

ARSON AFTER THEFT.

Police Want George Schiefelo on a Double Charge.

Said to Have Started a Fire After Stealing Jewelry.

Goods Valued at $3,000 Stolen from His Landlady.

Two Detectives of Inspector McLaughlin's staff and the ward men of the East Sixty-seventh street station, under the direction of Capt. Strauss, are searching the city to-day for George Schiefelo, eighteen years old, who is suspected of having stolen $3,000 worth of jewelry yesterday and then set fire to a house at 403 East Sixty-ninth street to conceal the robbery.

Mrs. Anna Beran, widow of a jeweller who was in business in One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, resides at the address given. A few months ago she took Schiefelo as a boarder. He came to her strongly recommended by his uncle, a Mr. Behler, who is the President of a lodge that owns the house in which Mrs. Beran lives.

Mrs. Beran lived in the third floor flat, and had four rooms. Schiefelo occupied a small room in the rear. He has done no work. Mrs. Beran says, since he lived with her, and for the past month has paid no board. In a closet in the front room Schiefelo kept a watch filled with diamonds and jewelry, which she had retained from the stock in her husband's jewelry store. The woman believes that Schiefelo knew this jewelry was in the house.

At 11 o'clock yesterday morning Mrs. Beran went out to pay a visit to some friends in Hoboken and did not return until late in the evening. At 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon tenants in the house became aware that something was wrong. There was smoke in the halls, and it got thicker and thicker. Finally an investigation was made and fire was discovered in Mrs. Beran's rooms. An alarm was turned in, but the flames, which were confined to Mrs. Beran's bedroom, were extinguished before more than $300 damage had been done.

docks from which any vessels may sail. The stolen jewelry as reported to the police is as follows: Three gold watches, valued at $200; one pair solitary diamond earrings, $150; four diamond rings, $225; three ladies' gold watches, $120; six silver watches, $5; 12 ladies' gold rings, $70; eight gold rings, $80; four silver chains, $30; five pairs diamond earrings, $25; thirty pairs gold earrings, $25; six nickel watches, $2; twenty-five gold pens $20; twenty gold lead pencils, $2; five gold chains, $10; 100 gold and diamond collar buttons, $70.

The only clue the police had this morning was obtained by Warden Graham and Weber. They found two young men, who were friends of Schiefelo. They said that Schiefelo had, within the past week, purchased three gold watches a little at a time, but finally decided to take it all at once.

Schiefelo's uncle is a wealthy butcher, of 125 First avenue. He said, when seen this morning:

"I have not seen the boy in several days, but I hardly believe he would commit an act of that character. I don't think him capable of stealing."

A STRUGGLE WITH THIEVES.

Glitzer Held On to His Man and Screamed.

Police men James and Edward Keating, of the East Twenty-second street squad, arrested Peter Shaughnessy and William O'Connor, each twenty-five years old, in Yorkville Court this morning, on the charge of being lodging-house thieves.

Last night they entered the saloon of Benjamin Glitzer, at 311 Third avenue, and ordered drinks. They were recognized as thieves and requested to leave. They would not go, and Shaughnessy hit him on the head. The saloon-keeper screamed at the top of his voice, at the same time holding on to O'Connor. Shaughnessy fled, abandoning his confederate. Shaughnessy was found later. O'Connor was committed for trial, and Shaughnessy was sent to the island for ten days.

Accused of Robbing a Saloon.

John Ayers, seventeen years old, of 225 East Thirty-ninth street, and James Finn, aged nineteen, of 225 East Thirtieth street, were remanded in Yorkville Police Court today on a charge of being suspicious persons. They were arrested by Detective Nolan, of the East Thirty-ninth street squad, as having been concerned in the robbery of Mortimer's saloon, at First avenue and Thirty-ninth street, early last Sunday morning.

WM. VOGEL & SON.

THIS WEEK'S SPECIAL. MEN'S SUITS of French and English Vicunas and Worsteds, $21.50

Reduced from $25, $28 & $30. Our Furnishing Goods Department is showing seasonable styles of Neckwear, Underwear Shirts, &c., that fit, and at prices which will be of interest.

Houston St. & Broadway. Clothing bought of us kept pressed and repaired free of charge.

MATHEWS FOUND GUILTY.

Pitt & Scott's Dishonest Employee Must Suffer.

He Robbed Uncle Sam by Manipulating Goods in Bond.

