

HELP UP A GREEN-ROODS CAR. Daring Attempt of Green-Roods Men to Rob a Jersey Farmer.

BEATEN AT THEIR OWN GAME. They Had Given Him Good Money and He Held On to the Auto.

CHASED HIM TO GET IT BACK. Stopped the Car, Shut Off the Current and Sprang Upon Him.

The Jersey City police were notified last night of a daring attempt at highway robbery on board a trolley car when between Jersey City and Bayonne. The facts, as given to the police are as follows:

The Bayonne trolley car leaving the Jersey City ferry at 7.30 last night contained a farmer who was sitting inside the car with his big satchel beside him, and two well-dressed men, near the conductor. The car contained some other passengers also.

Nothing happened until the car had left the stables, which are near the woods half-way between Bayonne and Jersey City. Suddenly one of the men on the rear platform was seen to pull the rope which was connected with the trolley pole running to the trolley wire overhead the car. When the man pulled the rope the trolley pole jumped from the wire, stopping the car and putting it in darkness.

As soon as the lights in the car were out the other man entered the car and attacked the farmer. The conductor and motorman having gotten off the car to fix the trolley pole on the wire again by means of the rope did not notice the man go into the car.

The first man was quickly followed by the second, who attacked the farmer. They tried to tear the bag away from the man, but were unsuccessful. The farmer fled from the car, followed by the two men.

The green-roods men, not wanting to make any trouble for the farmer, followed him with the intention of robbing him. The farmer, who was a Jersey City man, was followed by the two men as they went to the police station.

HELD FOR STEALING ROPE. Justice Ryan Will Examine the Charge Tomorrow Next Week.

Louis O. Ivey, rope manufacturer, at 3 South street, made a complaint against the four orange thieves before Justice Ryan in the Tombs Court this morning. The prisoners were arrested yesterday while removing two coils of rope from the premises.

BOYS STOLE $100. One of Them Was the Son of the Complainer.

PATERSON, N. J., Aug. 29.—Alexander Guin, eleven years old, and Lester Norton, ten years, were each held in $100 bail this morning on the complaint of Mrs. Mary Ann Guin, a widow, who accuses them of stealing $100 from her when she had in the house.

BEATEN BY MASKED BURGLARS. BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Aug. 29.—Masked robbers broke into the home of a farmer at this place, about 2 o'clock this morning, and after beating the farmer and his wife, secured a quantity of money and jewelry, and fled with it.

WIRE NEWS IN BRIEF. Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 29.—A young man, N. Y., a fellow contractor, was arrested here this morning on a charge of stealing a wire from a building.

CAMDEN STABLE TROUBLES. Henry T. Cutter Appointed Receiver for a Racing String.

Empowered to Control Entries and Sell Out Dec. 1. Judge McAdam, of the Superior Court, today appointed Henry T. Cutter receiver of the partnership existing between Philomena Schultz and Millie K. Brien, who own and conduct a racing stable known as the Camden Stable.

The application set forth that the two parties entered into an agreement Sept. 15, 1893, to share alike profits or the losses. The partners own a large number of valuable racehorses, among them being Kentucky, Lady, Countess, Philomona, Marktime, Valkyrie, Derwish, Minister, Cantinier and Siberia.

The horses are now at Sheepshead Bay, and prior to going there raced at Jerome Park. A disagreement arose as to the management of the stable, and the partnership was dissolved. The partners are now so strained that they can no longer conduct their business.

It is alleged that the Camden Stable is indebted to the owners of the track for $50,000, and that it is for the best interests of the partners that the business of the stable should be sold at public auction on Dec. 1.

Among these are the Matron Stakes, worth $20,000; the Dunmore Stakes, worth $20,000; the Fashion Stakes, worth $20,000; the Test Stakes, worth $20,000; and the horses are beside eligible to over 200 purses, selling and overnight.

The receiver is empowered by Judge McAdam to employ a trainer to conduct the business of the Camden Stable. He is also empowered to sell the horses, and to close up the business of the partnership by the sale of the stable at public auction on Dec. 1.

STARTER ROWE NOT HELD. Claimed That He Stole Jockey's "Tad" Stomach Accidentally.

RHEEPHEAD HAY, L. I., Aug. 29.—Starter James Rowe, of the Sheepshead Bay race track, was held in $1,000 bail on a charge of stealing a jockey's "Tad" stomach. Rowe is charged with the theft of a "Tad" stomach, which is a piece of material used by jockeys to hold their stomachs.

