

ANDREWS IN OFFICE.

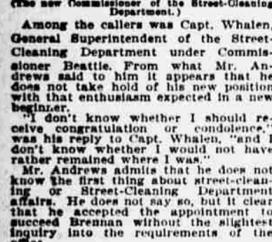

The New Street-Cleaning Commissioner Receives Congratulations.

He is Blissfully Ignorant as to His New Duties.

William S. Andrews, the new Commissioner of the Department of Street-Cleaning, formally took charge of his office in the Stewart Building this morning.

He took his seat at the desk formerly occupied by Commissioner Brennan, which was adorned with a floral horseshoe sent by his late associates in the Excelsior Board.

There were also several letters and telegrams of congratulation, and a number of friends were waiting to shake hands with him and wish him success in his new field.

W. S. ANDREWS, the new Commissioner of the Street-Cleaning Department.

Among the callers was Capt. Whalen, General Superintendent of the Street-Cleaning Department under Commissioner Beattie.

From what Mr. Andrews said to-day it appears that he does not take hold of his new position with that enthusiasm expected in a new incumbent.

"I don't know whether I should receive congratulations or condolence," he said in reply to Capt. Whalen and I don't know whether I would not have rather remained where I was.

Mr. Andrews admits that he does not know the first thing about street-cleaning or Street-Cleaning Department affairs. He did not say so, but it is clear that he accepted the appointment to succeed Brennan with a certain amount of inquiry into the requirements of the office.

He knows there is a deficiency, but as to the extent of it, or whether it can be made up, or whether the city would have to go without street-cleaning for the rest of the year, if the money gave out in November, he is unable to say.

He is aware that there is a deficiency, but as to the extent of it, or whether it can be made up, or whether the city would have to go without street-cleaning for the rest of the year, if the money gave out in November, he is unable to say.

Mr. Andrews did not even know the location of the office of the Street-Cleaning Department. He was going to take the elevator to the fourth floor of the Stewart Building, but he found the Street-Cleaning Department offices used by other employees.

HELD UP BY HIS COMPANIONS.

Wm. Saltus Garrotted by Two Men Who Asked Him to Drink.

Daring Midnight Crime in the Shades of Twenty-sixth Street.

William Saltus, of 144 East Nineteenth street, was held up and robbed as he was passing through Twenty-sixth street, between Broadway and Sixth avenue, at an early hour this morning by two men, one of whom he knew.

Saltus says that one of the men, named Henry May, who lives where he does, sprang upon him and secured him arms, while the other man, named J. J. O'Brien, dealt him a blow which fell him to the ground and dazed him for some time.

The pair then searched his pockets, and, after taking his gold watch and chain, $5 in money and his keys, made off. "Followerman Heardon soon came along and Saltus told his story. He does not know where O'Brien lives, or anything about him.

Half an hour after May passed through Twenty-sixth street and began to search on Broadway as if he were looking for something that was lost during the robbery. Heardon was immediately arrested and taken to the police station. No trace could be found of O'Brien, and it is supposed that he fled.

In the Jefferson Market Court to-day Justice Hogan held May for trial in default of $200 bail. He is charged with the robbery of Saltus. Part of the stolen property was found in his possession.

Saltus has been the valet of C. H. Prentiss, of 31 West Twenty-third street. He says that he knew May from the valet's office, and that he met him with O'Brien late last night on Broadway and Twenty-sixth street.

They walked towards Sixth avenue. The valet then asserted and he advanced Twenty-sixth street grew darker. In the darkest spot the men attacked him. Saltus heard nothing but speak for some time after the assault.

WILL CONDEMN THE WELL. Residents Near Morningside Park to Be Stopped from Drinking the Water.

President Wilson posted an analysis this morning made two days ago from a sample of water taken from a well in Morningside Park at One Hundred and Twenty-second street. The well will be condemned. It was found to contain water that was poisonous.

Chlorine was added to the water, but it was found that the water was still poisonous. This is also substantiated by the presence of free ammonia in an abnormal quantity and through the presence of nitrites, of the latter of which there is .040, estimated in parts of 100,000.

SIAM WILL PROBABLY YIELD.

French Gunboats Ready in Case of a Refusal.

New Too Late for France to Modify Her Demands.

LONDON, July 22.—The Bangkok correspondent of the Daily Chronicle, says: "The concession of the French demands tomorrow (Saturday) is probable, although a section of the Siamese Cabinet counsels defiance. The French gunboats are making special preparations for the event of a refusal.

"The British Minister has warned British subjects, in view of the critical situation, that the Siamese navy will be unable to afford any protection, and will undoubtedly be captured in the event of fighting.

"The landing of foreign troops is regarded as probable. The acting Governor of the district near Luang Prabang is acting in the French interests."

PARIS, July 22.—The Times' special correspondent to Bangkok writes: "The Siamese Chief, Prapitcha, commanding at Khong, sent a flag of truce on Tuesday to the French captain begging him to cease firing, as, according to Prapitcha's advice from Bangkok, a French Admiral had arrived there to treat for peace.

"The captain replied that he was without instructions, but would cease as soon as the Siamese forts should be abandoned. The result is unknown in Saigon."

LONDON, July 22.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "M. Develle, even if desirous of no doing after seeing the Marquis of Dufferin, can only modify his demands on Siam, before the forty-eight hours allowed for Siam's answer to the ultimatum shall have expired. Then, however, French action will be irrevocably fixed.

"This makes it easier to express amicable opinions on the Marquis of Dufferin's part, but the appointment of which will be that the appointment of M. Decearis, formerly Ambassador to Australia, as Ambassador to England, will be gazetted forthwith."

THE VICTORIA COURT-MARTIAL ADJOURNS UNTIL MONDAY.

VALETTA, Malta, July 22.—The court-martial that is inquiring into the loss of the battleship Victoria, met to-day, but no evidence was taken. The court adjourned until Monday.

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

Camden Stakes and Harvest Handicap at Monmouth To-Day.

Assigne and Banquet Appear the Best and May Win.

The Harvest Handicap and the Camden Stakes will be held at Monmouth Park to-day. Both promise to be hotly contested races from start to finish. Banquet, Pickpocket, Blipner, Hiltzen, Mars and Caribad are named to go in the Harvest Handicap.

The other events are equally interesting. Kilder, Tampago, Comanche, Soundmore, Fairy and Reckon ought to go well in the second race, at seven furlongs, and a great field of two-year-olds in the opening event will start things in race shape, while the closing race ought to furnish a hot finish between Wah Jim, Merry Monarch, Sir Matthew and Top Gallant.

The track will be dry and fast. The entries and selections are as follows: First Race.—A sweepstakes of $15 each, with $1,000 added, for two-year-olds, selling; five furlongs. 1. D. T. Puffer's Reckon, 115. 2. B. J. Puffer's Pickpocket, 113. 3. B. J. Puffer's Blipner, 112. 4. B. J. Puffer's Hiltzen, 111. 5. B. J. Puffer's Mars, 110. 6. B. J. Puffer's Caribad, 109. 7. B. J.
