

TWO ON THE MURDER.

Newark Police Have That Theory of Miss Petty's Death.

Colored Men Who Robbed Her Two Years Ago Suspected.

Drass Door Knob Found with Which Wounds Were Inflicted.

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 23.—The Newark police, under the direction of Chief Hopper, are on their mettle to-day, and every effort is being made to unravel the mystery connected with the murder of old Elizabeth Petty, the miser and recluse who was found dead yesterday in her home at 78 Commerce street.

It was learned by an "Evening World" reporter shortly before noon that Chief Hopper had a leaning towards the theory that the crime may have been committed by two colored men, who were employed by the Board of Health two years ago to clean up the premises.

It was not long after this that the woman's home was entered and robbed of a small amount of money. One of the colored men was arrested at the time, but Miss Petty refused to make any charge against him.

On the occasion of the robbery two years ago, when Miss Petty was assaulted by the burglars, she had been sitting on a strand, leaving a lighted lamp downstairs.

When she returned the light was gone from the hall, and she saw its reflection in one of the upper rooms.

She fearfully went upstairs and was knocked down by the burglars. Her room was on that occasion found to be empty, when she entered her home on the night of the murder she at once made a light herself, without attempting to call for assistance.

As yet the only tangible thing which the detectives have to work upon is the door knob, which was found in all probability, the wounds on the woman's head were made.

It is a brass door knob with a steel shank six inches long, which terminates in a screw thread. The knob is covered with blood, and is wrapped in a cloth which is tied around it.

County Physician Elliott, who prepared the autopsy on the body last night, is of the opinion that the wounds on the left temple and neck were made by the end of the steel shank, which was thrust repeatedly against the woman's head.

The wounds are not deep enough to be made by any but a blunt instrument.

The door-knob in the police think, one of several which it is known Miss Petty had about her house and sometimes carried on her person apparently for self-protection. It was found on the floor near the pool of blood in the front hall, and was found from all that can be learned the murder was committed.

Chief Hopper will not disclose the nature of the theory as to who are the murderers, for he is positive two men did the deed, and he has no opinion as to how the crime was committed.

There is little doubt, he says, that the murderer gained an entry into the house from the rear cellar door during Miss Petty's absence. The fresh blood on the bread, as crumpled in the brown paper, found on the floor in the hall, leads him to believe that she had gone out to buy the bread when the door-chain who killed her entered the house.

It must have taken at least twenty minutes to white through the door at the top of the cellar stairs, so as to obtain the purchase on the door-lamb necessary to break the door-chain which was on the inside. This would necessitate Miss Petty being absent on her errand to the baker's something like half an hour.

It is interesting to note this morning that Police Commissioner Brodick, of the First Precinct, whose post is in the neighborhood of the murdered woman's house, saw Miss Petty on Monday evening.

The exact time when he saw her Chief Hopper does not seem to disclose just how the crime was committed.

There is also a report not yet verified that Miss Petty was seen by a clerk named Holmes making a purchase in the notion store of Hahn & Co., at Broad and Halsey streets, on Monday evening.

Holmes could not be found this morning, but if he did see the woman on Christmas Day that was the last time she was ever on the street. Dr. Elliott said to-day that the woman had been dead from thirty-six to forty-eight hours when found yesterday morning about 3 o'clock.

The fact that three of her ribs were broken clinches the doctor's argument.

Beecham's pills are for biliousness sick headache bilious headache bad taste in the mouth dyspepsia coated tongue sour stomach loss of appetite torpid liver loss of appetite dizziness piles

when caused by constipation; and constipation is the most frequent cause of all of them.

Book free; pills 25c. At drugstores.

SAYS SHE KILLED HERSELF.

Wife-Murderer Freeholder Feared Instant Execution.

Admitted While Intoxicated that He Hacked Her to Death.

Christian Freeholder, trembling from the effects of debauch and crazed with fear at the probable consequences of the crime of murder, with which he stands charged, was arraigned before Justice Grady in the Yorkville Court today for killing his wife.

Christian Freeholder, trembling from the effects of debauch and crazed with fear at the probable consequences of the crime of murder, with which he stands charged, was arraigned before Justice Grady in the Yorkville Court today for killing his wife.