Jockey Sloan testified that he had the stomach on the horse "Tad" at the Sheepshead Bay track on Tuesday. He said the horse acted badly, and he took the stomach from Sloan's hand, taking a whip from one of his assistants, and striking Sloan with it.

Rowe, on the stand, explained that it was necessary to use the whip to get the horse to start. He said he did not intend to hit Sloan, but that he was afraid the horse would not start without the whip.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF. The action of the Jockey Club in refusing a license to the Franklin Park, Mass., track was unquestionably proper.

The Jockey Club should discourage all such mushroom meetings as these, which are obviously run for the purpose of making money for the promoters. It is a pity that the Jockey Club should have to deal with such a case as this, which is a disgrace to the turf.

Why Michael F. Dwyer should have been blamed for all the trouble that occurred after the death of the late John A. Alton, and that he should have been beyond comprehension, Mr. Dwyer simply wanted a decision in the matter, as he had no other recourse.

"Have you given up your fight?" asked the writer of Peter L. Grillo. "No," he replied. "I will never give up. Here, I have an excellent chance for Jack's friends to back me. I will stop them from doing so, and I will not let them have their faith in my regeneration. A fight between the two will be a great benefit to the turf."

From recent and more complete accounts of the Abbott-Everhard go, at New Orleans, it appears that a more correct picture of the case is that the decision rendered than even that in the McAuiliff-Grillo fight. The local press has been very unfair in its treatment of the case, and it is a pity that the Jockey Club should have to deal with such a case as this.

There is mystery about Peter Jackson's visit to Chicago, which may be cleared up by the fact that he was treated by Dr. Parson Davies, of Chicago, who has cast the Australian net from his staff.

The flistic fad has struck Cincinnati. A new athletic club has been formed, and it is expected that it will be successful. The club has received a charter and a local license, and it is expected that it will be successful.

Chairman Sullivan received by mail yesterday the entry of John J. Mooney, of the New York Athletic Club, to the Olympic games to be held at the Olympiad of the New York Athletic Club, on Labor Day.

Alix will start against her record at the Galesburg, Ill., meeting next month. Eugene Leigh is very fortunate in having his horse in the race, as he has a good record. The race will be a very interesting one.

Sirathmeath and Blime were extraordinarily surprised yesterday when they could run fast enough to keep warm at Saratoga. Ralph Wilkes, in the Charter Oak Stakes, yesterday trotted a mile in 2:02.4, which is the best time for the stakes.

Coquette will do to watch. She ran a good race yesterday, and seemed a trifle better than she has been for some time. The race was a very interesting one.

THE ERICSSON HERE. Uncle Sam's New Torpedo-Boat Arrives in Port This Morning.

She was named after John Ericsson, the celebrated Swedish naval designer and engineer and the originator of torpedo-boats. The Government requirement is that the Ericsson must make twenty-four knots an hour, but her builders hope to exceed this by at least one knot.

Short stops were made for coal at Cairo, Memphis, Vicksburg and New Orleans. At the latter port the boat was dismasted, a new screw put on, and her compasses adjusted.

The Ericsson has just completed one of the most remarkable voyages ever made by a United States vessel. Other Government boats have traversed portions of the route of her trip, but never has a continuous cruise been made over the same line of travel.

The contractors who built the vessel undertook to bring her to Eastern waters as a demonstration of the practicability of the "inland" route to vessels of her draught—four and one-half feet. The value of the experiment is to be determined by the results of the trip.

The way was in all was about 3,613 miles. The speedy little craft followed the Mississippi to South Pass and thence through Grand Pass and other waters to Mobile and Pensacola. From Tampa Bay to Punta Rosa was an outside passage, mainly such parts as were in protected waters affording a depth of seven feet. From Key West to Mosquito Inlet was a stretch of open water.

At Fernandina the inside passage to Savannah was taken, and the route on the east coast began an inside route, reaching New York by the Chesapeake, Md., and thence by the Delaware and Delaware Bay and the Delaware River. The rest of the trip was by the Delaware Bay and the Delaware River.

Work on the Ericsson was commenced three years ago. She has a displacement of 120 tons. Her horse-power is 1,800, and she is fitted with two engines and double quadruple expansion engines. She also has two sets of vertical engines.

