LAST EDITION. JONES'S WOODS DESTROYED.

$400,000 Conflagration Starts in the Famous Old Picnic Grounds.

THREE CITY BLOCKS BURNED. Old Jones Homestead Destroyed and the Schermerhorn Mansion Damaged.

MEN HURT; HORSES ROASTED. Workman Gillespie Barely Rescued from Certain Death in the East River Tunnel.

Fire broke out about 4 o'clock this morning in one of the wooden buildings in the inclosure, formerly known as Jones's Woods...

Before it had been extinguished the fire spread over three blocks, between Sixty-seventh and Seventy-first streets, Avenue A and the East River, over $400,000 damage was done...

The sudden changing of the wind caused the spreading of the flames when they were thought to be under control.

The fire was discovered by Police-man Nash, of the East Sixty-seventh street station. He was patrolling his post in Sixty-eighth street...

He sent in an alarm, and Engine 33, from Fire Headquarters, was soon on the scene. Capt. Vedder had his engine stationed in Sixty-eighth street...

All a Mass of Flames. There was a stiff southwest wind blowing, which carried the flames toward the river with remarkable rapidity...

The flames spread across a bridge over Sixty-ninth street and caught the wooden buildings of Washington Park...

Capt. Vedder, when he saw the fire getting beyond his control, sent out a third alarm. This brought Assistant Chief Conroy, Fisher and Gicquel, Chief Bonner. He sent in a fourth alarm.

Avenue A Buildings Catch. Suddenly the wind changed and turned the flames toward Avenue A. Like a streak, the fire seemed to clutch the flimsy buildings...

Next to Dean's house, at 528, the two-story brick dwelling of Michael Boland was reduced to ashes ten minutes after the flames reached it.

Horses Roasted Alive. Next to Dean's house, at 528, the two-story brick dwelling of Michael Boland was reduced to ashes ten minutes after the flames reached it.

DAANGER IN THE MILK. Worse than the Cow's Meat if She Has Tuberculosis.

Four Guinea Pigs Inoculated by Dr. Beebe as an Experiment.

Board of Health Deeply Interested in the Result.

Chief Chemist Martin, of the Board of Health, is trying an experiment to-day which is of interest to everybody who uses milk...

Guinea pigs have been inoculated with milk from cows suffering from tuberculosis, and if they become infected with tuberculous bacilli it will be pretty conclusive proof...

Another condition which is looked upon as very strange, anomaly by medical experts and bacteriologists is the fact that in some instances where a cow is known to have tuberculosis, disease of the tuberculous bacilli do not always appear in the milk produced.

Therefore it is thought that the milk can be positively ascertained whether or not a cow afflicted with the disease can impart germs to its milk, which, being drunk by human beings or injected into other animals, could infect them with the disease.

Four guinea pigs inoculated with milk taken from tuberculous cows, but finally admitted knowing S. Kohl, to whom the tobacco was consigned.

As soon as he disclosed his identity the store people said they knew nothing about the trunk; that was not their business, and that they did not intend to reveal it.

G. Gellen, who is the general manager for Hirsch, who is in Europe, said that he had no knowledge of the trunk, but admitted knowing S. Kohl, to whom the tobacco was consigned.

The fact that the trunks have always been sent to the Custom House, on this side of the Canadian line, being smuggled across the border, has been admitted by the Custom House officials.

Phil Dwyer, President of the Brooklyn Jockey Club, was arraigned before Justice Walsh in the Adams Street Police Court, Brooklyn, shortly after 10 o'clock this morning on a charge of conducting and maintaining a lottery at the Gravesend track, alleged to have been conducted since the time in September, 1888, when the Legislature had legalized pool-selling.

Justice Walsh asked Mr. Bowers how his client had been named, and he replied that he did not want to plead until his preliminary motion was decided.

Mr. Dwyer had better plead not guilty, and set the case down for examination. This course he declined upon, and to-morrow morning was selected for the hearing.

Mr. Dwyer was then told he could go. Mr. De Lacy was not in court this morning. The hearing was not held in the afternoon, as the law would be more rigidly enforced to-day than yesterday.

THIS WAS RAID NO. 2. Fourteen alleged pickpockets arrested at the Handicap.

Fourteen alleged pickpockets were in the custody of the Brooklyn police this morning. They were arrested at the Brooklyn race track yesterday afternoon.

The prisoners, who were taken to the Adams Street Police Court this morning, are all New Yorkers. There were four boys in the crowd. The prisoners were: John Wilson, twenty-four, barber, living at 141 West Twenty-seventh street.

SMUGGLED TOBACCO. Trunk Containing 250 Pounds Seized by Customs Officials.

