingwoman, $2. E. R. T., 741 Broad St., Newark, N. J.

Out of Employment. To the Editor: A young man out of employment, offers willingly 25 cents for the Sick Babies' Fund. E. R. A.

Defaulters Olds Found Dead. A Bullet Hole Through the Heart of a Prominent Missing Man. HELMUNA, L. M. B. Olds, State Senator, and one of the best known mining men in the State, proved a defaulter after mysteriously disappearing.

Tom King Is a Hero. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

$2,358.83 last year, with the kind assistance of friends and donors, we are glad to be able to send you $2.50 of which amount $1.75 was collected by a number of our interested employees who showed a great interest in the cause. We had the pleasure, with best wishes for your continued health, to send you a copy of the book, "The Evening World's Charity Is Now Six Years Old."

Brooklyn Children's Fair.

We enclose herewith the sum of $15 for the Sick Babies' Fund, this being the proceeds of a fair planned and managed by the children whose names are given herewith, whose ages are from seven to fourteen. The fair took place at 104 Higgs Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., and we are very glad to state that it was a complete success. We hope this money will give relief to some of the children who are in need of it.

From Six Little Brooklynites. To the Editor: Inclosed find a postal note for $1.75, the proceeds of an entertainment held by six little girls for the benefit of the Sick Babies' Fund. Hoping it will help some little baby, we remain, ANNE McGILLIS, AUGIE McGILLIS, GRACE McGILLIS, MARY McGILLIS, MAMIE COOK, Bayonne, N. J.

A Big Mile from a Little Tot. To the Editor: I send you $5 for the dear little sick babies you are so kind to. Please give it to them from me. I am seven years old. ALICE W. MATHERS.

Fair in Avenue A. To the Editor: Inclosed please find the sum of $2.50, which was collected from our numerous friends in aid of the Sick Babies' Fund. The money we collected we received from a fair held in Selma Welsch's yard, 1481 Avenue A. We charged nothing for admission, but each and every child had to buy something or take some chance. We held the fair three days, and received the above amount. We did not have many things at the fair, but we tried our best. We made dolls, dresses, caps, hats, shirts and many other little things. We think it will help the little ones who are in need of it. Yousia respect, SELMA WELSH, 10 years old. GRETCHEN GIER, 10 years old. MOLLIE ROSENBLIN, 10 years old.

An Editor's Contribution. I beg to inclose check, value $12, for the Sick Babies' Fund. This sum is the proceeds of an article in "The World" of last Sunday, July 9. I hope to send another contribution in a few days. Very truly yours, JOHN L. HEDSON, Editor Golden News.

Her Share of the Fair. To the Editor: I beg to inclose check, value $4, which is my share of a fair held by three little girls. Bessie F. Norton, 737 Bloomfield street, Hoboken.

Parlor Entertainment. To the Editor: Please find inclosed $50, the proceeds of a small parlor entertainment given for the benefit of the Sick Babies' Fund. GRACE A. SMITH, MABEL M. HYDE, Fort Richmond, S. I.

Fair in Brooklyn. To the Editor: Inclosed you will find $2.50, the total receipts of a fair held at the residence of Mrs. Cole, 218 Rutledge street, Brooklyn, on Monday afternoon, July 10, for the benefit of the Sick Babies' Fund.

A Colored Workingwoman. To the Editor: For the Sick Babies' Fund, from a colored workingwoman, $2. E. R. T., 741 Broad St., Newark, N. J.

Out of Employment. To the Editor: A young man out of employment, offers willingly 25 cents for the Sick Babies' Fund. E. R. A.

Defaulters Olds Found Dead. A Bullet Hole Through the Heart of a Prominent Missing Man. HELMUNA, L. M. B. Olds, State Senator, and one of the best known mining men in the State, proved a defaulter after mysteriously disappearing.

Tom King Is a Hero. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief, who escaped from the Oklahoma City Jail three weeks ago, was captured here at midnight Saturday. The prisoner proved to be a woman, though she has been dressed in men's clothes for months and affects a bullet hole in the heart and a revolver lay alongside the body, which was badly decomposed.

Keely Cure for Banker Day. A Bold Oklahoma Horse Thief Hid Her Sex for Months. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 15.—Tom King, the horse-thief