

HE PREFERS THE GRAND JURY. RICOED JUSTICE TIGHE WOULD NOT GIVE HIM A FAIR TRIAL.

So His Case is Taken from the Letter's Court. Police Justice Tighe, of the First District Police Court, Brooklyn, gained considerable notoriety for his connection with the arrest and disposal of Capt. Magnus Andersen and his Vikings recently.

A case was brought to the attention of Justice Cullen, in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, this morning wherein a man asks to have his case transferred beyond Justice Tighe's jurisdiction because it is alleged the defendant does not believe he could obtain a fair trial in the First District Police Court.

Counselor Luke D. Stapleton asked Justice Cullen to transfer an assault case from Justice Tighe's jurisdiction at once, whereupon the defendant, John A. Arney, was present and agreed to the motion.

Justice Cullen signed the order and put Judge Robert M. Ricord, under $200 bonds. Ricord is a man eighty-two years old, who resides at 102 Hoyt street, Brooklyn.

Ricord swears to the following facts: That he was arrested on May 24 for striking a boy named Levison on the ear. He denied the assault, but was arrested on the charge of striking a woman named Mrs. J. Belger, of the Third Precinct, without a warrant, he says, notwithstanding a license charge was a misdemeanor.

He says that Belger charged him with assault of his own knowledge and not on information and belief, although the policeman did not appear until twenty minutes after the alleged trouble.

Ricord further says that he wants the Grand Jury to be called to try him, and he is sure he cannot get a fair trial at the hands of Judge Tighe.

Justice Cullen said that he would believe him above any other. He said that he would back up Belger in any emergency, and that the testimony of the policeman would be taken after his opinion of Belger's integrity.

MRS. McCABE ON THE STAND. She Does Not Think She Hurt Mrs. Finch's Baby.

The trial of Mrs. Margaret McCabe for the murder of the two-month-old daughter of Sherman and Rose Finch, of 8 Amsterdam avenue, on Jan. 2, was resumed this morning before Recorder Smyth in Part II. of the General Sessions.

When the court adjourned yesterday four witnesses had been heard. The first witness was Mrs. Finch, the mother of the dead child. She told the court the story of moving on Jan. 2, during which the baby was entrusted to the care of Mrs. Mary Clancy.

At 2 o'clock Mrs. Finch missed her child, and after a long search called at the station-house and found that the little girl had been killed. Sherman Finch, father of the child, corroborated his wife's testimony.

John McCabe, husband of defendant, told of Mrs. Clancy's coming to his house with the baby and that his wife treated her to punch. He said he did not believe she would have killed the baby.

Mrs. Clancy said she was drinking with her husband. She said she saw Mrs. McCabe with her baby and that she was afraid to go to the police court this morning and sent to the House of Refuge.

GAMECOCK AND RATTLER. The Reptile No Match for the Agile and Sharp-Spurred Bird.

One day last week a tom turkey belonging to Arnold S. Ormsby, a Krickle Root Ridge farmer, says the Scranton Tribune, got into a long and noisy in the doorway just before dinner-time that Mrs. Ormsby hastily threw her hands on her apron and ran out to see what the gobber meant by making such a racket.

The turkey, however, was not to be deterred by the racket, and he kept on with his noise as if he were not aware that the gobber was a state of anger that made the wattle look very red.

The gamecock, as cool as a cucumber, Mrs. Ormsby said, but as the added food of the turkey, she was not to be deterred by the racket, and he kept on with his noise as if he were not aware that the gobber was a state of anger that made the wattle look very red.

SMALL CLAIMS ARE EXEMPT. None Less Than 1-8 Inches Thick Can Be Sold.

Hotels and Restaurants Likely to Suffer from the Act. Restaurant-keepers who do a large business in selling claims may suffer from the enforcement of the clam act passed by the Legislature of 1883 in New York, prohibiting the catching or selling of claims less than one and one-eighth inches in thickness.

Commissioner of Fisheries Lawrence D. Huntington has made public a letter in which he calls attention of those interested to the act, so as to avoid as far as possible the punishment of people through ignorance of the law. He says in this letter that the law will be rigidly enforced, and his fish and game protectors have all received instructions to keep a close watch on the clam industry.

Several of the downtown restaurant-keepers were seen to-day with reference to Commissioner Huntington's letter. It was thought that as most lovers of the bivalve preferred very small ones, the business of the restaurant-keepers might be affected.

POINTERS ON THE RACES. The Colleen Stakes and Hackensack Handicap To-Day's Features.

Beldemere and Ajax Apparently Have the Call. The features of racing at Monmouth Park to-day are the Colleen Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, and the Hackensack Handicap, for three-year-olds. Ajax looks a good thing in the latter race, as a very poor lot are pitted against him.

In the Colleen, Beldemere ought to lead to score brackets. She is in at very easy odds. Her top weight, Lady Rosemary, and Kensington, look to be handicapped out of it.

The opening dash has Kingston, Tormentor, Vestibule and White Rose entered. This is sufficient guarantee that a good start will be made. Kingston and White Rose are the favorites. Kingston is the second race ought to go well, and the meeting between Marlborough, Metuchen and Lord, May Day Stone and the Ironmaster, ought to be interesting.

The track will be dry and fast. The entries and selections are as follows: First Race.—A sweepstakes of $15 each, with $1,000 added; five furlongs. 2A.