In addition to the regular torpedo tube she carries a flag-mast amidship, on which she carries a blue flag with letters "U. S. W." The Ericsson consumed twenty-two days in the passage from St. Louis, Dubuque, and upon her completion was towed down the river to St. Louis, where she is now being fitted out for her ultimate destination, Aug. 8, at noon.

The Ericsson is 120 feet long, 15 feet, 4 inches beam, with an 11-foot hold. Every inch of space inside the hold is taken up with the engines, dynamo, coal bunkers, quarters for the crew and the wardroom for the officers. Her hull is of steel, which is also the material covering the pilot-house.

Work on the Ericsson was commenced three years ago. She has a displacement of 120 tons. Her horse-power is 1,800, and she is fitted with two engines and double quadruple expansion engines. She also has two sets of vertical engines.

SPORTING MISCELLANY. Jack McAuliffe makes public, in an honest, outspoken way, that the facts printed in this column regarding his actions previous to his fight with Grillo, are absolutely correct.

Jack McAuliffe makes public, in an honest, outspoken way, that the facts printed in this column regarding his actions previous to his fight with Grillo, are absolutely correct. He acknowledges his fault, he says he is penitent, and is willing to atone for the error of his ways. This, backed by an earnest effort on his part to regain public confidence, will do much to place him in a better light before the sporting public.

Chairman Potter, of the Good Roads Association in Brooklyn, wants every citizen to know that the Good Roads Association is not a political party, and is not interested in the election of any man to any office. It is a purely non-political organization, and its only object is to improve the roads of the country.

A movement is on foot to salary some of the officials of the L. A. W. Considering the size of the organization, it is a pity that it should not have a more efficient system of salaries. It is a pity that it should not have a more efficient system of salaries.

A bill for a purse of $200 has been arranged at Colorado Springs, Col., being the prize for the winner of the first round champion of the Pacific coast. The prize is to be given to the winner of the first round champion of the Pacific coast.

The following officials will be in charge of the field during the games of D. A. 19, at the Olympic games to be held at the Olympiad of the New York Athletic Club, on Labor Day. The officials are: Chairman, John J. Mooney; Secretary, John J. Mooney; Treasurer, John J. Mooney.

Constant Reader.—Sporting records, very properly, make no account of the narrow escapes of John L. Sullivan. A. and B.—Jack Dempsey defeated Jack Ross in a boxing match at New York, on August 14, 1883.

They His Companion for a Roof. James Goodkin, thirteen years old, was a prisoner at the Tombs Police Court today charged with throwing eleven-year-old John Cassin from the roof of a tenement house at New York yesterday.

Hubb's Body in the River. The badly decomposed body of a girl baby about four months old was found in the Harlem River at Fourth Avenue, at 11:30 this morning. It was found in the Harlem River and the coroner was notified.

They His Companion for a Roof. James Goodkin, thirteen years old, was a prisoner at the Tombs Police Court today charged with throwing eleven-year-old John Cassin from the roof of a tenement house at New York yesterday.

Hubb's Body in the River. The badly decomposed body of a girl baby about four months old was found in the Harlem River at Fourth Avenue, at 11:30 this morning. It was found in the Harlem River and the coroner was notified.

They His Companion for a Roof. James Goodkin, thirteen years old, was a prisoner at the Tombs Police Court today charged with throwing eleven-year-old John Cassin from the roof of a tenement house at New York yesterday.

LEVI P.'S STATEMENT. Mr. Morton Is Rushing It Through at Rhinecliff.

He Will Probably Gratify Every One's Curiosity to-Morrow. (Special to The Evening World.) RHINECLIFF, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Levi P. Morton spent the greater part of the morning in his study working on the statement in which he will accept or refuse the Republican gubernatorial nomination, and which, without doubt, will be issued from his home at Ellerslie to-morrow.

An "Evening World" reporter found Mr. Morton this morning clad in a check tweed suit of rather loud pattern. The humorist laughed good-naturedly when asked what he had to say. "Nothing yet," he replied. "You know I want to be very careful, so be patient and I will satisfy every one's curiosity very soon."

Mr. Morton said that he had not received any calls during the forenoon, and did not expect any visitors to-day. He begged to be excused from saying what form his statement will take; whether it will be addressed to the Republican party at large or to C. C. Platt, and whether it will be issued from his home at Ellerslie or from New York City.

The Republican Club at Rhinebeck of which George Esselstyn is President, has selected for that purpose on Tuesday night for the purpose of serenading the ex-Vice-President. A walk of two miles through Grand Pass and other waters to Mobile and Pensacola.