Chief Hopper is trying first to learn if possible the nature of the property taken from the house of four more than Miss Petty had bank-notes of large denominations, and that these only were taken from the house, which would be a comparatively easy matter to locate the criminal.

Superintendent of Police Brown, Chief Hopper and Detectives Strahly and Lewis made another examination of the premises today. In a closet opening off one of the third-story rooms was found the dead body of a woman wearing a red dress and a white apron. On a shelf in the room were a number of cigars, which had never been opened, scattered about the floor was a considerable amount of money in silver and bills.

It was learned by an "Evening World" reporter shortly before noon that Chief Hopper had a leaning towards the theory that the crime may have been committed by two colored men, who were employed by the Board of Health two years ago to clean up the premises.

It was not long after this that the woman's home was entered and robbed of a small amount of money. One of the colored men was arrested at the time, but Miss Petty refused to make any charge against him.

On the occasion of the robbery two years ago, when Miss Petty was assaulted by the burglars, she had been sitting on a strand, leaving a lighted lamp downstairs.

When she returned the light was gone from the hall, and she saw its reflection in one of the upper rooms.

She fearfully went upstairs and was knocked down by the burglars. Her room was on that occasion found to be empty, when she entered her home on the night of the murder she at once made a light herself, without attempting to call for assistance.

As yet the only tangible thing which the detectives have to work upon is the door knob, which was found in all probability, the wounds on the woman's head were made.

It is a brass door knob with a steel shank six inches long, which terminates in a screw thread. The knob is covered with blood, and is wrapped in a cloth which is tied around it.

County Physician Elliott, who prepared the autopsy on the body last night, is of the opinion that the wounds on the left temple and neck were made by the end of the steel shank, which was thrust repeatedly against the woman's head.

The wounds are not deep enough to be made by any but a blunt instrument.

The door-knob in the police think, one of several which it is known Miss Petty had about her house and sometimes carried on her person apparently for self-protection. It was found on the floor near the pool of blood in the front hall, and was found from all that can be learned the murder was committed.

Chief Hopper will not disclose the nature of the theory as to who are the murderers, for he is positive two men did the deed, and he has no opinion as to how the crime was committed.

There is little doubt, he says, that the murderer gained an entry into the house from the rear cellar door during Miss Petty's absence. The fresh blood on the bread, as crumpled in the brown paper, found on the floor in the hall, leads him to believe that she had gone out to buy the bread when the door-chain who killed her entered the house.

It must have taken at least twenty minutes to white through the door at the top of the cellar stairs, so as to obtain the purchase on the door-lamb necessary to break the door-chain which was on the inside. This would necessitate Miss Petty being absent on her errand to the baker's something like half an hour.

It is interesting to note this morning that Police Commissioner Brodick, of the First Precinct, whose post is in the neighborhood of the murdered woman's house, saw Miss Petty on Monday evening.

The exact time when he saw her Chief Hopper does not seem to disclose just how the crime was committed.

There is also a report not yet verified that Miss Petty was seen by a clerk named Holmes making a purchase in the notion store of Hahn & Co., at Broad and Halsey streets, on Monday evening.

Holmes could not be found this morning, but if he did see the woman on Christmas Day that was the last time she was ever on the street. Dr. Elliott said to-day that the woman had been dead from thirty-six to forty-eight hours when found yesterday morning about 3 o'clock.

The fact that three of her ribs were broken clinches the doctor's argument.

Beecham's pills are for biliousness sick headache bilious headache bad taste in the mouth dyspepsia coated tongue sour stomach loss of appetite torpid liver loss of appetite dizziness piles

when caused by constipation; and constipation is the most frequent cause of all of them.

Book free; pills 25c. At drugstores.

SEEKING MILNER'S BODY.

Large Gang of Men at Work at the Pearl Street Ruins.

The Brave Fire Patrol Man Lost His Life in Performing His Duty.

The body of brave Gus Milner, the member of Insurance Patrol No. 1, who lost his life while performing his duty at the fire in August Valen's picture frame factory, 437 West street, late last night, was not recovered up to noon today.

T. P. Galligan, contractor, of 528 East Seventeenth street, has thirty-five men at work taking out the debris. They have cleared away fifty feet of rubbish, but the body has buried thirty-five feet further back under the ground. Five feet of rubble was used as a platform.

