

THE BOOKS WERE STOLEN.

ison Building was going up, his men were arrested three different times. About fifteen men were arrested each time. The last time they were arrested was on June 17. "That time I went down to the station with the men," said Mr. Kilpatrick, "and I saw the books and I saw the captain. The ward man, Byrnes, had approached me several times and had told me I must pay $25 for each book. There were two bridges.

to old a man as to see you reason. "They never did." "Who asked you to collect this money?" "Nobody did. I was never asked to pay anything. It was only friendship and good nature, and I would make the pile as big as I could." "Then you know where the money went?" "Oh, yes, I know about where it went. Golden swore that he did not know where he was let off with $10, while his neighbors paid $25, on consideration that he would do the same for them. "James Carney, who is a liquor dealer at 101 Columbus avenue, said he had never in his life had any trouble with the police in regard to excise violations. He had been arrested twice for violating the Excise law about two or three years ago, but he had no trouble with the police. He had never complained of a policeman being treated outside of his store. He was excited.

Daniel Hoxland, a florid-faced, curly-haired man, was called in to give evidence. He was a member of the Liquor Dealers' Association for two years. He was subpoenaed to bring the books of the Association, but he said that he had not done so, because he did not have them in his possession. These were in charge of the recording and the secretaries. The Treasurer also had a book. There was also a Board of Trustees or Finance Committee, which had charge of payments.

THE MODERN HORATIUS AT THE BRIDGE.

"Hill Is Fighting Still."—The World.

INCOME TAX STANDS.

Hill's Effort to Knock It Out Completely Fails. (By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, June 28.—In the Senate today, Mr. Hill moved to strike out all sections of the bill relating to the income tax, and made a speech in support of his motion. The motion was lost—24 yeas to 49 nays.

Books Stolen.

"Have you those minute books now?" asked Mr. Goff. "Stolen from you, you mean?" "Yes, sir. Since this Committee began its sessions."

Rough Minute Book Also Stolen.

"That same meeting there was a good deal of excitement, and while my attention was attracted to the rough minute book, in which I took notes of my meetings for about two years."

Small-Fry the Victims.

"Isn't it true," asked Mr. Goff, "that it is the smaller builders who are obliged to pay the most money for their books?" "Yes, sir. It is a necessity for most of them, but I would never submit to it, if it cost every cent I had. Why, I've been arrested and taken to court because I refused to pay for my books."

IS McCLAVE MENTALLY ILL?

The Police Commissioner Said to Be Breaking Down. PORTCHESTER, N. Y., June 28.—There is much comment in this village regarding the condition of Police Commissioner McClave.

BYRNES, NICOLL AND MURRAY

Three-Handed Conference Held in Police Headquarters. There was a long consultation this morning in Supt. Byrnes's office between the three men.

MONAGHAN ALSO RESIGNS.

The Second Dockmaster Mentioned by McLaren Retires. At the meeting of the Dock Board today Dockmaster James A. Monaghan handed in his resignation, to take effect July 1.

Shea Trial Near an End.

Shea Trial Near an End. (By Associated Press.) TROY, June 28.—It is expected that the Shea murder trial will be completed next week and given to the jury. The people will rest today. The first witness this morning was Charles Adams. He related the beginning of the fight at the polls in about the same manner as it had been told by previous witnesses.

MR. BROOKWAY'S HANDY FIST.

Convict Friedebach Got It Straight in the Face. Justice Barrett, of the Supreme Court, today decided that the objections to the report of Detective William H. Willis, who passed upon the accounts of Frederick Friedebach, trustee of a fund created by the late Mrs. Sarah Helen Green, should be overruled and the report confirmed.

Reformatory Doctor Vets Tells of Some Curious Inquiries.

Dr. H. B. Wey, Reformatory Physician, testified that during the last twelve months of his service he had seen held at the Reformatory. The cases he remembered were those of inmates Paul Meyer, Hunneman and Labrecht. The last named, he said, died in his cell. The Curious was called when he was not able to issue a certificate of death.

STAMP CLERK ARRESTED.

Stevens Charged with Stealing $700 from Uncle Sam. Adolphus E. Stevens, a stamp clerk in the Post-office, was arrested by Post-office Inspector Charles H. G. Friedebach, a lower first-grade man, on a warrant charging him with robbing the United States Government.

MRS. RICCARDO SUEED.

Her Husband Says She Is Living with Another Man. Albert Riccardo has brought suit for an absolute divorce from Geneva Riccardo in the Superior Court. The couple were married Nov. 12, 1928, at Pittsburgh, Pa., while both were playing with the Hamilton Club.

WHEAT DECLINES SHARPLY.

Arrival of the First Bale of New Crop Cotton. About the only demand in the wheat market this morning came from a few local shorts and there was a good deal of selling induced by favorable crop reports at home and good conditions abroad.

BANKER PHILLIPS SUES.

Wants $101,479.77 from the Ohio Southern Railroad. Charles F. Phillips, a banker, has brought suit in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, against the Ohio Southern Railroad Company to recover $101,479.77.

PHILADELPHIA, June 28.—The fallure will be in no wise affect the market for wheat and flour, it is said, will reach $2.00.

