

EXTRA. LIVE OAK, 8 TO 11.

Upsets Calculations by Beating Bickrene in the Second Event.

LOUISE FLY GETS BRACKETS.

Peculiar Formation of Clouds Before the Races at Gravesend.

(Special to The Evening World.) RACE TRACK GRAVESSEND, Sept. 8.—While the horses were at the post in the first race here to-day, a queer state of things was presented to the racers.

The rain put the telegraph wires in difficulty. Before they got straightened out, the operators had heaps of messages before them.

The plungers landed with a cold, hard thump in the second race. Buckrene, with his front end, looked a mite better, but dying fast, only a head in front of Phoebeus.

The race was run just after a pouring rain and it was dark till only the above-named horses could be made out. The three places were away in front and retained their positions throughout.

Second Race. Buckrene and Live Oak raced head and head to the stretch lengths in front of Phoebeus. In the canter, Live Oak was lengthened out, and in the stretch, he was lengthened in front of Phoebeus.

Third Race. Buckrene and Live Oak were again in front, but this time Phoebeus was in front of Buckrene.

Fourth Race. Original Handicap: mile and a quarter. Won by Hampan by a head; Hawsiegan was second, twelve lengths before Horripop.

Pleasant Races Postponed. (Special to The Evening World.) FLEETWOOD DRIVING PARK, Sept. 8.—The races today were postponed until Monday because of the poor condition of the track.

RESULTS AT LATONIA. RACE TRACK, LATONIA, Sept. 8.—The card offered by the secretary to be decided to-day consisted of seven eight-furlong races.

GIANTS IN CLEVELAND.

Arrived at Noon and Took the Field Two Hours Later.

Russie Selected to Fool Tebeau's Bushwhackers.

Ward May Not Captain the Team Next Year.

(Special to The Evening World.) CLEVELAND, Sept. 8.—Promptly at noon Johnny Ward and his aggregation of pennant winners arrived in town and two hours later were hustling around here limbering up for the first game with Paddy Tebeau's bushwhackers.

WESTERN CRICKETERS, TOO.

California Wants to Be Represented in the American Team.

(By Associated Press.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—With a view of representing the American cricket team, the Californians are arranging to send an eleven East to meet the principal clubs and show that the game is not being neglected on the Pacific coast.

POLO GROUNDS FLOODED.

Too Much Water for the Buffalo-Yonkers Fall Game.

(Special to The Evening World.) POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Owing to the tremendous rainfall which set in previous to the time designated for the Buffalo-Yonkers game, baseball is out of a possibility on these grounds than would be canoeing or even yachting.

MASPETH RACES POSTPONED.

Bad Weather Will Put Off the Opening Until Tuesday.

(Special to The Evening World.) RACE TRACK, MASPETH, Sept. 8.—Secretary Stillwell, of the Newtown Jockey Club, announces that the races which were to be held here to-day, Tuesday, Sept. 11, on account of the bad weather.

REAR-END COLLISION.

A Freight Train Dashes Into a Coal Train.

Early this morning during the dense fog a west-bound freight train ran into the rear end of a coal train on the Jersey Central Railroad, which had stopped in East Rutherford to take water.

Coming Events. Opening Hall of the Dairy Mats, this evening at 8 o'clock.

Easy to Avoid. (From the Plungee Blastier.) "What, going to make a tour of Africa? Why, man, it's 100 degrees in the shade there."

How to Please All. (From the New York Weekly.) Agitator—What this country needs is compulsory arbitration.

RESULTS AT LATONIA. RACE TRACK, LATONIA, Sept. 8.—The card offered by the secretary to be decided to-day consisted of seven eight-furlong races.

SUICIDE AT THE ASTOR.

William T. Winsor, of Brooklyn, Shoots Himself in the Head.

A Gentleman of Leisure, Wealth, and His Family Relations Most Harmonious.

THE MOTIVE IS A MYSTERY.

The Jockey Club Procured the Evidence Upon Which the Charges Are Based.