Milner was a great favorite with his neighbors, and he had a family of three children, one of whom is only two weeks old. He had recently bought a lot in Flatbush, L. I., and had built a house upon it on the installment plan. He lived there with his family very happily. He was always a very cheerful and kind man, and he had frequently been called upon to help his neighbors. He sent a messenger to Flatbush to break the bad news to the stricken family.

Milner held one end of a tarpaulin, the other being held by the ground. Five feet of rubble was used as a platform. Suddenly the ceiling came down, completely burying the body of the fireman. The others, particularly Donovan, these latter were soon rescued by their comrades, but the body of Milner was not recovered up to noon today.

Chief Hopper is trying first to learn if possible the nature of the property taken from the house of four more than Miss Petty had bank-notes of large denominations, and that these only were taken from the house, which would be a comparatively easy matter to locate the criminal.

Superintendent of Police Brown, Chief Hopper and Detectives Strahly and Lewis made another examination of the premises today. In a closet opening off one of the third-story rooms was found the dead body of a woman wearing a red dress and a white apron. On a shelf in the room were a number of cigars, which had never been opened, scattered about the floor was a considerable amount of money in silver and bills.

It was learned by an "Evening World" reporter shortly before noon that Chief Hopper had a leaning towards the theory that the crime may have been committed by two colored men, who were employed by the Board of Health two years ago to clean up the premises.

It was not long after this that the woman's home was entered and robbed of a small amount of money. One of the colored men was arrested at the time, but Miss Petty refused to make any charge against him.

On the occasion of the robbery two years ago, when Miss Petty was assaulted by the burglars, she had been sitting on a strand, leaving a lighted lamp downstairs.

When she returned the light was gone from the hall, and she saw its reflection in one of the upper rooms.

She fearfully went upstairs and was knocked down by the burglars. Her room was on that occasion found to be empty, when she entered her home on the night of the murder she at once made a light herself, without attempting to call for assistance.

As yet the only tangible thing which the detectives have to work upon is the door knob, which was found in all probability, the wounds on the woman's head were made.

It is a brass door knob with a steel shank six inches long, which terminates in a screw thread. The knob is covered with blood, and is wrapped in a cloth which is tied around it.

County Physician Elliott, who prepared the autopsy on the body last night, is of the opinion that the wounds on the left temple and neck were made by the end of the steel shank, which was thrust repeatedly against the woman's head.

The wounds are not deep enough to be made by any but a blunt instrument.

The door-knob in the police think, one of several which it is known Miss Petty had about her house and sometimes carried on her person apparently for self-protection. It was found on the floor near the pool of blood in the front hall, and was found from all that can be learned the murder was committed.

Chief Hopper will not disclose the nature of the theory as to who are the murderers, for he is positive two men did the deed, and he has no opinion as to how the crime was committed.

There is little doubt, he says, that the murderer gained an entry into the house from the rear cellar door during Miss Petty's absence. The fresh blood on the bread, as crumpled in the brown paper, found on the floor in the hall, leads him to believe that she had gone out to buy the bread when the door-chain who killed her entered the house.

It must have taken at least twenty minutes to white through the door at the top of the cellar stairs, so as to obtain the purchase on the door-lamb necessary to break the door-chain which was on the inside. This would necessitate Miss Petty being absent on her errand to the baker's something like half an hour.

It is interesting to note this morning that Police Commissioner Brodick, of the First Precinct, whose post is in the neighborhood of the murdered woman's house, saw Miss Petty on Monday evening.

The exact time when he saw her Chief Hopper does not seem to disclose just how the crime was committed.

There is also a report not yet verified that Miss Petty was seen by a clerk named Holmes making a purchase in the notion store of Hahn & Co., at Broad and Halsey streets, on Monday evening.

Holmes could not be found this morning, but if he did see the woman on Christmas Day that was the last time she was ever on the street. Dr. Elliott said to-day that the woman had been dead from thirty-six to forty-eight hours when found yesterday morning about 3 o'clock.

The fact that three of her ribs were broken clinches the doctor's argument.

Beecham's pills are for biliousness sick headache bilious headache bad taste in the mouth dyspepsia coated tongue sour stomach loss of appetite torpid liver loss of appetite dizziness piles

when caused by constipation; and constipation is the most frequent cause of all of them.

Book free; pills 25c. At drugstores.

