

LOCKOUT IMMEDIATE.

Brooklyn Brewers Give Their Employees an Ultimatum. Must Decide by Saturday on "Work or War."

Workmen's Demands Entirely Ignored by the Bosses.

A lockout of brewery employees will take place in Brooklyn Saturday, unless the brewers give their ultimatum.

The employees threatened to strike, and declared a boycott against all brewers who refused to sign the agreement.

The brewers do not say they will lock their men out. They use milder language, but it means a freeze-out just the same.

Only the brewers who are not in the brewers' pool are concerned in this fight.

With the exception of foremen, assistant foremen and apprentices, union men must be employed, and foremen shall not be permitted to perform the labor of journeymen.

Workers must be employed by saloonkeepers shall not be employed, under any circumstances.

Workers shall not be discharged except for cause. Sickness is no cause for dismissal.

To avoid a reduction in the force during the winter season every employee shall stop work on one day each week between March 15 and March 31.

No member of the union shall be permitted to perform the labor of a workman, machine operator or helper.

There shall be one apprentice for every twenty-five workmen.

The union shall constitute a day's work, and a week shall consist of six work days. Not more than two hours labor shall be performed Sunday, which work to be paid for extra and at double rates.

Wages must be paid weekly, as follows: To workmen of the first class in the wash-house, $18, to all others $15.

The police threw the package into the river without examination.

REV. MR. CLARK IS VERY ILL.

Popular Brooklyn Pastor Has to Abandon a Sea Voyage.

His Life May Depend Upon Treatment at Clifton Springs.

Rev. Mr. Asbury C. Clark, pastor of the Grace Presbyterian Church, at Stuyvesant and Jefferson avenues, Brooklyn, was taken violently ill at his home, 315 Halcyon street, this morning, and it is doubtful if he will be able to leave for Clifton Springs to-morrow, as had been arranged.

All arrangements have been made, however, by G. W. F. Lake, who lives with Mr. Clark, to leave with him on the Empire State Express on the Central road to-morrow morning.

It had been Mr. Clark's original intention to sail from New York on Saturday next on the steamer Werra for a trip to the Mediterranean. If Rev. Mr. Clark recovers before the 30th, he will sail in the middle of June and return in September.

The utmost concern is felt by his congregation over his condition. Mr. Clark has been suffering since last November with an abscess which formed on a duct leading from the liver. Dr. Chapin consulted with Dr. Mark, a Baltimore specialist, and it was decided that the pastor would have to abandon the voyage.

The doctors were reluctant to perform an operation on Mr. Clark and advised him to seek relief at Clifton Springs. The cause of the trouble, Dr. Chapin thinks, is a gallstone.

He had been ill for some time, and was in the hospital two weeks ago. He had been in bed for two weeks since.

QUEER POLICE WORK.

Detectives Arrested and Counterfeiters Allowed to Escape.

Secret Service Men Locked Up for Five Hours in Hoboken.

After Their Release They Caught Three of the Counterfeiters.

James L. Stillman, Fred Burke and George Holmes were arrested for counterfeiting at 333 West Seventeenth street last night by United States Secret Service Officer Thomas Callaghan and Frank Esquirel.

The prisoners were taken before United States Commissioner Shields at 11 o'clock this morning, and held in $500 bonds each to appear for examination next Saturday.

Officer Callaghan is very indignant over his treatment at the hands of the Hoboken police.

"There's a Capt. Patrick Hayes over there," he said, "who is the smartest man on earth, and some of his men are about as bad as any I've ever seen."

According to Callaghan's story, he and Esquirel were on their way to the counterfeiter's for a week, and after hard work had succeeded in locating the counterfeiters.

Last Tuesday afternoon the detectives ran across three of the crowd in Fourteenth street near Broadway. They followed them to the Hoboken ferry and crossed the river with them.

On the Chief's arrival, the nearest magistrate was sent for, and Callaghan and Esquirel were taken to the station.

The arrest of the secret service men was made at the Hoboken ferry by August Koster, a cigar-dealer, at 303 Washington street, who pointed out the counterfeiters to the police.

Koster said that Esquirel a short time before entered his store and bought cigars, giving him $50 in payment. Koster gave him 40 cents change, and he left. Soon after Callaghan and Esquirel were arrested, the man had paid for cigars.

They were taken to the station, and held in $500 bonds each to appear for examination next Saturday.

When Detectives Traub and Grady of the Central Office, who arrested Gridley, were on their way to the court, they found Gridley's wife, Minnie, waiting to secure a warrant for abandonment.

There are several other cases of forged and bogus check passing laid at his door.

In Prison Only a Short Time for Stealing $40,000.

Simon Poy, who was sentenced to six years in Sing Sing in 1903 for stealing $40,000 from James E. Ward & Co., of the Cuban steamship line, is at liberty once again and is enjoying his freedom at his home in Westchester, L. I.

A great deal of attention is manifested by the Ward line people at Poy's release, and they declare that unusual methods must have been adopted to secure his pardon.

Mr. Poy's eyes are undoubtedly affected, but he is not blind, as it was reported. He said himself yesterday that he would remain in Westchester and live down his disgrace and trouble. This is not compatible with the remarks of a dying man, and the impression is that the man is not dead.