In the absence of any definite statement from Levi P. Morton, ex-Senator from New York, it is probable that he will enlighten the public as to whether Mr. Morton would accept the Republican nomination for Governor of New York. Mr. Platt was the last statesman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for New York.

Mr. Platt was the last statesman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for New York. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value.

Mr. Platt was the last statesman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for New York. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value.

Mr. Platt was the last statesman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for New York. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value.

Mr. Platt was the last statesman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for New York. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value.

Mr. Platt was the last statesman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for New York. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value.

Mr. Platt was the last statesman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for New York. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value.

Mr. Platt was the last statesman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for New York. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value.

Mr. Platt was the last statesman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for New York. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value.

Mr. Platt was the last statesman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for New York. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value.

Mr. Platt was the last statesman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for New York. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value.

Mr. Platt was the last statesman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for New York. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value.

Mr. Platt was the last statesman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for New York. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value.

Mr. Platt was the last statesman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for New York. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value.

Mr. Platt was the last statesman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for New York. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value.

Mr. Platt was the last statesman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for New York. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value.

Mr. Platt was the last statesman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for New York. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value.

Mr. Platt was the last statesman who talked to Mr. Morton before his departure for New York. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value. He is a well-known politician, and his opinion is of great value.

STILL THE ASTOR GARDENER. Enterprising Mr. Hammond Has Probably Been Forgiven.

He Converted the Newport Villa Into a Mechanics' Hotel. Following up a report that Mrs. William Astor had discharged her gardener at Newport for violating his trust, an "Evening World" reporter called to-day upon her agent in the offices of the Astor estate at 23 West Twenty-sixth street.

The agent, a gentleman in perfect harmony with his surroundings, stepped forward to the glass-encased counter at the reporter's call, and murmured a polite inquiry for the nature of the business on hand.

He said that he had heard little or nothing of the alleged gardener, Dr. John Hammond, and even if he had, it was a matter so peculiarly of Mrs. Astor's personal concern that he would not discuss it. He had not been required to look up a new gardener.

The family knew that Hammond had a wife, a well-to-do and respectable mechanic, who had been in the Astor family for many years. He had been in the Astor family for many years, and he had been in the Astor family for many years.

It is likely that Mrs. Astor was not officially informed of this. In fact, the agent said that he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport, and he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport.

It is likely that Mrs. Astor was not officially informed of this. In fact, the agent said that he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport, and he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport.

It is likely that Mrs. Astor was not officially informed of this. In fact, the agent said that he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport, and he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport.

It is likely that Mrs. Astor was not officially informed of this. In fact, the agent said that he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport, and he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport.

It is likely that Mrs. Astor was not officially informed of this. In fact, the agent said that he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport, and he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport.

It is likely that Mrs. Astor was not officially informed of this. In fact, the agent said that he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport, and he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport.

It is likely that Mrs. Astor was not officially informed of this. In fact, the agent said that he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport, and he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport.

It is likely that Mrs. Astor was not officially informed of this. In fact, the agent said that he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport, and he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport.

It is likely that Mrs. Astor was not officially informed of this. In fact, the agent said that he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport, and he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport.

It is likely that Mrs. Astor was not officially informed of this. In fact, the agent said that he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport, and he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport.

It is likely that Mrs. Astor was not officially informed of this. In fact, the agent said that he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport, and he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport.

It is likely that Mrs. Astor was not officially informed of this. In fact, the agent said that he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport, and he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport.

It is likely that Mrs. Astor was not officially informed of this. In fact, the agent said that he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport, and he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport.

It is likely that Mrs. Astor was not officially informed of this. In fact, the agent said that he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport, and he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport.

It is likely that Mrs. Astor was not officially informed of this. In fact, the agent said that he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport, and he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport.

It is likely that Mrs. Astor was not officially informed of this. In fact, the agent said that he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport, and he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport.

It is likely that Mrs. Astor was not officially informed of this. In fact, the agent said that he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport, and he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport.

It is likely that Mrs. Astor was not officially informed of this. In fact, the agent said that he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport, and he had not seen Mrs. Astor since she left Newport.

DR. MARTIN, WHO FLED TO EUROPE, RETURNS AND SURRENDERS. Says He Is Here to Show Up the Character of His Wife.