STAYED THE FORECLOSURE.

The Lipshitz Brothers Showed a Gun and Knife to Goldman.

Manassa Goldman, a real estate dealer, of 27 Eldridge street, made a charge of disorderly conduct against Morris and Louis Lipshitz, brothers, of 11 Allen street, in Essex Market Police Court today.

Goldman loaned the Lipshitz brothers some money to-day, and took mortgage on the fixtures for the money. Business was very bad, and the Lipshitz brothers were unable to pay the mortgage to Goldman, who tried to foreclose the mortgage yesterday, taking with him a revolver and a knife to the auctioneer, to sell out the fixtures.

The Lipshitz brothers became so enraged that they threatened to kill Goldman unless he and the auctioneer left the store. Louis Lipshitz pointed a revolver at Goldman, and his brother went at him with a large knife.

Policeman Dooley, of the Eldridge street station, and the brother Justice Voorhis held them in default of $300 bail to keep the peace for the next six months.

It was learned by an "Evening World" reporter shortly before noon that Chief Hopper had a leaning towards the theory that the crime may have been committed by two colored men, who were employed by the Board of Health two years ago to clean up the premises.

It was not long after this that the woman's home was entered and robbed of a small amount of money. One of the colored men was arrested at the time, but Miss Petty refused to make any charge against him.

On the occasion of the robbery two years ago, when Miss Petty was assaulted by the burglars, she had been sitting on a strand, leaving a lighted lamp downstairs.

When she returned the light was gone from the hall, and she saw its reflection in one of the upper rooms.

She fearfully went upstairs and was knocked down by the burglars. Her room was on that occasion found to be empty, when she entered her home on the night of the murder she at once made a light herself, without attempting to call for assistance.

As yet the only tangible thing which the detectives have to work upon is the door knob, which was found in all probability, the wounds on the woman's head were made.

It is a brass door knob with a steel shank six inches long, which terminates in a screw thread. The knob is covered with blood, and is wrapped in a cloth which is tied around it.

County Physician Elliott, who prepared the autopsy on the body last night, is of the opinion that the wounds on the left temple and neck were made by the end of the steel shank, which was thrust repeatedly against the woman's head.

The wounds are not deep enough to be made by any but a blunt instrument.

The door-knob in the police think, one of several which it is known Miss Petty had about her house and sometimes carried on her person apparently for self-protection. It was found on the floor near the pool of blood in the front hall, and was found from all that can be learned the murder was committed.

Chief Hopper will not disclose the nature of the theory as to who are the murderers, for he is positive two men did the deed, and he has no opinion as to how the crime was committed.

There is little doubt, he says, that the murderer gained an entry into the house from the rear cellar door during Miss Petty's absence. The fresh blood on the bread, as crumpled in the brown paper, found on the floor in the hall, leads him to believe that she had gone out to buy the bread when the door-chain who killed her entered the house.

It must have taken at least twenty minutes to white through the door at the top of the cellar stairs, so as to obtain the purchase on the door-lamb necessary to break the door-chain which was on the inside. This would necessitate Miss Petty being absent on her errand to the baker's something like half an hour.

It is interesting to note this morning that Police Commissioner Brodick, of the First Precinct, whose post is in the neighborhood of the murdered woman's house, saw Miss Petty on Monday evening.

The exact time when he saw her Chief Hopper does not seem to disclose just how the crime was committed.

There is also a report not yet verified that Miss Petty was seen by a clerk named Holmes making a purchase in the notion store of Hahn & Co., at Broad and Halsey streets, on Monday evening.

Holmes could not be found this morning, but if he did see the woman on Christmas Day that was the last time she was ever on the street. Dr. Elliott said to-day that the woman had been dead from thirty-six to forty-eight hours when found yesterday morning about 3 o'clock.

The fact that three of her ribs were broken clinches the doctor's argument.

Beecham's pills are for biliousness sick headache bilious headache bad taste in the mouth dyspepsia coated tongue sour stomach loss of appetite torpid liver loss of appetite dizziness piles

when caused by constipation; and constipation is the most frequent cause of all of them.

Book free; pills 25c. At drugstores.

It was learned by an "Evening World" reporter shortly before noon that Chief Hopper had a leaning towards the theory that the crime may have been committed by two colored men, who were employed by the Board of Health two years ago to clean up the premises.

