

CRAZED BY TOUGHS.

Gang Breaks In Mrs. McDonnell's Windows with Bricks.

One Struck Her on the Head, Inflicting a Severe Wound.

She Became Delirious and Flew Over House-tops.

Mrs. Winnie McDonnell, thirty-three years old, of 27 West Twenty-ninth street, was driven insane this morning by the action of a gang of loafers.

Mrs. McDonnell lived on the first floor of the Twenty-ninth street house with her husband, John, and their pretty four-year-old daughter Sadie.

Within a few doors of their home is a stable. This place is the point of meeting for a number of young men and boys, who spend the greater portion of their time in drinking mixed ale.

Members of this gang have no occupation, doing only odd jobs enough to keep them in ale money. Their acts of violence have made them the terror of the neighborhood, and their wild orgies at night keep every person for a block around awake. The numerous complaints which the tenants claim to have made to the police have had no visible result.

Last night the toughs had more ale than usual. The stable was not large enough for them. Going into the street they picked up a lot of tin cans, bricks, lumps of coal, anything that would serve as a missile. Then they started out, as one of them expressed it, "to do up the mugs on the block."

They selected the house of the McDonnells. It was 9 o'clock. Husband and wife were in a rear room when suddenly a shower of bricks and coal struck the building. They rushed into the front room, and just at that moment a dozen bricks struck the windows. Sash and glass were carried away and a hole was made in the center of the room. Then followed another rain of bricks that struck all around the man and woman. A half a brick hit Mrs. McDonnell on the head.

Outside the house the gang of roughs uttered wild shrieks of drunken laughter as they stoned the place. The furniture in the front room was broken. McDonnell and his wife were in the rear room. The ruffians, thinking they had done enough damage, ran away. The blow which Mrs. McDonnell received, together with the fright, made her delirious. She had just recovered from a fit of illness. The McDonnells were already in some straits. The husband had always provided well for his family until three months ago, when he lost his position. Since then things have been very bad. They could not pay their rent.

To add to their distress, a Mrs. Margaret Connelly, who had nursed Mrs. McDonnell when she was a child, came and asked them for a home. She is sixty years old and without means. The McDonnells agreed to care for her, although they could not care for themselves. This morning the family was all night long Mrs. McDonnell raved. She imagined that a gang was after her with sticks and stones. She would exclaim, starting from her bed, her eyes wild with fright.

Just after 3 o'clock this morning, McDonnell, worn out by her raving, went to sleep in the chair before the bed.

Then Mrs. McDonnell arose, left her room and went to the stable. She was there for some time, and when she returned she was in a very excited condition. She was screaming and shouting, and when she was taken to the hospital she was in a very excited condition.

She still raved about some one who followed her. She begged the links to save her and her child, whom she imagined was in her arms.

Rink was about to go for a policeman when Mrs. McDonnell, who was in a very excited condition, ran from their room. Rink followed her, but she disappeared. At 1:30 o'clock a policeman, who was on duty in Twenty-third street, near North Avenue, took her to the West Tenth street hospital. From there she was removed to Bellevue Hospital.

Later in the morning, when she was taken to the McDonnell house, her husband was not at home. He had gone out to look for the woman. The detectives are now searching for the members of the gang to whose acts the condition of the woman is due.

BOTH SHOT AND DYING.

Man the Victim of a Woman, and Woman the Victim of a Man.

Two burly calls for a coroner were sent out from Harlem Hospital shortly after midnight this morning. At 2:30 o'clock coroner Fitzpatrick reached the hospital and took the ante-mortem statement of two patients who are dying.

The first taken was that of Dominick Chambo, the Italian laborer, of 54 East One Hundred and Forty-ninth street, who was shot in the left breast on Saturday morning by Maria Nicolio. The woman says he shot her to assist her. Chambo's statement was short. All he desired to say was that the woman had shot him for some cause unknown. The man will die to-day, the doctors think.

