6TH AVE. 21ST TO 22D ST. THESE GREAT BARGAINS FOR TO-MORROW & SATURDAY MORNING.

The New York Novelty Co., manufacturers of Cloaks and Suits at 28 and 30 West Houston st., confessed judgment in favor of Edward R. Hatch, doing business as Lord & Taylor.

This announcement in yesterday's papers should be highly interesting to our customers, as we purchased from this firm four spot cash just before the failure of the greater part of their productions, which will offer at less than the first cost of the materials of which they are made.

HERE ARE 3 BARGAIN POINTERS IN OUTING SUITS.

LADIES' OUTING SUITS, tailor made, of a splendid quality of English Duck in handsome patterns, on light or dark grounds, full gored skirt and Tuxedo jacket (entirely different in quality, finish and shape from the so-called Duck Suits offered at low prices elsewhere), in the exact quality we've been selling all the season for $2.48; now reduced to the extremely low price of .97.

Stylish Ladies' Outing Suits of black or navy blue chevot, Tuxedo jacket, with silk facing and full gored skirt. A splendid $6.00 suit at 2.98.

A beautiful style of Ladies' Tailor-made Outing Suit, of fine imported French whipcord, made with Tuxedo Jacket, beautifully finished, extra full gored skirt. A splendid $2.00 Suit at 10.98.

MEN'S UNDERWEAR at about one-third their real value, is a lot of Manufacturers' samples in Gauze and Balbriggan Shirts, made with long or short sleeves, many are silk bound with pearl buttons, and the value of the entire lot ranges from 40c. to 50c. each; while they last our price will be only .15.

A GREAT PARASOL BARGAIN is a lot of 1,000 Ladies' Fancy Coaching Parasols, in a variety of colors and patterns, handsomely mounted with imported stick handles and worth $1.50 a piece, at .59.

BARGAINS IN LADIES' & CHILDREN'S SHOES.

Ladies' fine Patent Leather Oxford .98
Ties, all sizes, good value at .98
Also in Paris Kid, with tips, or Russet Tan, all sizes, good value at .98
Reduced to .98

Children's Tan Goat, button, spring heel shoes, sizes 6 to 10, regular $1.50 article, reduced to .86

Fine Paris Kid, with tips, sizes 6 to 10 .76

Sizes 11 to 2 .97

This handsome style of Negligee Shirt, worth $1.00, cut down to 49c. It is cut in the most perfect shape, with a yoke, and finished in the best manner, laundered collar and cuffs and soft bosom, and is made of a fine quality of percale or chevot, in a variety of pretty patterns in stripes, checks and polka dots; all sizes, from 14 to 17, and is worth every cent of .49.

How can we sell 'em so cheap? By simply taking the manufacturer's entire stock of this one style, paying him cash down for the lot, and being the last of the season's production, getting them at about half the cost of manufacture.

SATOLLI'S DECREE.
New York Catholic Liquor Dealers Greatly Disturbed by It.
Father Lavelle Doesn't Consider It a General Order.
But Says the Church has Always Opposed the Traffic.

The decision of Archbishop Satolli approving of the stand taken by Bishop Waterston, of Columbus, O., on the liquor question, has fallen like a bombshell upon the Catholic community of this city. The decision, which states that Bishop Waterston was right when he said that no liquor dealer in his diocese could be a member of any Catholic society; that no good Catholic should have any connection with the manufacture or sale of liquor, and that the last vestige of the Church should be denied to all those liquor dealers within his jurisdiction who abused the liquor traffic.

In the city of New York there are still hundreds of Catholics engaged in the liquor business who heretofore never considered themselves under the ban of the Church. They scarcely knew what made the decision, and many of them were up at the archiepiscopal residence in Madison avenue to find out. The Archbishop is not in town, however, nor is Mr. Farley, the Vicar-General.

Rev. Father Lavelle, pastor of the cathedral parish, a member of the Archbishop's Council, and who generally follows the same direction in the absence of his superior, was seen by an "Evening World" reporter. In order that there should be no chance of misinterpretation he wrote the following reply to the reporter's main question as to what he thought of the decision locally. "I do not think any hard and fast rules will be laid down. That decision was, of course, intended for those who are in a position to make laws similar to those enacted by Mr. Waterston in his pastoral letter of last Lent. The decision not only affirms the aforesaid right, but commends the spirit whereby it is animated. I don't think it is meant to be mandatory for the country at large.

