LAST EDITION. McCLAVE WAS RATED LOW.

Yet, According to His Own Testimony, He Was Worth Twice as Much.

A BIG DISCREPANCY SHOWN. Son-in-Law Granger Still Missing and Police Are Looking for Him.

THE COMMISSIONER'S BOOKS. They Show Bank Deposits for Which He Can Give No Definite Explanation.

The most important point scored by Mr. Goff before the Police Investigating Committee this morning was in showing the discrepancy between Commissioner McClave's testimony yesterday in regard to his wealth and the statements he made to commercial agencies in 1883 and 1884.

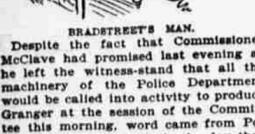

GOFF AND LEXOW CONFER. Mr. McClave said yesterday that he was worth $400,000 at that time, but his statements to Bradstreet's, in his own handwriting, produced to-day, showed that he then claimed to be worth less than $150,000.

In his statement of May 25, 1888, to the same agency, after he had been Commissioner a little more than four years, he placed his wealth at somewhat more than $400,000, showing that it had increased more than $50,000 in the four years.

The mysterious disappearance of Gideon Granger, who told so many unpleasant things about his father-in-law, Police Commissioner McClave, before the Lexow Committee on Monday, has started some ugly rumors.

Did Granger leave town on his own accord? Was he frightened away by threats that he would be arrested? Or had he been improperly influenced to remain away?

These were some of the questions that were asked this morning by those who have been watching the course of proceedings of the Committee in Part II. of the Common Pleas.

ARMOR-PLATE FRAUDS. House Naval Sub-Committee to Begin Hearings to-Morrow.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The Congressional investigation of alleged armor-plate frauds, was put under way to-day by the House Naval Committee. The meeting, which was to outline the work, was behind closed doors, although Chairman Cummings hopes to have the meetings open when the testimony is taken.

In motion of Representative Money (Miss.), it was decided to appoint a sub-committee of five to take the testimony of the witnesses in the case of the incident to trips to Homestead and elsewhere.

WALLACE A FORGER. Caught in This City While Working His Schemes.

His Family Tried to Reform Him, but Failed.

(By Associated Press.) JOHN B. WALLACE, a society swell, who it is said had the entire to the best families in Ohio, was locked up in Police Headquarters this morning to await extradition on a charge of forgery.

Wallace was arrested by Central Office Detectives Murphy and Fink last night at the Metropolitan Hotel, where he had been stopping since last Wednesday. He lived expensively, affecting the air of a prosperous business man, which he represented himself to be, and he enjoyed the best fare and strictest attention of the hotel.

His forgeries, although Inspector McLaughlin has no definite information, it is believed will aggregate thousands of dollars, all of which was spent in touring the country and indulging his fastidious tastes.

There are indictments on eight separate counts against Wallace, in Hamilton, O., according to Chief of Police Thomas, of that place, who wired Inspector McLaughlin yesterday morning to arrest Wallace.

The eight forgeries on which the indictments were found were checks drawn on Simpson & Co., mail order, of Hamilton. It became known to the Thomas that Wallace had assumed the name of J. B. O'Neill, and he impudently described to Inspector McLaughlin in a second telegram.

The register at the Metropolitan had that signature and the detectives waited for the return of the subscriber. They recognized him as Wallace from the description furnished and placed him under arrest.

Wallace had been attempting to negotiate some of his forged paper in New York. He had been to the office of Austin, Nichols & Co., 35 to 37 Hudson street, and ordered $3,000 worth of groceries, represented himself as the purchasing agent of the Metropolitan Lumber Company, of Escanaba, Mich.

He presented a check for the amount. The Cleveland Baking Powder Company, of Hamilton, O., received a visit from Wallace. He told the same story there and returned goods to the amount of his check.

When arrested Wallace had in his pocket a check for $1,000, signed by R. K. Stucker, Treasurer of the Metropolitan Lumber Company, and made payable to the First National Bank, of Escanaba, Mich., and was a forgery.

The other, also a forgery, was for $500, signed by the Valley National Bank, of Hamilton, O. The check was made payable to the New York with extradition papers, and is expected to arrive to-night.

A Battle Seemed Imminent on May 17. (Copyrighted 1894 by Associated Press.) AUCKLAND, NEW ZEALAND, May 23.—The steamship Monowai, from Samoa on May 17, has arrived here.

When the Monowai sailed a large portion of the Government army had been sent to the front, and the rebels were massed at Atua, the battle-field of 1888. A conflict between the rebels and the Government troops was then possible at any hour.

The King had given the Aana party until May 19 to submit. The British warship Curacao and the German warships Buzzard and Falke were at Apia on May 17; but it was understood that the commanders of these vessels were without orders from their governments, in the case of an emergency.

M. BOURGEOIS CALLED. Carnot Summons Him to Consult Over a New Cabinet. (By Associated Press.) PARIS, May 23.—M. Bourgeois has been summoned to consult with the President in regard to the formation of a new Cabinet.

He arrived at the Elysee Palace at 4 o'clock this afternoon. A man closely answering Parke's description was put off the train, upon which Detective Lombard, who was seeking him, was riding. Detective Lombard was not notified until the next station was reached, however, and he then returned and renewed the search.

Meakwings the tall man reported that Parke was actually captured. Young Parke's father resides in Detroit. Caught Breaking Into a Feed Store. Peter Peterson, of 248 Conover street; Henry Ryan, 199 Conover street; William O'Donnell, 120 Sullivan street; and Phillip Sheehan, 160 Sullivan street, were held for examination by Justice Tamm, in the Butler Street Police Court, Brooklyn, this morning on a charge of breaking into the feed store of Patrick Fogarty, in Sullivan street, Brooklyn, early this morning.

An entrance was effected by pulling downboards upon the roof of the store. Policeman Richardson, of the Richards street station, says he caught the men in the act. Tally Beat His Wife. Justice Conolly, in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, to-day held George Tully, a saloonkeeper, of 126 Myrtle avenue, who is quite notorious in treating his wife, Mrs. Tully, to a charge of beating her with a stick.
