WIMAN ON THE RACK.
Termed an Ingrate by Assistant District-Attorney Wellman.
Defense Will Claim that He Violated No Law.

2 O'CLOCK.
IT MAY BE A MURDER.

Two Men Seen to Carry Him There and Go Through Him.

Thought to Be a Victim of Knock-Out Drops or Sandbagging.
Michael Angelo Marino, thirty-five years old, of 191 Mulberry street, was found dead on the stoop of 186 Lexington avenue at 3 o'clock this morning.

Deputy Coroner O'Hare, who gave a permit to remove the body, made a superficial examination. He found no marks on the man's body to-day, and is of the opinion that Marino died from internal hemorrhage of the lungs.

Marino was bookkeeper for Rocco Verrelli, who keeps a banking establishment at 130 Hester street and a saloon at 122 Mulberry street.

Yesterday Verrelli gave Marino $5.00 and sent him out to collect some bills in Harlem. Besides the money, Marino had a silver watch and two gold rings. The money, watch and rings were gone when he was found.

Verrelli and some of the dead man's friends, who were waiting for the body at the station-house this morning, are not satisfied with the theory that he died of hemorrhage. They think he was sandbagged and robbed.

One of the friends, Joseph Gerrault, who keeps a cigar store at 231 East One Hundred and Fifteenth street, said Marino called at his house yesterday afternoon and agreed to let Gerrault carry the body to the station-house this morning.

DEATH IN BAD MEAT.
Two Children Die of Supposed Potomac Poisoning.

They Ate Kidney Stew and Soon After Grew Ill.
The Health Board is Now Investigating the Matter.

Chief Chemist Martin and Dr. Allen, of the Health Department, are making an investigation to-day into the death of two Broester children, said to have died from Potomac poisoning at their home, 645 East Fifteenth street, last week. Both children were buried yesterday.

Hattonia Broester died at 6.45 P. M. Thursday. He was six years old, and had been sick several days.

The other child, George, was four years and eight months old. He died at 10 on Saturday.

The certificate of death gives the cause as acute typhoid, caused by ptomaine poisoning from eating kidney stew.

The father of the children is Herman E. Broester, an engineer. The details of the investigation to-day into the death of the two Broester children, said to have died from Potomac poisoning at their home, 645 East Fifteenth street, last week. Both children were buried yesterday.

YUNG FONG SEES MR. BYRNES.
Charges Policeman Donigan with Assault and False Arrest.

Complaints Against Other Officers to Be Investigated.
Yung Fong, a Chinese laundryman on Third avenue, between One Hundred and First and One Hundred and Second streets, accompanied by Lawyer Francis J. Moore and an American, Chinese man, whose name was withheld, appeared before Supt. Byrnes this morning and made a formal complaint against Policeman Frank S. Donigan, of the Union Market Squad, who lives at 225 East One Hundred and First street.

The complaint against the policeman is unprovoked assault and false arrest, the story of which was told in yesterday's "Evening World."

Donigan, it appears, entered Yung Fong's laundry Sunday morning and engaged in an altercation with the proprietor, Yung Fong, which resulted in Donigan being arrested by Policeman Donigan, who lives at 225 East One Hundred and First street.

POLICE CAPTAINS MEMBERS.
The Names of Schmittberger and Devery Appear on the Lists.

After a breathing space of three days the Lexow Police Investigating Committee resumed its work this morning with fresh vigor.

It was rumored that Mr. Goff had some new information on the way, and that his testimony would be fully as interesting as any that was given last week. The early indications seemed to promise this, for among the first arrivals at Part II. of the Superior Court this morning were Louis Munzinger, the Treasurer of the Pequod Club, John C. Schmittberger, and James Devery, of the Thirtieth District, who told the Committee last week that he could not produce any of the books of the Club without the permission of the Board of Directors.

Mr. Munzinger could tell a great many interesting things about the Pequod Club if he would, but when he was last on the stand he proved a very unwilling witness, being afflicted with a painful weakness of memory.

All the while there he fought, and struggled to escape, and made the air ring with his shrieks. A crowd of 500 people followed the truck to the Tombs.

Policeman Tyler, of the Broadway squad, saw the man, who had just leaped from his truck, raising a small boy and rebuked him for it. The truckman turned upon Tyler, who attempted to arrest him. A terrific struggle ensued.

CIVIL WAR EXPECTED.
May Be the Only Way to Establish Morocco's New Ruler.

France Sends Four of Her Warships to Tangier—More to Follow.
England's Fears Excited—Muley Hassan's Body Sent to Rabat.

TOULON, (By Associated Press.)—Four warships under the command of Admiral Le Bourgeois have started for Tangier. The ironclads Mugenta, Admiral Dupare and Alger, under Admiral Gaudry, have also been ordered to be ready to sail for Morocco at the shortest notice.

LOTON, June 12.—The coming of a French fleet to Morocco, and of the preparations being made to reinforce it if necessary, is attracting considerable attention here. The news from Morocco is far from being reassuring and civil war is anticipated. Conflicting reports are still in circulation in regard to the death of the late Sultan of Morocco, and the general opinion seems to be that Sultan Abdul Aziz will have to defend his throne with the sword.

The Pall Mall Gazette, referring to the jealousy of the powers in regard to Morocco, says that the danger of European peace is due to the fact that the general opinion seems to be that Sultan Abdul Aziz will have to defend his throne with the sword.

The Globe and the St. James's Gazette expect that a civil war will be the only way of settling the succession to the throne of Morocco. The Globe counsels still in circulation in regard to the death of the late Sultan of Morocco, and the general opinion seems to be that Sultan Abdul Aziz will have to defend his throne with the sword.

Muley Ismail is a popular favorite and trouble is feared. The Spanish cruiser Conde Venadillo has arrived here.

Justice Talbot in the Tombs Police Court this noon held for examination one John Taylor, charged with using obscene language, fighting and resisting an officer.

The prisoner was so violent that he had to be clubbed and finally thrown on a truck, because the city has no patrol wagon, and carried to court.

DRIVEN FROM THEIR HOMES.
Foul Sewage in the Cellars of Brooklyn Houses.

Inmates Fly from the Stench and Appeal to the Authorities.
The water and refuse in the big sewer in Stanhope street between Knickerbocker and Hamburg avenues, Brooklyn, overflowed this morning and flooded the cellars of adjoining property to such an extent that some of the residents were forced to abandon their homes.

WEATHER.
2 O'CLOCK.

JUST AS HOT TO-DAY.
Mr. Dunn Says So and Has Evidence to Prove It.

But to New Yorkers the Weather Seems Cooler than Yesterday's.
Weather Forecaster Dunn ran to the anemometer, then to the pluviometer, then to the barometer and to the thermometer, and pronounced all his prognostications verified, the first thing he did when he got into his office this morning.

"It is generally fair," he exclaimed, "the wind is in the west, and we have continued high temperature."

A waiting reporter, whose scientific knowledge probably struck the altitude of an anemometer, while it was between eight and nine miles an hour yesterday, ventured the opinion that it was much cooler to-day than at the same hour yesterday.

As Mr. Dunn's prophetic reputation rested on sustained heat, this expression of opinion probably struck the altitude of an anemometer, while it was between eight and nine miles an hour yesterday, ventured the opinion that it was much cooler to-day than at the same hour yesterday.
