

BROOKLYN NEWS.

GELHART IS IN JAIL.

Greene's Slayer's Examination Fixed for Next Saturday.

Two Bullets Found in the Body of His Victim.

His Wife's Lover's Room Filled with Mementos of Her.

A large crowd gathered in the Gates Avenue Police Court, Brooklyn, this morning, eager to see Policeman William T. Gelhart, who shot and killed John E. K. Greene, who, he had learned, had been intimate with his pretty wife.

Gelhart was brought from the Quincey street station by Detectives Moran and Anderson. They all rode in a carriage. Justice Goetting was on the bench when the party entered. The policeman was escorted into the clerk's private office to await the arrival of his lawyer, Jere Werbner.

The minor cases was disposed of before 10 o'clock, but the lawyer had not put in an appearance, so Justice Goetting ordered the prisoner to be arraigned.

MR. HATTIE GELHART.

Gelhart had exchanged his blue uniform for citizen's attire. He kept his eyes riveted upon the floor while the charge of murder was read to him. He entered a plea of not guilty, and at Justice Goetting's suggestion waived examination to go before the Grand Jury. As he was being led away by Lawyer Frank E. O'Reilly, Mr. Werbner's partner, came into court.

When he was taken back had taken place, he objected to the proceedings and had Gelhart arraigned again. On behalf of his client, he demanded an examination.

Justice Goetting set the hearing for next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Gelhart was not in court. Gelhart then left court, and re-entering the carriage was rapidly driven downtown to Police Headquarters. He was taken before Supt. Campbell, and then to the rooming house between them. Gelhart was then sent down to Raymond Street Jail.

Capt. Dunn made a report of the tragedy to Supt. Campbell this morning. When Mrs. Gelhart was taken to her house yesterday, three hours after the shooting, she was ushered into Capt. Dunn's office, where she was examined. She was then taken to her home, and her husband rushed towards him and threw herself into his arms. Both cried bitterly.

"Forgive me, Will," she begged. "I didn't intend to be unfaithful to you. Oh, God, I don't know what I was thinking. I don't forgive you," Gelhart replied. "I don't think you were to blame."

During the interview the woman admitted that she had been in the room at the time of the shooting.

One of the most energetic men seen about the Brooklyn Court-House is Gen. George W. Wingate, Gen. Wingate is doing as much work with his rifle as he did in days gone by, but is gunning extensively in the legal profession. His office is at 125 Broadway, near the elevated Railroad and numerous other corporations keep him on the jump.

Dr. Charles P. Gildersleeve, although a young man, is forging ahead rapidly as a surgeon. He is on the staff of St. Peter's Hospital, and has performed some delicate operations during the past year.

One of the unique figures seen in Brooklyn every day is that of Joseph Evans, or "Joe," as he is more familiarly known, a driver of the famous Green's vans, and has done this duty faithfully for a number of years. He is perfectly familiar with the criminal history of Brooklyn and can spin many a yarn about the various stores and personal experiences. Evans is quite a factor in Eighth Ward politics, too.

Young Harry Beecher looks as gay and festive as ever this year, although he is not at the head of the Crescent Athletic Club football team this season as in the past. He is on hand at all the games, however, ready to aid Capt. Sheldon in directing the movements of the team.

William Buckett, or "Billy" Buckett, as the boys call him in the various camps of the Knights of St. John and Malta in Brooklyn, is receiving rousing receptions at every encampment he visits. The graceful way in which he steps and dances, and his bearing, is one of the reasons why he is so popular. He has added largely to his popularity.

John H. Bock, of the First Ward, Brooklyn, is not only an old-time politician and Grand Army veteran, but also a bowler of considerable skill. He is a member of the Palestine Bowling Club.

One of the nearest title clubs in Brooklyn is the Logan Club of the Twenty-second Ward. It is less than a year old, but is making great progress. It is one of the masters of Republicanism on the Park slope.

Isaac M. Kapper, associated with Thomas E. Peasall in the law business, is one of the rising young lawyers of Brooklyn. He is exceedingly popular socially, and belongs to a number of fraternal and social organizations.

WORTHY OF THEIR NAME.

