

STORAGE BATTERY HAS A BOOM. A MOB FOLLOWED ROELANDT.

Cars May Be Resumed in This and Other Cities Before Long. It Would Have Used Him Roughly but for Police.

Importance of the Decision in Regard to the Faure Patent. Held on the Charge of Assaulting a Woman.

The storage battery will receive a great impetus in this country from the decision rendered by the Supreme Court in the United States Circuit Court at Trenton yesterday, bringing to a close one of the most prolonged and expensive patent litigations on record.

President William Bracken, of the Consolidated, said to an "Evening World" reporter yesterday that he has no doubt that storage battery traction will be resumed in New York and other cities when it was suspended by the decision of 1888, enjoining the Julien Motor Company from using the battery on cars.

In 1888 the Accumulator Company, of Philadelphia, sued the Julien Electric Company, which had introduced storage cars on the Madison avenue line, for infringement of the Faure storage battery patent. The Julien Electric Company obtained an injunction against the Julien Company, which stopped the running of the cars.

Shortly after this the Julien Electric Company went out of business, and its plants and other property were transferred to the Consolidated Electric Storage Company, which has offices at 44 Broad street.

The latter Company assumed the defendant's liability, and having secured a patent by the same inventor, Faure, for the same invention, was about to expire at Madrid, took steps to declare the patent null and void, on the ground that the American patent is limited to the life of a foreign patent.

Testimony was taken at Madrid. The case was argued by the American and the British side, and a decision was rendered by the court, declaring the American patent expired. On this decision Judge Green rendered a similar judgment in New Jersey, and the Consolidated Electric Storage Company.

President Bracken admits that he has formulated plans to resume the storage battery for street cars in this and other cities in the near future. His plans have not been abandoned, and he declined, in consequence, to make them public.

Attendance Must Be Largely Increased to Pay the Way. CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—The World's Fair is feeling the financial squeeze. A new committee has been appointed, with greater powers than the Council of Administration. It has been formed to cut expenses.

President Higginbotham refuses to approve the committee, and there is a heap of trouble. The daily expenses are still $16,000, and the Directors want the amount cut.

The managers find themselves reckoning only how they may be able to pay their debts. All thoughts of reimbursing stockholders or taking up the bonds of the city seem to have been abandoned. This conclusion is reached on the following estimate of resources and liabilities, which is considered by conservative directors reasonable:

Liabilities—Twelve months' interest at 6 per cent, on $144,550, $26,700; operating expenses, at $15,000, $1,170,000; floating in obligations, $1,000,000; debt, $1,444,500; total, $6,881,200.

Resources—From gate receipts, at an average of 100,000 daily attendance, $1,000,000; from concessions, $1,500,000; salvage, $800,000; estimated premium on souvenir cards, $250,000; total, $3,350,000.

An additional resource is some material on the grounds not counted in the above table, the estimated value of which is $200,000. Should this be realized, the table shows a deficit of $2,000,000, besides the $1,000,000 of stock and Chicago bonds.

To reach this figure it has been figured necessary to put the average daily attendance henceforward at 100,000. This figure is 26,000, or 33 per cent, in excess of the average attendance up to Aug. 1. The outlook is bad.

LET THE SMUGGLERS ESCAPE. A Stranger Tells a Queer Tale About the Smuggling of Diamonds.

The customs authorities are investigating the story of a man who rushed into the Barge Office last night and called for a detective, quick to arrest two men with whom he had come from Ellis Island on a ferryboat, and who, he said, had with them an immense lot of diamonds, which had smuggled from the five Groden went out with the man, but could not find the smugglers.

The informant said he had talked with the smugglers, and they had agreed to America in the steamer of the H. H. Mader, of Germany. The terms offered do not place much credit in the story.

Warship Etna Finally Sailed. MONTREAL, Aug. 2.—The Italian warship Etna was visited by large crowds yesterday, and the threat of Admiral Magaldi to leave the port unless a salute was fired in return to her salute on entering the port caused a sensation, but fortunately any unpleasantness was prevented by the firing of a salute this evening at the direction of the Minister of the Militia.

ALL READY FOR CONGRESS. Senate Chamber and Representatives' Hall Renovated.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—So far as the Chamber of the Senate and the House of Representatives are concerned, Congress could meet to-morrow.

In the Senate, under the orders of the new Sergeant at Arms, Col. Bright, the floor has been covered with matting, and has the appearance of a delightfully cool and inviting chamber. The ventilation has been greatly improved, and all through the building new pine has been laid.

The next House will consist of 100 members, and the Senate of 54. The House will convene at 10 o'clock to-morrow, and the Senate at 11 o'clock. The House will first take up the bill for the relief of the pensioners of the late General Sherman.

It is expected that the House will pass the bill for the relief of the pensioners of the late General Sherman to-morrow, and the Senate will pass it to-day.

CAN CONSUMPTION BE CURED? A New Discovery Tried and Tested for a Year.

Its Results Have Been Wonderful and There is a Positive Certainty That It Will Cure Consumption in the First Stages. The Plan Adopted for a Public Trial.

The announcement of the new discovery for the cure of consumption has been made in a responsible manner, and with the greatest interest by the entire public, as shown by the letters and inquiries showered upon the Copeland Institute.

The particular inquiry is concerning the plan decided upon to enable a lung sufferer to try this wonderful treatment, and it is again submitted that it may be thoroughly understood.

Each person who applies during August will be given a card of instructions and receipt for $3, the cost of a month's treatment, in full, and a responsible party will be held responsible for the payment of thirty days. If it be found that the patient has not improved, the card will be cashed for $3. Each card will bear this stamp in red letters across its face:

"This card entitles the patient to the return of $3 in thirty days if the treatment does not prove satisfactory."

We want every lung sufferer to try this treatment. The offer is from the first and only responsible party, and with the greatest interest by the entire public, as shown by the letters and inquiries showered upon the Copeland Institute.

BLOCKADE OF BANGKOK RAISED. Official Announcement Made to the House of Commons.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—Sir Edward Grey, Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign Office, announced in the House of Commons this afternoon that the French blockade at Bangkok has been raised to-day.

During the discussion following the announcement the Hon. George N. Curzon (Conservative, member for the Southport Division of Lancashire, said he doubted France's intention to execute her pledge to preserve the integrity of Siam. France had acted in a most arbitrary manner from the very outset of the trouble, and had shown scant consideration for her victim. The assurances given by France to England had not been kept.

Mr. Curzon concluded by declaring that the Foreign Office was on trial at the bar of public opinion. Sir Edward Grey reproached Mr. Curzon with trying to embarrass the Government while negotiations of a most delicate character were pending. The position of affairs, he said, required by no means to preserve the reserve. He was confident that it would be found when the results of the negotiations shall have been disclosed that the action of the Foreign Office had been as strong as Mr. Curzon could have desired.

This statement was greeted with cries of "Hear, hear."

LOCKED UP IN LONG ISLAND CITY Jail but a Few Hours. LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., Aug. 2.—Abram Levy, the New York boot and shoe dealer, who was arrested yesterday at Far Rockaway on the charge of defrauding creditors out of $2,000, was brought to the Queens County Jail at this place by a Deputy Sheriff.

He was locked up here for a few hours when he sent for his attorney and some friends in New York. They promptly responded, and he was released on $5,000 bail. His bondsmen are Charles Falkenberg, 201 East 10th street, and Joseph H. Hunter, of 125 West 10th street, both merchants of New York.