John Mathews was found guilty of conspiracy to defraud the Government out of customs duties by a jury in the United States Circuit Court last night. The maximum penalty is two years in the penitentiary and $10,000 fine. Judge Benedict, in charging the jury, said the case was one of the most important, so far as the customs law was concerned, which has been before him in years. Assistant District Attorney Matt said this morning that he could only approximate the amount out of which the Government had been defrauded by Mathews and his fellow-conspirators, but he thought $50,000 was not a low estimate.

HAGEN IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Defaulting Bank Bookkeeper on the Last Lap of a Long Flight.

United States Marshal Jacobus has received a despatch from United States Marshal Lang, of San Francisco, advising him of the arrival of Augustus C. Hagen at San Francisco, in the custody of Special Government Agent C. Bennett, who will bring him East.

ROGUE NO. 2,042 IN TROUBLE.

Sneak-Thief O'Neill, Alias Kennedy, Falls Foul of the Police. Matthew O'Neill, alias Matt Kennedy, twenty-two years old, whose picture is 2,042 in the Rogues' Gallery, was held in $1,500 bail for examination in the Harlem Police Court this morning charged with having stolen $40 of Jacob Strubbel, of 254 First avenue.

Strubbel, who keeps a saloon, said that O'Neill went into his place May 21 and while pretending to write at a desk, broke open a drawer and took out the money.

Strubbel did not miss the money until O'Neill had left. The saloon-keeper then went to the East One Hundred and Fourth street station, and at once picked out O'Neill's picture from the collection there.

Detectives Smith and Money arrested O'Neill last night. They say their prisoner is a very clever thimble and sneak thief.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT FOR $2

Antonio Donelo Stabbed Angello Fennelo Three Times.

The Latter Was Unable to Repay a Loan Upon Demand.

Antonio Donelo, an Italian laborer, of 59 Courtlandt avenue, was held without bail in Morrisania Police Court this morning to await the result of three stab wounds which he is said to have inflicted upon Angello Fennelo, of 539 East One Hundred and Forty-ninth street, at 11 o'clock last night.

Fennelo was stabbed under the right shoulder blade, in the right side and in the back of the neck. He is now in Harlem Hospital, and his recovery is said to be doubtful.

Fennelo has for some time owed Donelo $2. Last night the men met in front of 175 East One Hundred and Forty-ninth street. Donelo demanded the money. A fight resulted.

The men were separated by friends. Donelo going to his home. Fennelo went into the house No. 522, where some of his friends live. Donelo soon returned armed with a dirk and hid in an alley between the house 522 East One Hundred and Forty-ninth street and a saloon next door.

When Fennelo left his friends to go home, Donelo rushed from his hiding place and set upon the defenseless Italian. He stabbed him three times in rapid succession and started to run.

Fennelo staggered and fell into the gutter. An ambulance from the Harlem Hospital was summoned and Fennelo was removed, more dead than alive.

No other cause for the assault is assigned, but the fact that the prisoner owed him the $2 and was unable to pay it.

She Suspects Her Lodger.

Edward Daly was held in Yorkville Court this morning to answer a charge of robbery. On Wednesday Daly rented a furnished room from Mrs. Jane Johnson, a deaf old woman, who keeps a boarding-house at 422 West Fifty-third street. Yesterday Mrs. Johnson discovered that some one had stolen a clock, a necktie and a silk dress. Suspicion at once fell on Daly, whom she had suggested to a room at 2 A. S.

to-day and was arrested. He denied the charge.

RIDLEYS' SEMI-WEEKLY UNDER-COST SALE.

To STIMULATE TRADE we will for the NEXT FEW WEEKS offer in various departments SEASONABLE GOODS at less than cost.

PRICES QUOTED WILL HOLD GOOD FOR TWO DAYS ONLY.

No mail orders filled for these under-cost bargains

HOT SHOT FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, JUNE 8 AND 9.

LACES. BLACK ALL-SILK BURBON LACE, used for Capes and Dress Trimmings, never sold less than 50c. yard.

SALE 25 C. YARD. PRICE (8 inches wide.)

SALE 25 C. YARD. PRICE (10 inches wide.)

SALE 11 C. YARD. PRICE (10 inches wide.)

HOT SHOT FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY ONLY.

LADIES' MERINO UNDERWEAR. 100 DOZEN LADIES' RIBBED VESTS, some worth 19c., some worth 25c.

SALE 9 C. EACH. PRICE

LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S STOCKINGS. CHILDREN'S DERBY-RIBBED BLACK COTTON, sizes 5 to 9.