The Vigilants Defeat the Invincibles at Football.

A lively game of football was played at Benson and Twentieth avenues, Bensonhurst, L. I., today between the Vigilants and the Invincibles, the latter being the crack team of Long Island, and they had been training for some time for this game.

The game was played at the grounds at 1630 A. M., when the players, in spicuous new canvas suits, took the field. The Vigilants, under the leadership of Capt. John Van Pelt, forced the playing from the start, but the Invincibles, under Capt. Irving Kidder, put up a very stubborn game. All the scientific plays known to college experts were brought out, including the Harvard flying wedge.

The first half resulted in a touch-down for the Vigilants. The game, as in the second half try as they might, the Vigilants could not score against the Invincibles. The game ended with the score of 4 to 0, in favor of the Vigilants.

Capt. Van Pelt got a smash in the nose, but otherwise the game was without incidents.

SALZMAN DIDN'T GET HIS MONEY.

He Wants Lawyer Feuchtwanger Punished for Coatept.

Morris Salzman, an importer of liquors at Franklin and Greene streets, Brooklyn, has applied to the Supreme Court for an order to show cause why Lawyer Sigmund Feuchtwanger, of 13 Chambers street, this city, should not be punished for contempt. Salzman is alleged to have failed to deliver $100, which he was ordered to collect on behalf of Salzman.

Salzman retained Feuchtwanger to sue the Long Island Railroad Company for a charge of larceny. Feuchtwanger was to receive as compensation one-half of the amount recovered.

The matter was compromised for $100, which the railroad company paid over to Feuchtwanger. Salzman retained Lawyer Irving R. Bacon, of room 83 Puttler Building, to prosecute the claim against Feuchtwanger.

GLEASON WILL NOT DOWN.

Now He Will Go to Court to Get His Name on the Ticket.

Ex-Mayor Gleason, of Long Island City, directed his lawyer this morning to prepare an application to the Supreme Court for a mandamus to compel Clerk Sutphin to show cause why his name should not be registered as candidate for Senator on the regular Democratic ticket.

His failure to receive recognition at the State Convention, Gleason organized an anti-monopolist party, by which he was elected to the office of the First District. The Democrats of the District nominated Solomon B. Fulderson, but Gleason was elected by the vote of the majority.

Gleason and his followers were much disappointed at the result. He is now the Secretary of State in refusing to recognize Gleason as the regular Democratic candidate for Senator.

MONSELLSAYS HE IS INNOCENT.

He Will Go to Prison Before He Will Marry Lulu Tushill.

GREENPORT, L. I., Oct. 21.—Efforts are being made to settle the case of Mrs. Lulu Tushill, who had Alexander Monsell arrested on a serious charge. Monsell claims he is innocent. He says he will go to prison before he will marry Lulu or support her child.

Mrs. Tushill is now thirty years old and attractive. She is the daughter of a well-to-do retired ship builder.

Young Martin, a member of Trinity Church in Greenport, is known as a noted athlete at the east end of Long Island.

BROOKLYN GOSSIP.

Bits of News About People Worth Knowing.

One of the most energetic men seen about the Brooklyn Court-House is Gen. George W. Wingate, Gen. Wingate is doing as much work with his rifle as he did in days gone by, but is gunning extensively in the legal profession. His office is at 125 Broadway, near the elevated Railroad and numerous other corporations keep him on the jump.

Dr. Charles P. Gildersleeve, although a young man, is forging ahead rapidly as a surgeon. He is on the staff of St. Peter's Hospital, and has performed some delicate operations during the past year.

One of the unique figures seen in Brooklyn every day is that of Joseph Evans, or "Joe," as he is more familiarly known, a driver of the famous Green's vans, and has done this duty faithfully for a number of years. He is perfectly familiar with the criminal history of Brooklyn and can spin many a yarn about the various stores and personal experiences. Evans is quite a factor in Eighth Ward politics, too.

Young Harry Beecher looks as gay and festive as ever this year, although he is not at the head of the Crescent Athletic Club football team this season as in the past. He is on hand at all the games, however, ready to aid Capt. Sheldon in directing the movements of the team.