It was not long after this that the woman's home was entered and robbed of a small amount of money. One of the colored men was arrested at the time, but Miss Petty refused to make any charge against him.

On the occasion of the robbery two years ago, when Miss Petty was assaulted by the burglars, she had been sitting on a strand, leaving a lighted lamp downstairs.

When she returned the light was gone from the hall, and she saw its reflection in one of the upper rooms.

She fearfully went upstairs and was knocked down by the burglars. Her room was on that occasion found to be empty, when she entered her home on the night of the murder she at once made a light herself, without attempting to call for assistance.

As yet the only tangible thing which the detectives have to work upon is the door knob, which was found in all probability, the wounds on the woman's head were made.

It is a brass door knob with a steel shank six inches long, which terminates in a screw thread. The knob is covered with blood, and is wrapped in a cloth which is tied around it.

County Physician Elliott, who prepared the autopsy on the body last night, is of the opinion that the wounds on the left temple and neck were made by the end of the steel shank, which was thrust repeatedly against the woman's head.

The wounds are not deep enough to be made by any but a blunt instrument.

The door-knob in the police think, one of several which it is known Miss Petty had about her house and sometimes carried on her person apparently for self-protection. It was found on the floor near the pool of blood in the front hall, and was found from all that can be learned the murder was committed.

Chief Hopper will not disclose the nature of the theory as to who are the murderers, for he is positive two men did the deed, and he has no opinion as to how the crime was committed.

There is little doubt, he says, that the murderer gained an entry into the house from the rear cellar door during Miss Petty's absence. The fresh blood on the bread, as crumpled in the brown paper, found on the floor in the hall, leads him to believe that she had gone out to buy the bread when the door-chain who killed her entered the house.

It must have taken at least twenty minutes to white through the door at the top of the cellar stairs, so as to obtain the purchase on the door-lamb necessary to break the door-chain which was on the inside. This would necessitate Miss Petty being absent on her errand to the baker's something like half an hour.

It is interesting to note this morning that Police Commissioner Brodick, of the First Precinct, whose post is in the neighborhood of the murdered woman's house, saw Miss Petty on Monday evening.

The exact time when he saw her Chief Hopper does not seem to disclose just how the crime was committed.

There is also a report not yet verified that Miss Petty was seen by a clerk named Holmes making a purchase in the notion store of Hahn & Co., at Broad and Halsey streets, on Monday evening.

Holmes could not be found this morning, but if he did see the woman on Christmas Day that was the last time she was ever on the street. Dr. Elliott said to-day that the woman had been dead from thirty-six to forty-eight hours when found yesterday morning about 3 o'clock.

The fact that three of her ribs were broken clinches the doctor's argument.

Beecham's pills are for biliousness sick headache bilious headache bad taste in the mouth dyspepsia coated tongue sour stomach loss of appetite torpid liver loss of appetite dizziness piles

when caused by constipation; and constipation is the most frequent cause of all of them.

Book free; pills 25c. At drugstores.

What does it mean? With us, it means a suit faultlessly cut in correct style, silk lined throughout! To you, it means the correct thing for $25.00.

Our "Vorke" Overcoat (Rebater) is still the leading garment of the season. Good ones at $20.00; better ones at $25.00 and $27.50.

Byck Brothers CLOTHIERS, S. W. Cor. 160, 125 and 164 Fulton & Nassau Sts. East 12th St.

MR. ANDREWS APOLOGIZES. Then He Gets the $12,000 for That Little Deficiency.

Board of Estimate Will Pay Columbian Claims in Full.

Street-Cleaning Commissioner Andrews made an apology to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment today, for the brief and forcible remarks he made before the Board at its last meeting.

Mr. Andrews said he did not intend to be discourteous to any member of the Board, and regretted the remarks he made. After speaking his little piece he hastened from the room.

Mr. Barker, with whom Mr. Andrews exchanged compliments, made no reply. He merely stared at Mr. Andrews.

Afterwards the Board transferred $12,000, which Mr. Andrews asked for, and which resulted in the row and subsequent apology, from the lamps and gas account. The Board also ordered the Mayor's back room to be cleared out.

CHOLERA MIXTURE IN THE BILL FOR STATIONERY.