A statement was also taken from Joseph Grant, twenty-nine years old, who is dangerously ill from a bullet wound over her heart. She stated that she was married and lived with her husband in Mount Vernon, on March 11 her husband was away from home. She was eating dinner with Carl Hahn, when four mutual friends entered. The five men got into the room, and she was changed, and two of the men drew revolvers. One of them, Simon Lombardo, was shot in the right arm, and is still in the hospital in Mount Vernon. The woman said she received her injury in trying to separate the combatants.

Dr. Cahill of the hospital, says there is little hope at the woman's recovery.

Raid on a Police Shop.

James Cowley was held in the Tombs Police Court yesterday in $500 bail for the Grand Jury on a charge of running a police shop at 64th street. The raid was made on Saturday afternoon by Detective Burke, who searched the street station, several police slips and shirts being seized.

STABBED IN THE EYE.

Ross's Condition Is Critical, and His Assault Is Under Arrest.

During a quarrel at 8:35 o'clock this morning Louis Ross, twenty-three years old, of 16 West Forty-sixth street, was stabbed in the eye by George Taylor at his West Forty-sixth street.

Taylor was arrested and was taken to the West Forty-seventh street police station. Ross was taken to Roosevelt Hospital in a critical condition.

A recent invention which is of importance to telephone users is a receiver on a cord of P. A. Cook & Co. of New York. It improves the quality of the voice and is a valuable addition to the telephone.

LAWYER JOHN GRAHAM DEAD.

Did Not Recover Consciousness After His Leg Was Amputated.

His Fame Dates from His Defense of Gen. Daniel E. Sickles.

John Graham, the famous criminal lawyer, is dead. The end came at 4 o'clock this morning and was caused by heart failure resulting from the amputation of his right leg yesterday afternoon.

Death came so suddenly that his relatives, who were sleeping in adjoining rooms in the Metropolitan Hotel, had scarce time to gather at his bedside. From the time of the operation yesterday afternoon until he died Mr. Graham did not recover consciousness. Amputation was made necessary by gangrene.

The funeral will take place from the Marble Collegiate Church, in which he was baptized on Wednesday. The hour has not yet been determined.

LAWYER JOHN GRAHAM.

Mr. Graham, who was seventy-two years old, was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., in the matter of following odd styles of dress, and he wore a red wig, which hung by rings. His fame dates from his defense of Gen. Daniel E. Sickles for shooting Burton Key. He was employed in the Tweed, McFarland, Noble, Simmons, Wood, Jackson and McCadden cases, and last figured prominently in the case of Hoolie Sherman Boehrer, when it was apparent his great powers were wanting. He had lived quietly since at the Metropolitan Hotel.

CLARK WILL NOT RESIGN.

Union Pacific Officials Deny the Report from Chicago.

The report from Chicago that S. H. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

Mr. Clark, one of the receivers of the Union Pacific, has decided to resign, and after spending a few months in Europe, would assume the active management of the Gould-Southwestern system, does not appear to have any foundation.

CROKER WILL TALK HORSE.

But on Political Questions He Emulates the Festive Clam.

His Disposition of Diver Is Anxiously Awaited.

Induced to Return and Dress Before the Firemen Arrive.

NEW BRIGHTON, S. I., April 8.—About 12:30 this morning fire broke out in the garret of the Brighton Heights Seminary, on Tompkins avenue, St. George.

The seminary is the fashionable educational institution on Staten Island, and about fifteen young ladies, who are pupils, board in the institution. Dr. George W. Cook is the principal.

Miss Boyson, one of the teachers, who was sleeping in an upper room, was awakened by the smell of smoke. She went out into the corridor and screamed that the building was on fire.

In a few minutes the girl pupils fled from their rooms mostly in their night dresses and started downstairs. The teachers also left their rooms.

Dr. Cook assured them all that they had time to go back to their rooms, dress and secure their personal effects. This they did.

In the meantime Dr. Cook sent an alarm to Police Headquarters, and a squad of police and several volunteer fire companies were soon at the scene of the fire. By this time the girl pupils and teachers had put on their street apparel and had removed their personal effects from their rooms.