William Buckett, or "Billy" Buckett, as the boys call him in the various camps of the Knights of St. John and Malta in Brooklyn, is receiving rousing receptions at every encampment he visits. The graceful way in which he steps and dances, and his bearing, is one of the reasons why he is so popular. He has added largely to his popularity.

John H. Bock, of the First Ward, Brooklyn, is not only an old-time politician and Grand Army veteran, but also a bowler of considerable skill. He is a member of the Palestine Bowling Club.

One of the nearest title clubs in Brooklyn is the Logan Club of the Twenty-second Ward. It is less than a year old, but is making great progress. It is one of the masters of Republicanism on the Park slope.

WHERE IS CARL STEEN?

He Disappeared After Visiting His Wife's Grave.

Suicide or Fool Play Feared by His Family.

The relatives of Carl Steen, aged fifty-three, of 220 Twelfth street, Brooklyn, are very anxious to learn of his whereabouts, and have applied to "The Evening World" to aid them in their search.

Carl Steen, who lives with his aged mother and two sisters, left home last Saturday and nothing has been heard of him since late on that afternoon. He did not belong to any fraternal organization, and has never been out of the city.

Carl Steen was an artist, and until recently was employed at 40 Chatham street, Brooklyn. He was a little over a week ago when he was thrown out of employment on account of the dull times. He was a very good worker, and he became more depressed and acted more strangely than ever.

Last Saturday afternoon he went out, telling his mother that he was going to Green-Wood Cemetery to attend to his wife's grave.

When he left he wore a dark checked frock coat, a white shirt, a white necktie, and a white waistcoat. He was wearing a pair of black shoes and a pair of white socks. He was carrying a bag with him.

His mother, Mrs. Mary Van Slooten, is a widow, and she has two children, a boy and a girl. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian. She is a very good mother, and she is very fond of her children. She is a very good worker, and she is a very good Christian.

CONNORS HELD FOR ASSAULT.

Says He Doesn't Remember Scolding Norton's Children.

James Connors, who was arrested for severely scolding Thomas Norton's three young children, was arraigned before Justice O'Donnell, in Jersey City, this morning.

Connors and Norton got into a row at Norton's home, 40 Chatham street, last night. Both men were under the influence of liquor. Connors got worst of it, and he was arrested for assault on Norton's children, who were playing on the floor.

Connors said this morning that he did not remember just what took place last night, but he was sure he never intended to scold the children. He was on a charge of assault and battery.

He was held for five days, and he was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail. He was released on $1000 bail.

WILL ALLIE SAVE HIM?

Bicycle Fancier Folsom's "Own Darling" Keeps Out of Sight.

Miss Alice Thompson, to whom Henry S. Folsom, under arrest in Jersey City, is said to be very attached, wrote a letter yesterday, asking her to raise $50 or $75 to get him out of his difficulty, could not be found this morning.

The letter was written by Folsom, who signed his name as "Jack." In his cell in the Jersey City County Jail, in the room which he occupies, he had had together. He wrote that he had been arrested for receiving a stolen bicycle, and that he was in a very bad way.

Miss Thompson boarded at 227 West Forty-eighth street, that house it was said that Miss Thompson has been boarding there only for two weeks. She was not home when a reporter called this morning.

It is believed that the alleged bicycle thief is very much in need of help, even though he and his marine glass are on the shore of Jersey or Long Island, miles and miles away from the yacht, but he is not infallible, and infallibility is an absolute essential to a modern newspaper.

The trained eye of the old yachtman reporter is very much in need of help, even though he and his marine glass are on the shore of Jersey or Long Island, miles and miles away from the yacht, but he is not infallible, and infallibility is an absolute essential to a modern newspaper.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

The success of the pigeon messenger service, by which "The Evening World" displaced all its competitors in its reports of the America's Cup yacht races, is still the chief topic among newspaper makers. The little feathered Mercury didn't do it all, but they did get their share, and they did it so well that "The Evening World" was enabled to give a fuller and more complete account of the exciting contests, viewed from various points of vantage, than any of its contemporaries.

FEATHERED MERCURIES.

Homing Pigeons That Brought News of the Yacht Races.