The Commission appointed by the Legislature to audit and legalize the bills for repairs on Justice Haggerty's court reviewed this morning to continue the work begun yesterday.

THE SENATE HAWAIIAN INQUIRY. Is It to Bear on the Desirability of Annexation?

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—The air of mystery assumed by the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations in its Hawaiian investigation has caused the impression to get abroad that the Morgan resolution, under which the inquiry is held, is merely a cloak for a much more important inquiry as to the alleged irregularity of our diplomatic relations with those islands.

FIRE AT CHAPPAQUA. A Barrel Factory and Several Other Buildings Destroyed.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Dec. 23.—A large barrel factory was totally destroyed by fire at Chappaqua last night. The fire extended to several adjoining buildings and they were destroyed.

British Steamer Cornhill Sunk in a Collision. GIBRALTAR, Dec. 23.—The British steamer Cornhill collided to-day with the tugboat "Hull" in the Bay of Cádiz, and the Cornhill sank; her crew was saved.

Hungary's Minister of National Defense Resigns. BERLIN, Dec. 23.—The Empress of Germany, at noon to-day, received United States Ambassador Theodore Runyon and Mrs. Runyon.

Bloomingdale's New Year's Aprons.

An elegant assortment of New Year's Aprons, trimmed with lace and ribbons, from 50c up.

Also a lot of Ladies' Imported Aprons, handsomely embroidered and put up in fancy boxes for New Year's presents, at 80c-98c and 1.25.

Our "Vorke" Overcoat (Rebater) is still the leading garment of the season. Good ones at $20.00; better ones at $25.00 and $27.50.

Byck Brothers CLOTHIERS, S. W. Cor. 160, 125 and 164 Fulton & Nassau Sts. East 12th St.

MR. ANDREWS APOLOGIZES. Then He Gets the $12,000 for That Little Deficiency.

Board of Estimate Will Pay Columbian Claims in Full.

Street-Cleaning Commissioner Andrews made an apology to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment today, for the brief and forcible remarks he made before the Board at its last meeting.

Mr. Andrews said he did not intend to be discourteous to any member of the Board, and regretted the remarks he made. After speaking his little piece he hastened from the room.

Mr. Barker, with whom Mr. Andrews exchanged compliments, made no reply. He merely stared at Mr. Andrews.

Afterwards the Board transferred $12,000, which Mr. Andrews asked for, and which resulted in the row and subsequent apology, from the lamps and gas account. The Board also ordered the Mayor's back room to be cleared out.

CHOLERA MIXTURE IN THE BILL FOR STATIONERY.

The Commission appointed by the Legislature to audit and legalize the bills for repairs on Justice Haggerty's court reviewed this morning to continue the work begun yesterday.

THE SENATE HAWAIIAN INQUIRY. Is It to Bear on the Desirability of Annexation?

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.—The air of mystery assumed by the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations in its Hawaiian investigation has caused the impression to get abroad that the Morgan resolution, under which the inquiry is held, is merely a cloak for a much more important inquiry as to the alleged irregularity of our diplomatic relations with those islands.

FIRE AT CHAPPAQUA. A Barrel Factory and Several Other Buildings Destroyed.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Dec. 23.—A large barrel factory was totally destroyed by fire at Chappaqua last night. The fire extended to several adjoining buildings and they were destroyed.

British Steamer Cornhill Sunk in a Collision. GIBRALTAR, Dec. 23.—The British steamer Cornhill collided to-day with the tugboat "Hull" in the Bay of Cádiz, and the Cornhill sank; her crew was saved.

Hungary's Minister of National Defense Resigns. BERLIN, Dec. 23.—The Empress of Germany, at noon to-day, received United States Ambassador Theodore Runyon and Mrs. Runyon.

RECEIVER'S SALE.

BY ORDER OF THE SUPREME COURT. VOGEL BROTHERS' Fine Stock of Winter Clothing and Furnishing Goods, consisting of Overcoats, Ulsters, Business Suits, Dress Suits, A very extensive line of Boys' and Childrens' Suits, Overcoats, and Ulsters, Gents' Macintoshes, Umbrellas, Canes, Smoking Jackets, House Coats, Fine Underwear, Hosiery, Gloves, Neckwear, Mufflers and Suspenders. Everything at Astonishingly Low Prices.