The fire was confined to the upper part of the main building, and the damage was not amount to more than $500. This is covered by insurance.

Last Thursday, a fire broke out in the garret. The firemen were summoned, and it was supposed that they had extinguished the fire. It is now believed, however, that the fire was thoroughly put out, and smoldered until it again broke out this morning.

BANKER MORGAN OBJECTED. Did Not Want the Firemen to Enter His House.

There was a small fire in the house of J. Morgan, 100 Madison street, on Saturday afternoon. A squad of police and several volunteer fire companies were soon at the scene of the fire. By this time the girl pupils and teachers had put on their street apparel and had removed their personal effects from their rooms.

The fire was confined to the upper part of the main building, and the damage was not amount to more than $500. This is covered by insurance.

Last Thursday, a fire broke out in the garret. The firemen were summoned, and it was supposed that they had extinguished the fire. It is now believed, however, that the fire was thoroughly put out, and smoldered until it again broke out this morning.

BANKER MORGAN OBJECTED. Did Not Want the Firemen to Enter His House.

There was a small fire in the house of J. Morgan, 100 Madison street, on Saturday afternoon. A squad of police and several volunteer fire companies were soon at the scene of the fire. By this time the girl pupils and teachers had put on their street apparel and had removed their personal effects from their rooms.

The fire was confined to the upper part of the main building, and the damage was not amount to more than $500. This is covered by insurance.

Last Thursday, a fire broke out in the garret. The firemen were summoned, and it was supposed that they had extinguished the fire. It is now believed, however, that the fire was thoroughly put out, and smoldered until it again broke out this morning.

BANKER MORGAN OBJECTED. Did Not Want the Firemen to Enter His House.

There was a small fire in the house of J. Morgan, 100 Madison street, on Saturday afternoon. A squad of police and several volunteer fire companies were soon at the scene of the fire. By this time the girl pupils and teachers had put on their street apparel and had removed their personal effects from their rooms.

The fire was confined to the upper part of the main building, and the damage was not amount to more than $500. This is covered by insurance.

Last Thursday, a fire broke out in the garret. The firemen were summoned, and it was supposed that they had extinguished the fire. It is now believed, however, that the fire was thoroughly put out, and smoldered until it again broke out this morning.

BANKER MORGAN OBJECTED. Did Not Want the Firemen to Enter His House.

There was a small fire in the house of J. Morgan, 100 Madison street, on Saturday afternoon. A squad of police and several volunteer fire companies were soon at the scene of the fire. By this time the girl pupils and teachers had put on their street apparel and had removed their personal effects from their rooms.

The fire was confined to the upper part of the main building, and the damage was not amount to more than $500. This is covered by insurance.

Last Thursday, a fire broke out in the garret. The firemen were summoned, and it was supposed that they had extinguished the fire. It is now believed, however, that the fire was thoroughly put out, and smoldered until it again broke out this morning.

BANKER MORGAN OBJECTED. Did Not Want the Firemen to Enter His House.

There was a small fire in the house of J. Morgan, 100 Madison street, on Saturday afternoon. A squad of police and several volunteer fire companies were soon at the scene of the fire. By this time the girl pupils and teachers had put on their street apparel and had removed their personal effects from their rooms.

The fire was confined to the upper part of the main building, and the damage was not amount to more than $500. This is covered by insurance.

Last Thursday, a fire broke out in the garret. The firemen were summoned, and it was supposed that they had extinguished the fire. It is now believed, however, that the fire was thoroughly put out, and smoldered until it again broke out this morning.

BANKER MORGAN OBJECTED. Did Not Want the Firemen to Enter His House.

There was a small fire in the house of J. Morgan, 100 Madison street, on Saturday afternoon. A squad of police and several volunteer fire companies were soon at the scene of the fire. By this time the girl pupils and teachers had put on their street apparel and had removed their personal effects from their rooms.

The fire was confined to the upper part of the main building, and the damage was not amount to more than $500. This is covered by insurance.

