

BROOKLYN NEWS.

WOE FOR FURGUESON.

Soon to Lose His Fat Office of Shore Inspector.

Many Witnesses in Albany to Testify Against Him.

Is "Insight" the Shore? He, the "Mystery Furgueson? Not Much.

"Boss" Furgueson was in bad humor this morning when he read the news. Each one of the stories from Albany about the investigation of the sub-committee of the Senate Finance and the Assembly Ways and Means committees into the expense of State Commissioners.

The "boss" had his friend and protege, James C. Church, there as counsel. If he boss hoped to check the tide that is slowly but surely overwhelming him he was doomed to disappointment.

A dozen witnesses from New Utrecht and its vicinity were present to tell of the "boss" misdoings. One of the witnesses, John Dickson, of Fort Hamilton, testified that Furgueson ruled everything in the town.

"Why, this man is our McKane!" said Mr. Dickson to the Committee. "He controls all the things about our place, even the courts. Last Fall he had me up in court and threatened that if I did not vote for him he would send me to jail. He has not made a return of the money he has collected."

E. W. Bliss, of Bay Ridge, testified that carcasses of dead animals were constantly washed ashore, and that Furgueson, regardless of his duty in the matter, paid no attention to complaints. Mr. Bliss buried these animals at his own expense.

The other witnesses corroborated Mr. Dickson's story. One of the witnesses, the launch Gov. Hill, for which the State pays $10 a day every day in the year, being used for excursions, was also mentioned. When the hearing was over, Senator Mullin remarked:

"That is what put the 'boss' in bad humor this morning. It is a very long session of time—a short time, too—when the office of State Shore Inspector will be abolished. With the loss of this office, which he has held many years, and his dethronement in New Utrecht, the outlook is black for the man who has held the town in his grasp so long."

Stripped of his power, he will have to answer the charges which have so long been pending, and which he has been able to thrice time and time again, being used for excursions by his office, which he has held many years, and his dethronement in New Utrecht, the outlook is black for the man who has held the town in his grasp so long.

TROLLEY CAR KILLS A HORSE.

Driver Griesman Escapes with a Few Scratches.

A horse was killed by a trolley car on Fulton street, near York street, Brooklyn, at an early hour this morning. The driver, Edward Griesman, was thrown from his seat in the wagon, but escaped serious injury.

THIEVES IN BROOKLYN.

Philip Schlaefler's House Ransacked Last Night.

During the night thieves got into the house of Philip Schlaefler 219 Seventeenth street, South Brooklyn, and carried away property and money valued at $400. The police were notified, and are looking for the culprits.

Mrs. Schlaefler thinks the larceny occurred between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning. The thieves secured a ladder from a neighbor and climbed up the side of the house, where they were seen by Mrs. Schlaefler's son, who was sleeping.

CONTEMPLATING A STRIKE.

Brooklyn Motormen and Conductors Want an Increase in Wages.

The employees of the Brooklyn City Railroad Company are considering the advisability of a general strike unless the motormen's wages are increased from $2 to $2.25 a day.

A secret meeting of District Assembly No. 7, of the K. of L., was held Monday night, and the matter was referred to thirty-one local assemblies. The members have been notified that the Committee cannot comply with the demands of the men at present.

Some of the conductors and motormen are in favor of a general strike.

FIVE CASES OF SMALL-POX.

Five cases of small-pox were discovered by the officials of Brooklyn to-day. The cases were reported by C. Molloy, aged twenty, of 262 Avenue A; Mary Taylor, aged sixteen, of 108th Street; Mary Walsh, aged three, of 112th Street; and Joseph Collins, aged five, of 112th Street.

SHEEHAN MEN STRIKE.

Italians Quit Work in the Long Island City Sewers.

Police Commissioner's Padrone Methods Receive a Setback.

Promised $1.50 Per Day, but Only Paid Them $1.25.

LONG ISLAND CITY, L. I., March 21.—This morning seventy Italians and the drivers of six double teams, employed on the Broadway and Academy street sewers, which are being built by Police Commissioner John C. Sheehan, of New York, went on strike.

The reason the Italians went on strike was because they were promised $1.50 a day, and that they had not been paid up to date.

When the Italians were paid off yesterday they discovered that they had been paid at the rate of $1.25 a day, and that twenty days' pay had been held back from them.

The Italians refused to go to work this morning until they received the twenty days' back pay and compensation at the rate of $1.50 per day.

The men remained out on strike for one hour, when they returned to work, their demands having been granted.

The teamsters have not thus far returned to work, but the contractors will be paid to date has not yet been granted.

The two sewers are to drain the greater portion of the island city. The Academy street sewer, which is of brick, is now forty feet deep. The sewers had to be finished by the contractors in 700 working days.

In the Evening World of Monday this matter, which Commissioner Sheehan obtained the contracts by the aid of his brother, the Lieutenant-Governor, was fully explained.

It's the Case Where the Lad Began the Beating in Court.

Ex-Commodore Gerry preferred charges to Mayor Schieren, of Brooklyn, to-day, against Police Justice William Watson, of the Ewen Street Court.