SALE 7 1/2 C. PAIR. PRICE

THE PRICES ON THESE UNDER-COST BARGAINS WILL HOLD GOOD FOR TWO DAYS ONLY. WILL NOT

EDW'D RIDLEY & SONS, 309 TO 321 GRAND ST., NEW YORK.

Hotels. Boarders Wanted—Country.

TABLE D'HOTEL, 50c. including wine; (best) selection of 36 dishes, New York Hotel, 955 Broadway.

LONG RIDGE, Sullivan County, N. Y.—Excellent table; situated on Delaware River and good trout stream; boating; $6 per week. Box 5.

RAIN OR SHINE.

Our new Harlem Store is crowded all day to its utmost capacity with bargain buyers. This is the result of truthful announcements to the Public. We adopt this novel plan by disposing of our broken lots of fine Clothing for Men and Boys quickly by marking them at exactly half their original price. Open evenings.

VOGEL BROTHERS,

2292-2294 Third Ave.,

Near 125th St.

Caution: This is our only Harlem store.

For Sale. Men's, Youth's and Boy's FINE CLOTHING, ready made or to order, Ladies' and Misses' Wraps, Jackets, Capes and Suits, all the latest styles and designs, on easy weekly or monthly payments.

Manhattan Clothing Co., 1114 3d Ave., bet. 4th & 5th Sts. Open Evenings until 9:30 Saturday.

Down, $1 WEEKLY, BUYS 14K. gold-filled watches. Delivered immediately jewelry same terms. Lowest prices. Comparisons solicited. Address: J. E. ARNOLD, 3 Maiden Lane, New York.

WILCOX & GIBBS, Automatic Domestic Sewing Machines, White Singer, Household, the well-known Krumpholtz, good second-hand sewing machines from $10 up, for cash or monthly payments. We exchange, rent and repair all kinds of machines. Krumpholtz Co., 124 E. 14th St., 2nd floor.

AT ONCE—Magnificent furniture, private residence: fine silk brocade parlor suit, $45; paintings, grandfather's clock, magnificent full-size mahogany upright piano, $100, worth three times that; folding-bed, oak bedroom suite, hand-carved oak high-top, fine Wilson velvet carpets, $15. Like new; separately: other pieces, 150 W. 64 St.

FOR SALE CHEAP—24-pound Raleigh bicycle, pneumatic tires, 22 St. Nicholas ave. Ring 25 bell.

Lost, Found and Rewards. A LIBERAL REWARD will be paid for the return of the gray crested bird the size of a small pigeon, which escaped from 211 Fulton st., New York, to-day.

NEWLY DECORATED: six light rooms and bath; improvements; rent reasonable. 117 East 113th St.; janitor.

Lynchings in Mississippi. (By Associated Press) WESSON, Miss., June 8.—Louis Williams, colored, aged eighteen, was lynched yesterday for attempting to assault a 44-year-old white girl.

Features of THE SUNDAY WORLD Next Sunday.

Nellie Bly Takes the Keeley Cure.

Boss McKane in Sing Sing.

A World Reporter Makes the Interesting Discovery that the ex-King of Coney Island Is a Much-Favored Prisoner and Is Having a Very Easy Time.

CLIMBING THE HIMALAYAS. Review of the Notable Book of Exploration and Adventure by the Vice-President of the Alpine Club.

THE NEW RULES FOR UMPIRING. Secretary Stackhouse, of the New York Club, Writes How to Make the Umpire's Decisions Respected.

LATEST THEATRICAL CRAZE. A Very Striking Page of Illustrations Showing the "Living Pictures" Which Are Now Drawing Crowds to Certain Theatres.

She Spends a Week Among the Colony of Unfortunate Women at the White Plains Keeley Institute Who Are Trying to Free Themselves from the Morphine and Liquor Habits.

A Tale of The Jungle.

BY RUDYARD KIPLING.

SUICIDES IN NEW YORK. Coroner Justin Herold Writes a Most Interesting Article Giving His Observations and Studies as to Why People Kill Themselves.

WOMEN CRUSADERS AGAINST DRINK. One Hundred of the Leading Women of England and America to Visit Every Nation on the Globe in the Interest of Temperance.

MGR. SATOLLI ON WOMAN SUFFRAGE. A "World" Reporter Visits His Home and Has a Most Interesting Chat with the Distinguished Prelate.

ORIGINAL HUMOR COLORED CARTOONS.