Last Thursday, a fire broke out in the garret. The firemen were summoned, and it was supposed that they had extinguished the fire. It is now believed, however, that the fire was thoroughly put out, and smoldered until it again broke out this morning.

BANKER MORGAN OBJECTED. Did Not Want the Firemen to Enter His House.

There was a small fire in the house of J. Morgan, 100 Madison street, on Saturday afternoon. A squad of police and several volunteer fire companies were soon at the scene of the fire. By this time the girl pupils and teachers had put on their street apparel and had removed their personal effects from their rooms.

The fire was confined to the upper part of the main building, and the damage was not amount to more than $500. This is covered by insurance.

Last Thursday, a fire broke out in the garret. The firemen were summoned, and it was supposed that they had extinguished the fire. It is now believed, however, that the fire was thoroughly put out, and smoldered until it again broke out this morning.

BANKER MORGAN OBJECTED. Did Not Want the Firemen to Enter His House.

GIRLS IN A PANIC.

Fire Frightens Pupils in the Brighton Heights Seminary.

They Run Out of the Building, Many Clad Only in Night Robes.

Induced to Return and Dress Before the Firemen Arrive.

NEW BRIGHTON, S. I., April 8.—About 12:30 this morning fire broke out in the garret of the Brighton Heights Seminary, on Tompkins avenue, St. George.

The seminary is the fashionable educational institution on Staten Island, and about fifteen young ladies, who are pupils, board in the institution. Dr. George W. Cook is the principal.

Miss Boyson, one of the teachers, who was sleeping in an upper room, was awakened by the smell of smoke. She went out into the corridor and screamed that the building was on fire.

In a few minutes the girl pupils fled from their rooms mostly in their night dresses and started downstairs. The teachers also left their rooms.

Dr. Cook assured them all that they had time to go back to their rooms, dress and secure their personal effects. This they did.

In the meantime Dr. Cook sent an alarm to Police Headquarters, and a squad of police and several volunteer fire companies were soon at the scene of the fire. By this time the girl pupils and teachers had put on their street apparel and had removed their personal effects from their rooms.

The fire was confined to the upper part of the main building, and the damage was not amount to more than $500. This is covered by insurance.

Last Thursday, a fire broke out in the garret. The firemen were summoned, and it was supposed that they had extinguished the fire. It is now believed, however, that the fire was thoroughly put out, and smoldered until it again broke out this morning.

BANKER MORGAN OBJECTED. Did Not Want the Firemen to Enter His House.

There was a small fire in the house of J. Morgan, 100 Madison street, on Saturday afternoon. A squad of police and several volunteer fire companies were soon at the scene of the fire. By this time the girl pupils and teachers had put on their street apparel and had removed their personal effects from their rooms.

The fire was confined to the upper part of the main building, and the damage was not amount to more than $500. This is covered by insurance.

Last Thursday, a fire broke out in the garret. The firemen were summoned, and it was supposed that they had extinguished the fire. It is now believed, however, that the fire was thoroughly put out, and smoldered until it again broke out this morning.

BANKER MORGAN OBJECTED. Did Not Want the Firemen to Enter His House.

There was a small fire in the house of J. Morgan, 100 Madison street, on Saturday afternoon. A squad of police and several volunteer fire companies were soon at the scene of the fire. By this time the girl pupils and teachers had put on their street apparel and had removed their personal effects from their rooms.

The fire was confined to the upper part of the main building, and the damage was not amount to more than $500. This is covered by insurance.

Last Thursday, a fire broke out in the garret. The firemen were summoned, and it was supposed that they had extinguished the fire. It is now believed, however, that the fire was thoroughly put out, and smoldered until it again broke out this morning.

BANKER MORGAN OBJECTED. Did Not Want the Firemen to Enter His House.

There was a small fire in the house of J. Morgan, 100 Madison street, on Saturday afternoon. A squad of police and several volunteer fire companies were soon at the scene of the fire. By this time the girl pupils and teachers had put on their street apparel and had removed their personal effects from their rooms.

