SCHIEREN TO DECIDE.

No Licenses for Coney Islanders Without His Approval.

All Expire To-Day and the De-keepers Apply for Renewals.

Burlesque Enforcement of the Excise and Concert Laws Yesterday.

Mayor Schieren, of Brooklyn, launched another order on the Mayor of reform sweeping over Coney Island this morning which may be considered the beginning of the end for some of the developers at the West End.

The Mayor sent word to the Excise Commissioners that no licenses should be granted for saloons on Coney Island without his consent. The Mayor said he proposed to investigate each application before granting a license.

The licenses of the 250 saloons on the island expire to-day, and as a consequence the Excise Department was crowded with saloon-keepers anxious to renew their licenses for saloons at West Brighton.

Among the first callers this morning was Nicholas J. Johnson, the Gravesend man who received a fine of $25 for helping John Y. McKeaney defy the law in the case of the New South saloon, before a license will be granted.

Mayor Schieren this morning received a letter from a taxpayer on Coney Island, signing himself "A Citizen," and requesting that no license be granted to certain saloons at the West End, which the writer says, have been in existence for years.

Inspector William J. McKelvey was cloaked with Superintendent of Police Campbell this morning, making a verbal report on the success of the Brooklyn police in compelling Coney Islanders to observe the Sunday laws.

The inspector spent all yesterday at West Brighton, and stated this morning that he was perfectly satisfied with the way the proprietors of the dives, concert halls, &c., conducted their establishments.

In not an instance, the inspector said, were the orders issued by the Department disobeyed. The only disturbance was made by the Brooklyn police, notwithstanding the inspector's satisfaction over the change at Coney Island and yesterday under the new regime, it was all a burlesque enforcement of the Sunday laws.

But in each place signs of "Wells Beer Only" adorned the walls, arranged as to read, "Beer only," the sign being obscured by a fold of the paper.

At the concert hall owned by "Count" Vaccaro, on the Bowery, the bar was running without any attempt at concealment. Beer and liquor were sold to all patrons. It was the only place on the entire island where a "runner-in" was at work.

All the bands and organs attached to the carrouzels were silent. One of the changes on the island was the absence of the "barkers." Consequently proprietors of games, &c., were dependent upon the "barkers" to attract patrons, stood by their stands doing little or no business.

One of the changes on the island yesterday was the "soubrettes doing their turns" in the concert halls in long skirts. The absence of lights and short dresses seemed to embarrass the women, and in the words of one proprietor, "quicker the show."

FLAMES TO $52,000 DAMAGE.

Hopkins's Photographic Materials Factory Destroyed.

Firemen Have a Hard Fight to Save Adjoining Property.

Clarence E. Hopkins's photographic materials manufactory, on Fifty-third street, South Brooklyn, was almost totally destroyed by fire this morning, entailing a loss of about $52,000.

The establishment was a three-story frame structure, occupying the lots at 27 and 29, and extending through the block to 32 Fifty-second street.

The upper part of the building was occupied by Knorr & Co., card manufacturers. The flames were discovered at 3 o'clock by a policeman who was passing on the opposite side of the street.

Seven engines were sent, and in a short time a dozen engines were pumping water upon the fire. In spite of the efforts to extinguish the blaze, the flames spread to adjoining buildings and threatened the destruction of the houses in the neighborhood.

Finally the firemen got the fire under control, and at 6 o'clock it was entirely extinguished. Hopkins, who owned the building where the fire originated, estimated his loss at $52,000 on the structure and $25,000 on stock. Knorr & Co. lost $8,000.

A building at 303 Fifty-third street, owned by John McKinney, was damaged $1,000, and another structure owned by Mr. Hopkins, was damaged $200 worth. The cause of the fire is unknown.

HELD UP THE POLICEMAN.

Edwards Treated the Gang to His Billy Instead of a Pint of Beer.

Policeman Patrick Edwards appeared in the Lee Avenue Police Court, Williamsburg, today against three young groveler ruffians, who were fined $5 each for intoxication.

The policeman has only recently recovered from a severe spell of illness, and when he is in citizen's dress he looks like a sickly young theological student.

Yesterday afternoon Edwards was walking in the vicinity of the North Fifth street bar, when he was "groveler" gang of half a dozen men, who asked him for a pint of beer. The policeman blandly refused, and when the men made threatening demonstrations he showed his police badge, and sailed into the crowd with his billy.

The grovelers got away, but Edwards captured Charles Brady, John Kenne and Henry F. White, all of whom were readily astonished when they saw what an energetic policeman the supposed theological student was.

LOHMAN SENTENCED.

Seven Years and Four Months in State Prison.

Stole $19,400 of the Excise Funds of Brooklyn.

Brought Back from Canada and Pleading Guilty.

William D. Lohman, formerly cashier of the Excise Board in Brooklyn, who pleaded guilty to embezzling certain funds, was sentenced by Judge Moore in the Court of Sessions to-day, to seven years and four months in State's prison.