Expressed from Rouse's Point to "S. Kohl," 183 Water Street.

Thousands of Pounds Said to Have Been Sent Here in That Way.

Maj. John A. Butler, of the Special Treasury Agents' force in this city, made an important seizure of leaf tobacco this morning, which, it is expected, will lead to the exposure of a gang of tobacco smugglers and the capture of a big lot of tobacco.

Major Butler ascertained that a large trunk filled with choice Sumatra leaf tobacco was shipped from Rouse's Point, last night to this city, addressed to S. Kohl, 183 Water street. When the trunk reached the Grand Central depot this morning, Major Butler was on hand and saw it loaded on a wagon of the American Express Company.

With the aid of a hansom, the Customs officer, got to 183 Water street ahead of the express wagon, and waited until the latter drove up and the trunk was unloaded.

The store 183 Water street is occupied by the tobacco house of Joseph Hirsch, and the people there opened the doors, according to the report of Major Butler, and prepared to receive the trunk. At that point the Major stepped up, and seized the trunk.

As soon as he disclosed his identity the store people said they knew nothing about the trunk; that was not their business, and that they did not intend to reveal it.

G. Gellen, who is the general manager for Hirsch, who is in Europe, said that he had no knowledge of the trunk, but admitted knowing S. Kohl, to whom the tobacco was consigned.

RAID AGAIN TO-DAY. More Bookmakers to Be Arrested by De Lacy's Men.

Later the Race Horses at the Track May Be Seized.

They Are Classed as "Implements in the Lottery."

Peter De Lacy and Lawyer Abe Hummel were closeted in the latter's office for more than an hour this morning discussing the plans for further movement in the fight against the Brooklyn Jockey Club.

When asked what he intended doing at Gravesend this afternoon, De Lacy said: "I am not prepared to answer that question now, but can assure you that there will be some more fun. A good general never tells his plans in advance. It will not be my fault, however, if the matter is not brought to an issue very soon."

De Lacy has been advised by his counsel, it is said, that there is no good legal reason why the horses, that run at the Gravesend track should not be seized, if that move is necessary to stop racing. If De Lacy's contention that the Jock law is unconstitutional is correct, then horses can be classed as "implements" in the lottery that De Lacy alleges being conducted by Dwyer and are therefore liable to seizure by the Sheriff just as would be the paraphernalia of the gambling lottery.

Track Owner John A. Morris moved the plant of his horse gambling concern here. Whether this step will be taken by De Lacy later remains to be seen, but the Lawyer Hummel says that it may be carried out for the present. The latter was a little more talkative than De Lacy. He said: "I will be right in time to proceed as usual to carry out the program of the Custom House. If we are right in our interpretation of the law then we want things pushed to a decision as quickly as possible."

"As fast as those arrested are brought up for examination we will present the cases to the Custom House."

When asked if he would ask the Sheriff to seize any of the horses at the track, De Lacy said: "No, we don't wish to be unnecessarily unpleasant in this matter, and while such a step is certainly legal, we will waive that point, at least for the present. I think our movements to-day will be in accord with those of yesterday, and much of our proceedings will be confined to the setting fine, so that we can get on with the work. I feel assured we will be there at the finish."

DWYER'S BAIL $1,000. Held by Justice Walsh for Examination To-morrow.

WIDOW DREW A DAGGER. Tied to Kill the Policeman Who Arrested Her.

Bessie Rourke, a widow, was held for trial in the Essex Market Court to-day on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon.

Last night Policeman Frank, of the Eldridge street station, was called into the Woman's Lodging-House at Rivington street, where Mrs. Mary Carlton accused the widow of robbing her of $11. The widow became greatly excited, and struck the officer in the face when he attempted to make her a prisoner. She also drew a dagger from her stocking and threatened to kill him.

Intimations of Round Prices for Votes Against the Tariff.

Mr. Lodge Asks for a Committee of Five to Investigate.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, May 16.—Senator Lodge, soon after the Senate met to-day, introduced a resolution authorizing the appointment of five Senators to investigate charges of attempted bribery of Senators, in connection with the pending Tariff bill, and also the charges in a long article published in the Philadelphia Press on Monday morning, containing allegations relating to the influence of the Sugar Trust upon tariff legislation. He asked for the immediate consideration of the resolution, but Senator Cockrell, of Missouri, asked that it lie upon the table until to-morrow.

Rumors of the use of money to influence action one way or the other on the Tariff bill have been in circulation since the appointment of five Senators to investigate charges of attempted bribery of Senators, in connection with the pending Tariff bill, and also the charges in a long article published in the Philadelphia Press on Monday morning, containing allegations relating to the influence of the Sugar Trust upon tariff legislation. He asked for the immediate consideration of the resolution, but Senator Cockrell, of Missouri, asked that it lie upon the table until to-morrow.