APPEAL DATE APPOINTED RECEIVER.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 28.—Vice-President Hall of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad announced that his road has disposed of its entire interest in the New York and New England road. He states that the deal was recently consummated in New York when the $15,000,000 of New England second mortgage bonds were sold.

SUGAR AND CHICAGO GAS UP.

In a Subsequent Reaction the Sweet Stock Tumbled. Rates of Exchange Reduced for the First Time in Weeks. The consideration of the income tax bill, which was passed by the House on June 27, was the subject of the tariff bill was finished at 12:45.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

Mr. Hill's various amendments relating to the examination of the books of corporations were lost. The Senate, after passing the bill, considered other internal revenue legislation. The bill providing for a 2-cent per pack tax on playing cards was fixed at 2 cents per pack.

THE RAILROADS TAKE A HAND.

and demanding that the order for the discharge of all employees who refuse to hold a permit from the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America. A committee of five was appointed to wait on General Manager Serick, and the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America.

Train No. 7, which runs as far west as Denver, was held up at the bridge at St. Paul. No engineer or fireman could be found to man the engine.

The members of the U. M. W. on the Northern Pacific state that they have a perfect organization all along the system. The organization is in excellent financial condition and will not be continued to the trainmen alone.

Train No. 7, which runs as far west as Denver, was held up at the bridge at St. Paul. No engineer or fireman could be found to man the engine.

The members of the U. M. W. on the Northern Pacific state that they have a perfect organization all along the system. The organization is in excellent financial condition and will not be continued to the trainmen alone.

Train No. 7, which runs as far west as Denver, was held up at the bridge at St. Paul. No engineer or fireman could be found to man the engine.

The members of the U. M. W. on the Northern Pacific state that they have a perfect organization all along the system. The organization is in excellent financial condition and will not be continued to the trainmen alone.

Train No. 7, which runs as far west as Denver, was held up at the bridge at St. Paul. No engineer or fireman could be found to man the engine.

The members of the U. M. W. on the Northern Pacific state that they have a perfect organization all along the system. The organization is in excellent financial condition and will not be continued to the trainmen alone.

Train No. 7, which runs as far west as Denver, was held up at the bridge at St. Paul. No engineer or fireman could be found to man the engine.

The members of the U. M. W. on the Northern Pacific state that they have a perfect organization all along the system. The organization is in excellent financial condition and will not be continued to the trainmen alone.

Train No. 7, which runs as far west as Denver, was held up at the bridge at St. Paul. No engineer or fireman could be found to man the engine.

The members of the U. M. W. on the Northern Pacific state that they have a perfect organization all along the system. The organization is in excellent financial condition and will not be continued to the trainmen alone.

Train No. 7, which runs as far west as Denver, was held up at the bridge at St. Paul. No engineer or fireman could be found to man the engine.

The members of the U. M. W. on the Northern Pacific state that they have a perfect organization all along the system. The organization is in excellent financial condition and will not be continued to the trainmen alone.

Train No. 7, which runs as far west as Denver, was held up at the bridge at St. Paul. No engineer or fireman could be found to man the engine.

The members of the U. M. W. on the Northern Pacific state that they have a perfect organization all along the system. The organization is in excellent financial condition and will not be continued to the trainmen alone.

Train No. 7, which runs as far west as Denver, was held up at the bridge at St. Paul. No engineer or fireman could be found to man the engine.

The members of the U. M. W. on the Northern Pacific state that they have a perfect organization all along the system. The organization is in excellent financial condition and will not be continued to the trainmen alone.

Train No. 7, which runs as far west as Denver, was held up at the bridge at St. Paul. No engineer or fireman could be found to man the engine.

The members of the U. M. W. on the Northern Pacific state that they have a perfect organization all along the system. The organization is in excellent financial condition and will not be continued to the trainmen alone.

Train No. 7, which runs as far west as Denver, was held up at the bridge at St. Paul. No engineer or fireman could be found to man the engine.

The members of the U. M. W. on the Northern Pacific state that they have a perfect organization all along the system. The organization is in excellent financial condition and will not be continued to the trainmen alone.

Train No. 7, which runs as far west as Denver, was held up at the bridge at St. Paul. No engineer or fireman could be found to man the engine.

The members of the U. M. W. on the Northern Pacific state that they have a perfect organization all along the system. The organization is in excellent financial condition and will not be continued to the trainmen alone.

Train No. 7, which runs as far west as Denver, was held up at the bridge at St. Paul. No engineer or fireman could be found to man the engine.

The members of the U. M. W. on the Northern Pacific state that they have a perfect organization all along the system. The organization is in excellent financial condition and will not be continued to the trainmen alone.

Train No. 7, which runs as far west as Denver, was held up at the bridge at St. Paul. No engineer or fireman could be found to man the engine.

The members of the U. M. W. on the Northern Pacific state that they have a perfect organization all along the system. The organization is in excellent financial condition and will not be continued to the trainmen alone.

Train No. 7, which runs as far west as Denver, was held up at the bridge at St. Paul. No engineer or fireman could be found to man the engine.

The members of the U. M. W. on the Northern Pacific state that they have a perfect organization all along the system. The organization is in excellent financial condition and will not be continued to the trainmen alone.