But it manifests clearly the mind of the Church in promoting the virtue of temperance, and to repress as much as may be the many frightful excesses and abuses connected with the liquor traffic. I do not care to be quoted on the main question further than that, he said, as to his application locally, he does not think any hard and fast rules will be laid down. That decision was, of course, intended for those who are in a position to make laws similar to those enacted by Mr. Waterston in his pastoral letter of last Lent. The decision not only affirms the aforesaid right, but commends the spirit whereby it is animated. I don't think it is meant to be mandatory for the country at large.

Peety Housekeeper Robbed.
Elizabeth Vetter, a prepossessing young woman, living at 278 East Twenty-eighth street, was complained in the Yorkville Court today by her landlady, Mrs. J. J. Vetter, who lives at 278 East Twenty-eighth street, Brooklyn. She had reported for a position as a housekeeper. Among those who knew the advertisement personally was Engelbrecht, who was the largest in the order of King of labor. Last night eleven delegates to the next General Assembly of all who are anti-foreignism met, and favored to P. M.

Wenters to Be Set Free.
SENeca, Kan., July 18.—(Special Press.)—A man named Wenters, who was arrested on Tuesday, the object in this liberating him is to be set free. The object in this liberating him is to be set free. The object in this liberating him is to be set free.

Pythian Cases for Denver.
DENVER, Col., July 18.—Knights of Pythian organizers are arranging for the construction of a Pythian Castle in this city. The building is to be sufficiently large to accommodate from fifteen to twenty lodges. The castle will cost $100,000.

When Baby was Sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she became a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

ROBBERS ON A RAID.
Agent and Messenger of Wells-Fargo Express Attacked.
One Overpowered at a Station, the Other in a Car.

Indian Territory Bandits Secured but Little Booty from Either.

(By Associated Press.)
ST. LOUIS, July 19.—G. P. Simpson, General Manager of the Wells-Fargo Express, reports that at 5:30 o'clock last night a gang of seven desperadoes, headed by "Bill" Crooke, overpowered the agent of the Wells-Fargo Express at Red Fork, Indian Territory, and secured a small amount of money and a number of packages, the contents of which are not known.

The gang then boarded the southbound passenger train on the Monett branch of the Frisco road, which was stopped at Red Fork, Express Messenger Chapman, of the Wells-Fargo Company, was overpowered, and his car ransacked for valuables. He was knocked senseless by a blow on the head from a Winchester in the hands of one of the gang. It is thought that he is seriously hurt.

Before anything could be obtained by the robbers they were frightened away. A posse was raised by the Sheriff and started in pursuit from Claremont.

ROBBED HIS ROOMMATE.
Richard Burkhardt, twenty years old, a nurse at the German Hospital, Seventy-seventh street and Park avenue, was arraigned on a charge of theft in Yorkville Court today. Julius Kneller, also a nurse, was the prisoner's roommate, and he accuses Burkhardt of stealing $50 from his trunk.

When arraigned, the prisoner admitted having stolen the money, and Kneller took it as a loan. The money done me no good. Before I had a chance to make any use of the money it was stolen from me.

On his promise to refund the money, Julius would not press the complaint, and Richard was discharged.

Two Children Drowned.
VICTORIA, B. C., July 18.—Lillian and Edward Sullivan, children of E. J. Sullivan, director of the Victoria Hotel, were drowned at Jericho yesterday while bathing.

HALTED BY A THREAT.
When a Policeman Said He Would Shoot the Burglar Stopped.

Policeman Foran and William of the Nineteenth Precinct, were notified at 2 o'clock this morning that there was a burglar working at the bars over the rear windows of Henry Van Helmen's grocery-store at 60 Sixth avenue.

When the policeman reached the scene the burglar jumped over a fence and started to run away. Policeman Foran threatened to shoot, and the man stopped.

He said he was Edward Van Horn, twenty-eight years old, of Thirty-eighth street between Seventh and Eighth avenues, and that he formerly worked in a bakery next door to the grocery.

At Jefferson Market Court today Van Horn was held in $100 bail for trial.
