

POULTRY SHOW'S OPENING.

Over 4,000 High-Bred Feathered Beauties on Exhibition.

Indications That the Affair Will Be the Most Successful Held.

The fifth annual show of the New York Poultry and Pigeon Association opened this morning at 10 o'clock, at Madison Square Garden.

"THE WORLD'S" CHALLENGE CUP.

As early as daybreak this morning, the Garden was pandemonium itself. The crowing of the proud-looking, high-bred roosters, the cackle of the hens, the squawking and quacking of the ducks, geese and other water fowl, the rattle of the wire cages, and the sawing and hammering of the workmen made a noise that was deafening.

When the hour for the opening of the doors arrived several carriages of the fashionable patrons of the show were drawn up in front of the Madison Avenue entrance.

Among the prominent exhibitors are W. K. Vanderbilt, W. T. Levering, of Baltimore; Bradley Bros., of Lee, Va.; J. H. Thompson, of Paterson, N. J., and Adam G. Harding and Young, of East Orange, N. J.

One of the most valuable and artistic medals ever issued is that offered by "The World." It is a silver cup, handsomely and appropriately engraved, and is to be given to the exhibitor showing the best black-breasted game cock and hen.

There are two parallel rows of cages running the full length of the Garden, in which the exhibits of rabbits, pheasants, prairie dogs, &c., will be exhibited. Another interesting feature of the show is the incubator room. This is just to the right of the main entrance.

CRANE PLEADS GUILTY.

William A. Crane, the nineteen-year-old house thief, who was arrested by Central office detectives on Jan. 21, pleaded guilty before Judge Martine in Part I. of General Sessions this morning. He was remanded for sentence.

A number of people called at Police Headquarters this morning to see if they could identify some of the property stolen in this city and Philadelphia by Crane.

Late yesterday afternoon, after reading in "The Evening World" the story of the conviction of the property in the house, a First street, by Inspector McLaughlin's callers began to appear at the Central office.

The carrier in the hands of the police is a comparative novice, consisting of a large trunk, a smaller one, a box, and clothing. In the pawn tickets is a list of the contents of the trunk, including a watch, a ring, a pair of shoes, and a number of articles.

The carrier is visiting the pawnshops and confabulating the articles as expeditiously as possible.

Jersey City Ministers Cancel the Revival Engagement.

Ex-Gambler and Bride Return to the Goffs and Are Forgiven.

He Says He Did Not Do It for Sensational Effect.

It was learned this morning that the ministers of the Jersey City churches interested in the revival services planned to be held shortly by Evangelist E. F. Goff held a secret meeting last night and resolved to cancel the engagements.

The reason of the action is given out as being due to the opportunity growing out of the elopement of Evangelist Goff's daughter, Maude, with the reformed gambler, John P. Quinn, who assists Mr. Goff in his evangelical work.

The later known nothing of the action of the ministers this morning, but will probably be officially informed of it some time to-day.

Quinn and his bride returned to the parental roof in the palace car from Jersey City, this morning, and were forgiven. They took passage in Desbrosses street from New York at 11 o'clock, and reached the Pennsylvania depot at 11:15, where they were met by Mrs. Quinn's little brother, who conducted them through a side entrance to the private car. There was much shedding of tears, and the reconciliation was complete, although it cannot be said that Mr. Goff seemed particularly pleased. Mr. Goff takes the matter philosophically.

Quinn talked freely to an "Evening World" reporter this morning. He said he had no objection to the reporting of several months by means of long letters written daily to each other in the car. He was going on lest they should say he was too old or might send the girl to a convent.

"I intended at first to elope last Thursday," said Quinn, "but didn't have a good chance. The opportunity came last Monday. We crossed the Fourteenth street ferry and went by the Ninth Avenue car to One Hundred and Forty-fifth street, keeping apart all the time. We didn't talk until we were in the car. We were married Monday evening at 8 o'clock at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, in the Forty-fifth street car. Here Quinn produced his marriage certificate.

"We secured quarters in the Twenty-fourth street car, where we lived until this morning. The rumor that we eloped this morning is a sort of advertisement is not true. Nobody but God, Maude and me knew anything about it.

"Mrs. Quinn is decidedly pretty. She has a slight, trim figure and is very beautiful. I wouldn't sell her for a dollar, would you dear?" asked Quinn, patting her on the head. Her eyes dropped, and she looked decidedly annoyed.

Quinn says he is forty-seven years old. His hair is white and looks at least a year older than that.

CROOK CAUGHT IN DETROIT.

Charles H. Price, an Escaped Convict, is Wanted in Missouri.

DETROIT, Feb. 8.—Charles H. Price, alias John Porter, alias "Prentice" Taylor, alias Harrison, one of the most notorious and clever crooks in the country, was arrested here yesterday. Price is wanted in Missouri for the most interesting case of a train robbery committed near this place about six weeks ago. He is a fugitive from justice, having escaped eighteen months ago, after having served two years of a five-year term for robbing mail-boxes in Detroit in 1890.

Price's capture was due to the cleverness of Sheriff George W. H. Griffin, who followed him after notifying the officers.

