Nothing can now stem the tide of revelation and disgrace that is overtaking the city and the State. The Police Department. Good citizens of New York, while deploring the existence of such a condition as that of the Bowery, must realize that the exposure has come. And to those earnest men who are working for a better New York, not a point should be lost in all the proceedings that can be utilized to bring about the cleansing and purging of the municipal government.

HOW THE CITIES ARE TREATED. Country legislators are never unwilling to recall New York as a corrupt and wicked city and never hesitate to regard themselves as better qualified than the citizens themselves to judge what legislation is best for the metropolis.

THE SCHOOL TAX FOR THE WHOLE STATE is $3,000,000, of which New York and Brooklyn pay $2,000,000, or 66 per cent. of the whole amount. For the State care of the insane the entire State is taxed $1,300,000. Of this New York alone is called upon to pay $300,000, or within a fraction of one-half the entire tax.

"ON THE BOWERY." Hand me the collection of "Hully Grogg" and the choice lot of tobacco which I gathered at the Fourteenth Street Theatre last night, for I would be king of the toughs, mother, I would be king of the toughs, Steve Brodie was the more or less play, and the atmosphere of both star and play was deliciously, rapturously tough. Oh! that I had led my coat at home and sat there in my pure white shirt-sleeves, chewing my pipe, and I had had a feeling at first of being out of it, though before the evening was over I had mastered the art of crying "Hully Grogg" with the rapturous vehemence of sincerity.

THE FREE DOCTORS MAINTAINED BY THE SICK BABIES' FUND, who visit from tenement to tenement daily and inquire at every door for ailing children, have done splendid work this Summer. In the Bowery a few weeks ago, five cents, besides admitting one to a glance at Mr. Brodie, included a glass of froth, yeast beer, and a free lunch.

THE ENTERTAINMENT AND RECEPTION HELD AT EVERETT HALL on Sunday evening was a grand success. The net receipts were $11,000. The entertainment was given by the Bowery Club, composed of young ladies and young men, ranging in ages between seventeen and twenty-one.

17,484 SICK BABIES. The Number Treated This Summer by the Free Doctors. It Took 206,514 Visits to Find All These Ailing Tots. Yesterday's Contributions Increase the Fund to $23,984.43.

LETTERS. To the Editor: I have a great deal of business to do, and I am sorry to hear that you are not doing so well. I hope you will get better soon. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. J. Leary.

THE BIBLE AND ASTRONOMY. Among the writers in your letter column I notice there are several among them who are puzzled about who was Cain's wife. To set them right and others on different questions relative to the Bible, I will explain the most puzzling of the Cain and Abel story, and it will serve as a key for the rest of the book.

TO CLEAN VARIOUS ARTICLES. Lace-voiled stockings in white and delicate tints may be cleaned with benzene or naphtha instead of the ordinary process of washing. They should be turned inside out, shaken free from dust, laid flat in a dish and covered with the fluid. After a violent straining, they should be laid, the other side down, in clean naphtha. Then they should be hung in the air until all odor disappears.

TO REDUCE THE WAIST LINE. A man can be forgiven for losing his waist line, but one hates to see the female form divine muffled up in fat. An authority on superfluous flesh says that the lazy matter can be gotten rid of by giving twenty minutes a day to the simplest calisthenic exercise. Hold the legs and upper part of the body as rigid as possible, place the hands on the hips and bend forward until the trunk and legs are at right angles. Do this five or six times a day, then ten, then twenty, and so on.

HOUSE AND HOME. Gouge-like materials in silk, wool and linen will be worn all year, indoors, of course. Chiffon is first choice. It is accordion plaited for the entire waist, and draped over a contrasting or the self-same color foundation. The Paris dressers most admired have the body one color.

Little French Lesson. Complétez—Fruits French raised cake with fruit. Compote—Fruits stewed in syrup. Confitures—Sweetmeats of sugar. Consommé—A strong, clear liquid obtained from mutton.

Croutades—Forms of fried bread on which to serve meats. Croustons—A sipper of bread fried and used for soups, garnish, &c. Couronne en—A dish served in crown shape.

Cuisine maigre—Highly seasoned or mixed dishes. Dariole—A sweet paste baked in a mould. Danilère—An oval steppan. Deosser—To bone. Triandise—A dainty bit.

Lunch for Brain-Workers. Grapes. Oatmeal with Apple Sauce. Brown Bread and Butter. Hot Lemonade.