THREE OTHERS ARRAIGNED.

The Police Officials' Whitewashing Reports Not Sufficient to Stifle Investigation.

(Continued on Sixth Page.) With a new revolver and in a room that had been engaged three days in advance as the scene of his suicide, William T. Winsor, a wealthy man of leisure, ended his existence in the Astor Hotel.

Another was his wife, Margaret, and his country residence at Brookville, Delaware County, N. Y.

When found, the revolver was still clutched in his hand, and his head was lying on the floor.

Two of the letters were addressed to R. E. Weisner, a tailor at 1 Barclay street, and the fourth to R. T. Edomes, a photographer at Sixth avenue.

When found, the revolver was still clutched in his hand, and his head was lying on the floor.

He was a man of leisure, wealth, and his family relations most harmonious.

He was a man of leisure, wealth, and his family relations most harmonious.

He was a man of leisure, wealth, and his family relations most harmonious.

He was a man of leisure, wealth, and his family relations most harmonious.

He was a man of leisure, wealth, and his family relations most harmonious.

He was a man of leisure, wealth, and his family relations most harmonious.

He was a man of leisure, wealth, and his family relations most harmonious.

He was a man of leisure, wealth, and his family relations most harmonious.

"THE" ALLEN IN COURT.

The Evening World's Exposures of His Gambling Den Bear Fruit.

The Jockey Club, Acting on Information Printed in "The Evening World," has taken on the fight against the pool-rooms of New York, of which "The Allen" is, perhaps, the most notorious.

BEFORE THE KINETOSCOPE.

The Long Drought Broken with a Vengeance.

Grand Electrical Display in Honor of the Occasion.

Parched Crops and Dried Springs Get a New Lease of Life.

The drought was universally broken to-day, and broken at this point with a vengeance.

It rained all over the country between the Rockies and the Eastern seaboard, and at this point the rainfall, which was almost continuous from the time it began, at 5 o'clock this morning, was varied with two short heavy down-pours and a grand electrical storm at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Upon the last occasion the water came so hard and fast that it was fair to conclude that if the windows of heaven were open for Noah's deluge the whole side of the house had fallen out this afternoon.

There had been intermittent showers, interrupted by periods of drizzling rain with such a heavy percentage of humidity brooding over all that there was little relief offered at any moment from exposure to the availing moisture.

Just about 3 o'clock, however, the gray blanket that had overhung the city all day, thickened and darkened, and the sun disappeared.

At almost exactly 2 o'clock the storm, which had been gathering in the clouds, burst forth with great fury.

The streets were converted into wide gutters that ran with foamy, black water, like mill-races, and in many places sewers were overflowed and the highway of the boulevard covered like a lake.

The total rainfall at this point up to 3 o'clock this afternoon was one and one-half inches, and the amount of rain that fell during the thunder storm was about three-quarters of an inch.

At 2 o'clock the Weather Bureau announced that repeated showers might occur during the rest of the day and night.

Forecast for Tomorrow. The rain which has been a very serious one this year, he continued, will be a very heavy one.

Forecast for Tomorrow. The rain which has been a very serious one this year, he continued, will be a very heavy one.

Forecast for Tomorrow. The rain which has been a very serious one this year, he continued, will be a very heavy one.

RAIN IN TORRENTS. PLATT IS WORRIED.

A BRIDGE BLOCKADE.

Broken Frog Delayed Traffic for Two Hours.

AGAIN THE ANTI-MORTONITES.

Republish Candidates and Others Held Up an Editor.

Corliss L. Parker Waylaid and Bitten in Rutherford.

Rutherford, N. J., Sept. 8.—Corliss L. Parker, editor of the Bergen County Herald, was waylaid and bitten while on his way home at 1 o'clock this morning.

His paper had gone to press, and he started up Park avenue. At Iverson Hall, where three streets come together, a central location, five men stopped him with pointed revolvers.

After daylight papers and checks taken on the street were found near Iverson Hall and close to the robbers other than that in two empty boxes in Newell avenue, which have been housed for several days, and apparently no effort has been made to rid the neighborhood of them.