MOBS UP THE RIVER. Striking Brickyard Laborers Go on a Raid.

Work Stopped from Fishkill Landing to Dutchess Junction. Foreman on One Yard Compelled to Take to the Woods.

(By Associated Press.) FOUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., May 16.—A big strike of brickyard laborers is on in the yards near Fishkill Landing and Dutchess Junction, affecting about 1,500 men. Since the men employed in the yards about Kingston went on strike for higher wages several days ago agitators have been going up and down the river exciting men in other yards to follow their example.

This morning about 300 men employed in the seven yards in the neighborhood of Low Point struck and compelled the others employed in the same yards to quit with them. The 200 men in Brockway's yard were allowed to remain at work, as the owners made them a promise of an increase in wages.

The strikers formed an angry mob, and armed with clubs and stones marched down the Central and Hudson tracks to Dutchess Junction, a distance of five miles, stopping at all of the six or seven yards on the way and forcing all the men to join the strike.

This course was decided upon, and Mr. Dwyer had better plead not guilty, and set the case down for examination. This course he declined upon, and to-morrow morning was selected for the hearing.

Mr. Dwyer was then told he could go. Mr. De Lacy was not in court this morning. The hearing was not held in the afternoon, as the law would be more rigidly enforced to-day than yesterday.

(By Associated Press.) DIDN'T KNOW THEY HAD MONEY. Park Commissioners Surprised at Mr. Olmstead's Request.

Metropolitan Wants to Lay Tracks on a Park Transverse Road.

At the regular meeting of the Park Board this morning T. J. Olmstead, a property owner in the vicinity of Morris Park, requested the Commissioners to spend a portion of the $3,000 now in their possession for repaving the walks in Riverside Park.

The Commissioners appeared to be surprised to learn that they had the money, and promised Mr. Olmstead to carry out his suggestions, if what he told them was true.

Alderman Oakley headed a delegation of property-owners in the neighborhood of Tompkins Square, who came to protest against Alderman Martin's pet object of turning a portion of Tompkins Park into a play ground for children.

The Board refused the application of Col. Michael C. Murphy for a bond on conditionally to the little park at the foot of Canal street, because there was no appropriation this year for that purpose.

The Board approved the plan for the granite pedestal of the new war memorial to be erected at the Sixth avenue entrance to Central Park.

An opinion was rendered by the Corporation Counsel approving the action of the Board in having others do the work on the new playground, which Alderman Dwyer had the contract, and which, according to an architect, he failed to perform.

"T'WAS A GREAT EXTRA. "The Evening World," as Usual, Beat Them All.

Those persons who left the Gravesend track yesterday afternoon immediately after the Handicap was run and got aboard trains for home were surprised when they reached Bay Ridge to find "The Evening World" Extras there containing the result of the race and description of all the exciting leading up to it. Few of those who were in the train knew that the extras had been prepared until they read "The Evening World."

How it could be that "The Evening World" could get the result of the race, print the papers and get them to Bay Ridge so soon after the race had been run is a marvel to the people.

FELL FIVE STORIES. Expressmen Foley and Kuler Dashed Down an Elevator Shaft.

Freight Lift Gives Way with Probably Fatal Results.

(By Associated Press.) ELEVATORMAN O'NEAR'S ALMOST MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

August Kuler, of 597 Ninth avenue, and Thomas Foley, of Third avenue and Forty-seventh street, while at work on an elevator this morning at 170 Broadway, fell five stories through the elevator shaft. Foley will probably die. He has a fracture of the skull and serious internal injuries. Kuler has his left leg lacerated and compound fracture of the left arm. Both men were taken to Bellevue Hospital. They have large families.

No. 1700 Broadway is the Windsor, a fashionable apartment house. Foley and Kuler are in the employ of D. Brown, of the Niagara Express, Sixth avenue and Fifty-third street. They were sent to the Windsor this morning to move the furniture of Mrs. MacDaniel, a wealthy widow, to another location.

Mrs. MacDaniel occupied apartments on the fifth floor. To get the goods down to the street the passenger elevator was utilized.

A freight lift was attached to the lower part of the elevator by four chains. The arrangement was dangerous to life, an unusual fact was likely to throw one of the hooks out of a ring.

The accident occurred when ten loads had been taken down. The last and fatal trip was attempted when only a few minutes had been loaded on the lift. Foley stepped on the lift first and Kuler followed on at the same time. The lift started to move, but caught on the stand had tilted the floor of the lift, and when Foley put his weight on it, there was a sudden jerk and the hook on the right-hand corner fell from the ring.