Leaves Torn from Hotel Ledgers Will Tell the Story. A well-dressed young man accompanied by Lawyer John P. Donnelly and several friends, walked into the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, this morning, yawning lastly, and remarked to Clerk Murtha:

"I'm just back from Europe. I want to surrender myself." His arrival created a sensation for nearly everybody in court knew the young man, who was Dr. Frederick H. Martin, of 86 South Fifth street. He is a member of one of the oldest and wealthiest of the Williamsburg families, and has plenty of money in his own right.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

Two months ago there was considerable excitement when it was learned that Dr. Martin had disappeared from his home, and that his wife had secured a warrant for his arrest on a charge of desertion. The doctor had been seen at the residence of a friend, and it was thought he had gone away to Europe.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

Martin was married about a year ago, his wife being an exceedingly handsome blonde. The couple appeared to get along happily together, and all their friends said that Martin had developed into a fine character.

MRS. KIRKBY NOT IN COURT. Unable to Identify Keating as Her Alleged Assailant.

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Andrew Keating, thirty years old, the stableman employed by the Eastchester Ice Company, of this city, who was arrested on suspicion of enticing Mrs. M. R. Kirby into the stable, and there detaining her, was not in court this morning.

Mrs. Kirby is a very handsome woman, about thirty-five years old. Her husband is a well-known business man of Mount Vernon, and she is a well-known society woman. She is a well-known society woman, and she is a well-known society woman.

Mrs. Kirby is a very handsome woman, about thirty-five years old. Her husband is a well-known business man of Mount Vernon, and she is a well-known society woman. She is a well-known society woman, and she is a well-known society woman.

Mrs. Kirby is a very handsome woman, about thirty-five years old. Her husband is a well-known business man of Mount Vernon, and she is a well-known society woman. She is a well-known society woman, and she is a well-known society woman.

Mrs. Kirby is a very handsome woman, about thirty-five years old. Her husband is a well-known business man of Mount Vernon, and she is a well-known society woman. She is a well-known society woman, and she is a well-known society woman.

Mrs. Kirby is a very handsome woman, about thirty-five years old. Her husband is a well-known business man of Mount Vernon, and she is a well-known society woman. She is a well-known society woman, and she is a well-known society woman.

Mrs. Kirby is a very handsome woman, about thirty-five years old. Her husband is a well-known business man of Mount Vernon, and she is a well-known society woman. She is a well-known society woman, and she is a well-known society woman.

Mrs. Kirby is a very handsome woman, about thirty-five years old. Her husband is a well-known business man of Mount Vernon, and she is a well-known society woman. She is a well-known society woman, and she is a well-known society woman.

Mrs. Kirby is a very handsome woman, about thirty-five years old. Her husband is a well-known business man of Mount Vernon, and she is a well-known society woman. She is a well-known society woman, and she is a well-known society woman.

Mrs. Kirby is a very handsome woman, about thirty-five years old. Her husband is a well-known business man of Mount Vernon, and she is a well-known society woman. She is a well-known society woman, and she is a well-known society woman.

Mrs. Kirby is a very handsome woman, about thirty-five years old. Her husband is a well-known business man of Mount Vernon, and she is a well-known society woman. She is a well-known society woman, and she is a well-known society woman.

Mrs. Kirby is a very handsome woman, about thirty-five years old. Her husband is a well-known business man of Mount Vernon, and she is a well-known society woman. She is a well-known society woman, and she is a well-known society woman.

Mrs. Kirby is a very handsome woman, about thirty-five years old. Her husband is a well-known business man of Mount Vernon, and she is a well-known society woman. She is a well-known society woman, and she is a well-known society woman.

Mrs. Kirby is a very handsome woman, about thirty-five years old. Her husband is a well-known business man of Mount Vernon, and she is a well-known society woman. She is a well-known society woman, and she is a well-known society woman.

Mrs. Kirby is a very handsome woman, about thirty-five years old. Her husband is a well-known business man of Mount Vernon, and she is a well-known society woman. She is a well-known society woman, and she is a well-known society woman.

Mrs. Kirby is a very handsome woman, about thirty-five years old. Her husband is a well-known business man of Mount Vernon, and she is a well-known society woman. She is a well-known society woman, and she is a well-known society woman.

Mrs. Kirby is a very handsome woman, about thirty-five years old. Her husband is a well-known business man of Mount Vernon, and she is a well-known society woman. She is a well-known society woman, and she is a well-known society woman.