COREAN BOYS AND GIRLS. In Corea a boy goes bareheaded and kept in the school years of age, and even until he is fourteen. Once he puts on a hat he never appears without it. At church he takes off his shoes at the door and enters with his hat on. He washes his face, eats his bread, visits with his mother and almost always wears a hat, even when he is to bed in a skull cap. When a man or young dresses in mourning he puts on his head an enormous straw hat, shaped like a wooden bread bowl, which completely hides his face from view, and he wears this for three years. A Korean girl is never seen in public after her seventh birthday, when, like her mother, she becomes a prisoner for the rest of her natural life.

Salad, Cheese and Fruit. Salad is laxative, hence its value after heavy dinner courses. Cheese is stimulating. People who live well and eat little consider a dinner without a cube of cheese imperfect. Fruit is aperient in its action. It disagrees only with a diseased or overloaded stomach. Half a pound of grapes or any juicy fruit of the glutton must bear the consequences. Feeding is a good deal like fire making. The engineer learns to keep a good fire without wasting coal by filling the grate or fuel-holder. There must be room for the circulation of the element of combustion.

Fine Art of Growing Old. To resist with success the frigidities of old age one must combine the body, the mind and the heart. To keep these in parallel vigor one must exercise, study, love. That's what I've often written. If a woman sits down and grieves over the first wrinkle or the first gray hair, two will gather to keep it company. If she borrows the "something sweet that follows" to a hair, she will not only be old in a hurry, but ugly as well.

Plain Soup Steak. To add one and one-half quarts of water to two ounces of beef extract, one medium-sized onion, four cloves stuck in the same, one carrot, one turnip, and one root stalk of celery, eight pepper corns, one bay-leaf, and one even tablespoonful of salt. Boil from twenty to twenty-five minutes on a slow fire. Strain out the vegetables and use the stock as a foundation for all soups and sauces. Two quarts will be the result of this preparation, as the one pint of water will evaporate during the process of cooking.

Flowers on Men's Lips. There are three of us girls and every young man who calls upon us requests us to kiss him at parting. They tell us to possess such sweet mouths they cannot resist the temptation. How big each is to be a man of his word, and we are not being accountable for our mouths, what would you advise us to do? Also, it is proper for them to kiss after 11:30.

Provost Pickle. Peel twelve large ripe tomatoes. Chop two large onions and one green pepper fine. Add to the tomatoes with two tablespoonfuls of salt, four tablespoonfuls of sugar, one tablespoonful of cinnamon, one tablespoonful of ground mustard, one tablespoonful of ground ginger, one tablespoonful of grated nutmeg and four cups of vinegar. Put over the fire and cook until quite thick. Bottle while hot.

Care of Patent Leather. Patent leather boots and shoes should be kept on a tree or shaped with paper to prevent the stock from cracking. A few drops of petroleum applied with a brush, once a week, will keep the leather soft and pliable.

Municipal Refuge of Paris. There is nothing in New York to compare with the Refuge Ouvrier Municipal in Paris. It is a regular harbor for women in distress. There are three departments: One for night lodgers, one for the required amount before using. Mix the cocktail fully half an hour before serving and thoroughly chill.

Desperate. Kindly send name and address to City Editor, "The World," 100 Nassau St., New York.

Senator Murphy follows Croker. While the Republican party is confirming Platt's leadership by electing delegates to the State Convention to carry out that boss's orders as to the State nominations, the Democracy is preparing to work for a marked change in the State machine.

What if Diver's memory should turn as yellow as the October leaves, Mr. Goff? Go up higher when you begin again.

It is feared that Mr. Goff will prove too hard a pacemaker for the Police Board.

A Lexow subpoena should catch Mr. Croker before malaria gets a chance, in October.

"Tammany making ready." For the inevitable? Advocates of a better New York trust so.

Has Mr. Fassett remained first in the heart of Chemung county, only to be second on the State ticket?

Gradually the anti-Platt hope that it might be "Chauncey Dewey and Fassett, too," is fading away.

If Gov. Flower's veto had prevailed, the things revealed in the Lexow inquiry would not be hidden.

Spare no rotten tree, Woodman Goff, in all the police force. New York wants only sturdy oaks there.

Is it merely a coincidence that six witnesses before the Lexow Committee have been arrested since they gave their testimony?

There is a new ocean queen, Hurrah for the Lucania! And shall we make ready to greet the five-day boat to Queenstown?

ALAN DALE. I have rarely felt so keenly joyous. Nothing shall induce me to repine at the Fourth St. Street. Theatricals are my fires my ambition. It makes another man of me, for I would be king of the toughs, mother, I would be king of the toughs, Steve Brodie was the more or less play, and the atmosphere of both star and play was deliciously, rapturously tough.