Lohman was accused of stealing $19,400. There were three indictments found against him. He pleaded guilty to two of them, each of which charged him with stealing $100.

At the opening of the proceedings to-day his lawyer, Thomas D. Pearsall, made a strong plea for a light sentence. He reviewed the defaulter's past record, which he said had been excellent, and asked the court to take the money to invest in automatic racing machines.

Several extra copies of his record were handed to the court. Lohman said Mr. Pearsall had spent nothing on himself. He and his wife had a position of public trust, and that he betrayed that trust by stealing this money and a great deal more.

On your plea of guilty to one indictment you are sentenced to Sing Sing for five years. On your plea of guilty to the second indictment you will serve two years and four months.

Lohman appeared to be very unconcerned, and after shaking hands with his counsel, walked back to the pen.

PATERSON RIBBON-WEAVERS STILL ON STRIKE.

PATERSON, N. J., May 7.—The anticipated return of the striking ribbon-weavers to work this morning was not realized. All the factories were opened, but only ten of the 1,500 strikers went back to their homes—five at Levy Brothers, four at Homford's and one at the one at Helvetia mill.

Police and pickets were stationed at the mills, and the strikers took place. The strikers held a mass-meeting at Pateron Island Park, and they expressed great enthusiasm over the failure of the business men and manufacturers to end the strike.

President Strange has posted a notice that all strikers are discharged and can only obtain work by applying personally to the proprietors of the mills. At their meeting this morning the strikers resolved not to return to work until a fund of $500 has been raised for the strikers.

AN EXCITING HONEYMOON. Woman Says She Will Sue Hopper and Spoil His Wife's Beauty.

When George F. Hopper, treasurer of the Casino Company, stepped into the street this morning from the Hotel Vendome, where he had passed his wedding night, he was pounced upon by a woman who had been waiting on the sidewalk for an hour. A hot colloquy ensued, ending by the woman thrusting a packet of letters into Hopper's hand and sailing angrily off down Broadway.

She was the woman who has announced her intention of disturbing the peace of Mr. Hopper and his newly made bride, Marie Dressler, the actress, by enforcing her claim to a common-law marriage contracted eleven years ago.

Mr. Hopper and Miss Dressler were married at 5 o'clock last evening at the house of Rev. Dr. Chapman, an Episcopal minister in Greenville, N. J., in the presence of the bride's parents and some thirty guests.

Hopper's relations with the woman extend over a period of eleven years. She was formerly a chorus girl, and is now about thirty-seven years old. In 1874 she married George Harris, a variety artist, who died six years later.

When the woman encountered him this morning she hotly berated him for seducing her, and swore that she would prosecute him for abandonment and take personal satisfaction out of Miss Dressler's misfortune.

Japanese Score China.

Murder of Korean Refugee Kim Causes Great Excitement.

San Francisco, May 7.—News was brought from Japan by the steamer City of Rio Janeiro, concerning the excitement over the assassination of the Korean refugee, Kim, in Shanghai. Japan is greatly excited over the crime and the leading newspaper, the Tokio Shimpo, flatly accuses the Chinese Minister in Tokio of assisting in the assassination.

The TJJ even asserts that Wong gave a dinner to Kim the night before he left Tokio, and it concludes with a slashing attack on the duplicity of Chinese diplomacy, which wins at falsehood and encourages political assassination.

In Korea there is reported to be great political excitement over the incident following that followed the receipt of the news of Kim's murder. The King ex-posed his part in the plot by sending to the Commissioner of Public Works, some thinking that he was the assassin. Hong is one of Kim's devoted followers, and he was arrested by a high army appointment on his return from Shanghai with the corpse of the victim.

Leech Has Convulsion of the Brain After a Circus Fight.

Coroner Kene, of Brooklyn, was this morning called to the bedside of Martin Leech, nineteen, of 576 Union street, who is lying at the point of death from the effects of a convulsion of the brain, received during a fight with one of the attaches of Barnum's circus on the night of April 28 last.

Leech went to the circus grounds at Fourth avenue and Second street, and was walking around outside the tent, when he saw two men fighting. He stopped to look on, and recognized one of the men as a friend, John Mulvaney. He interfered and tried to stop the fight.

The circus man, it is alleged, grabbed a hammer and tried to stop the blow upon the head, knocking him down. The stranger then ran away. Leech regained his senses in a few minutes and an ambulance was called to dress what appeared to be only a slight cut on his head. Several hours later the wound amounted to nothing.

Leech went to a week ago to-day and was all right until Friday, when he was taken with pains in the head. He was unable to get up, and his eyes went home. Dr. Hendell, of 62 Bedford avenue, was called in to attend him, and he referred to a man who was suffering from convulsion of the brain.

Last night his condition became so serious that he died at 10 o'clock. Detectives Kelly and Murphy are investigating the case.