The fire was confined to the upper part of the main building, and the damage was not amount to more than $500. This is covered by insurance.

Last Thursday, a fire broke out in the garret. The firemen were summoned, and it was supposed that they had extinguished the fire. It is now believed, however, that the fire was thoroughly put out, and smoldered until it again broke out this morning.

BANKER MORGAN OBJECTED. Did Not Want the Firemen to Enter His House.

There was a small fire in the house of J. Morgan, 100 Madison street, on Saturday afternoon. A squad of police and several volunteer fire companies were soon at the scene of the fire. By this time the girl pupils and teachers had put on their street apparel and had removed their personal effects from their rooms.

The fire was confined to the upper part of the main building, and the damage was not amount to more than $500. This is covered by insurance.

Last Thursday, a fire broke out in the garret. The firemen were summoned, and it was supposed that they had extinguished the fire. It is now believed, however, that the fire was thoroughly put out, and smoldered until it again broke out this morning.

BANKER MORGAN OBJECTED. Did Not Want the Firemen to Enter His House.

There was a small fire in the house of J. Morgan, 100 Madison street, on Saturday afternoon. A squad of police and several volunteer fire companies were soon at the scene of the fire. By this time the girl pupils and teachers had put on their street apparel and had removed their personal effects from their rooms.

The fire was confined to the upper part of the main building, and the damage was not amount to more than $500. This is covered by insurance.

Last Thursday, a fire broke out in the garret. The firemen were summoned, and it was supposed that they had extinguished the fire. It is now believed, however, that the fire was thoroughly put out, and smoldered until it again broke out this morning.

BANKER MORGAN OBJECTED. Did Not Want the Firemen to Enter His House.

There was a small fire in the house of J. Morgan, 100 Madison street, on Saturday afternoon. A squad of police and several volunteer fire companies were soon at the scene of the fire. By this time the girl pupils and teachers had put on their street apparel and had removed their personal effects from their rooms.

The fire was confined to the upper part of the main building, and the damage was not amount to more than $500. This is covered by insurance.

Last Thursday, a fire broke out in the garret. The firemen were summoned, and it was supposed that they had extinguished the fire. It is now believed, however, that the fire was thoroughly put out, and smoldered until it again broke out this morning.

BANKER MORGAN OBJECTED. Did Not Want the Firemen to Enter His House.

There was a small fire in the house of J. Morgan, 100 Madison street, on Saturday afternoon. A squad of police and several volunteer fire companies were soon at the scene of the fire. By this time the girl pupils and teachers had put on their street apparel and had removed their personal effects from their rooms.

The fire was confined to the upper part of the main building, and the damage was not amount to more than $500. This is covered by insurance.

Last Thursday, a fire broke out in the garret. The firemen were summoned, and it was supposed that they had extinguished the fire. It is now believed, however, that the fire was thoroughly put out, and smoldered until it again broke out this morning.

BANKER MORGAN OBJECTED. Did Not Want the Firemen to Enter His House.

There was a small fire in the house of J. Morgan, 100 Madison street, on Saturday afternoon. A squad of police and several volunteer fire companies were soon at the scene of the fire. By this time the girl pupils and teachers had put on their street apparel and had removed their personal effects from their rooms.

The fire was confined to the upper part of the main building, and the damage was not amount to more than $500. This is covered by insurance.

Advertisement for Paine's Celery Compound, featuring a portrait of a woman and text describing the product's benefits for various ailments.

Advertisement for Paine's Celery Compound, featuring a large portrait of a woman and text describing the product's benefits for various ailments.

There was never a remedy so highly recommended as Paine's celery compound. It has saved thousands of weaklings from a premature grave. It has made the weak strong. It has cured where everything else has failed. Its wonderful testimonials of its wonderful value as a strengthening tonic have been voluntarily sent to Burlington, where it is prepared.

Advertisement for Flint's Fine Furniture, featuring text about furniture quality and prices, and contact information for Geo. C. Flint Co.