Ex-Commodore Gerry says that on March 15 just a fifteen-year-old boy named Eamsby was arraigned before Justice Watson, charged with disorderly conduct, and was fined $2.

James Eamsby, the boy's older brother, eighteen years old, called at the court and asked Justice Watson to remit the fine.

The older brother said he was the head of the family and he could not afford to pay the $2.

Justice Watson recalled the younger Eamsby and said he would remit the fine if the older boy would give him a check for $2.

The court officers dragged James away from his victim.

James Eamsby is then reported to have disposed of the case by saying: "Don't do the thrashing here, James. Take your brother home and finish the job."

The President of the Children's Society asks Mayor Schieren if this is the justice is done out of the Children's Society.

ALL WANT DAMAGES. Corporations Sued in Brooklyn Courts This Morning.

Beck was arrested at Gravesend early this morning by Detective McCormick, of the Fifth avenue station, and Constable C. L. McMillen, of Lansing.

The arrest was made on requisition papers from Gov. Rich, of Michigan, charging Beck with stealing a horse and being in Lansing several years ago.

Beck's story is that while in Lansing he borrowed the rig to go to a railroad depot, where he took a train for Gravesend, and that he forgot to return it.

Constable McMillen says Beck, when in Lansing, was a member of a notorious gang of horse-thieves, which operated there for several years.

Beck will be taken back to Lansing this afternoon.

MONTCLAIR IS AROUSED. WEISSMAN NOT GUILTY.

Arbitration Committee Decided in His Favor Last Night.

MONTCLAIR, N. J., March 21.—There is considerable speculation in this place as to whether C. A. Weissman will continue as Principal of the public school here. Weissman was accused by Tillie Haycock, a sixteen-year-old pupil in the school, of having attempted to take liberties with her.

The trustees investigated the case and came to the conclusion that Weissman was guilty. Before they could take any further action, Weissman, who resigned, practically denied the charge, and tendered his resignation.

The matter was then brought before an arbitration committee, as Weissman's resignation was not accepted. The committee heard the charges, and last night decided in Weissman's favor.

It is now a question whether the trustees will reinstate Weissman should he desire to do so. Weissman is married and is the father of three children. He is an active worker in the Baptist church.

DISCHARGED THE FOUR MEN. No Evidence to Show They Tried to Assault Miss Waters.

Henry Fagan, John Connolly, Michael Kuepfer and William C. Grogan, the four men who were arrested yesterday morning, upon a charge of attempting to assault Miss Waters, in a vacant lot in Jersey City, were arraigned before Justice O'Donnell, in Jersey City, this morning and discharged.

There was no evidence to show that they assaulted the woman, Miss Waters, who had been suffering from a severe cold, and who was taken to the hospital.

Miss Waters was taken to the hospital, where she is recovering from her illness.

Motorman Injured This Time. Late last night motor car No. 1, of the Traction Company, collided with a Morgan express wagon at the corner of West Side and Comm.

Chas. May Lost Both Legs. Thomas Cain, of Canby, while attempting to jump on a moving freight train on the Pennsylvania Railroad last night at Marion, N. J., slipped under the cars and had both his legs crushed. He was taken to the Jersey City Hospital, where he is recovering from his injuries.

Peterson Strike Still On. PATERSON, N. J., March 21.—The mill workers' strike still continues, and it is feared that by Saturday all of the mills in the city will be closed. It is said that one thousand hands will go out between today and Saturday. Last night five hundred women gathered at Duke's mill on Fulton street and surrounded a young woman who had refused to join the strikers. The woman was taken to the hospital, and the police arrived in time to protect her from being roughly handled.

COMMITTED SUICIDE AT SEA. Melville Was Inmate and Had Stabbed a Fellow-Passenger.

The steamship Ancheria, which arrived last night from Glasgow, reports that on March 16, at 7 A. M., James Melville, thirty years old, a stevedore passenger and an American citizen, in a moment of temporary insanity, stabbed Charles Macklehorn, who was a stevedore passenger, causing a slight flesh wound.

As soon as the ship's officers approached Melville to arrest him he rushed for the rail and jumped overboard. The ship stopped, and the boat lowered, but after a search of one hour Melville could not be seen and the stevedore passenger, Charles Macklehorn, had been reported as having drowned. Melville had been suffering from the effects of a sunstroke received last summer, but was regarded as harmless. Macklehorn's wound is not supposed to be serious.

ASSAULTED THE CONDUCTOR. Latter Had Bitten the Italians in a Fight Over a Woman.

Two Italians, who are brothers, Leccuro Lorenz, a barber, of 331 Hudson street, and David Lorenz, of 121 Christopher street, were held for examination Friday in Jefferson Market Court today.

They were charged with assaulting James Early, an Eighth avenue car conductor, because the latter got the better of a fight over a woman whom the three men had called to see last Sunday.

James Early was arrested after threatening the officers with a razor. David turned out to be a man whom the police have been after for some time, for assaulting a woman.