How to Earn $100. A Reward for Information Against Fog Hule Violators.

Any one can make an easy $100 by reporting any sailing or steam vessel anchored in the river or harbor during foggy weather and only signaling her location by horns from a fish or fog horn, instead of ringing a bell at frequent intervals.

It is believed that these gentlemen in the day will hold a conference to settle upon a definite campaign, although all of them deny it.

How to Earn $100. A Reward for Information Against Fog Hule Violators.

Any one can make an easy $100 by reporting any sailing or steam vessel anchored in the river or harbor during foggy weather and only signaling her location by horns from a fish or fog horn, instead of ringing a bell at frequent intervals.

It is believed that these gentlemen in the day will hold a conference to settle upon a definite campaign, although all of them deny it.

How to Earn $100. A Reward for Information Against Fog Hule Violators.

Any one can make an easy $100 by reporting any sailing or steam vessel anchored in the river or harbor during foggy weather and only signaling her location by horns from a fish or fog horn, instead of ringing a bell at frequent intervals.

It is believed that these gentlemen in the day will hold a conference to settle upon a definite campaign, although all of them deny it.

How to Earn $100. A Reward for Information Against Fog Hule Violators.

RAIN IN TORRENTS. PLATT IS WORRIED.

A BRIDGE BLOCKADE.

Broken Frog Delayed Traffic for Two Hours.

AGAIN THE ANTI-MORTONITES.

Republish Candidates and Others Held Up an Editor.

Corliss L. Parker Waylaid and Bitten in Rutherford.

Rutherford, N. J., Sept. 8.—Corliss L. Parker, editor of the Bergen County Herald, was waylaid and bitten while on his way home at 1 o'clock this morning.

His paper had gone to press, and he started up Park avenue. At Iverson Hall, where three streets come together, a central location, five men stopped him with pointed revolvers.

After daylight papers and checks taken on the street were found near Iverson Hall and close to the robbers other than that in two empty boxes in Newell avenue, which have been housed for several days, and apparently no effort has been made to rid the neighborhood of them.

How to Earn $100. A Reward for Information Against Fog Hule Violators.

Any one can make an easy $100 by reporting any sailing or steam vessel anchored in the river or harbor during foggy weather and only signaling her location by horns from a fish or fog horn, instead of ringing a bell at frequent intervals.

It is believed that these gentlemen in the day will hold a conference to settle upon a definite campaign, although all of them deny it.

How to Earn $100. A Reward for Information Against Fog Hule Violators.

Any one can make an easy $100 by reporting any sailing or steam vessel anchored in the river or harbor during foggy weather and only signaling her location by horns from a fish or fog horn, instead of ringing a bell at frequent intervals.

It is believed that these gentlemen in the day will hold a conference to settle upon a definite campaign, although all of them deny it.

How to Earn $100. A Reward for Information Against Fog Hule Violators.

Any one can make an easy $100 by reporting any sailing or steam vessel anchored in the river or harbor during foggy weather and only signaling her location by horns from a fish or fog horn, instead of ringing a bell at frequent intervals.

It is believed that these gentlemen in the day will hold a conference to settle upon a definite campaign, although all of them deny it.

How to Earn $100. A Reward for Information Against Fog Hule Violators.

RAIN IN TORRENTS. PLATT IS WORRIED.

A BRIDGE BLOCKADE.

Broken Frog Delayed Traffic for Two Hours.

AGAIN THE ANTI-MORTONITES.

Republish Candidates and Others Held Up an Editor.

Corliss L. Parker Waylaid and Bitten in Rutherford.

Rutherford, N. J., Sept. 8.—Corliss L. Parker, editor of the Bergen County Herald, was waylaid and bitten while on his way home at 1 o'clock this morning.

His paper had gone to press, and he started up Park avenue. At Iverson Hall, where three streets come together, a central location, five men stopped him with pointed revolvers.