Price is a white man, about 35 years of age, with a high forehead, dark eyes, and a thin nose. He is a native of Ohio, and has been in the country since 1870.

AMERICANS HELD THE BRIDGE.

Foreigners Defeated in a Labor Fight at Brighton, Pa.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 8.—Trouble arose between the American and foreign laborers yesterday at the excavations being made for the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company at Brighton.

American claim they have been discriminated against in the matter of employment in favor of the foreign element.

Yesterday 20 American and an equal number of foreigners were engaged in a pitched battle, the former taking possession of the bridge and the latter attacking the foreigners when they approached, with sticks and stones. After several of the party had been badly beaten the foreigners retired. More trouble is feared.

SHOT DEAD ON THE STREET.

J. B. Nichols Killed by F. H. Childs at Clyde, N. Y.

CLYDE, N. Y., Feb. 8.—James B. Nichols, a young man of this village, was shot and instantly killed yesterday afternoon by Fred H. Childs, son of Sylvester Childs, a wealthy jeweler of this village.

Nichols had been drinking between them and attacking the foreigners when they approached, with sticks and stones. After several of the party had been badly beaten the foreigners retired. More trouble is feared.

BEAR ATTACK ON ST. PAUL.

But for a Time the Rest of the Market Was Firm.

Pressure Brought Against Western Union and N. Y. Central.

The bears followed up their drive against Western Union just prior to the close yesterday with a sharp onslaught upon St. Paul this morning.

Just as the going soured 4,000 shares of the latter were slammed on the market, and sales were made at 57 3/4, 57 1/2 and 58 simultaneously. The heavy offerings failed to influence the rest of the list a particle, and before many minutes the market was on the up-tack.

The improvement, while not very great, was general, and afforded the traders who are long no little satisfaction, because they felt that the bears had played their trump card and were beaten.

Those behind sugar and distillers are taking more confidence about their properties on the ground that the Senate is likely to give the former some protection in the form of a tariff, and the latter more. Another factor, operating in favor of a better market, the progress reported in the reorganization of the Richmond Terminal and Reading properties.

The large auction sale of silks in this city yesterday went on satisfactorily. It has dispelled the doubts felt in certain quarters in the accuracy of the recently current report of a revival of trade in various sections of the country.

American Sugar rose 1-1/2 to 80 1/2, Reading 1-1/2 to 21 1/2, Chicago Gas 5-8 to 62 1/2, Western Union 3-4 to 81 1/2, Pillsbury 1-1/2 to 10 1/2, Laclede 3-4 to 10 1/2, and Tennessee Oil 1-1/2 to 18.

Stocks reacted 1-4 to 1-1/4 from the highest prices of the morning. The pressure was greatest against the grangers, the lumber and iron trusts, and the oil trust. The latter named sold at 3-1/2, while 90 of 1-8 below the price in the regular way. The lumber trust firm than the rest, but were by no means active.

RAN DOWN A BOY.

Driver O'Brien Held to Await Little John Dandolandi's Injuries.

John O'Brien, forty years old, an expressman, of 235 East One Hundred and Thirty-second street, was held in $5,000 bail in Harlem Court this morning to await the result of the injuries of John Dandolandi, five years old, of 311 East One Hundred and Fourth street, while O'Brien was driving down Third Avenue, at One Hundred and Fifth street, last evening.

The following notice was sent by the Park Department to Contractor William Burtis this morning:

That May Account for the Revoking of His Contract.

His Dumping Privilege Would Have Netted the City $2,000.

The second election official to be called to the bar of Oyer and Terminer to account for his alleged neglect of duty at the last election is John A. Dunphy, one of the inspectors in the Twenty-sixth Election District of the Eighth Assembly District.

Mr. Burtis is not a Tammany man, and consequently has no "pull" in any of the city departments. The conclusion was reached that ex-Senator Plunkitt or his partner, ex-Assemblyman McManus, or some other favored Tammany contractor, would get for nothing, or almost nothing, the valuable privilege for which Burtis has been paying the city a good price. The Park Department's explanation is that the filling in will be done by the Department itself.

Burtis has made all his arrangements to have thousands of loads of dirt dumped at One Hundred and Tenth street within the next few weeks and he must have the profit before he is discharged, except six months found at 32 Bayard street, as the fourth, and Abraham Lichtenstein, a cigar manufacturer, of 217 East Seventy-ninth street, the fifth.

Four alleged disorderly house keepers were held to await trial at the East Market Police Court, to-day. They were Charles Dwyer, of 33 Bayard street, Rosa Cohen, of 109 Christie street, and Mrs. Fisher, of 91 Christie street. All of the inmates of the houses were discharged, except six months found at 32 Bayard street, as the fourth, and Abraham Lichtenstein, a cigar manufacturer, of 217 East Seventy-ninth street, the fifth.

William Walker, a commission merchant, of 43 Madison Avenue, was accepted as the second juror; Ardie R. Morosani, of 34 West One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street, the third; Geo. E. Conley, a fish dealer, of 422 West Forty-third street, as the fourth, and Abraham Lichtenstein, a cigar manufacturer, of 217 East Seventy-ninth street, the fifth.