After daylight papers and checks taken on the street were found near Iverson Hall and close to the robbers other than that in two empty boxes in Newell avenue, which have been housed for several days, and apparently no effort has been made to rid the neighborhood of them.

How to Earn $100. A Reward for Information Against Fog Hule Violators.

Any one can make an easy $100 by reporting any sailing or steam vessel anchored in the river or harbor during foggy weather and only signaling her location by horns from a fish or fog horn, instead of ringing a bell at frequent intervals.

It is believed that these gentlemen in the day will hold a conference to settle upon a definite campaign, although all of them deny it.

How to Earn $100. A Reward for Information Against Fog Hule Violators.

Any one can make an easy $100 by reporting any sailing or steam vessel anchored in the river or harbor during foggy weather and only signaling her location by horns from a fish or fog horn, instead of ringing a bell at frequent intervals.

It is believed that these gentlemen in the day will hold a conference to settle upon a definite campaign, although all of them deny it.

How to Earn $100. A Reward for Information Against Fog Hule Violators.

Any one can make an easy $100 by reporting any sailing or steam vessel anchored in the river or harbor during foggy weather and only signaling her location by horns from a fish or fog horn, instead of ringing a bell at frequent intervals.

It is believed that these gentlemen in the day will hold a conference to settle upon a definite campaign, although all of them deny it.

How to Earn $100. A Reward for Information Against Fog Hule Violators.

6 O'CLOCK EXTRA.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA. SIGNED FOR CORBETT.

Brady Affixes the Champion's Name to the Sioux City Articles.

BUT O'ROURKE HESITATES. He Wants Jackson to See the Terms of the Agreement First, He Says.

$25,000 TO GO TO THE WINNER. The Fight to Be Held Between May 15 and June 15, 1895, Each Man to Post $5,000.

The arrangements for the Jackson-Corbett fight for the championship of the world were one-half concluded this morning. Billy Brady, manager of the champion's affairs, signed in behalf of Corbett, but the signature of Jackson or his manager is still lacking.

Tom O'Rourke appeared in behalf of an Australian, but, after the terms had been thoroughly discussed, refused to affix his signature at the time, on the plea that Jackson's consent would have to be secured before that formality could be accomplished.

The meeting took place, as arranged, in room 11 of the St. Denis Hotel, where "Eli" Lloyd, the representative of the Sioux City Athletic Club, took up his quarters on his arrival last night.

Tom O'Rourke appeared at 11:45, and was followed closely by Brady. No time was wasted, and Mr. Lloyd produced a somewhat roughly drawn document, regarding the fight, the terms of which were read by the referee.

These articles of agreement are to govern a globe striking fight for the championship of the world between James J. Corbett, of America, and Peter Jackson, of Australia.

The contest shall take place under the auspices of the Sioux City Athletic Club, on the date of May 15, 1895, at the residence of the club, on the corner of Broadway and Broadway.

Second.—The contest shall be governed by Marquis of Tioga's rules, and the gloves used shall weigh 16 ounces, and the gloves used shall weigh 16 ounces.

Third.—The contest shall be governed by Marquis of Tioga's rules, and the gloves used shall weigh 16 ounces, and the gloves used shall weigh 16 ounces.

Fourth.—The contest shall be governed by Marquis of Tioga's rules, and the gloves used shall weigh 16 ounces, and the gloves used shall weigh 16 ounces.

Fifth.—The contest shall be governed by Marquis of Tioga's rules, and the gloves used shall weigh 16 ounces, and the gloves used shall weigh 16 ounces.

Sixth.—The contest shall be governed by Marquis of Tioga's rules, and the gloves used shall weigh 16 ounces, and the gloves used shall weigh 16 ounces.

Seventh.—The contest shall be governed by Marquis of Tioga's rules, and the gloves used shall weigh 16 ounces, and the gloves used shall weigh 16 ounces.

Eighth.—The contest shall be governed by Marquis of Tioga's rules, and the gloves used shall weigh 16 ounces, and the gloves used shall weigh 16 ounces.